

USC • The University

The University of Southern California is a research institution of international distinction. Founded in 1880, it is the oldest and largest private research university in the western half of the United States.

The university enrolls about 29,000 students annually on two campuses, the 155-acre University Park Campus in Exposition Park and the 31-acre Health Sciences Campus, three miles to the north-east of downtown Los Angeles.

Some facts of significance about the university include the following:

- USC is a member of the Association of American Universities, a select group of 63 public and private universities in the U.S. and Canada that, together, perform about two-thirds of all federally funded academic research and development.

- Enrollment stands at 28,600, including 15,500 undergraduates and 13,100 graduate and professional students.

- In basic research, USC is nationally and internationally prominent. Currently, USC ranks among the top 10 private universities receiving federal funds for research and development support and in the top 20 among all universities.

- USC professor George A. Olah was the sole recipient of the 1994 Nobel Prize in chemistry.

- USC was TIME/Princeton Review College Guide's "College of the Year 2000," one of Newsweek/Kaplan College Guide's "Hot Schools of 2001" and an Association of American Colleges and Universities "Leadership Institution of 2001."

- Many of USC's academic programs rank in the top 10 nationally.

- USC has 53 faculty members who are members of prestigious national academies, including seven in the National Academy of Sciences, 22 in the National Academy of Engineering, and nine in the Institute of Medicine. Membership in these academies, created by Congress, is by election only and is based on distinguished and continuing achievements.

- The University is the home of 16 professional schools, in addition to the College of Letters, Arts and Sciences and the Graduate School. These schools train specialists in fields ranging from medicine and law to architecture, theatre, education and business.

- USC's schools of Cinema-Television, Social Work and International Relations are among the oldest such schools in the country.

- USC is home to the USC/Norris Comprehensive Cancer Center, one of only 35 designated by the National Cancer Institute to lead the nation in cancer research, prevention and care.

- Among USC's distinguished alumni are musicians Herb Alpert, Lionel Hampton and Patrice Rushen; astronauts Neil Armstrong and Charles Bolden; columnist Art Buchwald; sportscaster Frank Gifford; architects Frank Gehry, Jon Jerde and Carey K. Jenkins; opera star Marilyn Horne; directors George Lucas, John Singleton, Ron Howard and Paul Mazursky; Gen. Norman Schwarzkopf; former U.S. Secretary of State Warren Christopher; retired California Supreme Court Chief Justice Malcolm Lucas and Associate Justice Joyce L. Kennard; former U.S. Ambassador to Australia, South Africa and the United Nations Edward Perkins; actors John Ritter, Tom Selleck, and the late John Wayne and Michael Landon; actresses Marlo Thomas and Ally Sheedy; symphony conductor Michael Tilson Thomas; and producers David L. Wolper and Barney Rosenzweig.

USC • Trojan Pride

DID YOU KNOW... that USC is one of the top 4 private universities in the western half of the United States?

- USC, Caltech, Stanford and Rice are the only private universities west of Missouri boasting membership in the Association of American Universities, the premier teaching and research institutions of North America?
- USC is the oldest and largest private research university in the western half of the United States. The university was founded in 1880 with 53 students; today, USC enrolls about 29,000 students in its College of Letters, Arts and Sciences and 18 top-ranked professional schools.

DID YOU KNOW... that USC is among the nation's most highly-selective universities?

- USC's entering freshman class is among the strongest in the country, boasting an average GPA of over 3.9 and an average SAT score of 1308. The majority of entering freshmen come to USC from the top 10% of their high school graduating class.
- Also, USC is among the top 10 schools in the nation in the enrollment of National Merit Scholars.
- USC was named 1 of 9 "hot schools" in the country by the 2001 Newsweek/Kaplan How to Get into College Guide, signifying USC's popularity among the nation's best high school students.

DID YOU KNOW... the 235 students entering USC's Thematic Option Honors Program boasted an average SAT score of 1431 and an average GPA of 4.14?

DID YOU KNOW... that USC is among the top 1% of all colleges and universities in the western half of the nation in the number of Rhodes Scholars produced?

- USC has had 8 Rhodes Scholars, including 2 in the last decade.

DID YOU KNOW... that USC offers more than 100 minors, the broadest array of any university in the country?

DID YOU KNOW... that more than 10,000 USC undergraduates participate in community service each year?

DID YOU KNOW... that Nobel laureate George Olah helped pave the way for high-octane gasoline and a number of advances in our daily life?

- Professor Olah, who has been at USC for 2 decades, has transformed the field of chemistry through his pioneering work with hydrocarbons, work which has led to less polluting gasoline, more effective oil refining and many modern drugs. For his research, Professor Olah received the 1994 Nobel Prize in chemistry.

DID YOU KNOW... that USC's crime rate is comparable to or lower than that of most other large research universities located in or near major cities?

- Statistics show USC's crime rate based on the federally-mandated reporting standards is comparable to that of Stanford and lower (one-third less) than that of UCLA. USC's overall crime rate is one-eighth that of the nation as a whole.

DID YOU KNOW... that USC is the largest private employer in the city of Los Angeles, and one of the largest in Southern California?

- USC's employee base of 18,717 and operating budget of roughly $1.4 billion per year contributes some $3 billion each year in total impact on the Southern California economy, which in turn generates some 40,000 jobs outside the university.

DID YOU KNOW... that USC has the largest number of international alumni of any university in the United States?

DID YOU KNOW... that USC's current fundraising campaign, "Building on Excellence," with a goal of $2 billion, is the third largest of any university in history?

- During its fundraising campaign, USC received 5 naming gifts—for the Leventhal School of Accounting, the Marshall School of Business, the Rossier School of Education, the Thornton School of Music, and the Keck School of Medicine. At the time they were pledged, they were the largest gifts to schools of their kind in the history of American higher education.

DID YOU KNOW... that USC is the only university in the nation to have received 3 nine-figure gifts?

- Those gifts: $120 million from Walter Annenberg (1993) to establish the USC Annenberg School for Communication; $112.5 million from biomedical industry entrepreneur Alfred Mann (1998) to establish the Alfred E. Mann Institute for Biomedical Engineering; and $110 million from the W.M. Keck Foundation (1999) to USC's medical school, the largest gift to a medical school in history.

DID YOU KNOW... that USC's Ethel Percy Andrus Gerontology Center is considered to be the nation's premier program for studies of aging?

- The Leonard Davis School of Gerontology, founded in 1975, was the nation's first school in this critical, emerging field.

DID YOU KNOW... that USC physicians serve more than 1 million patients each year through the Health Sciences Campus and 14 affiliated hospitals?

- Three USC-affiliated hospitals are ranked by U.S. News & World Report as among the Top 10 in the nation in their specialty: Childrens Hospital Los Angeles, Doheny Eye Institute, and Rancho Los Amigos National Rehabilitation Center. More than 130 doctors of USC are listed in the book, "The Best Doctors in America," published by Naifeh and Smith.

DID YOU KNOW... that the Southern California Earthquake Center is based at USC?

- The SCEC was established by the federal government in 1991 to coordinate geological research relating to earthquakes.

DID YOU KNOW... that USC is home to the world's largest university-based research effort in photonics technology?

- This light-based technology is believed by many people to hold the key to the next major advance in information processing and control.

DID YOU KNOW... that USC's Integrated Media Systems Center, which does research in multimedia, is the only one of its kind to be funded by the National Science Foundation?

DID YOU KNOW... that USC's Museum Studies Program is the only master's degree program of its kind in the western United States?

- 98% of the graduates from this program have been placed in professional museum careers.
- A three-year course of study leading to the Master of Arts in art history, the program is designed to meet the special training needs of students whose career goals are oriented toward professional work in art museums. A unique aspect of the program is that all students intern in a museum during their third year.

DID YOU KNOW...that the USC School of Architecture was the first architecture school in Southern California, and, until 1963, offered the only fully accredited degree program in the region?

- The USC School of Architecture has more regular faculty members who have been elected to the College of Fellows of the American Institute of Architects than any other school of architecture in the country.
- Three faculty members have been named Distinguished Professors of the Association of College Schools of Architecture.
- More than half of the top 100 architects to exhibit work at a recent national American Institute of Architects convention were alumni and/or faculty at the school. Chester Widom and Ron Altoon, past presidents of the AIA, are both USC School of Architecture graduates.
- The only architect to be named as one of the 25 most influential Americans by Time magazine is USC alum Frank O. Gehry, architect for the Guggenheim Museum in Bilbao, Spain, and Disney Hall in Los Angeles.

DID YOU KNOW...that the USC School of Cinema-Television is the top-ranked film and television program in the nation?

- The USC School of Cinema-Television is the oldest film school in the nation.
- The Filmic Writing Program is the only B.F.A. program in screenwriting in the United States.
- Films made by USC students receive approximately 150 awards annually from festivals around the world.
- Cinema-Television alumni are on the faculties of more than half the film and television departments in colleges and universities throughout the nation.
- Since 1965, alumni have been nominated for Academy Awards in every year but two.
- Nine of the 12 all-time highest grossing films had alumni in key creative and/or production positions.
- Distinguished alumni include Ron Howard, George Lucas, John Singleton and Robert Zemeckis.
- Nine of the 12 all-time highest grossing films had alumni in key creative and/or production positions.

DID YOU KNOW...that USC's School of Fine Arts has become the first fine arts school in the nation to offer a Master of Public Art Studies degree?

- Located in a major center for practicing contemporary artists, commercial galleries and outstanding permanent collections, USC's School of Fine Arts is strategically positioned to provide unparalleled training to individuals whose career goals are oriented toward professional administrative work in public art.
- Graduates of USC's School of Fine Arts go on to university teaching jobs at twice the national average.

- The school's acclaimed faculty artists are represented at the Metropolitan Museum of Art, Museum of Modern Art in New York, Whitney Museum of American Art, Art Institute of Chicago, National Gallery of Art, Smithsonian Institution, Los Angeles County Museum of Art and Victoria and Albert Museum in London.
- USC has the oldest art school in the region.
- Distinguished alumni include Oscar-winning art director Henry Bumstead, artist Robert Therrien and ceramacists Ken Price and Beatrice Wood.

DID YOU KNOW...that USC Spectrum brings more than 50 high-profile events to campus each year?

- President's Distinguished Lecture Series speakers have included Margaret Thatcher, Colin Powell and Henry Kissinger.

DID YOU KNOW...that the daily nationally-distributed radio news program, "Marketplace," is produced in association with USC?

- "Marketplace" is heard by more than 3 million listeners each day. It has been described by the Columbia Journalism Review as "the best business program on radio and television."
- Classical KUSC's 24-hour broadcast day features a wide range of programs of classical music, news and information. As a partner in the arts in Southern California, the station has been responsible for bringing performances by local orchestras and chamber groups to both local and national audiences. These programs have received numerous local and national awards for their outstanding production quality.

DID YOU KNOW...that the USC Flora L. Thornton School of Music is one of the leading music schools in the nation?

- Founded in 1884, the Thornton School of Music is the oldest professional school at USC and Los Angeles' oldest cultural institution.
- The Thornton School of Music, which consistently ranks in the top 1% of the nation's music schools and conservatories, is the leading producer of live music performances in Southern California — with more than 500 concerts and recitals annually.
- It is a charter member and the only school west of the Mississippi River to belong to the Seven Springs Association, an organization consisting of the 11 finest music schools and conservatories in the United States.
- The school is the most prolific resource of prominent film composers in the world, including Jerry Goldsmith, James Horner, Thomas Newman and David Newman.
- It has a faculty nationally and internationally celebrated for its achievements, awards and prizes, who regularly serve as adjudicators of regional, national and international music competitions, festivals and clinics.

USC • Traditions

Tommy Trojan

In the center of the USC campus stands one of the most famous collegiate landmarks in the country: Tommy Trojan. Since being unveiled in 1930 for USC's 50th jubilee, the statue of the bronzed Trojan warrior has served not only as a popular meeting place on campus, but as a symbol of the university's fighting spirit.

Sculpted by Roger Noble Burnham (the idea for the statue was conceived by Harry Lee Martin and Dr. James D. McCoy), Tommy Trojan cost $10,000 to build. A $1 surcharge then on season football tickets helped pay for it.

The statue is a composite of many USC football players from the late 20s, most notably 1930 Rose Bowl Player of the Game Russ Saunders and All-American Erny Pinckert.

"Burnham made more than 100 oil paintings of various football players from our squad," said Saunders, "and from them he selected the paintings of Pinckert and me. We put in a lot of hours posing, and the result you see is my head, chest and shoulders. The rest is all Erny."

Inscribed on the statue's base is "THE TROJAN" and the university's seal, with the Latin motto "Palmarum qui meruit ferat (Let him who deserves it bear away the palm)." Below the seal are inscribed the qualities of the ideal Trojan: "Faithful, Scholarly, Skillful, Courageous and Ambitious."

The tradition of Tommy Trojan being painted blue and gold by UCLA pranksters was first recorded in October of 1941. Since then, Tommy has been "hit" often, but now USC maintenance crews cover him with plastic and canvas for protection during the week of the annual USC-UCLA football game.

And Tommy's sword has been stolen so often that now, instead of replacing it each time with an expensive brass one, he is given a wooden one.

By the way, where did he get the name Tommy? Of that, no one is sure!

Origin of USC's Nickname - Trojans

USC's nickname, "Trojans," originated in 1912. Up to that time the University of Southern California teams were called the Methodists or Wesleyans, nicknames which were not looked upon with favor by university officials.

So, Warren Bovard, director of athletics and son of university president Dr. George Bovard, asked Los Angeles Times sports editor Owen Bird to select an appropriate nickname.

"At this time, the athletes and coaches of the university were under terrific handicaps," recalled Bird. "They were facing teams that were bigger and better-equipped, yet they had splendid fighting spirit. The name 'Trojans' fitted them.

"I came out with an article prior to a showdown between USC and Stanford in which I called attention to the fighting spirit of USC athletes and named them 'Trojans.' From then on, we used the term 'Trojan' all the time, and it stuck.

"The term 'Trojan' as applied to USC means to me that no matter what the situation, what the odds or what the conditions, the competition must be carried on to the end and those who strive must give all they have and never be weary in doing so."

Colors: Cardinal & Gold

Before 1895, the official color of USC was gold. The official color of the College of Liberal Arts was cardinal. The college had its own official color because it was the largest academic unit in the University. In 1895, both colors were adopted as USC's official colors.

TOMMY TROJAN

Trojan • Marching Band

The Trojan Marching Band — known as “The Spirit of Troy” — is perhaps the most dynamic and innovative collegiate band in the nation. Named among the 8 best marching bands in the country by USA Today, the band is one of the most visible public relations tools of the University.

Established in 1880, the band has played for 10 Presidents (including Ronald Reagan, just prior to his 1984 inauguration), and has appeared in 5 movies (including “Hello Dolly”), plus numerous commercials and television shows (including the 1978 Academy Awards). The band even recorded the title track of the rock group Fleetwood Mac’s popular 1979 album, “Tusk,” and has produced several records of its own music (featuring the well-known “Conquest” and “Fight On”).

Among the many famous musicians who have played in the band was Herb Alpert of the Tijuana Brass (he was in the cornet section). And among the various guest artists who have appeared with the band were Henry Mancini, Quincy Jones, Chuck Mangione, Leonard Bernstein, Diana Ross, Neil Diamond, John Wayne, and Bozo the Clown (Larry Harmon).

The band marches upwards of 80 miles a year while traveling across the land supporting almost every USC athletic team. A typical football halftime show by the band (with precision drills, special musical charts and dance routines) takes more than 4,000 work hours to prepare. The band also frequently appears at many professional sporting events throughout Southern California. Approximately 11 percent of its members are music majors, with almost every school and department represented among the balance.

Now 270-plus members strong, the Trojan Marching Band has tripled in size since Dr. Arthur C. Bartner became its director in 1969 (he is assisted by arranger Tony Fox). A graduate of Michigan, Bartner brought with him a creative approach and the unique, contemporary “drive-it” style of marching.

Nationally-renowned, Bartner directed the 800-member 1984 Olympic All-American College Marching Band (125 bandsmen were from USC) which played in the opening and closing ceremonies at the Games. Interestingly, it was the second time a Trojan musical group was involved with the Olympics, as the USC band formed the 10th Olympic Braid in the 1932 Los Angeles Games.

Bartner was also Director of Bands for the Japan Bowl in Tokyo and directs the All-American College Marching Band at Disneyland. In the summer of 1986, he and 40 band members were part of the ceremonies of Liberty Weekend at the refurbished Statue of Liberty. In the spring of 1988, he brought the band to Australia to perform at festivities for that country’s bicentennial and at World Expo 88.

The Trojan Marching Band is complemented by the USC Silks (tall flags), plus the famous USC Song Leaders — who were ranked No. 1 in the nation by Sports Illustrated — and Yell Leaders.

SCHOOL SONGS

Fight On for ol’ SC
Our men Fight On to victory.
Our Alma Mater dear, looks up to you
Fight On and win
For ol’ SC
Fight On to victory
Fight On!

The music for USC’s fight song, “Fight On,” was composed in 1922 by USC dental student Milo Sweet (with lyrics by Sweet and Glen Grant) as an entry in a Trojan spirit contest. In addition to inspiring generations of Trojan fans and players, the song has been used in numerous recordings and movies. Legend has it that during World War II in the Pacific, an American task force attacked an island held by the Japanese. As the Americans stormed the beach, “Fight On” blared from the deck of one of the transports. The U.S. men let out a tremendous roar and eventually won the island.

“CONQUEST”

USC’s other famous song is the regal processional march, “Conquest,” by Alfred Newman. This stirring battle cry, from Newman’s score to the 1947 motion picture classic “Captain from Castile,” has become synonymous with the championship tradition of USC since the Trojans adopted it in 1950. Newman, a legendary composer of film music, was the musical director of Twentieth Century-Fox Studios.

“ALL HAIL”

All hail to Alma Mater,
To thy glory we sing;
All hail to Southern California,
Loud let thy praises ring;
Where Western sky meets Western sea
Our college stands in majesty.
Sing our love to Alma Mater,
Hail, all hail to thee.

The words and music to USC’s alma mater, “All Hail,” were composed in the early 1920s by Al Wesson, Troy’s longtime sports information director (1928-1942). He wrote the song as a student member of the Trojan Marching Band for the finale of a 1923 campus show.

USC • Athletic Heritage

USC has a proud athletic heritage — and with good reason. Arguably, Troy could be regarded as the “Collegiate Athletic Program of the 20th Century.” Consider:

- Trojan teams have won more national championships, 79 men’s (including a national-best 71 NCAA titles) and 16 women’s, than all but two other universities;

- The Trojans won at least one national team title in 26 consecutive years (1959-60 to 1984-85);

- USC has won the National College All-Sports Championship — an annual ranking by USA Today (previously the Knoxville Journal) of the country’s top men’s athletic programs — six times since its inception in 1971;

- USC also won the inaugural 2001-02 Lexus Gauntlet Trophy, a year-long all-sports competition between Troy and crosstown rival UCLA;

- Trojan men athletes have won more individual NCAA titles (284) than those from any other school in the nation (the Women of Troy have brought home another 37 individual NCAA crowns);

- Troy has also established a stellar reputation and a long tradition of nurturing Olympic athletes. Since 1904, 337 Trojan athletes have competed in the Games, taking home 104 gold medals (with at least one gold in every summer Olympics since 1912), 59 silver and 54 bronze.

- Three Trojans have won the prestigious Sullivan Award as the top amateur athlete in America: diver Sammy Lee (1953), shot putter Parry O’Brien (1959) and swimmer John Naber (1977).

- Two Women of Troy athletes won the Honda-Broderick Cup as the top collegiate woman athlete of the year: Cheryl Miller (1983-84) and Angela Williams (2001-02).

Along with the great accomplishments on the playing fields, USC student-athletes have received 48 NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships, seventh among all schools. In addition, USC has had 26 first team Academic All-Americans and three athletes who were Rhodes Scholars.

Here’s a closer look at the history of each of the 19 sports which USC offers on the intercollegiate level:

FOOTBALL — Since starting football in 1888, USC has amassed an impressive all-time won-loss record of 684-294-54 (a .689 winning percentage). A December 1998 SPORT magazine ranking listed USC as the No. 4 all-time college football program of the 20th century.

USC’s record against Pac-10 opponents is a stellar 353-151-29 (.689). Since 1959, the Trojans have won the conference championship 14 times and tied for the title on five other occasions.

USC has the nation’s sixth best bowl winning percentage (.625) among the 61 schools which have made at least 10 bowl appearances and its 28 Rose Bowl appearances is an all-time best. Troy’s overall bowl mark is 25-15, including 20-8 in the Pasadena New Year’s Day classic. The Trojans were a bowl participant every year they were eligible from 1972 to 1990.

Think about college football and USC’s tailback in the I-formation, one of the most glamorous positions in the sport, immediately comes to mind. Four Trojan tailbacks have won the coveted Heisman Trophy as college football’s outstanding player: Mike Garrett in 1965, O.J. Simpson in 1968, Charles White in 1979 and Marcus Allen in 1981. Other standout tailbacks have included Clarence Davis, Anthony Davis and Ricky Bell.

The Trojans have had other prominent award winners. Offensive tackle Ron Yary won the Outland Trophy in 1967, offensive guard Brad Budde won the Lombardi Award in 1979, safety Mark Carrier won the Thorpe Award in 1989 and linebacker Chris Claiborne won the Butkus Award in 1998. USC players have been named first team All-American 122 times, with 39 consensus selections and 22 unanimous choices.

Many of those players have led USC to eight national championships in football. Legendary coach Howard Jones (1925-40) guided Troy to three of those titles (1928-31-32). John McKay (1960-75) was responsible for four national championship teams (1962-67-72-74). John Robinson (1976-82), who captured onetime (1978) in his first tenure, returned to Troy in 1993 and led USC to three more bowl wins. Pete Carroll was named head coach in 2001.

Scores of Trojans have gone on to successful NFL careers (there have been 60 first round picks, with four No. 1 selections), including such greats as Frank Gifford, Willie Wood, Lynn Swann, Anthony Munoz, Ronnie Lott, Junior Seau, Keyshawn Johnson, Bruce Matthews, Tony Boselli, Willie McGinest and Jason Sehorn.

BASEBALL — No school in the country can match the long tradition USC has in baseball. With 12 national championships in the sport, Troy is far and away the leader in that category (no other school has more than 5).

Since starting baseball in 1924, the Trojans have compiled a record of 2,169-1,033-15 (.677) against college opponents, and have captured outright or tied for 38 conference championships.

The incomparable Rod Dedeaux coached USC from 1942-86, leading the school to 11 of its NCAA crowns, including five straight from 1970-74 (no other school has strung together more than two in a row).

Trojans have been named first team All-American 41 times, with Jay Roundy, Pat Harrison and Bill Bordley being two-time selections. Mark Prior was the 2001 national Player of the Year

USC boasts many successful past and present major leaguers such as Ron Fairly, Don Buford, Tom Seaver, Dave Kingman, Fred Lynn, Roy Smalley, Steve Kemp, Mark McGwire, Randy Johnson, Bret Boone, Jeff Cirillo, Barry Zito, Geoff Jenkins, Aaron Boone, Jacque Jones and Mark Prior. In all, 88 Trojans have gone on to play in the major leagues and scores more in the minors.

Dedeaux compiled a 45-year collegiate record of 1,332-571-11 (.699), making him the then-winningest coach in collegiate baseball history. He resigned after the 1986 season to become USC's director of baseball and was replaced by Mike Gillespie, whose 1998 squad won the College World Series while finishing as the CWS runnerup in 1995 and also advancing to Omaha in 2000 and 2001 (his 1988, 1989, 1990, 1991, 1993, 1994, 1996, 1997, 1999 and 2002 teams were NCAA regional participants).

MEN'S BASKETBALL — Only about four dozen schools have more than 1,000 victories in college basketball, and USC is one of them. Since starting basketball in 1907, the Trojans have compiled a record of 1,331-952 (.583), winning 14 conference championships along the way.

Bill Sharman, John Rudometkin, John Block, Paul Westphal, Gus Williams, Harold Miner and Sam Clancy are a few of USC's All-American selections. Overall, Trojans have earned All-American honors 22 times. Four Trojan men, Sharman, Jack Gardner, Alex Hannum and coach Sam Barry, are in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

Barry (1930-41, 1945-50) has the winningest record among USC basketball coaches, 260-138 (.653). Following him are Forrest Twogood (1951-66) at 255-180 (.586) and Bob Boyd (1967-79) at 216-131 (.622). George Raveling, an assistant coach for the 1984 and 1988 U.S. Olympic teams, took over the coaching helm in 1986-87 and led Troy into the post-season playoffs four times. Henry Bibby was named head coach midway through the 1996 season and has led the Trojans into the NCAA tourney three times (in 1997, 2001's Elite Eight and 2002) and the NIT in 1999.

TWO-TIME OLYMPIC GOLD MEDALIST AND WNBA STAR LISA LESLIE

JENNIFER ROSALES WON THE 1998 NCAA INDIVIDUAL TITLE AS A FRESHMAN

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL — After improving steadily, USC first reached the pinnacle of success in women's basketball in 1983 and the Trojans have been at or near the top almost ever since, winning two national championships and playing in four Final Fours.

USC's team became established when Linda Sharp took over as coach in 1977. By 1981, Troy had reached the Final Four. In 1983, Cheryl Miller joined Cynthia Cooper and twins Pam and Paula McGee to give the Trojans a formidable front line that led the squad to its first national championship. The next year, the team won the national title again. USC advanced to the NCAA title game in 1986.

Miller finished her career in 1986 as the Trojans' all-time leading scorer and rebounder. She also won her third straight Naismith Award as the outstanding player in college basketball. She returned as coach of her alma mater in 1994 and led USC to a Pac-10 title and two NCAA playoff appearances. She was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 1995. Chris Gobrecht, a former USC player and a two-time Pac-10 Coach of the Year while at Washington, took over as coach prior to the 1998 season. Her team played in the 2000 and 2002 WNIT.

The Women of Troy have made the NCAA tourney six of the past 12 years, including advancing to the regionals three of the last 11 seasons. Lisa Leslie, who became an Olympic and pro star, won the Naismith Award in 1994 (she was the MVP of the first WNBA All-Star Game). Tina Thompson was the No. 1 pick in the 1997 WNBA draft. Cooper was twice an Olympian and WNBA MVP.

MEN'S GOLF — USC has one of the most successful golf programs in the nation, having produced three NCAA individual champions (Scott Simpson in 1976 and 1977, and Ron Commans in 1981), 19 Pac-10 individual champs, 20 All-American first teamers and numerous players who have gone on to successful professional careers, including $1 million winners like Al "Mr. 59" Geiberger, Dave Stockton, Craig Stadler and Scott Simpson. Troy has also been dominant in the Pac-10, winning 17 of the 42 conference championships to date.

Legendary coach Stan Wood (1955-79) compiled a career record of 462-37 (.926) and won 14 conference championships. He also guided the Trojans to an NCAA record 51 consecutive dual match wins from 1956-59. His teams finished third in the NCAA tourney six times.

Under coach Randy Lein (1984-92), USC continued its success, winning the conference championship in 1986. The 1991 Trojans finished seventh at the NAAs. U.S. Amateur champion Sam Randolph, who finished as low amateur at the prestigious Masters golf tournament in 1985 and 1986, was a first team All-American for the third straight year in 1986 and was named college golf's Player of the Year.

Former team captain Jim Empey took over as coach in 1993. Kurt Schuette became coach in 1995 and guided the Trojans to an impressive fifth place finish at the NCAA tourney that season, Troy's best placing in 18 years, and then ninth in 1996 and 14th in 1997. His 2001 squad won the Pac-10 title, USC's first since 1986, and Troy repeated in 2002. Kevin Stadler, Craig's son, was the 2002 Pac-10 Golfer of the Year (USC's first honoree since 1986).

WOMEN'S GOLF — The USC women's golf team is one of college's finest, as witnessed by their second, third, fourth (twice), fifth, seventh (3 times), ninth and 14th place finishes at the NCAA Championships in the past 17 years. The Women of Troy won the Pac-10 tourney in 1989 and the 1999 NCAA West Regional. Cathy Bright led USC to five Top 10 NCAA finishes in her 12 years as head coach (1982-93). Former Trojan player Renee (Mack) Baumgartner returned as head coach in 1994 and led USC to second place at the NAAs in her first year. Andrea Gaston took over in 1997 (with men's coach Kurt Schuette serving as Director of Golf).

Jennifer Rosales won the 1998 NCAA individual title as a freshman (she tied for fourth in 1999). Other top individuals have included current professionals Marta Figueras-Dotti, Denise Strebig, Kim Saiki, Tracy Nakamura, Jill McGill (the 1993 U.S. Amateur champion), Heidi Voorhees (the 1993 U.S. Amateur medalist), Jennifer Biehn (the 1994 Pac-10 champ) and Candie Kung (the 2000 Pac-10 champ).

WOMEN'S ROWING — The women's rowing team has been active since the early 1970s, but scholarships were first awarded in 1998 and USC has emerged as one of the nation's top programs. The varsity, junior varsity and novice eight teams train all year long for regattas from coast to coast. George Jenkins guided USC to national prominence during his nine years as head coach (1994-2002).

At the 1998 NCAA meet, the Women of Troy rowers captured their first-ever national championship race (the varsity fours).

WOMEN'S SOCCER — The women's soccer team began competing in 1993. Karen Stanley coached the team for the first three seasons. Jim Millinder took over in 1996 and guided his 1998, 1999, 2000 and 2001 squads into the NCAA tourney (USC won the 1998 Pac-10 title).

Isabelle Harvey, the 1998 Pac-10 Player of the Year, was USC's first All-American first teamer (in 2000).

MEN'S SWIMMING & DIVING — The type of dominance USC has had in this sport was best exemplified by Troy's performance in the 1976 Olympic Games, when Trojan swimmers won more golds and more total medals than any country in swimming except the United States.

Over the years, USC men's swimmers have made Olympic teams 110 times, winning 36 gold, 21 silver and 16 bronze medals. Gold medal winners have included Lenny Krayzelburg, John Naber, Bruce Furniss and Murray Rose.

Since beginning swimming in 1929, the Trojans have captured nine NCAA championships, all under coach Peter Daland, who retired in 1992 after 35 years at Troy. USC swimmers and divers have won 106 NCAA meet individual and relay titles (including Erik Vendt and Klete Keller, who each won three individual titles over the 2001 and 2002 meets) and have earned All-American honors an amazing 537 times. Under Daland, USC won 17 Pac-10 championships and amassed an impressive dual meet record of 318-31-1 (.917). Three of his last six squads had runner-up finishes at the NCAA meet.

Four-time U.S. Olympic coach Mark Schubert, winner of two NCAA titles with the Texas women, succeeded Daland. He also serves as the head coach of the Women of Troy. His men's teams have placed fourth, fifth (twice), sixth (4 times), seventh and 10th at the NAAs.

WOMEN'S SWIMMING & DIVING — USC has likewise built a successful swimming program on the women's side. In fact, the Women of Troy have finished in the top 10 nationally 21 of the last 26 years — including winning the NCAA title in 1997 — and have produced 206 All-Americans in that span. They have won conference championships in 1979, 1980, 1982 and 1985.

Among USC's more famous women's swimmers are Michelle Ford, Sue Habernigg, Cynthia Woodhead, Sue Hinderaker, Debbie Rudd, Kristine Quance (she won three events at the 1994 NCAA meet as the Women of Troy placed sixth, three more to be the high point scorer at the 1996 meet as USC finished fifth and two at the 1997 meet), Lindsay Benko (who won two events in 1996, two more in 1997 and one in 1999) and diver Blythe Hartley (she won two events at the 2002 NAAs).

MEN'S TENNIS — USC's men's tennis legacy has produced numerous national titlists, including 16 team champions (second most in the country), 13 singles champions (tied for second most in the country), and 20 doubles champs (more than any other school). Cecil Mamiit won the 1996 NCAA singles crown as a freshman.

George Toley (1954-80) guided the Trojans for 26 years before resigning during the 1980 season. His career record was 430-92-4 (.821) with 10 NCAA titles. Dick Leach succeeded Toley and posted a 535-133 (.801) mark in 23 years. His 1991, 1993, 1994 and 2002 teams won the NCAA tourney (his 2002 No. 11-seeded Cinderella team was the lowest seed ever to win the NCAA title and did so a month after Leach announced his retirement) and eight of his other teams finished fourth or better. He was succeeded by ex-Pepperdine, Fresno State and Long Beach State coach Peter Smith for the 2003 season.

Overall, USC players have been named to All-American teams 136 times, with a many also enjoying successful pro careers, including Stan Smith, Bob Lutz, Raul Ramirez and Dennis Ralston.

WOMEN'S TENNIS — The most successful women's program at USC, in terms of national titles, is the tennis team. The Women of Troy have won seven national championships.

Those national crowns all came under Dave Borelli, who coached USC from 1974 to 1988. In duals, Borelli's record was phenomenal: his teams went 300-43 (.875).

Five times Trojans have won national singles titles, along with one doubles champ and 66 All-Americans. Prominent USC stars have included Barbara Hallquist, Diane Desfor, Lea Antonopolis, Leslie Allen, Sheila McInerney, Stacy Margolin, Trey Lewis, the Fernandez sisters, Kelly Henry, Beth Herr, Caroline Kuhlman, Trisha Laux and Jewel Peterson.

Cheryl Woods, a former Trojan player, took over for Borelli in 1989. Richard Gallien, a successful player and coach at Pepperdine, became head coach in 1996. His 1999, 2000 and 2001 teams advanced to the NCAA quarterfinals.

MEN'S TRACK & FIELD — The Trojans have won an unprecedented 26 NCAA titles (including nine straight, 1935-43) in the 81-year history of NCAA outdoor track, plus two indoor NCAA titles and 33 Pacific Coast or Pac-10 crowns, including a string of 15 straight (1936-55). They have had 39 unbeaten and untied seasons, including a string of 16 in a row (1946-61). Since starting track and field in 1900, USC has compiled a dual-meet record of 410-112-4 (.783).

Outstanding coaches include Dean

Cromwell (1909-48), who won a record 12 NCAA titles and had a dual meet mark of 109-48-1; Jess Mortensen, who never lost a dual meet (64-0) in 11 years and won seven NCAA titles; and Vern Wolfe, who retired after the 1984 season with seven national titles and a dual meet record of 106-17-1 (.859). Jim Bush, who won five NCAA titles while at crosstown rival UCLA, became USC's head coach in 1991. His 1992 Trojans finished third at the NCAAs with only a six-man team. Ron Alice, who won 11 state titles at Long Beach City College, took over the combined men's and women's programs in 1995 (the men were fourth at the 1995 NCAA meet, 10th in 1996, third in 1997 while winning the Pac-10 title, seventh in 1998, fifth in 1999 while winning the Pac-10 crown, tied for seventh in 2000 while winning the Pac-10 title, tied for 12th in 2001 and tied for 11th in 2002).

Fifty-nine USC tracksters have won 86 places on U.S. Olympic teams over the years. Trojans have won 25 individual Olympic titles and shared in eight relay wins. Gold medal winners include long jumper Randy Williams, pole vaulter Bob Seagren, sprinter Charles Paddock and quartermiler Quincy Watts.

Since 1912, 61 USC trackmen have equalled or bettered world records, and there have been 107 NCAA individual or relay winners from Troy (including 2001 NCAA pole vault champ Dennis Kholev, the school record holder).

The Trojans also have had a long history of successful distance running, including nine Olympians and NCAA champions Julio Marin and Ole Oleson.

WOMEN'S TRACK & FIELD, CROSS COUNTRY — The women's track program at USC has developed into one of the nation's finest. The Trojans have placed in the Top 10 of the NCAA Championships 10 times, including winning the program's first-ever NCAA team title in 2001. The Women of Troy also finished third in 1987, seventh in 1996 (while winning the Pac-10 title), fifth in 1998, third in 1999 (just four points from first place), second in 2000 (again just four points out of first place) and third in 2002.

The women's track and field heritage begins with Sherry Calvert, the former head coach. Calvert, a four-time All-American javelin thrower at USC who participated in the 1972 and 1976 Olympics, started the program as an undergraduate and coached through 1983. Fred LaPlante succeeded her from 1984 through 1988. Barbara Edmonson was coach in 1992 through 1994. In 1995, Ron Alice took over as the combined men's and women's coach.

Troy has had many other successful track and field athletes. Patty Van Wolvelaere won a pair of national titles in the 100-meter hurdles. Kerry Bell was an

All-American heptathlete for three years. 1988 NCAA heptathlon champion Wendy Brown and Yvette Bates set world bests in the triple jump during their USC careers. Ashley Selman won the 1990 NCAA javelin title. Angela Williams became the first athlete, male or female, at any level to win four consecutive NCAA 100-meter dashes when she did so in 1999, 2000, 2001 and 2002. Natasha Danvers won the 2000 NCAA 400-meter intermediate hurdles. The Women of Troy won the NCAA 1600-meter relay in 1987 and the 400-meter relay in 2000. Brigita Langerholc took the 800 meters and Inga Stasiulionyte captured the javelin, both in the 2001 NAAs. Natasha Mayers won the NCAA 200 meters in 2002.

The Women of Troy also compete in cross country in the fall under coach Tom Walsh.

MEN'S VOLLEYBALL — Final Four appearances have become commonplace for the USC men's volleyball team, which has made 11 trips there since scholarships were first awarded by Troy in the sport in 1977. The Trojans have won four NCAA titles (1977, 1980, 1988 and 1990) and have finished second on six other occasions (1979-81-85-86-87-91).

Ernie Hix, who retired as head coach after the 1981 season, turned USC into one of the top volleyball powers in the nation. Hix's eight-year record was an impressive 146-47 (.756) with two national crowns.

Twenty-one Trojans have played on the U.S. National team and USC volleyballers have been named first team All-Americans 27 times. In the 1984 Olympics, Steve Timmons, Dusty Dvorak and Pat Powers all helped lead the United States to its first gold medal ever in the sport, while Timmons repeated with the 1988 U.S. squad. Timmons, Bryan Ivie, Nick Becker and Dan Greenbaum won bronze medals with the U.S. in 1992. Tim Hovland, Celso Kalache, Adam Johnson, former coach Bob Yoder (a three-time All-American who coached Troy to an NCAA title in 1988), Donald Suxho and Brook Billings also are key figures in USC's volleyball heritage. Jim McLaughlin took over for Yoder in 1990 and led Troy to an NCAA title in his initial year. Powers became head coach in 1997 and Turhan Douglas succeeded him on an interim basis, beginning in 2003.

WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL — USC has won four national crowns in women's volleyball, all under coach Chuck Erbe. Erbe, who dominated the sport during his 12-year USC coaching tenure which began in 1976, posted a career record of 310-121-3 (.718). He coached the 1976, 1977 and 1980 AIAW champions and the 1981 NCAA titlists. His 1976 team registered the first perfect season (38-0) in women's volleyball history.

Lisa Love, who coached at Texas-Arlington for seven years, took over for Erbe in 1989 and guided USC into the NAAs in nine of her 10 seasons before retiring after the 1998 season. Jerritt Elliott served as interim head coach in 1999 and 2000, guiding the 2000 club to the NCAA Final Four. Mick Haley, head coach of the 2000 U.S. women's Olympic team who won two national crowns in the 1980s while at Texas, took over in 2001 and advanced to that season's NCAA regional final.

In 1978, Debbie Green won the prestigious Broderick Award in volleyball. Some 30 Trojans have been named All-American and 12 have been members of the U.S. Olympic team (including Green, Sue Woodstra, Paula Weishoff, Carolyn Becker and Kim Ruddins).

MEN'S WATER POLO — Since starting water polo in 1922, the Trojans have compiled an 892-475-7 (.652) record, winning 12 conference championships along the way.

Longtime coach John Williams led the Trojans to national prominence since during his tenure from 1973 to 1998. Nineteen of his last 22 teams finished the season in the top seven nationally, including the 1998 NCAA championship team and the 1987, 1993, 1994, 1996 and 1997 squads which placed second in the NCAA tourney. Jovan Vavic, who joined as co-head coach in 1995, took over as head coach in 1999.

Seventeen Trojan poloists have participated in the Olympics and 125 have made various All-American teams. Some of the more prominent names in USC water polo history are Ron Severa, Wally Wolf, Greg Fults, Zach Stimson, Craig Furniss, Charles Harris, Robert Lynn, Drew Netherton, Hrvoje Cizmic, Marko Zagar, Simun Cimerman, Marko Pintaric and George Csaszar.

WOMEN'S WATER POLO — USC's newest sport, the women's water polo team began play in 1995 under head coach Jovan Vavic. In 1999, in just their fifth year of existence, the Women of Troy—led by All-American and 2000 U.S. Olympic goalie Bernice Orwig—won the national championship in an exciting five-overtime sudden death victory over Stanford. USC then was second in the national tourney in 2000. Before that, USC was third in the 1995 Division II tourney, then seventh in the 1997 national championship and fifth in 1998.

Besides Orwig, other top players have included Aniko Pelle (the 2000 National Player of the Year), Nina Wengst and Olympian Sofia Konoukh.

Trojans • Star in Classroom

USC is as proud of its student-athletes' achievements in the classroom as on the playing field.

After all, the Trojans not only are third in the nation in the number of national team championships (78 by the men and 15 by the women), but rank sixth in the number of NCAA post-graduate scholarship recipients (48, including 20 football players).

Also, USC athletics has had 3 Rhodes Scholars (quarterback Pat Haden, swimmer Desmond Koh and trackster James O'Toole), 26 first team Academic All-Americans (including 22 footballers, tops among Pac-10 schools and sixth best in the nation), 8 winners of the prestigious NCAA Today's Top Six scholar award, 12 National Football Foundation Scholar-Athletes, 6 recipients of the NCAA Silver Anniversary Award, a Luce Scholar (swimmer Dennis Scannell), a NCAA Women's Enhancement Program Post-Graduate Scholar (soccer player Laura Servis), a NCAA Ethnic-Minority Enhancement Program Post-Graduate Scholar (footballer Dong Koo) and 2 USC valedictorians (water poloist Craig Furniss and volleyballer Alaina Kipps). In 1988, Haden was inducted into the charter 6-member class of the GTE Academic All-American Hall of Fame and baseball star Don Buford Jr. won the first-ever Woody Hayes Academic All-American Award presented by the Columbus Touchdown Club to the top NCAA Division I male student-athlete (footballer John Jackson won the award in 1990 and volleyballer Katie Haller won the women's award in 1994). Jackson was also named a winner of the first-ever NACDA/Disney Scholar-Athlete Award in 1990, and Jeremy Hogue, Matt Keneley and Mike Van Raaphorst were 1996, 1997 and 2000 NACDA Foundation Preseason Games Scholar-Athletes, respectively (Keneley also received a NACDA Foundation Post-Graduate Scholarship in 1997). In 1997, Keith Van Horne was named to the GTE Academic All-American All-Time Football Team.

The Nov. 1994 issue of The Sporting News examined the relative academic strength of the nation's top 25 football teams and found USC's players ranked second in high school GPA, sixth in SAT scores and third in ACT scores.

USC • National Titles

USC has long dominated the world of intercollegiate athletics. In fact, it could be argued that Troy was the "Collegiate Athletic Program of the 20th Century."

Trojan men's teams are tops in the nation in NCAA championships with 71 — more than any other university. And the football team has been voted national champions eight times.

USC has won the National Collegiate All-Sports Championship—an annual ranking by USA Today (previously The Knoxville Journal) of the country's top men's athletic programs — six times (1971-72-74-75-77-80) since its inception in 1971.

USC's women are also a force, with 16 national team titles, all since 1976.

From 1959-60 to 1984-85, USC put together an amazing streak. In each of those 26 years, at least one Trojan team won a national championship (including five crowns in both 1962-63 and 1976-77).

Here's a list with the coaches of the winning teams.
