ENROLLMENT: 28,600

NICKNAME: Trojans

HEAD COACH: Henry Bibby

ASSISTANTS: Kurtis Townsend, Damon Archibald, Eric Brown

LOS ANGELES — The USC men's basketball team (4-1), which reached the Elite Eight in 2001 for the first time ever in the NCAA Tournament's current format, will play its first game at the Forum since 1996 when it plays Pepperdine (3-2) on Thursday (Dec. 6) in the second game of the 2001 Loud Records Fab Four Tournament. The opener pits Fresno State, which beat USC earlier in the year in the Preseason NIT, against Gonzaga at 6:30 p.m. in Inglewood. The Trojans will take on the Waves at 9 p.m., or 30 minutes after the completion of the first game. Under sixth-year Coach Henry Bibby, the Trojans return three senior starters and seven lettermen from the team that tied a school mark for wins with a 24-10 record last year. Senior forwards Sam Clancy and David Bluthenthal, both 2002 Preseason Top 50 Wooden Award candidates, and fourth-year starting guard Brandon Granville return to lead this year's squad.

GAME #6 — USC (4-1) vs. Pepperdine (3-2) on Thursday (Dec. 6). It is part of the 2001 Loud Records Fab Four Tournament at the Forum. The first game of the one-day tourney is Fresno State-Gonzaga, which starts at 6:30 p.m. The USC game starts at 9 p.m., or 30 minutes after the finish of the first game. Both games will be televised live on FOX Sports Net 2 and the USC will be broadcast live on KMPC-AM 1540. The Waves are under first-year coach Paul Westphal. The Pepperdine roster features eight returning letterwinners from last season's 22-9 ballclub that finished second in the final regular season West Coast Conference standings and advanced to the second round of the NIT. The Waves have already defeated one Pac-10 team this year, knocking off a ranked UCLA team at Pauley Pavilion, 85-78. Pepperdine then fell at Utah, 81-74, on Dec. 1, but came back to beat Long Beach State on Tuesday (Dec. 4), 93-83. Junior forward Jimmy Miggins leads the team in points (16.0) and rebounds (9.0). Freshman Terrance Johnson is averaging 15.6 points per game while senior guard Craig Lewis is averaging 13.0 points.

OF NOTE

ONCE IN A GENERATION — USC has held its first five opponents to 65 or less points for the first time since the 1967-68 season. That season, Bob Boyd's Trojans held their opponents to 65 or fewer points in their first six games, which was good enough for a 5-1 start. That team finished 18-8.

Game 6 Pepperdine

December 6, 2001
Forum (17,505)
Inglewood, CA — 9 p.m. (PST)

On the Air

The USC-Pepperdine game will be televised live on FOX Sports Net 2 and carried live on KMPC-AM (1540). Rory Markas handles the radio play-by-play, while ex-USC assistant coach Jim Hefner adds the color commentary. All of USC's radio broadcasts feature short pre- and post-game shows immediately before and after the game.

Series

USC has only met Pepperdine four times and holds a 3-1 lead in the series. The teams met twice in the 1943 season, the Trojans winning the first meeting, 58-38, but falling in the rematch, 56-51. The third time the teams met was in the second round of the NIT in 1993 when USC defeated Pepperdine, 71-59, at the Sports Arena. Most recently, USC downed the Waves, 76-73, last year at the Sports Arena.

Last Game

USC built a double-digit lead against Pepperdine last year on Dec. 14 only to have to hold on until the end, winning 76-73. The Trojans led 71-60 with 2:33 to go, but were outscored 13-5 from that point and couldn't relax until Glen McGowan's three-point attempt at the buzzer to tie the game caromed off the rim. Brian Scalabrine had a game-high 22 points while David Bluthenthal posted his fourth consecutive double-double (19 points and 10 rebounds).

Coach

Former Trojan All-American Paul Westphal is in his first year at Pepperdine and is the Waves' 11th head coach. Westphal, who has more than 12 years of coaching experience, most recently was head coach for the Seattle Supersonics for two-plus seasons, compiling a 76-71 mark. Prior to that, he served as coach at Phoenix in the NBA for three-plus seasons, going 191-88. He led the Suns to the 1993 NBA finals. Westphal was also an assistant at Phoenix for four years prior to becoming head coach.

WESTPHAL AS A TROJAN AND BEYOND — Pepperdine Coach Paul Westphal was a standout guard for the Trojans from 1970-72. He earned All-American honors in 1972 and was a three-time All-Pacific-8 Conference selection (1970-72). He entered the season as the 20th all-time scorer in school history (but has since been passed by Sam Clancy). The Trojans went 18-8 during Westphal's first year with the Trojans as a sophomore and he was an integral part of USC's 24-2 campaign his junior year in 1971. He was averaging 20.3 points per game as a senior in 1972 and had led USC to an 11-2 record and a No. 7 ranking when he tore ligaments in his knee, ending his college career. USC finished 16-10 that season. He was the 10th player picked in the 1972 NBA draft, taken by Boston (1973-75). He went on to play for Phoenix (1976-80), Seattle (1981), New York (1982-83) and Phoenix again (1984-86). He was a five-time NBA All-Star and was inducted into the USC Hall of Fame in 1997.

BIBBY VS. WESTPHAL — USC Coach Henry Bibby and Pepperdine Coach Paul Westphal were dueling standout guards in Los Angeles from 1970-72, Bibby at UCLA and Westphal at USC. As sophomore in 1970, Westphal and the Trojans won the first meeting against Bibby and the Bruins, 87-86. UCLA evened it one game later, winning 91-78. The Bruins swept the Trojans in 1971, handing USC its only two losses of the season. UCLA won 64-60 and 73-62. Westphal was hurt during his senior year in 1972 when USC faced UCLA, the Bruins winning both games by double figures.

RHODE ISLAND RECAP — Henry Bibby started a non-senior lineup against Rhode Island and the youngsters showed their mettle, getting USC off to a fast start en route to an 82-54 win on Tuesday (Dec. 4) at the Sports Arena. Freshman guard Errick Craven scored a season-high 20 points, including 5-of-5 from three-point range, and sophomore guard Desmon Farmer had his first career double-double with 20 points and a career-high 10 rebounds. The guard tandem started the game along with freshman center Rory O'Neil, freshman forward Nick Curtis and junior guard Robert Hutchinson. Sitting normal senior starters Sam Clancy, David Bluthenthal and Brandon Granville, Bibby's second-team lineup opened the game strong. They staked the Trojans to 23-9 lead before Clancy, Bluthenthal and Granville entered the game with 9:52 to go in the first half. The Rams, led by Dustin Hellenga's 11 points, pulled to within six late in the first half at 33-27 with 2:16 to go. But Desmon Farmer's fourth three-pointer of the first half, a Farmer layup and a Clancy tip-in sent the Trojans into the break up 40-27. Bibby started his seniors in the second half and the Trojans' lead never dipped below 14 points. A Craven three-pointer put USC ahead by 20 for the first time at 55-35 with 14:25 left. The Rams hung around for a bit, but never challenged the Trojans the rest of the way.

LAST GAME NOTES – Errick Craven's 5-of-5 three-point showing tied the USC record for the most three-pointers made without a miss. The only other Trojan to do it was Brad Winslow, who did it at California in 1987 ... For the fifth consecutive game, USC held its opponent to 65 points or fewer ... The Trojans shot better than 50.0% for the first time this season, making 52.6% of its shots on 30-of-57 shooting ... USC's 82 points was a season high, as were its 11 three-pointers, 19 assists and nine blocks ... Brandon Granville's 21 minutes was his fewest since playing that same amount against Washington last season ... USC's 11 three-pointers was its most since 11 last year against Cal State Northridge

CHAIRMEN OF THE BOARDS – USC outrebounded Rhode Island by 20, 47-27. It was the Trojans' biggest rebounding margin since enjoying a 58-37 edge in a win against Oregon on Feb. 27, 1997.

USC AT THE FORUM — Thursday's game will be USC's 11th at the Forum. The Trojans are 6-4 all time at the Inglewood facility. USC last played there in 1996, losing to California, 63-60, on Jan. 11. The Trojans also beat UNLV there that season, winning 82-72 on Dec. 10, 1995. (The game against Cal was later forfeited by the Bears, but is not being considered a win for this note). Prior to that, USC played Arizona in back-to-back years, losing 83-74 in 1994 and 81-73 in 1993. The Trojans played a pair of games at the Forum in the 1989 Pac-10 Conference Tournament. USC, seeded 10th, upset Arizona State, 94-82, in the opening round and lost to No. 2-seeded Stanford, 66-61. Before that, USC played Oregon there in 1986, winning 75-60. The Trojans downed Washington State there in 1984, 57-56 and also beat Arizona there that year, 71-61. In the 1977 season, USC downed Denver, 106-65.

SIXTH RANDOM NOTE OF THE YEAR — How good has USC's defense been? Rhode Island's 31.7% from the field against USC was actually the second-highest shooting percentage against the Trojans this season.

NOTE ARCHIVE — The Trojans' 60 points in the win at Bradley was their lowest winning total since defeating Washington, 53-46, in Seattle in 1994 ... USC opponents have shot 20% or less in a half three times ... USC's 53 rebounds at Fresno State was its most in more than two seasons. The last time USC had that many was in the 1999 season

HENRY BIBBY MEDIA LUNCHEON SCHEDULE

USC Coach Henry Bibby will hold media luncheons in the Var- sity Lounge of Heritage Hall on the following dates (all meetings begin at 1 p.m. unless otherwise noted): Please check with the Sports Information Office to confirm the remaining schedule.

Dec. 10	(Monday)	Jan. 29	(Tuesday)
Dec. 18	(Tuesday)	Feb. 5	(Tuesday)
Jan. 2	(Wednesday)	Feb. 12	(Tuesday)
Jan. 8	(Tuesday)	Feb. 19	(Tuesday)

finale, when the Trojans grabbed 53 boards in a losing effort at Wyoming on March 10, 1999, in the first round of the NIT. The last time USC had more than 53 was earlier in that season when the Trojans had 57 rebounds in a win over Loyola Marymount on Dec. 9, 1998.

TURNOVER/ASSISTS — USC has had less turnovers than four of its first five opponents this year and has had more assists than its opponents in four of five games and was tied in the fifth. Overall, USC opponents have 75 turnovers to USC's 65 while the Trojans have 68 assists to their opponents' 50.

A DOUBLE-DOUBLE PLEASE — Sam Clancy strung together three consecutive double-doubles for the third time in his career at the start of the season, but failed in his attempt to go four in a row, falling four points short. He has never had four in a row. The last Trojan to accomplish that was David Bluthenthal, who turned the trick last year in December. The last Trojan before that to get four in a row was Brandon Granville as a sophomore in 2000. The last USC player to string five in a row was forward Jaha Wilson, who did it twice in 1995 (including five in a row to end the season). Clancy has 21 double-doubles for his career, tops among active Pac-10 players.

SO THERE'S THE BASKET — After failing to shoot better than 41.5% in its first four games, USC shot 52.6% against Rhode Island, helping the Trojans crack the 40.0% barrier for the year. USC is now at 40.1% from the field, though its holding its opponents to 31.3%. The Trojans had been averaging only 64.8 points per game, but the 82-point scoring outburst against the Rams upped the average to 68.2.

TRENDS — Thus far, USC's first five opponents have taken a combined 38.4% of their overall field goal attempts from three-point range, as compared to 32.5% last season. By comparison, the Trojans have attempted just 25.2% of their field goals from beyond the arc compared to 30.5% last year

PLENTY OF 'D' — According to ESPN.com's national college statistics, USC is tied for 11th in scoring defense at 57.2 points per game. USC has held its first five opponents to below 40.0% shooting. USC kept four of the five to less than 32.0% shooting overall. In fact, Fresno State's 28.1% shooting was the worst for a USC opponent since the Trojans held Loyola Marymount to 23.7% on Dec. 11, 1999. Wyoming and Fresno State shot less than 18.0% in the second half of both games while Bradley shot only 20.0% in the first half. On the season, USC has limited opponents to a combined .313 from the field.

DERRICK CRAVEN OUT — Freshman guard Derrick Craven will be out four to six weeks, recovering from a stress fracture in his right leg. He is expected back in mid-to-late December. He did not see any action in USC's first two games before the injury announcement, but played in both exhibition games.

SAM CLANCY AND DAVID BLUTHENTHAL NAMED TO WOODEN AWARD PRESEASON LIST — USC senior forwards Sam Clancy and David Bluthenthal are among 50 preseason candidates selected for the 2001-2002 Wooden Award All-American Team. The top 50 candidates were selected based on last year's individual performance and team records. The award is announced on March 26. Clancy was a mid-season Wooden Award nominee last year, but did not make the list of finalists.

SAM CLANCY NAMED TO PRESEASON NAISMITH CANDIDATE LIST — Sam Clancy was included among 30 preseason candidates for the 2002 Naismith Player of the Year Award, announced Oct. 16.

TROJAN SENIOR TRIO PEPPER RECORD SECTION — USC seniors Brandon Granville, Sam Clancy and David Bluthenthal are quite prevalent in the Trojan record books. Look no farther than the career scoring chart. Clancy is 17th with 1,117 points while Granville is 23rd with 1,076 points. If both play a full season, they should be firmly entrenched in USC's Top 10. Bluthenthal is not far behind the 1,000-point club with 972 points and should become USC's 26th player with a four-digit point total early in the season. Granville already is USC's all-time leader in assists with 627. He is second on the three-point chart (170), needing seven to become the school's all-time leader. He is also third in steals (184) — needing 25 to top that list. With 3,185 minutes, Granville is also in reach of Wayne Carlander's USC record for career minutes played (3,978). As it stands, he's already third on the all-time USC minutes list. Clancy is USC's all-time leader in blocks with 155. Bluthenthal is 10th in three-pointers (116). As far as game records are concerned, Granville owns the USC record for assists (15) while Bluthenthal is tied for the mark in rebounds (28). For a season, Granville owns the assists mark (248) and Clancy owns it for blocks (81).

GRANVILLE CLIMBING THE PAC-10 CAREER ASSISTS CHART — Brandon Granville is the Pac-10's active leader in assists with 627 and is eighth on the all-time list. Seventh is UCLA's Darrick Martin (636) and sixth is UCLA's Tyus Edney (652). Oregon State's Gary Payton holds the Pac-10 record for assists (938).

USC IN THE PAC-10 STAT RANKINGS (as of Dec. 4) — USC is first in field goal percentage defense in the Pac-10 by far at 31.2%. Stanford is next at 36.8%. The Trojans are tied for first in scoring defense (57.2), with California (57.2).

USC AT THE SPORTS ARENA — USC's 12 home wins last year were its most since winning 12 in 1993. Dating back to 1996-97, the Trojans are 51-19 (.729) in their last 70 games at the Sports Arena and USC is 109-43 (.717) at the Sports Arena since the beginning of the 1991 season, including a 16-game winning streak over a span of the 1992 and 1993 seasons, a 12-game streak between the 2000 and 2001 seasons and two nine-game winning streaks that spanned the 1997-98 and 1998-99 seasons and the 1998-99 and 1999-2000 seasons. USC's 10-game home win streak to open the 2001 season was its biggest home win streak to start a season since 1975.

KOSTAS CHARISSIS NOW ELIGIBLE — Junior center Kostas Charissis has served his three-game NCAA suspension for a violation of NCAA amateurism rules and is now eligible to play. He saw his first action at Bradley, grabbing three rebounds in seven minutes without a point. He was originally suspended by the NCAA for 15 games in August, but had his penalty reduced to three games after the NCAA Division I Board of Directors sustained a motion to lessen the punishment for all players affected on Nov. 1. Before he attended USC, Charissis played on a club team in Greece, which included professional players. Even though he played as an amateur, it was an NCAA violation. The NCAA Board sustained the Management Council's policy decision made that the reinstatement condition would be to withhold a student-athlete from a maximum of 20 percent of the number of professional contests played or eight games, whichever is less.

TWO NEW ASSISTANTS — Henry Bibby welcomed two new assistant coaches to his staff to join second-year assistant coach Damon Archibald. Bibby first hired veteran coach Kurtis Townsend, 42, who was previously an assistant coach at Michigan (1999-2001), California

Bibby then hired Eric Brown, 27, who spent the past three seasons (1999-2001) as an assistant at Northridge, where he helped lead the Matadors to their first NCAA Tournament appearance in school history last season. Townsend and Brown replace Silvey Dominguez and Dave Miller, both of whom left the team after five-year stints on the Trojan staff.

PRODUCTION FUNCTION — Despite losing Brian Scalabrine and Jeff Trepagnier to the NBA, USC still has the lion's share of its production back in 2002. Not only do three senior starters return in Brandon Granville, Sam Clancy and David Bluthenthal, but sophomore Desmon Farmer brings 16 starts to the table and junior center Kostas Charissis has 14 starts to his credit. Overall, USC has 66.2% of its scoring back, 56.6% of its rebounding, 76.4% of its three-pointers, 58.9% of its blocks and 66.0% of its steals.

THIRD'S A CHARM (AGAIN) — For the second consecutive year, the Trojans were picked to finish third in the Pacific-10 Conference men's basketball race, according to a poll of media members who cover Pac-10 men's basketball. UCLA, which received 24 of the 27 possible first-place votes, was tabbed as the favorite for the season (267 points). Stanford (222) was picked second and received one first-place vote. USC (208) was third without receiving any first-place votes. Arizona (200) was fourth and received two first-place votes. California (161) was fifth, followed by Oregon (117), Arizona State (111), Oregon State (95), Washington State (57) and Washington (47).

PAC-10 HALL OF HONOR — The conference announced that it will honor 10 former basketball coaches and student-athletes with their induction into the Pac-10 Hall of Honor during the 2002 Pac-10 Tournament. Trojan All-American Bill Sharman is USC's inductee. The others are Sean Elliott (Arizona), Byron Scott (Arizona State), Pete Newell (California), John Dick (Oregon), Gary Payton (Oregon State), Hank Luisetti (Stanford), John Wooden (UCLA), Bob Houbregs (Washington) and Craig Ehlo (Washington State). Sharman was an eight-time NBA All-Star and played on four NBA championship teams with the Boston Celtics. As a coach, he was the only one to ever have led teams to titles in three professional leagues: the ABL (Cleveland Pipers, 1962), ABA (Utah Stars, 1970) and NBA (Los Angeles Lakers, 1972). As general manager and president of the Los Angeles Lakers in the 1970s and 1980s, he helped them to five more NBA titles. As a player, he turned free throw shooting into an art and never shot worse than .800 from the line in any NBA season.

TROJANS VS. 2001 TOURNAMENT TEAMS — The Trojans are guaranteed to face only five teams from the 2001 NCAA Tournament and four are from the Pac-10: UCLA, Arizona, California and Stanford. The other is Fresno State. USC faced one NIT team from last year already in Wyoming and has another one down the road in Pepperdine. In fact, those two teams squared off in the first round of the NIT last year with the Waves prevailing.

TROJANS VS. PRESEASON TOP 25 TEAMS — Only a handful of teams in the AP and ESPN/USA Today Preseason Top 25 polls loom ahead for the Trojans. In fact, the only preseason ranked teams on USC's schedule are UCLA, Stanford and Fresno State. Arizona, left off of both polls, returned quickly to the rankings however after the first week and should be added to the slate. Wyoming, USC's first opponent, chimed in at No. 35 on the ESPN/USA Today Poll to start the year.

A (BRIEF) LOOK BACK AT LAST YEAR — The new millennium was good to USC basketball. The Trojans reached their first Elite Eight since 1954 and enjoyed their first 20-win season since 1992. They opened in the pre-season Top 25 for the first time since the 1978-79 season, reached as high as No. 12 in the polls for the first time since hitting No. 8 in 1992 and had four players (Brian Scalabrine, Jeff Trepagnier, Sam Clancy and Brandon Granville) crack the 1,000-point barrier. USC's 10 home wins to open this year were its most in a row to start a season since 1975. The Trojans, who played the first 12 games of the season without Trepagnier because of injuries and suspensions, still won their first eight games, including a win over No. 18 Utah that propelled USC to a season-best No. 12 in the rankings. USC's first defeat came in a one-point overtime loss to Top-25 Mississippi in the Yahoo! Sports Invitational in Laie, Hawaii. The next game, however, the Trojans made up for the loss by erasing an 18-point halftime deficit against BYU. USC finished the non-conference slate 10-2 and opened the Pac-10 with a pair of home wins against the Washington schools. The Trojans were brought down to earth a bit after falling at UCLA and losing a hard-fought battle at Arizona. But USC then won three in a row, defeating Arizona State on the road and taking care of the Oregon schools at home. The Trojans next travelled to top-ranked Stanford and trailed by three with a minute to go, but fell by six. USC responded to the loss with a convincing 80-66 win at Cal two days later. The momentum slowed at that point as the Trojans lost three of their next four games, falling to UCLA, defeating Arizona State at home before losing consecutively to Arizona at home and Oregon State on the road. The Trojans then found themselves in Eugene where, down by 12 with five minutes to play, they stormed back to force overtime in an eventual win. USC once again played No. 1 Stanford to the final buzzer (losing by two when Granville was unable to get a shot off as time expired) and then completed a season sweep of Cal two days later. USC finished off the regular season with trouncings at Washington and Washington State. It opened the 2001 NCAA Tournament with an 69-54 win over Oklahoma State and followed it with a 74-71 win over Boston College to earn a trip to the Sweet 16. The Trojans then defeated Kentucky, 80-76, setting up their final game of the year vs. Duke in the East Regional Final. USC fell to the Blue Devils, 79-69, losing to the eventual national champions.

A LOOK BACK AT LAST YEAR'S NCAA TOURNAMENT — USC's appearance in the East Regional Final of the 2001 NCAA Tournament against Duke marked the first team Troy had reached the round of eight since 1954. The only other time USC was among the final eight teams was 1940. The No. 6-seed Trojans used wins over No. 11-seed Oklahoma State and No. 3-seed Boston College in Long Island, N.Y., to advance to the Sweet 16. Then, in Philadelphia, USC downed No. 2-seed Kentucky to reach the East Regional Final, where it fell to top-seed and eventual NCAA Champion Duke. Sam Clancy, David Bluthenthal and Brian Scalabrine all earned East Regional All-NCAA Tournament Team honors.

SCALABRINE AND TREPAGNIER GO TO THE NBA — Among the components that will need to be replaced from last year's squad are forward/center Brian Scalabrine and guard Jeff Trepagnier. Scalabrine, USC's sixth-leading scorer ever, and Trepagnier, the Trojans' 15th-top scorer in school history, were both drafted in the second round of the NBA draft. Scalabrine, USC's second-leading scorer last year (14.7), went 35th to the New Jersey Nets and Trepagnier went 36th to the Cleveland Cavaliers. Also gone from last year's team was top reserve Jarvis Turner, who signed a contract to play overseas. USC is also without graduated guard Tyler Murphy as well as center Luke Minor (academics) and Nate Hair (left team).

HENRY BIBBY

Henry Bibby, a coach with 19 years of college and professional experience and the only player to ever play for an NCAA, NBA and CBA championship team, is in his sixth full season in 2001-2002 as the head coach of the USC men's basketball program. This past year he guided the Trojans to their first ever NCAA Tournament Elite Eight appearance under the tournament's current format and led USC to its fourth winning season and third postseason berth (two NCAA, one NIT) under his watch ... With the Trojans on the rise, Bibby was rewarded with a three-year contract extension on Aug. 4, 2000, which will take him through the 2004-2005 season ... In 2001, Bibby led USC to perhaps its greatest season ever. In their second NCAA Tournament appearance under Bibby, the No. 6-seeded Trojans reached the East Regional Final before losing to Duke. USC's three NCAA Tournament wins (against No. 11 seed Oklahoma State, No. 2 seed Boston College and No. 3 seed Kentucky) were its most ever in one tourney and the Trojans' final record of 24-10 matched the most wins ever in one season at USC. The Trojans finished 11-7 in the Pac-10 (tied for fourth place) ... The Trojans' landmark team that Bibby guided featured a pair of NBA draft picks in forward/center Brian Scalabrine and guard Jeff Trepagnier. The pair was taken back-to-back in the second round of the 2001 draft, Scalabrine going to New Jersey with the 35th pick while Trepagnier went 36th to Cleveland. They were the second and third Trojans taken in the NBA draft since Bibby has been at USC (the first was Rodrick Rhodes in 1997) ... In his five years as head coach, Bibby has been instrumental in player development and has guided seven players to a combined nine All-Pac-10 honors and four players to All-Pac-10 Freshman honors. Two Trojans (Rhodes and Scalabrine) have also earned the Pac-10 Newcomer of the Year award and another (Elias Ayuso) earned Pac-10 All-Newcomer first team notice. Six of USC's top 25 scorers of all time have played under Bibby.

SAM CLANCY

Senior • forward • 6-foot-7 • 240 pounds

■ Sam Clancy, an All-American, Wooden and Naismith Award candidate in 2002, is one of the Pac-10's top offensive and defensive threats and is equally adept from the post, the wing or the top of the key. A major shot-blocking and rebounding presence in the paint, Clancy is in his fourth year as a starting forward.

■ Clancy is USC's all-time leading shot-blocker (155). He has started 75 of his 86 games at USC. He is 17th on USC's career scoring chart with 1,117 career points and was the 25th Trojan ever to reach the millennium milestone.

■ Clancy leads USC in scoring (14.2) and rebounding (10.4) and has eight blocks. He opened the 2002 season with three consecutive double-doubles: 22 points and 12 rebounds against Wyoming, 13 points and 12 rebounds against Fresno State and 18 points and 11 rebounds against UC Santa Barbara. He has 21 for his career. He scored only six points at Bradley, but did get 10 rebounds, keeping his double-digit board streak alive.

■ Clancy earned 2001 Pacific-10 Conference, Sporting News Pac-10, NABC District 15 and USBWA District 9 first-team honors as a junior forward, leading USC in scoring (17.3), rebounding (7.5), field goal percentage (.501) and blocked shots (81).

■ He set a school season record for rejections (81) last year. His 588 points on the season were the fifth-most in school history and his 255 rebounds were the 14th most ever at USC.

■ Clancy earned 2001 East Regional All-NCAA Tournament Team honors as he led USC in scoring (18.0), rebounding (10.8) and blocks (4.0) in the Trojans' four NCAA Tournament games.

■ He posted career highs of 31 points twice, once in the season-opener vs. Bradley and again at UCLA (to go with 13 rebounds).

■ Clancy was named Pac-10 Player of the Week for the week of Dec. 25-Jan. 1. He averaged 19.5 points, 10.5 rebounds, 4.5 blocks and 2.5 steals in USC's loss at Northwestern and win over Long Beach State.

■ After the 2001 season, Clancy declared for the NBA draft, but did not sign with an agent, allowing him the option to return to school. Before he removed his name from the draft list, he participated in a three-day NBA Pre-Draft Camp in Chicago, where he was the leading scorer (42 points) and rebounder (28).

■ (J.A. Adande of the Los Angeles Times): "(Sam) can score inside or deftly pass to (former teammate Brian) Scalabrino from the high post. He makes the 18-foot jump shot from the baseline or beyond the free throw line. He snatches rebounds at rim level and blocks shots inside or on the perimeter."

■ (Joe Juliano of the Philadelphia Inquirer): "Sam Clancy resembles a tight end on the basketball court. At 6-foot-7 and 240 pounds, he's not someone who's easy to hide."

■ (Trojan teammate David Bluthenthal): "Teams will try to trash-talk him, but you can't really get to Sam. When I guard him in practice,

I talk at him and he talks back to me, but it doesn't affect the way he plays. You can't really faze him."

DAVID BLUTHENTHAL

Senior • forward • 6-foot-7 • 220 pounds

■ David Bluthenthal, among 50 Preseason Wooden Award candidates, returns for his third year as a starting small forward in 2002 and is one of the top all-around threats in the Pac-10. One of the league's premier three-point shooters, he's also an aggressive rebounder who led the Trojans in that category as a sophomore.

■ Bluthenthal has started 63 of his 89 games at USC. He is 10th on USC's career three-point chart (116). He also shares the Trojan record for most rebounds in a game (28).

■ He is second on the team in scoring (10.8) and rebounding (7.4).

■ Bluthenthal broke out of his shooting slump against UC Santa Barbara on Nov. 26. Midway through the second half, he was still 0-for-10 on the season, but got hot quickly and made five three-pointers in the final 12 minutes and finished with a game-high 19 points. He followed it up with 14 points and eight rebounds at Bradley. He had nine points off the bench against Rhode Island.

■ Bluthenthal was USC's second-leading rebounder (6.8) and third-leading scorer (13.5) as a junior in 2001. He led the Trojans in three-point percentage (65-of-159, .409) and total three-pointers and was second on the team in steals (50).

■ He earned 2001 East Regional All-NCAA Tournament Team honors by averaging 16.0 points and 6.3 rebounds in the postseason.

■ Bluthenthal, named to the 2001 Jewish Sports Review All-America first team, tied a career- and season-high with 29 points at Oregon. He also had five three-pointers and set a career high with five steals.

■ He led USC in rebounding (or tied for team-high honors) 15 times last year and had four consecutive double-doubles against Utah, Cal State Northridge, UC Santa Barbara and Pepperdine.

■ Bluthenthal earned his second career Pac-10 Player of the Week honor after the doubles vs. UCSB and CSUN.

■ Including a streak of 33 free throws in a row continued from his sophomore year, Bluthenthal set USC and Pac-10 record for consecutive free throws at 41. Bluthenthal also owned the Pac-10 record for consecutive in-league free throws at 42. Both Pac-10 marks, however, were broken by Stanford's Ryan Mendez ... Bluthenthal was named to the 2001 U.S. team for the World Maccabiah Games, but did not play.

■ What a fan told his dad, Ralph, following Bluthenthal's Dennis Rodman-esque 28 rebounds vs. Arizona State in 2000: "He said he was expecting to see a big guy with green hair and they saw me instead."

■ (Todd Harmonson, of the Orange County Register): "He has become USC's most dependable starter and made the transformation from the player no one knew to the one no one dares to ignore."

BRANDON GRANVILLE

Senior • guard • 5-foot-9 • 175 pounds

■ Brandon Granville is USC's all-time leader in assists (the Pac-10's active leader, eighth in league history) and is starting at point guard for the Trojans for his fourth season in 2002.

■ Granville is USC's first four-year starting point guard since Jacques Hill (1980-83). He has started 93 of his 97 games at USC. He is first on USC's career chart in assists (627), second in three-pointers (170) and is third in steals (184). He has 1,076 career points, 22nd most ever at USC. He was the 24th player in school history to eclipse 1,000 points. He is one of only four Trojans ever to have at least 150 career three-pointers.

■ He is fifth on the team in scoring (9.2) and first in assists (6.4) and steals (1.8).

■ Had his first double-double of the season with 10 assists and 12 points vs. UCSB.

■ In the 2002 opener, he had 11 points, five assists and three steals in 31 minutes. At Fresno State, he had eight points, seven assists and six rebounds.

■ Last season, Granville led the Pac-10 in assists (6.1) for the second consecutive year and finished as USC fourth-leading scorer (12.4).

■ Granville's 207 assists last year were the second-most ever in a season at USC, behind only his school season record of 248 set as a sophomore.

■ His 2001 NCAA Tournament highlights included 14 points, four steals and five assists against Oklahoma State and nine points and six assists versus Boston College. He also had eight assists vs. Kentucky and seven against Duke.

■ He scored a season-high 22 points twice last year, at Arizona State and vs. Cal.

■ As a sophomore in 2000, Granville dished out more assists than any USC guard in school history (and the third most ever in the Pac-10) when he had 248 en route to All-Pac-10 honorable mention honors. He led the Pac-10 in assists (8.3, fourth nationally), was fourth in steals (2.1) and 10th in free throw percentage (.786). Granville set a USC single-game record with 15 assists against Memphis in the Maui Invitational (tied for sixth-best in Pac-10 history).

■ (Former teammate Brian Scalabrine): "Everything happens for us when Brandon is in control of the basketball. And we're out of sync without him. In this league, everything begins, offensively and defensively, with your point guard."

DESMON FARMER

Sophomore • guard • 6-foot-4 • 225 pounds

■ Desmond Farmer is a 2002 sophomore with a great scoring touch and a fiery defensive presence who looks to start this year.

■ After not playing a minute at Bradley, Farmer started against Rhode Island and came up big, posting his first career double-double with 20 points and a career-high 10 rebounds. His four three-pointers were also a career best.

■ Farmer is USC's third-leading scorer (9.8) and rebounder (5.8).

■ Starting at shooting guard against Wyoming, Farmer had 10 points and five rebounds. He also started at Fresno State, but scored only two points in 16 minutes. He had seven points off the bench against UCSB.

■ Farmer started 16 of 32 games as a 2001 freshman guard last year, most of his starts coming in place of Jeff Trepagnier, who was out for the first half of last season.

■ Farmer averaged 6.4 points and 2.8 rebounds in 18.8 minutes per game last year. He started in 15 of his first 16 games, averaging 9.1 points through the first half of the season. When Trepagnier returned, Farmer became a key reserve off the bench.

■ He scored a career-high 24 points and had three assists in USC's Pac-10 opener vs. Washington State.

■ He had 21 points and a career-best nine rebounds against CSUN. He scored 14 points in 26 minutes vs. then-No. 8 Arizona at home and 14 points and seven rebounds vs. Loyola Marymount.

KOSTAS CHARISSIS

Junior • center • 6-foot-11 • 250 pounds

■ Kostas Charissis, a native of Greece, is a 2002 junior who will look to have an increased role on this year's squad. His full first name is Konstantinos. Originally suspended for the Trojans' first 15 regular-season games this season for a violation of NCAA amateurism rules, it was reduced to three games and he is now eligible to play. The original suspension stems from the fact that before he attended USC, Charissis played on a club team in Greece which included professional players. Even though he played as an amateur, this is an NCAA violation.

■ Charissis played in his first game of the season at Bradley, getting three rebounds in seven minutes, but missed his only two shots. He also went scoreless in three minutes vs. Rhode Island.

■ Charissis played in 18 games as a sophomore reserve center in 2001. He averaged 1.2 points and 1.2 rebounds in 4.7 minutes per game

■ He made his first start of the season vs. Washington. He scored four points in a season-high 12 minutes ... He had four points vs. Long Beach State and Oregon State ... He scored two points and had two rebounds in three minutes in USC's opener vs. Bradley.

■ Charissis played in 26 of 30 games as a 2000 freshman center and started 13 times after injuries depleted USC's frontcourt, including the last 10 games in a row.

■ He had by far his most productive game of his career as a freshman at No. 4 Arizona, posting career highs in points (nine), rebounds (eight), minutes (33), free throws made and attempted (3 of 4) and assists (four).

ROBERT HUTCHINSON

(RS) Junior • guard • 6-foot-1 • 195 pounds

■ Robert Hutchinson is back as a junior reserve point guard in 2002 who figures to give the Trojans quality minutes behind starter Brandon Granville.

■ He made his third career start against Rhode Island, grabbing a career-high five rebounds and tying a career-high with three assists in 19 minutes.

■ Hutchinson scored his first four points of the season at Bradley, making his only shot and canning both free throw attempts. He added two assists and a steal. He also had two assists against UCSB. On the season, he has eight assists and two turnovers, averaging 10.8 minutes per game.

■ Hutchinson played in every game as a reserve point guard as a 2001 sophomore, averaging 1.2 points in 7.4 minutes per game.

■ He became a hero, however, with his play against Boston College in the second round of the 2001 NCAA Tournament. Filling in for Brandon Granville, who had fouled out, Hutchinson stepped in admirably, making 5-of-6 free throws in the final 77 seconds to go with two rebounds and a key assist, helping seal the win. He then played 12 minutes vs. Kentucky in the Sweet 16 and six minutes vs. Duke.

■ He started his first game at Northwestern, but went scoreless in 14 minutes. He then started against Washington and scored two points in 19 minutes.

■ Hutchinson had six points vs. then-No. 8 Arizona at home.

GENNARO BUSTERNA

Senior • guard • 6-foot-3 • 205 pounds

■ Gennaro Busterna is a senior who has a soft perimeter touch and could be looked on to provide offense off the bench in 2002.

■ Busterna has seen a combined five minutes in four games this season, but is 0-2 from the field this year with one rebound.

■ He came to USC as a JUCO transfer as a 2001 junior guard, but saw limited action off the bench

■ Busterna played in eight games, but only averaged 1.9 minutes per contest and missed all seven of his field goal attempts

■ Sidelined much of the season by a toe injury, Busterna began suiting up in the Washington State game, but did not make his debut until playing four minutes off the bench at Arizona, going scoreless ... He played one minute at Arizona State and three minutes against Oregon State ... He got in late against UCLA at the Sports Arena, but missed both of his three-point attempts.

■ Busterna spent the previous two seasons at McCook (Neb.) College. As a sophomore, Busterna was the 2000 Nebraska Junior College and Nebraska Community College Athletic Conference Player of the Year and earned 2000 All-Region 9 first team honors while leading McCook to a 25-6 record.

JERRY DUPREE

ERRICK CRAVEN

Freshman • guard • 6-foot-2 • 170 pounds

■ Errick Craven, a freshman guard in 2002 and identical twin brother of fellow Trojan freshman Derrick Craven, is an athletic addition to the team whose intensity on defense and growing offensive skills should be a boon for the Trojans.

■ In his second start, Craven had a huge game against Rhode Island, scoring 20 points and blocking three shots. He was 5-of-5 from three-point range, tying the USC record for most threes made in a game without a miss.

■ He was named the No. 10 best prep shooting guard in the country by ESPN.com.

RORY O'NEIL

Freshman • center • 6-foot-11 • 220 pounds

■ Rory O'Neil, a freshman center in 2002, figures to add immediate help to USC's frontcourt. A talented big man, O'Neil comes to Troy with a solid scoring touch and a good feel for the game.

■ O'Neil has started three of five games, averaging 6.2 points and 4.0 rebounds in 19.4 minutes per game. His eight blocks are tied for team high.

■ Made his first collegiate start against UCSB, scoring eight points and blocking two shots in 23 minutes. He was 4-of-7 from the floor. He made his second start at Bradley, blocking four shots to go with eight rebounds and four points in 20 minutes. He had six points and three rebounds vs. Rhode Island.

■ Curtis earned 2001 Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-CIF Division I-AAA first team and Los Angeles Times All-Ventura and All-Pacific View League MVP honors while leading Oxnard to a 25-4 record as a senior in 2001.

■ Derrick Craven will be out four to six weeks (as of Nov. 19), recovering from a stress fracture in his right leg. He is expected back in late December or early January. He did not see action in USC's first two games.

■ Craven prepped at Bishop Montgomery High in Torrance, Calif., where he averaged 16.4 points, 6.4 rebounds, 5.6 assists and 1.9 steals while shooting 56.0% from the field as a 2001 senior while leading the Knights to both their second consecutive California and CIF Southern Section Division III titles.

USC opened the 2002 season and the Pre-season NIT with a 68-55 win over Mountain West Conference favorite Wyoming. Two Trojans made their debuts in the starting lineup: freshman forward Nick Curtis and sophomore forward Jerry Dupree. Dupree responded with 13 points, seven rebounds and three blocks while Curtis scored six points in 11 minutes. The Cowboys led for most of the first half and led 32-25 with 5:29 left. USC then went on an 11-0 Trojan run to close the half and went into the break up 36-32. USC increased the run to 17-0 by scoring the first six points of the second half to go ahead by 10. The Cowboys closed to within 46-42, but a Dupree dunk and back-to-back baskets by David Bluthenthal replenished the lead to 10. Wyoming did not get closer than seven points again..

Fresno, CA

Despite holding Fresno State to just 28.1% from the field, USC fell in Fresno, 65-58. The Trojans trailed 39-25 at the half, but battled back with a fierce second half defensive effort, eventually tying the game at 56-56 on a Brandon Granville three-pointer with 3:13 to play. But the Trojans' offense went dry and the Bulldogs used free throws down the stretch to stave off the Trojans. USC was led by 13 points and 12 rebounds by Sam Clancy, 12 points from Jerry Dupree and 11 points off the bench from O'Neil. USC held Fresno State to 16-of-57 from the floor, but nine of those baskets were three-pointers and the Bulldogs also made 24-of-32 free throws.

Los Angeles, CA

Propelled by five three-pointers and 19 points from David Bluthenthal and 18 points and 11 rebounds from Sam Clancy, USC came back to defeat UC Santa Barbara. Cold in the early season from three-point range, USC canned 8-of-14 three-point attempts in the second half. UCSB led 22-10 with 11:33 left in the first half, but USC closed the first half with a 12-2 run and led 31-30 at the break. Santa Barbara rebuilt much of its lead in the second half, going up 46-38 with 11:48 to play. That's when Bluthenthal found his stroke. He made his first three-pointer of the season with 11:39 to go, his second less than a minute later and his third put USC ahead for good at 50-48 with 8:47 remaining. The Gauchos held firm, though, and were within two points at 59-47 with 4:05 left. Still smoking, Bluthenthal sank back-to-back bombs to give USC a 65-59 edge with 2:55 to go. From there, USC made 6-of-8 foul shots and held UCSB to only one more basket the rest of the way to secure its second win of the season.
