HEAD COACH: Henry Bibby

ASSISTANTS: Marvin Menzies, Eric Brown, Mike Johnson

LOS ANGELES — USC (13-14, 8-10), a finalist in the 2002 and 2003 Pac-10 Tournaments, tries again for its first ever Pac-10 Tournament title -- and the automatic NCAA berth that comes with it -- as it takes on Arizona (19-8, 11-7) in the first round of the 2004 Pac-10 Tournament on Thursday (March 11) at 8:45 p.m. A winner of four of their past six games, USC is playing about as well as it has this year as it takes on a Wildcat team that finished the regular season with two straight wins. One year removed from back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances and 20-win seasons, eighth-year coach Henry Bibby's Trojans return eight lettermen, including five starters, and welcome a pair of talented freshmen and an eligible transfer.

GAME #28 — No. 6 seed USC (13-14, 8-10) vs. No. 3 seed Arizona (19-8, 11-7) on Thursday (March 11) at 8:45 p.m. The game will be televised live on FOX Sports Net and will be broadcast live on the radio on KMPC-AM 1540 in Los Angeles, KSPA-AM 1510 in Ontario/Orange County and XEMM-AM 800 in San Diego. 21st-year coach Lute Olson's Wildcats finished the regular season with a 106-81 drubbing of Arizona State Saturday. Arizona, ranked No. 16 by ESPN/USA Today and No. 21 by AP, features three of the top eight scorers in the Pac-10 in junior guard Salim Stoudamire (17.1, fifth), sophomore guard Hasaan Adams (16.7, sixth) and junior center Channing Frye (15.8, eighth). Sophomore forward Andre Iguodala is third in the Pac-10 in rebounding (8.8) while Frye is seventh (7.3) and Adams is eighth (7.1). Frye leads the Pac-10 in blocks per game (2.1) while Iguodala is second in assists (5.2). The Wildcats lead the Pac-10 in scoring (87.9), field goal percentage (48.8%) and free throw percentage (77.9%) and are second in three-point percentage (39.0%).

FARMER, LODRICK STEWART EARN PAC-10 HONORS — Senior guard Desmon Farmer was named to the Pac-10 All-Conference first team while freshman guard Lodrick Stewart earned All-Freshman honors the Pac-10 announced on Monday (March 8). It is the first first-team Pac-10 honor for Farmer, who was an honorable mention selection last year. Farmer led USC in scoring in 17 of 27 games, scoring in double digits in all but two games. He scored 20 or more points 12 times and scored 25 or more nine times. His 40 points in USC's win against

Game 28 vs. Arizona

March 11, 2004
Staples Center (18,694)
Los Angeles, CA — 8:45 p.m.

On the Air

The USC-Arizona game will be televised live on FOX Sports Net and will be broadcast live on KMPC-AM 1540 in Los Angeles, KSPA-AM 1510 in Ontario/Orange County and XEMM-AM 800 in San Diego. Rory Markas handles the radio play-by-play, while ex-USC assistant coach Jim Hefner adds the color commentary. All of USC's radio broadcasts feature short pre- and post-game shows immediately before and after the game.

Series

USC trails, 49-33. Arizona has defeated USC 19 times in a row in Tucson, but the Trojans have won five of the last eight meetings at the Sports Arena in Los Angeles, including a 99-90 win earlier this year. USC fell to Arizona in the Pac-10 Tournament title game in 2002, 81-71. The Trojans also lost a Pac-10 quarterfinal game in 1990 to the Wildcats.

Last Game

Arizona forced USC into a season low from the field and six Wildcats scored in double figures as the Trojans fell for the 19th time in a row in Tucson, 97-70, earlier this year. USC led 9-0 early, by 40-39 at the half and still led 53-52 with 14:32 when the floor caved in. The Wildcats pressured the Trojans into a spat of turnovers and went on a 14-0 run to lead 66-53 with 11:20 to go and USC did not get within single digits again. Arizona, led by Salim Stoudamire's 22 points, shot only 40.0% in the first half but hit 67.9% in the second half. USC, meanwhile, hit only 26.5% in the second half and was outscored 58-30 in the second period. The Trojans were led by a career-high 17 points and nine rebounds by Gregg Guenther, who started his first game of the year. Jeff McMillan made 6-of-8 shots en route to 13 points and Desmon Farmer had 11.

Coach

Arizona's Lute Olson is in his 21st year in Tucson. He has coached more than 850 collegiate games in his 30-plus-year coaching career, which includes nine years at Iowa and one season at Long Beach State. At Arizona, Olson has captured one NCAA title (1997), 10 Pac-10 titles and led the Wildcats to four Final Fours (1988, 1994, 1997 and 2001). He has been named Pac-10 Coach of the Year seven times. Arizona has gone to 19 consecutive NCAA Tournament's under Olson and has the nation's best winning percentage over the last 16 years.

FARMER NAMED PAC-10 PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Desmon Farmer earned his first career Pac-10 Player of the Week honor this week after he averaged 33.0 points and 5.0 rebounds in a split with the Arizona schools. In the upset win over No. 7 Arizona, Farmer posted a career-best 40 points on 11-of-18 (.611) shooting from the field, which included 7-of-11 (.636) from three-point range, and was 11-of-12 (.917) from the free throw line. It was the sixth 40-point effort in USC history, and the first since Harold Miner posted 43 points at Nebraska on Nov. 25, 1991. In the loss to Arizona State, Farmer responded with 26 points. For the weekend, he shot 18-of-36 (.500) from the field, 11-of-22 (.500) from three-point range and 19-of-20 (.950) from the charity stripe. The honor is the 24th all time for the Trojans. It is USC's first since David Bluthenthal won it late in the 2002 season ... The week's effort also earned Dick Vitale's national player of the week honor.

FARMER'S FORTY

Desmon Farmer joined less than 20 NCAA Division I players to score at least 40 points this season after he dropped that amount on No. 7 Arizona on Thursday. Farmer's career-high effort is the second-most in the Pac-10 this year and marked only the sixth time a Trojan has reached the 40-point plateau, tying John Rudometkin (Dec. 23, 1961) for fifth place on the single-game scoring list. John Block holds the record with 45, set on Feb. 11, 1966. Farmer's 40 was the most any Trojan has scored since Harold Miner had 43 at Nebraska on Nov. 25, 1991.

MORE ON FARMER

Desmon Farmer scored a combined 88 points in three consecutive games at Washington State (22), against Arizona (40) and against Arizona State (26), the biggest three-game outburst since Harold Miner scored a combined 97 points against California, Stanford and UCLA late in the 1992 season ... Farmer's 40 points against the Wildcats eclipsed his previous high of 35 last year at Washington State, making him one of only seven Trojans to score at least 35 points twice in his USC career. He's also one of only 11 Trojans to score at least 30 points three times in his USC career ... Farmer surpassed the 1,600-point plateau at Oregon State, becoming the third Trojan and 58th player in Pac-10 history to do it.

PRONUNCIATION GUIDE

Gregg Guenther Jr. GUN-thir

Arizona was only the sixth time a Trojan has reached the 40-point plateau, tying John Rudometkin (Dec. 23, 1961) for fifth place on the single-game scoring list. It was the most any Trojan has scored since Harold Miner had 43 at Nebraska on Nov. 25, 1991. Farmer 1,602 points is third on USC's career chart. Farmer is USC's 53rd All-Conference selection. USC is third among Pac-10 schools behind only UCLA (62) and Washington (55). Stewart has averaged 8.3 points and is tied for seventh in the Pac-10 in steals (1.5). He is USC's first All-Freshman selection since Errick Craven earned the honor in 2002. Stanford's Josh Childress was named Pac-10 Player of the Year, California's Leon Powe was named Freshman of the Year and Stanford Coach Mike Montgomery was named Coach of the Year.

McMILLAN NAMED PAC-10 NEWCOMER OF THE YEAR — Junior forward Jeff McMillan, averaging 11.3 points and 8.7 rebounds, was named the Pac-10's 2004 Newcomer of the Year, the Pac-10 announced on Friday (March 5). His 63.8% shooting percentage leads the conference and his rebound average is tied for second. He is the third Trojan to win the award, following Brian Scalabrine (1999) and Rodrick Rhodes (1997).

USC AT OREGON STATE RECAP — USC, led by Desmon Farmer's 24 points, jumped out to a big lead and, like has happened often this year, had to hold on at the end to defeat Oregon State, 63-60, on Saturday (March 6). USC led by as many as 16 points in the first half, led by 15 at the half and still led by nine at 50-41 with 8:46 to play. But the Beavers, paced by Chris Stephens' 22 points, caught USC at 50-50 and then led 56-54 with 3:37 to play. USC went ahead by one at 58-57 with 2:26 to go and went up by four at 61-57 on a Lodrick Stewart three-pointer with 1:04 to play. Stephens' fourth three-pointer cut the deficit back to one with 38 seconds remaining. Oregon State then fouled Farmer with 23 seconds and the senior made 1-of-2 to give USC a 62-60 lead with 23 ticks left. But Lucas missed on consecutive field goal attempts before Stewart was fouled with seven seconds on the clock. He made 1-of-2 shots to give USC its 63-60 lead. The Beavers never got off a shot on their final possession, Stewart forcing a steal as time expired.

USC AT OREGON STATE NOTES — USC limited Oregon State to opponent lows in field goal percentage (30.5%) and field goals (18). The Beavers' first-half efforts of 23.3% shooting and seven field goals were also opponent lows ... Desmon Farmer's 24 points gives him 1,602, becoming the 58th player in the Pac-10 to score at least 1,600 in his career ... His 540 points leave him 11th on USC's single-season scoring list ... He finished conference play averaging 20.8 points, becoming the first Trojan to average more than 20 points in Pac-10 play in back-to-back seasons since Harold Miner did it three straight years (1990-92) ... He now has 83 three-pointers, tying for third (with Anthony Pendleton) on USC's season three-point chart. His 237 three-point attempts are the second most ever in a season at USC, six behind record holder Dwayne Hackett (1993) ... With his three blocks Rory O'Neil moved into a tie for seventh on USC's season blocks chart with 42.

USC AT OREGON RECAP — Despite 25 points by Desmon Farmer and 15 points and 13 rebounds by Jeff McMillan, USC fell in a close game at Oregon, 75-70, on Thursday. USC had a chance to tie the game with less than 30 seconds to play, but Rory O'Neil's three-point attempt was short. Oregon's Andre Joseph was fouled and made two free throws to seal the win. USC, playing without third-leading scorer Errick Craven (suspended by the Pac-10 for the game), led by 12 points (37-25) late in the first half, but Oregon closed to within 39-33 at the break. The Ducks, led by 20 points by Luke Jackson, then hit back-to-back three-pointers to open the second half to tie the game. The momentum on its side, Oregon slowly built a lead, which reached its height at 61-51 with 7:27 to play. USC still trailed by eight at 70-62 with 2:59 to go when Lodrick Stewart hit a three-pointer. A Jeff McMillan layup with 1:30 to go brought USC to within 71-67 and then, after two Oregon free throws, Derrick Craven hit a three to bring USC to within 73-70. The Trojans stopped the Ducks on their next possession, setting up O'Neil's tying attempt.

DEZ IN THE FIRST HALF NOTE — Farmer has scored in double figures 15 times in the first halves of games this year, including in 14 of the past 20 games. Twenty-three of his 40 points against No. 7 Arizona came in the first half and he also had a 21-point first-half outburst against Lafayette. His other double-digit first-half scoring efforts include 18 points against Cal State Northridge and Arizona State, 16 at Washington State and at Oregon, 14 at UCLA, 13 against Oregon and at Stanford, 12 against Cal Poly and Washington, 11 at Arizona State, against Stanford and at Oregon State and 10 against UCLA.

AN ERRICK CRAVEN STEALS NOTE WITH GARY PAYTON — If Errick Craven remains in first in the Pac-10 in steals average, he will become the first player in the league to lead the conference in the category in three consecutive seasons since Gary Payton did it at Oregon State from 1988-90.

STATS WE'RE KEEPING AN EYE ON — Jeff McMillan, currently shooting 63.3% from the field, is on pace to shatter USC's season field goal percentage of 57.44% (Steve Smith, 1979). In fact, McMillan would have to go 0-of-19 from the field in his next game to drop below Smith's mark. McMillan is also leading the Pac-10 in the category and would be the first Trojan ever to do so if he remains in first ... Desmon Farmer has played in 120 games at USC. Only USC record holder Brandon Granville (124) has played in more. Farmer also has played 3,224 minutes, good for seventh on USC's all-time list.

GREEN LANTERN — Desmon Farmer could be confused with the superhero, because he's always got the green light (to shoot). The streaky senior shooting guard has had his ups and downs from the field, but his ability to score in bunches is undeniable, like his 11 points in OT against UCLA on Feb. 25, nine in the final 91 seconds. His ability to get hot fast (witness 40 points on seven three-pointers against Arizona, 21 first-half points against Lafayette and six threes at Fresno State) is enough for Coach Bibby to give him the go-ahead to keep taking shots from open looks. Farmer is averaging more than 15 field goal attempts per game, including more than eight three-pointers per game. In fact, Farmer is seven three-point attempts away from breaking Dwayne Hackett's team season record of 243.

BATTLE FOR THIRD-ANNUAL LEXUS GAUNTLET — The Trojans have captured all 10 men's basketball points for the 2003-04 Lexus Gauntlet, winning 76-69 earlier this year at Pauley Pavilion and 78-77 in overtime at USC. The Lexus Gauntlet is a season-long competition between USC and UCLA in all sports. Points are awarded to the winner of each Bruin-Trojan head-to-head contest throughout the year and the Lexus Gauntlet trophy is awarded to the school with the most points at year's end. USC captured the inaugural trophy in 2001-02, but the Bruins took the title last season. So far this year, USC leads 42.5-25.

STATUS REPORT — The Trojans have been shorthanded since October. Below is a breakdown of the players in question.

- Senior guard Desmon Farmer suffered a bruised left hand at UCLA on Jan. 28 and a sprained ankle in practice on Feb 10. The ankle is good, but the left hand is still bothering him and he is playing with his left wrist wrapped.
- Rodrick Stewart suffered a cut lip and blurred vision after a collision with Jason Braxton in the second half of the Arizona State game (taking a charge), but has not missed any time since.
- Junior forward Nick Curtis missed six games in a row earlier this year with tendinitis in his left knee (which caused him to miss both of USC's exhibition games as well) before returning to action at Washington State on Jan. 10, playing seven minutes. He's played in every game since and has shown signs of his strong start from last season.
- Beefy junior forward Gregg Guenther Jr. wrapped up his season as a tight end on the No. 1-ranked football team, finishing off with a key fourth-quarter third-down catch in USC's win over Michigan. A day later, he suited up against Oregon and played 13 minutes, scoring seven points.
- Freshman guard Quinton Day left the team in December. USC Coach Henry Bibby officially announced he would not return on Jan 2.
- Senior guard Roydell Smiley, who broke his leg in the Pac-10 Championship game in March, was expected to be back by this time, but is still experiencing pain in his left knee and underwent arthroscopic surgery on Dec. 30. He has been out since and is likely to redshirt.
- Senior center Jonathan Oliver missed USC's first six games and first three months of practice while concentrating on academics, but returned to the team on Dec. 18 and made his season debut at Fresno State on Dec. 19.
- Junior forward Jeff McMillan, hampered by a stress fracture in his left foot during the preseason, has been USC's workhorse, averaging almost 30 minutes per game.
- USC added a fifth walk-on, senior forward Joe Buck, who became eligible on Dec. 18 (he since received a scholarship). He's seen action seven times. A sixth walk-on, 6-foot freshman guard Chris Penrose, joined the team after the Lafayette game.

ELEVEN CLOSE SHAVES AND A BLOWOUT — USC has played mostly close games this season when it wins. Eleven of its 13 wins have come by single-digit margins, none of them secured until the final minute(s) of each, four in overtime. The Trojans won by a comfortable margin against Lafayette, posting its first double-digit win of the season and biggest win since a 25-point victory at UNLV last year. On the flip side, 12 of the Trojans' 14 losses are by at least nine points, though the defeat to UNLV was also an overtime affair, one which saw USC give up a seven-point lead with little more than a minute left in regulation. USC also trailed Stanford by only three with a minute to play before the Cardinal pulled away.

THREE-POINT HIGHS AND LOWS — The Trojans have been a streaky three-point team, either hot or cold, making 40.0% or more nine times but 31.8% or less 16 other times. Overall, USC is shooting only 31.2% from behind the arc while Trojan opponents have made 36.8% of their trey attempts and have made 22 more than USC. In fact, Troy has allowed eight double-digit three-point performances compared to only two such efforts all of last season.

HIS PERFECT DAY — Junior guard Derrick Craven was perfect from the field at St. Mary's, going 7-of-7. It was the first time a Trojan made as many field goals without a miss since Brian Scalabrine went 7-of-7 against Memphis in the Maui Invitational on Nov. 23, 1999. Jeff McMillan was close to that at Oregon on March 4, going 6-for-6.

MINUTE MAN — Junior forward Jeff McMillan joined an exclusive club earlier this year, becoming just the third Trojan ever to play more than 40 minutes in back-to-back games. He played 42 minutes in USC's win over Cal State Fullerton on Dec. 9, which followed 41 minutes in the Trojans' victory over St. Mary's on Dec. 6. The other two Trojans to do it, Wayne Carlander and Jacque Hill, were teammates in 1982. In overtime games at Washington (a Jan. 2 loss) and Washington State (a Jan. 4 win), Carlander played 45 minutes in both while Hill played 44 against the Huskies and 41 against the Cougars. Carlander played another 37 minutes in his next game, giving him a three-game USC record of 127 minutes. McMillan played 39 minutes in his next two games, giving him 161 in a four-game span (40.3).

TOEING THE (FOUL) LINE — The Trojans have been a hit-or-miss team from the free throw line this year. USC was solid from the free throw line through its first five games, hitting a combined 75.5% of their free throws, making at least 75.0% four times. But USC came back down to earth hard in the next three games, making only a combined 46.3% (25-of-54). USC then shot 73.3% in its next seven games but dipped again in the next six, going 54.3% (82-of-151). In its last 12 games, USC has shot 70.0% or better only three times.

OVERTIME NUGGET — USC played three consecutive overtime games earlier this year (UNLV, St. Mary's, Cal State Fullerton), a first in school history. It played its fourth OT game at Arizona State and a season-high fifth against UCLA.

BAD LUCK BACK EAST — USC has had little luck lately when it's travelled east to cross more than one time zone during the regular season. Since Henry Bibby has been coach at USC, he's gone 2-8 when playing in either the central or eastern times in regular-season play. Losses include games at North Carolina (1997), Tennessee (1997), Ohio State (1998), Kansas (1999), St. Bonaventure (2000), Northwestern (2001) and Western Michigan (2003). The only wins came at UNC-Charlotte (1997) and at Bradley (2002). USC also played three games in the eastern time zone during the 2001 NCAA Tournament, going 3-1.

THE RETURNERS — USC senior Desmon Farmer is USC's leading returning scorer. His 18.7 scoring average was fourth best in the Pac-10 last year and good enough to earn 2003 All-Pac-10 honorable mention honors. He was also selected to the Pac-10 All-Tournament team after he averaged 22.0 points and 4.3 rebounds in the conference tourney. He scored in double figures 27 times and had at least 20 points 14 times and became USC's 28th player with at least 1,000 career points ... Junior guard Errick Craven is USC's second-leading returning scorer after posting a scoring clip of 13.0 points. He started 26 times and became the first Trojan ever to lead USC in rebounds (5.3), assists (2.6) and steals (2.5) in the same season. His 73 steals were the most in the Pac-10 and second-most ever at USC in a season (behind Jeff Trepagnier's 94) ... Junior center Rory O'Neil rounds out USC's trio of returning scorers in double figures (10.1). He led the team in blocked shots (1.3, fifth in the Pac-10) and was fourth in rebounding (4.9). He averaged 14.7 points and 7.3 rebounds in the Pac-10 Tournament, earning All-Tournament honors ... Senior guard Roydell Smiley is a sharpshooting swingman who averaged 8.6 points in 2003 despite battling nagging knee injuries for most of the season. He made the second-most three-pointers on the team (40) and shot a team-high 84.4% from the free throw line (38-of-45). He suffered a broken leg in USC's final game of the season and has yet to return to 100% ... Junior guard Derrick Craven, identical twin of Errick, returns after starting for most of last season at the point. He averaged 4.6 points and 2.2 rebounds last year and was one of only two Trojans to play in every game

(along with Farmer). His 40 steals and 70 assists were both the second-highest totals on the team ... Junior forward Nick Curtis, who had a strong start in 2003 derailed by nagging foot injuries, still hopes to make an impact for the Trojans. His 2004, however, has again been plagued by injuries, limiting his time. He averaged 6.6 points and 5.3 rebounds (tied for team high) in 21.0 minutes, posting three double-doubles and starting 15 times last year ... Senior center Jonathan Oliver joins Farmer and Smiley as the three seniors on the team. Oliver saw limited action last year as a reserve and missed most of the preseason this year while concentrating on his academics. He is back now and Bibby hopes he can contribute to the Trojans' front line ... Junior forward Gregg Guenther Jr., a two-sport player at USC, became a boon to Bibby last year in his second season switching from football to basketball. A starter at tight end for football as a junior, he joined the basketball team after the Rose Bowl. Guenther averaged 6.2 points and 5.0 rebounds in 18.6 minutes, starting nine of 19 games and showed marked improvement in his second year with the team. His overall rebound average was third on the team and his 6.1 boards per game in Pac-10 play was eighth in the conference ... Jeff McMillan, who transferred from Fordham last year and spent the year as a redshirt, has bolstered the Trojans' frontcourt in 2004. A beefy forward whose build mirrors the 2002 Pac-10 Player of the Year Sam Clancy, his inside scoring and knack for rebounding has been a welcome addition.

THE NEW FACES — Lodrick and Rodrick Stewart, 6-foot-4 guards from Rainier Beach High in Seattle and 6-foot point guard Quinton Day from Paseo Academy in Kansas City, Mo., joined the Trojans as freshmen in 2004 (Day has since left the team). Rodrick Stewart earned Parade All-American third team, McDonald's Preseason All-American, All-State first team and Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team honors and was named 3-A State Player of the Year as a 2003 senior, averaging 18.8 points, 8.0 assists, 6.0 rebounds and 4.5 steals. His brother Lodrick earned McDonald's Preseason All-American alternate, Students Sports All-American special selection and Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team honors, averaging 19.0 points, 6.0 rebounds, 3.0 steals and 3.0 assists.

USC AGAINST THE PRESEASON TOP 25 — USC is scheduled to play two schools that opened in the ESPN/USA Today Preseason Top 25 and another five that received votes. The two ranked schools looming on the Trojan schedule is No. 4 Arizona and No. 17 Stanford. Oregon just missed the Top 25, finishing 26th among the coaches' votes. Other USC opponents also receiving votes are fellow Pac-10 schools California and Arizona State as well as non-conference foes BYU and UNLV.

SOMETHING IS IN THE WATER — Thank heavens for uniform numbers. This year, USC features two sets of identical twins. Trojan fans and the Pac-10 have grown familiar with Errick and Derrick Craven, twin 6-foot-2 guards from Carson, Calif., who enter 2004 as juniors. Now as freshmen come USC's second set of mirror image players, Lodrick and Rodrick Stewart, 6-foot-4 guards from Seattle. Surprisingly, this is not the first time two pairs of twins have been on the same Division I team at the same time. Valparaiso, in the 1994-95 season, featured two sets of twins — Bill and Bob Jenkins were freshmen and Jeff and Brian Smith were juniors. In other athletic twin news, Alabama-Birmingham currently has one set of twins on its basketball team, but its football and track teams both feature two sets of twins each.

PETE NEWELL CAMP – Rory O'Neil and Nick Curtis both attended Pete Newell's Big Man Camp over the summer. For O'Neil it was his second consecutive time at the camp while Curtis participated for the first time. Both received strong reviews from the mentor of the program.

OFF THE TOP OF OUR HEAD NOTES – The Trojan team Desmon Farmer joined in 2001 featured five players who would eventually settle into the top 19 of the school's all-time top scorers and four of the top 12. They included Sam Clancy (third), Brian Scalabrine (eighth), Brandon Granville (ninth), David Bluthenthal (12th) and Jeff Trepagnier (19th). Farmer is now fourth on the list with 1,602 points (passing Trepagnier on Dec. 6, Bluthenthal on Jan. 15 and Scalabrine and Granville on Feb. 5) ... Coach Henry Bibby and Farmer are the last connections remaining from USC's breakthrough 2001 Elite Eight team that reached the NCAA Regional final before falling to eventual national champion Duke. As a freshman, Farmer played 26 minutes in three games off the bench in USC's NCAA run ... Bibby has coached 10 of USC's 29 players who have scored at least 1,000 points. Errick Craven is the latest, cracking the barrier on Feb. 19 against Stanford. He now is in 27th. After Craven, Rory O'Neil seems the next best bet to crack the 1,000-point threshold, but he is still more than 300 points off and another year away.

USC PICKED TO FINISH FIFTH IN MEDIA POLL — USC was picked to finish fifth in the Pac-10 media poll on Nov. 6, receiving one of the 35 first-place votes. Arizona was picked first with 26 first-place votes and 339 points. Stanford (seven first-place votes and 321 points) was second and California was third (the remaining first-place vote and 238 points). Oregon was fourth (215), followed by USC, UCLA (188), Arizona State (185), Washington (108), Washington State (69) and Oregon State (55).

THE TROJANS VS. RANKED TEAMS — USC won its first game against a ranked team this year, defeating No. 7 Arizona, 99-90, on Jan. 15, giving it three consecutive wins against ranked teams. The streak ended at No. 2 Stanford, 77-67. USC then lost at No. 15 Arizona, 97-70, and against No. 1 Stanford, 76-67 ... USC was 3-6 against ranked teams in 2002-03, falling to No. 15 Missouri at the Wooden Classic, to No. 2 Arizona at home, at No. 25 California, at No. 1 Arizona, vs. No. 21 Stanford and vs. No. 18 California, but beating No. 19 Oregon at home and No. 14 Stanford and No. 23 California in the Pac-10 Tournament. The Trojans were 12-16 against ranked teams in the past three years combined and 14-21 in the last four years. USC was 6-4 against ranked teams in 2002, defeating No. 11 UCLA on Jan. 10, losing at No. 15 Arizona on Jan. 17, defeating No. 14 Stanford on Jan. 26, losing at No. 15 UCLA, defeating No. 9 Arizona on Feb. 16, beating No. 10 Stanford on Feb. 21, losing to No. 13 Oregon on Feb. 28, beating No. 16 Stanford on March 7, downing No. 9 Oregon on March 8 and falling to No. 14 Arizona on March 9.

USC COACH HENRY BIBBY

Henry Bibby, a coach with 21 years of college and professional experience and the only person to ever play for an NCAA, NBA and CBA championship team, is in his eighth full season in 2003-2004 as the head coach of the USC men's basketball program. He is just one year removed from guiding the Trojans to only their second back-to-back 20-win seasons in 2001 and 2002 and only their third back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances.

- Bibby and the Trojans underwent a rebuilding season in 2003 as USC finished 13-17 overall, 6-12 in the Pac-10 (tied for sixth). Two big bright spots, however, created major optimism for 2004. First of all, USC, despite fielding a team made up predominantly of underclassmen, held second-half leads in almost every game (though it had trouble closing them out). Secondly, the Trojans made their second consecutive run to the Pac-10 Tournament championship game, showing a maturation Bibby hopes carries over to 2004.

- In 2002, he led USC to a 22-10 record that included a 12-6 finish in the Pac-10 (tied for second), a finals appearance in the Pac-10 Tournament and a No. 4 seed in the NCAA Tournament. The 20 wins gave USC back-to-back 20-win seasons for the first time since 1939-40. USC enjoyed its fifth winning season and fourth postseason berth (three NCAA, one NIT) under his watch. Bibby was named 2002 NABC District 15 Co-Coach of the Year.

- In 2001, Bibby led USC to perhaps its greatest season ever, piloting the Trojans to their first NCAA Tournament Elite Eight appearance under the tournament's current format. In their second NCAA Tournament appearance under Bibby, the No. 6-seeded Trojans reached the East Regional Final before losing to Duke. USC's three NCAA Tournament wins (against No. 11 seed Oklahoma State, No. 2 seed Boston College and No. 3 seed Kentucky) were its most ever in one tourney and the Trojans' final record of 24-10 matched the most wins ever in one season at USC. The Trojans finished 11-7 in the Pac-10 (tied for fourth place).

- The Trojans' landmark team that Bibby guided featured a trio of NBA draft picks in forward/center Brian Scalabrine, guard Jeff Trepagnier and forward Sam Clancy. Scalabrine and Trepagnier were taken back-to-back in the second round of the 2001 draft; Scalabrine going to New Jersey with the 35th pick while Trepagnier went 36th to Cleveland. Clancy went in the second round of the 2002 draft to Philadelphia with the 45th pick. Clancy was the fourth Trojan taken in the NBA Draft since Bibby has been at USC (the first was Rodrick Rhodes in 1997). Elias Ayuso became the fifth Trojan under Bibby to sign with an NBA team when he inked a deal with the San Antonio Spurs in the summer of 2003.

- In his seven years as head coach, Bibby has been instrumental in player development and has guided eight players to a combined 13 All-Pac-10 honors and five players to All-Pac-10 Freshman honors. Under Bibby, Sam Clancy became a Pac-10 Player of the Year, two Trojans (Rhodes and Scalabrine) have earned the Pac-10 Newcomer of the Year award and another (Ayuso) earned Pac-10 All-Newcomer first team notice.

DERRICK CRAVEN

Junior • Guard • 6-Foot-2 • 215 Pounds

- A 6-foot-2, 215-pound junior guard in 2004 and identical twin brother of fellow Trojan junior Errick Craven, he is an athletic and aggressive player who has a tenacious work ethic on defense. He matured as Troy's starting point guard for most of 2003, though he is coming off the bench in that role this season.

- Second in assists (74) and is third with 32 steals. Averaging 6.1 points. Suspended for the Oregon State game on March 6 by the Pac-10 (unsportsmanlike act).

- Played a season-high 31 minutes in USC's win at UCLA and matched it at Oregon.

- His 12 points against No. 7 Arizona marked his first double-digit effort since Dec. 9. He then had 11 at Cal.

- Scored in double figures in three consecutive games for the first time in his USC career, ending with an 11-point, seven-assist game against Cal State Fullerton.

- He had a season-high 16 points at St. Mary's, going 7-of-7 from the field in 20 minutes. It was the first 7-of-7 performance by a Trojan since Nov. 23, 1999 (Brian Scalabrine). The St. Mary's effort followed 11 points vs. UNLV and four assists.

- He averaged 4.6 points and 2.2 rebounds in 19.9 minutes per game last year, starting 25 of 30 games as a 2003 sophomore. He was one of only two Trojans to play in every game (along with Desmon Farmer).

- His 40 steals and 70 assists were both the second-highest totals on the team.
