USC CONCLUDES 3-GAME HOMESTAND WITH RARE SYRACUSE VISIT

FACTS

USC (2-0 overall, 1-0 Pac-12 South) vs. Syracuse (2-0 overall, 0-0 Big East), Saturday, Sept. 17, 5 p.m. PDT, Los Angeles Coliseum.

THEMES

USC concludes its 3-game season-opening homestand when it hosts Syracuse. It has been 87 years since the Orange last battled the Trojans in the Coliseum (in fact, the last time any current Big East school ventured into the Coliseum to face the Trojans was in 1965). USC and SU last met in 1990 at the Meadowlands—current Orange DE Mikhail Marinovich's brother, Todd, was USC's quarterback then (his dad also played at Troy in the '60s)—and the teams will meet again there in 2012. USC is coming off its second straight nailbiting victory, this one over Utah in the first-ever Pac-12 football game. The Trojan offense, which is led by veteran standout QB Matt Barkley (sixth on USC's career passing and total offense charts) and spectacular young WR Robert Woods (second nationally in receptions), got a boost last week with the return from team suspension of power TB Marc Tyler, the team's 2010 rushing leader who posted his fourth career 100-yard outing. USC, which blocked 7 kicks in 2010, already has 2 blocks this year, both by honors candidate OT Matt Kalil (he knocked down Utah's potential game-tying 3-pointer at game's end). USC's defense features talented vets like S T.J. McDonald, CB Nickell Robey, DE Nick Perry and LB Chris Galippo, but it is also getting some nice play out of such youngsters as LBs Hayes Pullard and Dion Bailey and CB Torin Harris (so far in 2011, he has made a game-saving end-of-game interception in the opener and then returned Kalil's blocked field goal for a TD versus Utah). Head coach Doug Marrone's Syracuse club is off to its first 2-0 start since 1990 following last weekend's Rhode Island win. QB Ryan Nassib, who is in the school's Top 10 in passing yards, TD passes and completions, has completed 75% of his aeriels in 2011 (WRs Alec Lemon and Van Chew are his favorite targets), while RB Antwon Bailey has caught more passes than any Orange back in history. SU's defense, led by S Shamarko Thomas and LB Marquis Spruill, is in the national Top 25 in tackles for loss and sacks. Besides Marinovich, Syracuse sports a couple other familiar names to Trojan fans: offensive coordinator Nathaniel Hackett (son of former USC head coach Paul Hackett) and athletic director Daryl Gross (a longtime USC athletic department administrator). The coin toss will feature a commemorative Ronald Reagan coin as USC's kicks off a nationwide gridiron celebration of the 40th President's 100th birthday. Look for another on-field salute of notable USC Olympians. The game will be shown live nationally on FX (just the second time USC has been on that network's air).

RANKINGS

USC is not ranked by AP (the Trojans are not eligible to be ranked in the USA Today poll). Syracuse is not ranked.

SERIES

USC holds a 2-0 record over Syracuse. The first meeting was a 16-0 USC win in 1924 in the Coliseum (it was the Trojans' first-ever Homecoming game). The most recent meeting was a 34-16 season-opening USC win in the 1990 Kickoff Classic in Giants Stadium in East Rutherford, N.J. QB Todd Marinovich led the No. 9 Trojans by hitting 71.4% of his passes (25-

FUN FACT I

The last time USC faced Syracuse—a 34-16 Trojan win in the 1990 Kickoff Classic in Giants Stadium in East Rutherford, N.J.—Troy's starting quarterback was Todd Marinovich, whose brother, Mikhail, is a starting defensive end for the 2011 Orange.

FUN FACT II

USC and Syracuse are scheduled to meet again in 2012 on Sept. 8 in the Meadowlands in East Rutherford, N.J.

FUN FACT III

This will be the 41st USC game on some form of live television. The Trojans have appeared live on 30 different television broadcasting outlets, but this will be just their second time on FX's air (the other time was the 1996 Arizona home game, a 14-7 USC win, as both FX and FOX Sports Net split the broadcast).

of-35) for 337 yards with 3 TDs and no interceptions, while TB Ricky Ervins rushed for 96 yards on 25 carries and scored twice (on a run and a reception) and WR Gary Wellman had 7 catches for 109 yards. PK Quin Rodriguez became USC's career PAT recordholder. It was only the second USC trip to the East Coast since 1974, the first in the New York City area since 1951 and the first Trojan game ever in New Jersey. The Aug. 31 game date was the earliest USC had opened its season in the modern era.

VERSUS BIG EAST

USC has won 69.2% (9-4-0) of its games against current Big East opponents (6-4 versus Pittsburgh, 2-0 versus Syracuse, 1-0 versus West Virginia). The only time USC played a team while it was actually a member of the Big East (which was founded in 1979) was the 1990 win over Syracuse. The last current Big East foe to meet USC in the Coliseum was Pittsburgh in 1965 (a 28-0 Trojan win).

IN THE COLISEUM

USC has a 412-128-27 (.750) all-time record in the Coliseum since the stadium opened in 1923. (Six wins later vacated due to NCAA penalty.)

IN SEPTEMBER

USC has a 168-39-8 (.800) all-time record while playing in the month of September. (Three of those wins were later vacated due to NCAA penalty.)

NIGHT GAMES

USC owns a 144-40-4 (.777) record at night, including 88-21-4 in the Coliseum, 41-14 on the road and 15-5 at neutral sites (5 of those wins and 1 loss were later vacated due to NCAA penalty, including 3 wins in the Coliseum and 2 wins and 1 loss at neutral sites).

CONNECTIONS

USC has no players from New York, while the Syracuse roster features 8 California natives (OG Lou Alexander, LB Dom Anene, WR Cayden Feifer, QB Nathaniel Forer, DT Deon Goggins, FB Tombe Kose, DE Mikhail Marinovich and LS Eric Morris)...USC defensive coordinator/recruiting coordinator/defensive line coach Ed Orgeron was Syracuse's defensive line coach from 1995 to 1998...Syracuse DE Mikhail Marinovich is the son of former USC DT Marv Marinovich (1959, 61-62) and the brother of ex-USC QB Todd Marinovich (1989-90)...Syracuse offensive coordinator/quarterbacks and tight ends coach Nathaniel Hackett is the son of former USC head (1998-2000) and assistant (1976-80) coach Paul Hackett...Syracuse athletic director Daryl Gross previously served 14 years in the USC athletic administration and 2 years on the Trojan football coaching staff...USC athletics' assistant business manager Brendan Loftus was a member of Syracuse's 2008 NCAA championship men's lacrosse team...Syracuse women's tennis coach Luke Jensen was a 2-time (1986-87) All-American tennis player at USC...Syracuse women's basketball assistant coach Kelley Gibson was an assistant at USC in 2010...Syracuse assistant athletic director Lael (Chealander) Gross previously worked in the USC athletic marketing office after swimming for the Women of Troy.

SCHEDULE

USC's 2011 schedule includes 7 teams that played in bowls last year. For the first time since 2000, the Trojans play 7 home games (including their first 3 contests of the season, for the first time since 1998). In addition to the already-played season opener against Minnesota and then Utah for the first football game in Pac-12 history, coming to the Coliseum are Syracuse in a rare Los Angeles visit by a Big East foe, Arizona (Oct. 1) and Stanford (Oct. 29) with talented quarterbacks Nick Foles and Andrew Luck, former USC assistant Steve Sarkisian's Washington club on Nov. 12 and crosstown rival UCLA in the Nov. 26 regular season-ender. The Trojans' road slate takes them to Arizona State on Sept. 24, to San Francisco's AT&T Park to play California for a Thursday night game (Oct. 13), to longtime intersectional foe Notre Dame on Oct. 22, to new Pac-12 opponent Colorado for a Nov. 4 Friday night clash and to defending league champion Oregon on Nov. 19.

PRE-SEASON HONORS

S T.J. McDonald (Athlon, ESPN.com) and OT Matt Kalil (Playboy) were named to a 2011 pre-season All-American first team. WR/RET Robert Woods made some pre-season All-American second and third teams. Besides the above-mentioned players, DE Nick Perry, CB Nickell Robey, C Khaled Holmes and DT Armond Armstead were selected to various pre-season All-Pac-12 first teams.

PAC-12 CONFERENCE

July 1, 2011, marked the birth of the Pac-12 Conference with the addition of Colorado from the Big 12 and Utah from the Mountain West. It was the league's first expansion since 1978, when Arizona and Arizona State joined to make the Pac-8 the Pac-10. The new Pac-12 schools have won 442 NCAA Championships, more than any conference. The Pac-12 is split into 2 divisions for football only. Colorado and Utah join Arizona, Arizona State, UCLA and USC in the South Division, while California, Oregon, Oregon State, Stanford, Washington and Washington State make up the North Division. The first-ever Pac-12 Football Championship Game will be on Dec. 2 on the home field of the team with the best overall conference record (USC is not eligible to participate in 2011 because of NCAA sanctions).

LAST GAME

TB Marc Tyler came back from an opening-game team suspension to run for 113 yards and OT Matt Kalil blocked a potential game-tying field goal at the end of the contest to give USC a historic 23-14 home win over new conference foe Utah before 73,821 fans and a national Versus Network audience in the first-ever Pac-12 football game. After Trojan PK Andre Heidari nailed a 47-yard field goal (the first of his career) late in the first quarter, USC upped its lead to 10-0 on a 6-yard touchdown run by Tyler several minutes after S T.J. McDonald recovered a Utah fumble. But Utah got on the board late in the first half on a 10-yard scoring pass from QB Jordan Wynn to WR DeVonte Christopher after the Utes recovered a USC fumble. The Trojans scored on their first possession of the second half, driving 88 yards as QB Matt Barkley hit TE Xavier Grimble on a 9-yard TD pass. But Utah responded several minutes later, as RB John White ran for a 1-yard TD just 2 plays after the Utes recovered another Trojan fumble. The teams then each had 5 unfruitful drives the rest of the way, although Utah got to the Trojan 24-yard line before trying a 41-yard field goal that Kalil blocked (it was the second consecutive game he blocked a field goal). USC CB Torin Harris scooped it up and raced 68 yards to the endzone as time ran out. (The Trojans were penalized when players on their bench ran onto the field in celebration during Harris' return, but the deadball penalty was negated by rule because time had expired. Most game observers left the contest believing the final TD did not count because the officials never signaled a touchdown. However, 2 hours after the game the Pac-12 clarified that Harris' touchdown counted and the final score was updated from 17-14 to 23-14.) Tyler averaged 4.7 yards on each of his 24 carries while posting his fourth career 100-yard outing. Barkley was 20-of-32 for 264 yards, but threw his first interception of 2011. WR Robert Woods caught a team-best 8 passes for 102 yards, while Grimble added 5 catches for 66 yards. USC was hampered by 3 turnovers (twice in the red zone) and inopportune penalties (6, including one that negated another Heidari 47-yard field goal). LB Hayes Pullard had 8 tackles (with a sack) and a deflection to lead the Trojan defense, which posted 8 pass deflections. For Utah, Wynn completed 12-of-46 passes for 238 yards, Christopher caught 11 passes for 136 yards and White ran for 56 yards on 20 rushes. USC's winning margin total of 11 points in its first 2 games of 2011 was the smallest opening 2-game margin in Trojan history. It was Utah's first game against USC in the Coliseum since 1948. Prior to the game, a ceremonial game ball signed by all 12 of the league's head football coaches was presented at midfield to Pac-12 commissioner Larry Scott, with plans to auction it to raise funds for the 9/11 Memorial.

LANE KIFFIN

Second-year USC head football coach Lane Kiffin is regarded as one of the game's brightest young coaches. At just 36, he already has been a head coach at football's top levels, both professionally and collegiately. He is known for his high football IQ, as well as for being a master playcaller, a vibrant leader and a superb recruiter. The one-time Trojan offensive coordinator who then became the head coach of the Oakland Raiders and the Tennessee Volunteers returned to the USC program on Jan. 12, 2010, when he was named its head football coach. In 2010 in his first year guiding USC, Kiffin led Troy to an 8-5 overall record (2 of the losses were on field goals at the gun in consecutive games and another came on a touchdown with 2:23 to play) and a third place tie in the Pac-10 at 5-4. He inherited a USC team that was ruled ineligible for post-season play because of an NCAA penalty for violations dating to the previous coaching regime and was short on personnel because of players who transferred once the penalty was announced (Troy had just 72 scholarship players, 13 shy of the NCAA limit). Despite this handicap, only Howard Jones in 1925 and John Robinson in 1976 (both with 11 wins) won more games in their Trojan coaching debut. Kiffin became the first USC head coach since Jess Hill in 1951 to begin his Trojan career with a 4-0 mark. With Kiffin calling the plays, the 2010 Trojan offensive numbers improved from 2009: total offense (431.5, +42.4), rushing offense (189.3, +22.5), passing offense (242.2, +19.9) and scoring offense (31.0, +4.5). USC averaged 6.0 yards per play in 2010, its sixth highest ever, and the Trojans twice had 600-yard offensive outputs. In 2010, offensive tackle Tyron Smith won the Pac-10's Morris Trophy and wide receiver Robert Woods was the Pac-10 Offensive Freshman of the Year (and a Freshman All-American first teamer). Smith was a first round pick in the 2011 NFL draft and was among a national-best 9 Trojan draftees. Kiffin came back to Troy after guiding Tennessee to a 7-6 record in 2009 in his only season there. The Volunteers finished second in the Southeastern Conference Eastern Division at 4-4 and played in the Chick-Fil-A Bowl. Four of Tennessee's losses were by 10 points or less, including a 2-point road loss to eventual national champion Alabama and 10 points at then-No. 1 Florida. His Vols offense jumped at least 34 places in every national statistical category over its 2008 figures, while the defense was in the nation's Top 25 in pass and total defense. He was the youngest active head coach in the NCAA FBS ranks while at Tennessee. Before that, Kiffin was the head coach of the NFL's Raiders for 2 years (2007-08), where at age 31 he was the youngest head coach in the NFL's modern era. He was 5-15 with the Raiders (4-12 in 2007 and 1-3 in 2008). Kiffin spent 6 seasons (2001-2006) as an assistant at USC under Pete Carroll. He was the tight ends coach in 2001, then handled the wide receivers the next 5 years. He added the duty of passing game coordinator in 2004, then was promoted to offensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator in 2005 and 2006. He coached a trio of All-American first team wide receivers at USC: Mike Williams (2003), Dwayne Jarrett (2005-06, USC's first 2-time All-American wideout) and Steve Smith (2006). Jarrett set the Pac-10 record for career touchdown catches (39) and the USC career mark for receptions (216). While the offensive coordinator in 2005, USC's offense was in the national Top 6 in every statistical category, including tops in total offense (579.8) and second in scoring offense (49.1), and set Pac-10 records for total offense yardage, first downs, points scored, touchdowns and PATs. The Trojans scored 50 points a school-record 7 times. USC became the first school to have a 3,000-yard passer, a pair of 1,000-yard runners and a 1,000-yard receiver in a season. In 2003, Williams set USC career (30) and season (16) touchdown reception records, while fellow wide receiver Keary Colbert set the school career reception record (207). In 2002, Williams and Colbert became USC's first pair of 1,000-yard receivers in a season and wide receiver Kareem Kelly became the Trojan career reception leader (204). Williams, Jarrett, Smith and Colbert all played in the NFL. Quarterback Matt Leinart won the Heisman Trophy in 2004 while Kiffin was the passing game coordinator and tailback Reggie Bush was the 2005 Heisman winner (later vacated) with Kiffin as the offensive coordinator. While serving as USC's recruiting coordinator, Troy's recruiting classes in 2005 and 2006 were ranked by some as No. 1 in the nation. He was named one of the nation's Top 25 recruiters by Rivals.com in 2005. Kiffin was a member of USC staffs that helped the Trojans win a pair of national championships (2003-04), post a 65-12 record (14 wins were later vacated due to NCAA penalty) and appear in a bowl game each of his 6 seasons: 2001 Las Vegas Bowl, 2003 Orange Bowl, 2004 Rose Bowl, 2005 Orange Bowl (BCS Championship Game), 2006 Rose Bowl (BCS Championship Game) and 2007 Rose Bowl. Before coming to USC, Kiffin was the defensive quality control coach for the NFL's Jacksonville Jaguars in 2000 (he worked with the secondary). He began his coaching career at Fresno State, his alma mater, where for 2 seasons (1997-98) he worked with the quarterbacks, wide receivers and defensive backs as a student assistant. He then was an assistant at Colorado State in 1999, working with the offensive line. The Rams played in the Liberty Bowl that season. Kiffin was a quarterback at Fresno State for 3 seasons (1994-96). He prepped at Bloomington (Minn.) Jefferson High, where he played football, basketball and baseball.

OFFENSIVE OVERVIEW

Six starters returned on offense from 2010: quarterback Matt Barkley, wide receiver Robert Woods, tailback Marc Tyler, fullback-tight end Rhett Ellison, tackle Matt Kalil and center Khaled Holmes. Others back with starting experience are wide receivers Brandon Carswell and Brice Butler and tailback Dillon Baxter. The Trojans returned their top 2010 rusher, passer and pass catcher. But only 4 players who carried the ball and 7 who caught passes last year are back. The 2010 Trojan offensive numbers showed improvement from 2009: total offense (431.5, +42.4), rushing offense (189.3, +22.5), passing offense (242.2, +19.9) and scoring offense (31.0, +4.5). USC averaged 6.0 yards per play last fall, its sixth highest ever. Twice in 2010, the Trojans had 600-yard offensive outputs. However, only Troy's rushing offense average ranked among the nation's Top 25, so upping the Trojans' offensive output is a goal in 2011.

QUARTERBACKS

USC is guided in 2011 by one of the nation's elite quarterbacks, junior Matt Barkley (54-of-77, 70.1%, 568 yds, 4 TD in 2011). A starter since the day he stepped on campus as a true freshman, he already is sixth on the school's career passing list (500 completions) and in total offense (6038 yards). In his career he has thrown at least 1 TD pass in 22 of his 26 games, at least 2 TDs in 13 games and at least 3 TDs in 6 games, including twice with a school record-tying 5 TDs. He has thrown for at least 200 yards in 16 career games (5 times over 300 yards). In 2010, he hit 60%-plus of his passes 8 times, threw 5 TDs in the opener at Hawaii (while completing 78.3% of his passes) and against California (all in the first half), threw for 390 yards at Stanford and had a mid-season streak of 140 passes without an interception. Last year was his second as a Davey O'Brien Award semifinalist and he was the first sophomore to serve as a Trojan captain. None of the other 6 signalcallers on the roster had taken a snap at USC prior to 2011, so depth must be developed quickly. The group includes redshirt freshman Jesse Scroggins and freshmen Cody Kessler and Max Wittek, who both graduated from high school a semester early and enrolled at USC this spring after prep All-American careers. There also is a trio of walk-ons: juniors John Manoogian and Emon Saeed and redshirt freshman Anthony Neyer.

—Against Minnesota, Barkley completed 34 passes to eclipse Todd Marinovich's USC single game record of 33 (set in 1989) and had a 75.6% completion percentage (on 45 attempts) while passing for 304 yards with 3 TDs and no interceptions or sacks (he hit 16 passes in a row at one point); he was 18-of-20 in the first half for 163 yards.

—He completed 20-of-32 passes for 264 yards with a TD and an interception against Utah.

TAILBACKS

Even though 2 seasoned tailbacks have moved on and even though only 3 running backs on the roster entered 2011 having ever carried the ball at USC, the Trojans are in good shape at this position. Gone are bruising Allen Bradford, who had 1,585 career yards and 4 100-yard showings (he ran for 794 yards in 2010 while averaging 7.2 yards per rush) before being a sixth round NFL draft pick, and C.J. Gable, who had 1,549 rushing yards and 18 starts in his career and is also sixth on USC's all-time kickoff return list (1,196 yards). Senior Marc Tyler (24 tcb, 113 yds, 4.7 avg, 1 TD in 2011, plus 1 rec, 19 yds, 19.0 avg) has 4 career 100-yard games. He returned after leading the Trojans in rushing last fall while starting 8 times. He had a trio of 100-yard performances (versus Virginia, Arizona and Arizona State). His 31 carries at Arizona were the most by a Trojan since 2002. He was suspended from the 2011 opener. He is joined by 3 other high-potential runners: sophomore Dillon Baxter (1 tcb, 2 yds, 2.0 avg in 2011, plus 2 rec, 3 yds, 1.5 avg), who was used mostly out of the Wildcat formation (he started once and even threw a scoring pass), junior Curtis McNeal (8 tcb, 36 yds, 4.5 avg in 2011, plus 1 KOR, 15 yds, 15.0 avg), who redshirted in 2010 after primarily returning kickoffs in 2009 but had an impressive showing in 2011 spring drills, and redshirt freshman D.J. Morgan (26 tcb, 97 yds, 3.7 avg in 2011, plus 1 tac). McNeal also might return kicks and punts in 2011. Walk-on redshirt freshmen Kameron Germany and Alec Jaffe are also available at tailback. Joining the tailback corps in the fall as freshmen were prep All-American Amir Carlisle and Javorious Allen, plus walk-on freshman Taylor Ross.

—Morgan had a game-best 70 rushing yards on 18 carries against Minnesota while becoming the first freshman tailback to start an opener since C.J. Gable in 2006 and McNeal added 33 yards on 6 carries and had a kickoff return for no yards.

—Tyler returned from his one-game team suspension to run for 113 yards with a 6-yard TD on 24 carries (he also caught a 19-yard pass) against Utah, while Morgan added 27 yards on 8 tries and he had a tackle, McNeal had 3 yards on 2 carries and also had a 15-yard kickoff return and Baxter had a 2-yard run and caught a pass for no yards.

FULLBACKS

USC will be hard-pressed to replace fullback Stanley Havili, a 4-year starter whose 116 career catches are the most ever by a Trojan fullback (he is 16th on the school's all-time receiving ladder). He caught 12 TD passes at USC and ran for 509 career yards. He was a seventh round NFL draftee. There are only 3 fullbacks on the 2011 roster and all entered this season untested: freshman Soma Vainuku, who originally signed with USC in 2010 but didn't enroll until this past spring, and sophomore walk-on Hunter Simmons (he missed 2011 spring practice with an injury) plus junior walk-on Chandler Larson. Because of the lack of fullback experience and depth, it is conceivable that the Trojans will at times employ one-back or spread formations in 2011. Senior tight end Rhett Ellison (3 rec, 22 yds, 7.7 avg in 2011), with 20 career starts (including all of 2010), moved over to fullback in 2011 fall camp, as did sophomore linebacker Simone Vehikite.

—Ellison had 3 catches for 22 yards while starting at fullback against Minnesota.

WIDE RECEIVERS

USC's wide receiving unit is young (there are only 3 upperclassmen on scholarship), but it is full of talented young players. However, only 4 wideouts on the 2011 roster entered the season having ever caught a pass at USC. They should help make up for the loss of big-play man Ronald Johnson, whose 138 career catches is tied for 10th on USC's all-time list. His 21 career touchdowns averaged 24.1 yards each. He had 64 receptions with 8 TDs last fall. He also was a dangerous returner, spending the first part of his USC tenure running back kickoffs (he is fifth on Troy's career chart with 1,351 yards) and last fall returning punts (his 14.2 average was 12th nationally and he made All-Pac-10 second team as a punt returner).

He was selected in the sixth round of the NFL draft. Leading the way in 2011 is one of the nation's most exciting wideouts, sophomore Robert Woods (25 rec, 279 yds, 11.2 avg, 3 TD in 2011, plus 5 KOR, 87 yds, 17.4 avg and 1 PR, 17 yds, 17.0 avg and 1 tcb, -2 yds, -2.0 avg), who doubles as a pre-eminent kickoff returner (he also might be used on punt runbacks in 2011). He currently is tied for second nationally in receptions (12.5, first in Pac-12) and is 10th in all-purpose running (190.5, first in Pac-10) and 12th in receiving yards (139.5, second in Pac-12). He ranks seventh on USC's career kickoff return list (1,058 yards) and tied for 24th on the career pass catching ladder (90 receptions). He was a Freshman All-American first teamer and the Pac-10 Offensive Freshman of the Year last season (he also made the All-Pac-10 first team as a kick returner). He led the Trojans in receptions (65), receiving yards (792) and all-purpose yards (he set a USC freshman record of 1,817 and his 139.8 average was 25th nationally). He also topped the team in kickoff returns, setting USC season marks for returns (38) and yardage (971). He became the first USC true freshman to start a season opener at wide receiver when he did so last year at Hawaii. His 97-yard scoring kickoff return at Minnesota was USC's longest since 1998. He caught 12 passes for 224 yards at Stanford, the fifth highest totals ever by a Trojan (the dozen catches were 1 shy of the USC freshman record). His 100-yard receiving outings against Stanford and California were the first back-to-back by a Trojan true freshman since 2004. Also in the wideout mix are juniors Brandon Carswell (3 rec, 38 yds, 13.7 avg in 2011), who has 25 career catches and 3 starts, Brice Butler (3 rec, 27 yds, 9.0 avg in 2011), who has 32 career receptions with 3 TDs, and Robbie Boyer, a one-time walk-on who earned a scholarship this fall, sophomore De'Von Flournoy (he redshirted in 2010) and redshirt freshman Kyle Prater, who missed 2011 spring drills with a foot injury. Then there are 3 walk-ons who have yet to catch a pass at USC: senior Nic Curry, junior Cody Gifford (the son of former USC and NFL great Frank Gifford) and sophomore Cody Skene. Coming aboard in the fall as freshmen were prep All-Americans Victor Blackwell, George Farmer and Marqise Lee (7 rec, 66 yds, 9.4 avg in 2011, plus 1 tcb, 8 yds, 8.0 avg).

—Against Minnesota, Woods caught 17 passes (the second-most receptions in a game by a Pac-12 receiver, just 2 shy of the record) to break Johnnie Morton's school single game record of 15 (set in 1993) for 177 yards and a school record-tying 3 touchdowns (all in the first half), with his first half totals being 11 grabs for 115 yards (he also returned 3 kickoffs for 73 yards, nearly breaking one for a score), while first-year freshman Lee started and had 5 catches for 32 yards, Butler added 3 grabs for 27 yards and Carswell had 2 clutches for 23 yards.

—Woods had a team-best 8 catches for 102 yards against Utah and added a 14-yard kickoff return and a 17-yard punt return, while Lee had 2 catches for 34 yards and an 8-yard run off a reverse and Carswell caught a 15-yard pass.

TIGHT ENDS

The tight end position is a solid one for USC. Steady senior Rhett Ellison (3 rec, 22 yds, 7.7 avg in 2011), with 20 career starts, returned as the starter, but he was moved over to fullback in 2011 fall camp. Some proficient young players are behind him: sophomore Christian Thomas, who also played defensive end in 2010, and redshirt freshmen Xavier Grumble (6 rec, 67 yd, 11.2 avg, 1 TD in 2011) and Randall Telfer (4 rec, 47 yds, 11.8 avg in 2011). Then there is walk-on redshirt freshman Michael Cox. Seniors Ross Cumming (1 tac in 2011), a linebacker, and walk-on Zack Kusnir (a defensive tackle) might also work at tight end. Prep All-American Junior Pomee joined the fray in the fall as a freshman, but he is sidelined with a broken foot.

—Ellison had 3 catches for 22 yards while starting at fullback against Minnesota, Telfer had 2 grabs for 19 yards and Grumble had a 1-yard catch.

—Grumble caught 5 passes for 66 yards, with a 9-yard TD catch, against Utah, while Telfer had 2 receptions for 28 yards.

OFFENSIVE LINEMEN

USC's 2011 offensive line must overcome the loss of 5 players with starting experience. Gone are 2010 All-Pac-10 first team tackle Tyron Smith, a 2-year starter who won the Pac-10 Morris Trophy and then declared for the NFL draft after his junior campaign (he was a first round selection), a pair of 3-year starters in center Kristofer O'Dowd and guard Butch Lewis, and guards Michael Reardon and Zack Heberer. There are 18 offensive linemen on the Trojans' 2011 roster, but only 2 came into this season having registered any substantial playing time: juniors Matt Kalil (2 BLK FG in 2011) at left tackle and Khaled Holmes at center, who both started for their first season in 2010. Holmes started at right guard last year and then missed 2011 spring practice because of a shoulder injury. Looking to earn starting roles are sophomore Kevin Graf at tackle, senior Martin Coleman, soph John Martinez and redshirt freshman Giovanni Di Poalo at guard (he is sidelined with a shoulder injury) and junior Abe Markowitz at center. Martinez can also play center and Markowitz can play guard. Graf (shoulder) and Markowitz (foot) missed 2011 spring drills while recuperating from injuries. A pair of junior college transfers enrolled at USC this spring and also are in the mix after participating in spring practice: tackle-guard Jeremy Galten and tackle David Garness. Three walk-ons who have yet to play also are available: senior tackle Peter Yobo (he worked at defensive end and tight end last fall) and redshirt freshmen guards Nathan Guertler and Patrick Kim. Additional relief arrived in the fall with 5 incoming freshmen: guards Cyrus Hobbi and Marcus Martin, center Cody Temple and tackle Aundrey Walker, plus walk-on center Erick Jepsen. Hobbi and Walker were prep All-Americans.

—Against Minnesota, the starters were Kalil (he blocked a field goal), Galten, Holmes, Martinez and Graf, with Galten becoming the first junior college transfer to go directly from a J.C. to USC and start a season opener at offensive guard since Derrick Deese in 1990 and the first to start on the offensive line since Taitusi Lutui started all of 2004 at tackle.

—Against Utah, the starters were Kalil (he blocked a game-tying field goal at the end of the game), Coleman, Holmes, Martinez and Graf.

DEFENSIVE OVERVIEW

Seven defensive starters from 2010—safeties T.J. McDonald and Jawanza Starling, cornerback Nickell Robey, ends Nick Perry and Devon Kennard, tackles Armond Armstead and DaJohn Harris and co-starting linebacker Chris Galippo—returned, as did 2008-09 starting tackle Christian Tupou. Others back with starting experience are end Wes Horton, linebacker

Shane Horton and safeties Marshall Jones and Drew McAllister and cornerback Tony Burnett. Fourteen of USC's top 20 tacklers, including its top tackler, are back in 2011, as are 6 of the 9 players who had interceptions last year. Troy is looking for its defense to take a big step forward, as last year's unit was porous at times. The Trojans allowed their highest total yardage average (400.0) since records were kept in 1955, almost 60 yards more per game than in 2009. Troy allowed 26.7 points per game, its second highest average ever and almost a touchdown more than in 2009. It allowed 30 TD passes, 11 more than the next highest total since 1955. USC had particular trouble closing out games, as it allowed 118 points in the fourth quarter, lost 3 times in the final minutes (including back-to-back on field goals at the gun) and let 9 foes score on their final drives. Opponents had 500-plus yards of total offense 3 times in 2010.

DEFENSIVE LINEMEN

The strength of USC's defense should be the line, where 6 players with starting experience returned. But the Trojans lost a good one in tackle Jurrell Casey, an All-Pac-10 first teamer who led the 2010 Trojans in tackles for a loss (11) and sacks (4.5) while posting 67 tackles. The 2-year starter bypassed his senior season to declare for the NFL draft, where he was a third round pick. A pair of junior ends has started a bunch of games: Nick Perry (10 tac, 3 for loss, 2 sack, 1 FF, 1 dfl in 2011), a 2010 starter, and Wes Horton (2 tac in 2011), who has 16 career starts (including 6 last fall). Perry currently is tied for 23rd nationally in sacks (1.0, tied for fourth in Pac-12). Horton missed 2011 spring drills while rehabbing a foot injury. Rejoining the ends this year is junior Devon Kennard (6 tac in 2011), who played end and then outside linebacker (with 4 starts) as a 2009 freshman, but started 8 times at inside linebacker last year. He has 112 tackles in his career. He missed 2011 spring practice while recuperating from a hip injury. Then there is a trio of senior tackles with starting experience: Christian Tupou (4 tac in 2011), who redshirted last fall because of a knee injury (he missed 2011 spring drills while recuperating) after starting in 2008 and 2009, Armond Armstead, who missed 2011 spring drills due to a medical condition, and DaJohn Harris (7 tac, 3 for loss, 0.5 sack, 2 dfl in 2011). Battling to get into the playing rotation at end are sophomore Kevin Greene and walk-on junior Eric Childs, a converted tight end, while at tackle are redshirt freshman George Uko (1 tac, 1 dfl in 2011) and walk-on seniors Zack Kusnir (he might also be used at tight end) and Tyler Grady. The line was bolstered this fall with the arrival of freshmen ends Greg Townsend Jr. and Charles Burks, who can also play fullback, and tackles Christian Heyward, J.R. Tavai and Antwaun Woods. Townsend, Heyward and Woods were prep All-Americans. Burks is sidelined with a knee injury.

—Harris had 6 tackles (2 for losses, with 0.5 sack) and a deflection against Minnesota, while Perry added 5 tackles, including a sack, and a forced fumble, Kennard had 4 stops and Horton and Tupou each had 2 tackles.

—Against Utah, Perry had 5 tackles, including 2 for losses (with a sack), and a deflection, Tupou and Kennard each had 2 tackles, Harris had a tackle for loss and a deflection and Uko had a tackle and a deflection.

LINEBACKERS

Although a co-starter returned at linebacker in 2011, the other players here are rather green. The Trojans are aiming for more consistency and production from this unit. A pair of 2-year starting linebackers is gone from last fall in Malcolm Smith on the weak side and Michael Morgan on the strong side. Smith, who made 174 tackles in his career, had 78 tackles last fall (second most on the team) and scored touchdowns on an interception return and a fumble return. He was picked in the seventh round of the NFL draft. Morgan had 140 career stops, including 57 in 2010. Senior Chris Galippo (12 tac, 2.5 for loss, 1.5 sack, 2 dfl in 2011) shared starts at middle linebacker last year with Devon Kennard, starting 5 times there after starting all of 2009 (he also started twice on the weak side last year). He has 131 career tackles and 5 interceptions. He missed 2011 spring practice while recuperating from a back injury. Angling to see playing time in 2011 are seniors Shane Horton (4 tac in 2011), who has started 3 times in his USC career after getting 6 starts as a safety at UNLV in 2007 (he missed 2011 spring practice while rehabbing from a hip injury), and Ross Cumming (1 tac in 2011), who might also be used at tight end, seldom-used sophomores Marquis Simmons (1 tac in 2011), Simione Vehikite (he also has worked at fullback at USC) and Will Andrew, a one-time walk-on who earned a scholarship this fall, and redshirt freshmen Dion Bailey (7 tac in 2011), a converted safety, and Hayes Pullard (16 tac, 2.5 for loss, 1.5 sack, 1 dfl in 2011), who had an impressive showing in 2011 spring drills. Junior college transfer Dallas Kelley enrolled at USC this past spring and participated in spring practice. Then there are 4 inexperienced walk-ons: juniors Augusto Alonso and Doug Scott, sophomore Luke Freeman and freshman Ryan Muller. Entering in the fall as freshmen were prep All-Americans Lamar Dawson (1 tac in 2011), Tre Madden (2 tac in 2011) and Anthony Sarao.

—Pullard had a team-high 8 tackles (with 1.5 for losses, including 0.5 sack) against Minnesota, while Galippo added 6 stops, including 2.5 for losses (with 1.5 sacks), and a deflection, Horton and Madden each had 2 tackles and Simmons had 1 stop.

—Pullard had a team best 8 tackles, including a sack, and a deflection against Utah, Bailey added 7 tackles, Galippo had 6 tackles and a deflection, Horton had 2 tackles and Dawson and Cumming each had a stop.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

The secondary features lots of players who have seen the field at USC. Only 1 starter is gone, cornerback Shareece Wright. He had 73 tackles and a team-leading 10 deflections last fall (he was a third round NFL draftee). The Trojans are loaded at safety, led by returning junior starters T.J. McDonald (10 tac, 1 FR in 2011) at free safety and Jawanza Starling (3 tac in 2011) at strong safety. McDonald led Troy in tackles (89) in 2010 and had 3 interceptions while earning All-Pac-10 second team notice. Starling added 37 stops. But 2 other safeties—senior Marshall Jones (1 tac in 2011) and junior Drew McAllister—have starting experience and will be battling to break into the lineup. Jones started the last 4 games of 2010 at strong safety for an injured Starling. McAllister, who started once in 2009 at free safety, redshirted last season after an early hip injury (he was limited in 2011 spring drills because of that). Sophomore Demetrius Wright (6 tac, 0.5 for loss, 0.5 sack in 2011) also is seeking playing time at safety, as are walk-ons Cody Romness (1 tac in 2011), a junior, soph John Auran and freshman Troy Cardona. Sophomore Nickell Robey (9 tac, 2.5 for loss in 2011, plus 4 PR, 24 yds, 6.0 avg) is back after starting all of last season at cornerback, where he topped the Trojans in interceptions (4, including 1 for a TD). At Washington State, he became the first USC freshman to get 2 picks in a game since 1990. He also was the first USC true freshman to start a season opener at cornerback in the post-World War II era. He might also return punts and kickoffs in 2011. Converted junior safety Tony Burnett (11 tac in 2011) is battling for the other starting cornerback job, where he caught the coaches' attention in 2011 spring drills. The one-time walk-on who received a scholarship this spring went from being a jumper on the Trojan track team to joining the football team last fall and becoming a key contributor (he even started the season-ender at UCLA at free safety for an injured McDonald). Joining him in the competition for the starting job are 3 players who have seen action in extra defensive back situations—senior T.J. Bryant, junior Brian Baucham and sophomore Torin Harris (10 tac, 1 int, 1 dfl, 1 TD on BLK FG ret in 2011)—as well as redshirt freshmen Anthony Brown and converted safety Patrick Hall. Bryant and Harris missed spring practice while recuperating from shoulder injuries, while Hall likely will miss 2011 after tearing knee ligaments following 2011 spring drills. Five walk-on senior cornerbacks (Taylor Ashton, James Harbin, Sean Jackson, Allen Noble and Boomer Roepke) add depth, as does walk-on sophomore JC transfer safety Luis Nevarez. Only Harbin has seen any action. Adding to the cornerback mix in the fall were junior college transfer Isiah Wiley, who will be a junior, and prep All-American Ryan Henderson, a freshman.

—Against Minnesota, McDonald had a team-best 8 tackles, Burnett added 6 stops, Wright had 5 tackles (with 0.5 sack), Harris had 4 tackles and intercepted a pass near midfield to seal the win with 53 seconds remaining, Robey had 4 tackles (0.5 for loss) and also returned 2 punts for 19 yards and Starling had 1 tackle.

—Against Utah, Harris had 6 tackles, a deflection and returned a blocked field goal 68 yards for a TD at game's end, while Robey had 5 tackles and 2 deflections, Burnett also had 5 tackles, McDonald had 2 stops and a fumble recovery (to set up a USC TD), Starling had 2 tackles and Wright, Jones and Romness each had a tackle.

SPECIAL TEAMS OVERVIEW

USC's snapper (Chris Pousson) and kickoff returner (Robert Woods) are back in 2011. But a new placekicker, punter, holder and punt returner must emerge. The Trojans were very impressive in most areas of special teams in 2010. USC was seventh nationally in punt returns (14.6) and 17th in kickoff returns (24.5). Troy blocked 7 kicks and punts, returned a punt and kickoff for TDs, scored 5 times on 2-point conversions, had a defensive PAT and ran a successful fake punt and fake field goal.

SPECIALISTS

Jacob Harfman, USC's punter the past 2 seasons, has graduated and taken his 40.4-yard career average with him. Nearly a third of his 92 career punts pinned opponents within the 20-yard line. His replacement is unproven junior walk-on Kyle Negrete (34.2 avg in 2011), with first-year freshman Kris Albarado also in the mix. Joe Houston, a walk-on who earned a scholarship last season, was USC's placekicker in 2010, but he has graduated. He nailed all 43 of his PAT attempts in 2010 and was 10-of-16 on field goals. He hit only 1 field goal further than 37 yards, but his 45-yarder against Notre Dame was USC's longest in 3 years. His field goals against Arizona State and Arizona were the games' decisive points. The departed Jacob Harfman handled the kickoff chores the past 2 years. Freshman Andre Heidari (3-of-3 PAT, 1-of-1 FG in 2011), who graduated from high school a semester early and enrolled at USC this spring after a prep All-American season, has assumed the kicking duties. Redshirt freshman walk-on Craig McMahon is also available. Senior Chris Pousson returned for his fourth season as the snapper on punts and placekicks. He has been flawless in his career. Also available is freshman Peter McBride, who graduated from high school a semester early and enrolled at USC this spring. Last year's holder on placekicks, quarterback Mitch Mustain, has graduated. Because USC often ran plays out of offbeat formations on PATs last season, USC likes to have a quarterback as the holder, so junior quarterback Matt Barkley has assumed that duty. The backup holder is junior punter Kyle Negrete. Wide receiver Ronald Johnson was USC's punt returner last year after returning kickoffs earlier in his career, but his eligibility has expired. He was 12th nationally in punt returns in 2010 and ranks fifth on USC's career kickoff return list (1,351 yards). Tailback C.J. Gable, who is sixth on the Trojan career kickoff return chart (1,196 yards), also is gone. But sophomore wide receiver Robert Woods (5 KOR, 87 yds, 17.4 avg in 2011, plus 1 PR, 17 yds, 17.0 avg) returned after setting the USC season records for kickoff returns (38) and yardage (971). He is seventh on USC's career kickoff return ladder (1,058 yards). His 97-yard scoring kickoff return at Minnesota was USC's longest since 1998. He might also be asked to return punts in 2011. Soph cornerback Nickell Robey (4 PR, 24 yds, 6.0 avg in 2011) and junior tailback Curtis McNeal (1 KOR, 15 yds, 15.0 avg in 2011) could also be tried on kickoff and punt returns. Other possible returners are senior wide receiver Brandon Carswell, redshirt freshman cornerback Anthony Brown and first-year freshman wide receiver Marqise Lee.

—Negrete averaged 37.2 yards on his 4 punts against Minnesota (all pinned the Gophers within the 20-yard line), while Heidari hit his only PAT attempt.

—Heidari hit a 47-yard field goal (he had another 47-yarder negated by penalty) and both of his PATs against Utah, while Negrete averaged 31.8 yards on his 5 punts, with 2 pinning the Utes with in the 20.

USC's 2011 captains, as elected by their teammates during fall camp, are: QB Matt Barkley, FB-TE Rhett Ellison, S T.J. McDonald and DT Christian Tupou. McDonald joins his father, Tim McDonald (USC's captain in 1986), as the first father-son captains in Trojan history. Barkley, who also was a captain in 2010, is USC's 10th 2-time Trojan captain (along with Foster Wright in 1896 and 1898, Logan Wheatley in 1899 and 1901, Dan Caley in 1902-03, Chad Morton in 1998-99, Troy Polamalu in 2001-02, Matt Leinart in 2004-05, Dallas Sartz in 2005-06, John David Booty in 2006-07 and Jeff Byers in 2008-09). After dropping its opener against St. Mary's, Troy ran off 10 straight victories, including at Notre Dame on Johnny Baker's last-minute field goal to snap the Irish's 26-game unbeaten streak (it was USC's first win in South Bend) and over Tulane in the Rose Bowl.

USC's 2011 schedule features only 1 "State" opponent (Arizona State). The last time that happened was in 1980 when the Sun Devils were the Trojans' only "State" foe.

USC's 2011 game at Colorado on Nov. 4 will be its first Friday game, regular season or bowls, since the 1999 Louisiana Tech home game. Before that, the last time the Trojans played on a Friday was against Syracuse in the 1990 Kickoff Classic at Giants Stadium in East Rutherford, N.J. In the 1950s and 1960s, USC played occasional Friday games in the Coliseum when sharing the stadium with UCLA.

USC's 2 conference "misses" in 2011 are Oregon State and Washington State. The last time USC did not face Oregon State was 2005 and the last time it missed Washington State was 2001. The last time USC played neither OSU nor WSU in a season was 1980.

Or maybe WR George Farmer, with bests of 10.40 in the 100 meters and 21.22 in the 200 meters (he was second in the 100 meters and seventh in the 200 at the 2010 California state meet).

Frankie Telfort, a 2009 USC freshman linebacker signee from Gulliver Prep in Miami (Fla.), did not receive medical clearance because of a heart defect (hypertrophic cardiomyopathy), but he has remained with the Trojans as a student assistant coach.

In 2009, USC was named "Team of the Decade" by both CBSSports.com and Football.com, as well as the "Program of the Decade" by SI.com, plus was No. 1 in CollegeFootballNews.com's "5-Year Program Rankings" and was ranked No. 2 in ESPN.com's "Prestige Rankings" among all schools since 1936 (behind Oklahoma).

USC is in the process of constructing the John McKay Center, a $70-million, 110,000-square foot state-of-the-art facility just west of Heritage Hall slated for a summer 2012 opening. It will house football offices, an academic center, weight room, athletic training room and digital media production facility.

The 2011 season marks the 50th anniversary of USC mascot Traveler, the noble white horse that appears at all USC home football games with a regal Trojan warrior astride. Traveler first made an appearance at the 1961 home opener versus Georgia Tech. Ever since, whenever USC scores, the band plays "Conquest" and Traveler gallops around the Coliseum.

The Trojan Marching Band and the USC Song Girls were named the nation's best by ESPN.com in 2009: "Nothing says 'glamour school' more than the ubiquitous presence of the USC Song Girls and the Trojans Marching Band...The Spirit of Troy brings one of the most stirring sounds in college football, while the USC Song Girls give Trojans games one of the sport's most indelible sights."

USC, which has produced more Olympians, gold medalists and overall medalists than any other U.S. university, is conducting a year-long celebration of its tradition of nurturing successful Olympic athletes. The salute, themed "Cardinal and Gold Medal Heritage," will lead up to the 2012 London Games. Among the planned activities are Trojan Olympians introduced at USC sports events, displays and banners at Heritage Hall, videoboard vignettes, featurettes on FSN Prime Ticket and ESPN Radio 710, and collaborative programming with campus departments. The celebration is part of the Pac-12 Conference's "Follow The Pac-12 To London" initiative. Since 1904, 393 Trojan athletes have competed in the Olympic Games (they have won 583 places on Olympic teams), taking home 122 gold medals (with at least 1 gold in every summer Olympics from 1912), 76 silver and 60 bronze. If USC competed as a country, its 258 total medals would be tied for 18th among all countries (while its 122 gold medals would be tied for 12th). USC Olympians have represented 57 different countries and have participated in 28 different sports.

USC has instituted a number of improvements to the overall game day experience in 2011, everything from the addition of the second largest HD videoboard in college football to improved training for ticket-takers, parking attendants and Coliseum staff. Among the upgrades: improved traffic flow around Exposition Park and the USC campus; more traffic control officers in the streets; improved and increased traffic signage; parking around the Coliseum reserved on a lot-by-lot basis; more visible parking permits; new lighting and re-surfacing in many Coliseum parking lots; increased security patrols in Exposition Park, on campus and in the surrounding community; cameras installed that allow security officers to better monitor the entire venue; added guest service booths around the Coliseum; game day Ambassadors in Exposition Park; food vendor maps and new gate signs; a free iPhone game day application that provides live stats, traffic feeds and updates, maps, concession information and other features; Trojan Ticket Transfer program to allow fans to electronically send tickets to whomever will be using their seats that game; reduction or elimination of many ticketing fees; and improved ticketing website with better seat maps, easier navigation and personalized content based on ticket purchasing history.

IN THE NFL

USC is always well-represented in the NFL. Eleven former Trojan players are in the Pro Football Hall of Fame (more than any other school). A Trojan has appeared in all but 3 of the 45 Super Bowls and Trojans have been selected to play in the Pro Bowl 213 times. Troy has produced more NFL draft picks (473) than any school and there have been 446 USC players who have played in the NFL or its sister leagues. USC has had more first round NFL draft picks (75) than any school and is tied with Notre Dame for most players (5) selected as the top pick in the NFL draft. No school had more than USC's 9 selections in the 2011 NFL draft. At the start of training camp this summer, there were 61 ex-Trojans on NFL rosters. Last year, there were 36 Trojans on opening day NFL rosters, including players such as QBs Matt Cassel, Mark Sanchez, Carson Palmer and Matt Leinart, RB Reggie Bush, LBs Clay Matthews, Keith Rivers, Brian Cushing, Lofa Tatupu and Rey Mauluga, DBs Troy Polamalu, Terrell Thomas and Taylor Mays, DLs Mike Patterson, Sedrick Ellis and Lawrence Jackson, WRs Steve Smith and Mike Williams, OLs Taituis Lutui, Ryan Kalil, Winston Justice, Sam Baker and Chilo Rachal, TE Fred Davis and PK David Buehler. Four NFL head coaches have USC ties (either as former players or coaches): Seattle's Pete Carroll, Jacksonville's Jack Del Rio, San Diego's Norv Turner and Oakland's Hue Jackson.
