NO. 4 USC FOOTBALL HOSTS NO. 17 CALIFORNIA WITH ROSE BOWL ON THE LINE

FACTS

USC (8-1 overall, 6-1 Pacific-10) vs. California (8-2 overall, 6-1 Pacific-10), Saturday, Nov. 18, 5 p.m. PST, Los Angeles Coliseum.

THEMES

It's pretty simple: the Pac-10's top 2 teams—No. 4 USC and No. 17 California—meet in Los Angeles with a Rose Bowl berth on the line. A USC win would keep the Trojans on pace to capture at least a share of an unprecedented fifth straight league title and a guaranteed spot in their 31st Rose Bowl while staying alive in the BCS Championship Game mix (Troy is currently third in the BCS standings). If Cal wins, the Golden Bears would head to Pasadena for the first time since the 1958 season. This is USC's 94th meeting with California, the team Troy has played more than any opponent. USC, which has won 53 of its last 56 games (the 3 losses were by a total of 8 points, including in triple overtime at Cal in 2003), is riding a 31-game home winning streak and a 22-game Pac-10 home winning streak (both are league records). And the Trojans are 18-0 in November under sixth-year head coach Pete Carroll, the nation's winningest active coach. Troy, playing one of the nation's toughest schedules, is in the middle of a grueling 3-game homestand after handily beating No. 21/20 Oregon last Saturday and then facing No. 6/5 Notre Dame next week. The 92,000-seat Coliseum is sold out for the ninth straight game. USC—which has had an AP Top 4 finish (including national championships in 2003 and 2004) and a BCS bowl appearance in each of the past 4 years—has scored at least 20 points in an NCAA-record 61 consecutive outings and been ranked in the AP Top 10 for the past 55 games. USC is nationally ranked in total, scoring and passing offense. Efficient and productive QB John David Booty continues to be an effective leader in just his first year as a starter. His main targets both rank in USC's career pass receiving Top 10: All-American candidate WR Steve Smith and 2005 Biletnikoff Award finalist and All-American first team WR Dwayne Jarrett, who is the Pac-10's career touchdown reception leader. TB Chauncey Washington is coming off a career-best 119-yard, 3-TD rushing performance. He runs behind the likes of 2005 All-American OT Sam Baker and Rimington Award candidate C Ryan Kalil. The young Trojan defense (just 1 senior starter) is highly ranked in every national statistical category. USC's key defenders include LBs Keith Rivers, Rey Mauluga (a 2006 Butkus Award semifinalist) and Dallas Sartz and DE Lawrence Jackson. PK Mario Danelo has been a near-flawless kicker. After losing its opener at Tennessee, California ripped off 8 consecutive wins before being upset at Arizona last weekend. Coach Jeff Tedford's Bears feature a high-powered offense with the Pac-10's top rusher (TB Marshawn Lynch, who owns a pair of 1,000-yard seasons) and top passer (QB Nate Longshore). Lynch is ranked high nationally not only in rushing, but in all-purpose running and scoring. WR DeSean Jackson excites as a pass catcher and punt returner (he has a Pac-10 record 4 scoring runbacks this year). MLB Desmond Bishop, one of the game's top tacklers, and CB Daymeion Hughes, who is second among the nation's pass thieves, spearhead a defense that specializes in takeaways. The game will be shown live nationally on ABC-TV. The Trojans and Bears also tangle in men's water polo on Saturday, while the USC men's basketball team hosts St. Mary's that day.

RANKINGS

USC is ranked fourth by both AP and USA Today. California is 17th by both.

SERIES

USC leads the series, which dates back to 1915 (and is uninterrupted since 1926), 58-30-5. Although have won split the last 10 games, the Trojans have won 4 of the last 5 meetings, 21 of the last 28, 36 of the last 47 and 42 of the past 55. In Los Angeles-area games, USC holds a 28-18-4 edge, but Cal has won 3 of the last 5 in the Coliseum.

Last year in Berkeley, TB LenDale White rushed for 3 touchdowns and QB Matt Leinart ran for another 2 scores, while the Trojan defense forced 6 turnovers, as No. 1 USC returned to the site of its last loss and won at California, 35-10. It gave Troy at least a share of its fourth straight Pac-10 title. It was USC's 32nd consecutive win since last losing in 2003 in triple overtime in Berkeley. It also was Troy's Pac-10 record-tying 22nd straight Pac-10 victory (equaling Cal's mark from 1947-50), as well as its 15th road win in a row, its school record-tying 11th consecutive Pac-10 road win and its 15th straight November victory. USC scored on 3 of its 4 first half possessions. White had a 1-yard TD run on the Trojans' first series after S Darnell Bing's interception on Cal's sixth play of the game. But Cal responded on its ensuing series with a 45-yard field goal by PK Tom Schneider. Then, Leinart scrambled for 6- and 3-yard TDs in the second quarter. The Trojans marched 80 yards with the opening kickoff of the second quarter, with White scoring on a 6-yard run. White scored again on a 2-yard run midway through the fourth quarter as USC went 97 yards after S Ryan Ting's goal line interception. Cal scored on USC's reserves late in the game when FB Chris Manderino ran 1 yard for a score. USC became the first school in NCAA history with a 3,000-yard rusher, a pair of 1,000-yard runners and a 1,000-yard receiver. Leinart went over the 3,000-yard passing mark for his third season in a row (a USC record and tying the Pac-10 mark), going 20-of-32 for 246 yards (he was 15-of-21 for 171 yards in the first half, including 9-of-11 in the first quarter after hitting his first 8 throws). His 2 rushing TDs were his most ever in a game. White, who ran for 90 yards on 16 carries and added 61 yards on 3 catches, broke the 1,000-yard rushing barrier for his second straight year

(the first Trojan to do so since Marcus Allen in 1980 and 1981) and joined fellow TB Reggie Bush to become the first pair of 1,000-yard Trojan rushers in a season (and just the second Pac-10 duo ever). WR Dwayne Jarrett hit 1,000 receiving yards with 5 catches for 69 yards (both game highs). Fellow WR Steve Smith added 5 grabs for 36 yards, while Bush ran for 82 yards on 17 tries. USC's defense limited Cal to 299 total yards (it was averaging 444.7), 54 plays, 17 first downs and 1-of-8 third down conversions, and hold the Bears to their lowest scoring output of the season (they were averaging 35.9) and their fewest points against Troy since 1994 (it was also the fewest points allowed by USC in 2005). USC, on the other hand, had 434 total yards on 79 plays with 26 first downs while holding the ball 36:03. LB Brian Cushing led USC with 7 tackles, LB Rey Mauluga added 6 stops (with a sack) and an interception and LB Keith Rivers also had 6 stops with a fumble recovery. LB Collin Ashton had USC's other interception and DE Kyle Moore recovered the other fumble. For Cal, QB Joe Ayob was 9-of-19 for 98 yards with the 4 picks, while TB Marshawn Lynch rushed for 87 yards on 13 attempts.

In 2004 in the last meeting in the Coliseum, top-ranked USC withstood an NCAA record-setting performance by California QB Aaron Rodgers and used a late goal line stand to hold off the No. 7 Golden Bears, 23-17, before a sold-out crowd of 90,008. The victory over Cal was Troy's 14th consecutive win, as well as its 17th in a row at home and its ninth straight Pac-10 win. The crowd—the first home sellout in the series since 1930—was USC's largest in the Coliseum for a non-UCLA or Notre Dame game since the 1952 California contest. Rodgers completed his first 23 passes to tie an NCAA single game record (he also set an NCAA season mark with 26 straight completions extending to his previous game), but he couldn't connect when it counted the most. He guided Cal to a first-and-goal at the Trojan 9-yard line with 1:47 to play, but a sack by DT Manuel Wright and 3 incomplete passes ended the Bears' upset hopes. Overall, Rodgers was 29-of-35 for 267 yards (including 14-of-14 for 133 yards in the first half), but he coughed up 2 fumbles and was sacked 5 times. Cal dominated the statistics, more than doubling USC's first downs (28-12) and total yards (424-205) while getting more plays (79-50) and possession time (37:11-22:49). USC's total yards and plays were its fewest since 1998 (189 yards at Florida State and 49 plays versus TCU), while Cal's first downs were the most against USC since 1999 (29 by Oregon). But the Bears, who were first nationally in scoring offense (48.7) and second in total offense (539.0), were held to 41 points and 115 yards under their averages, and they also had 3 costly turnovers. USC jumped out to a 10-0 first quarter lead on a 5-yard pass from QB Matt Leinart to TB LenDale White (after a botched Cal punt attempt) and a 31-yard field goal by PK Ryan Killeen (following a fumble recovery by DT Mike Patterson). Cal got on the board early in the second quarter with a 39-yard field goal by PK Tom Schneider, but Killeen answered with a 33-yard field goal (after CB Eric Wright recovered a fumbled punt return by Cal). The Bears responded on the ensuing series, as Rodgers hit WR Geoff McArthur for a 20-yard TD, but Killeen hit his third field goal of the half (a 42-yarder) just 3 seconds before intermission. The teams traded touchdowns on their opening series of the second half, first a 16-yard Leinart toss to WR Dwayne Jarrett and then TB Marshawn Lynch's 2-yard run. Neither team could score the rest of the game, with USC failing to get a first down in its final 4 possessions and Cal losing a fumble (recovered again by Patterson) and missing a field goal before its unsuccessful final drive. USC had just 78 yards of total offense in the second half. Leinart was 15-of-24 for 164 yards, but was intercepted once (4 plays after an 84-yard kickoff return by TB Reggie Bush in the third quarter). White ran for 52 yards on 11 carries and Jarrett had 4 catches for 37 yards. Cal TB J.J. Arrington had 112 yards on 21 carries to become the first runner over 100 yards against USC in 14 games, while McArthur had 7 grabs for 101 yards. LB Lofa Tatupu (13 tackles) was among 4 Trojans in double figures in tackles (with S Scott Ware's 12, Patterson's career-high 10 and LB Dallas Sartz's 10). Patterson, who also had 2 tackles for losses (with a sack) and a forced fumble, was named the Walter Camp Football Foundation National Defensive Player of the Week, Football Writers Association of America Bronko Nagurski National Defensive Player of the Week and Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Week for his showing. All 6 of Killeen's kickoffs were touchbacks (Killeen was named Pac-10 Special Teams Player of the Week). It was the first time since 1968 that the teams met when both were ranked and it also was the highest-ranked Cal squad USC had faced since 1952. ESPN's "College GameDay" pre-game show made its first visit to the Coliseum.

POST-SEASON SCENARIOS

There are various post-season bowl scenarios for USC. If USC beats California to capture at least a share of an unprecedented fifth straight league title, the Trojans at worst would play in the Rose Bowl (regardless of the outcome of their Nov. 25 Notre Dame and Dec. 2 UCLA contests). If USC wins out, it also would stay alive in the BCS Championship Game mix (it is third in the current BCS standings). A loss to Cal followed by wins over Notre Dame and UCLA could keep Troy in the running for a BCS bowl or could drop USC into the Holiday Bowl. Losses to Cal and Notre Dame sandwiching a win over UCLA would drop USC into the Holiday Bowl. Losses to Cal and UCLA (regardless of the Notre Dame outcome) would drop USC into the Holiday or Sun Bowls.

IN THE COLISEUM

USC has a 390-122-27 (.749) all-time record in the Coliseum since the stadium opened in 1923.

IN NOVEMBER

USC has a 227-121-20 (.644) all-time record while playing in the month of November. Pete Carroll is 18-0 in November as USC's head coach.

FUN FACT

USC has played 1,070 games in its history and only once—when Troy went to Berkeley in 1951 and snapped No. 1-ranked California's 38-game winning streak—has the final score been a very football-like 21-14 (win or lose).

WIN STREAKS

USC owns several active winning streaks:
 —home games (a Pac-10 and school record 31, with 4 shutouts);
 —Pac-10 home games (a Pac-10 and school-record 22);
 —non-conference home games (9);
 —non-conference road games (6, not including 3 neutral site wins and 1 neutral site loss);
 —September games (10)
 —November games (18).

USC'S PAST 4+ YEARS UNDER CARROLL

Sixth-year USC head coach Pete Carroll has a system in place that has made the past 4-plus years (since 2002) glorious ones for the Trojans:

- Four AP Top 4 finishes, including national championships in 2003 and 2004;
- Four BCS bowl appearances;
- Four Pac-10 championships;
- Still-active win streaks for home games (31) and Pac-10 home games (22) to go along with the no-longer-active victory strings for overall games (34), Pac-10 games (27), road games (18), non-conference games (16), games against AP Top 25 teams (16) and Pac-10 road games (13);
- A national-record 33 consecutive weeks as AP's No. 1-ranked team;
- A winning record of 93.3% (56-4), including 8-0 against traditional rivals Notre Dame and UCLA;
- 53 wins in the last 56 games, with the losses coming by just 8 points each (the first by 3 points in triple overtime at California in 2003, the second by 3 points in the final 19 seconds to Texas in the 2006 Rose Bowl's BCS Championship Game to fall just short of an unprecedented third consecutive national championship and the third by 2 points on a failed 2-point conversion pass with 7 seconds to play at Oregon in 2006);
- A current national-record 61 straight 20-point games;
- An AP Top 10 ranking for the past 55 games;
- Nineteen All-American first teamers;
- Three Heisman Trophy winners;
- Twenty-five NFL draft picks, including 7 first rounders;
- Four Top 5 recruiting classes.

HIGH RANKING

USC has been ranked in the AP Top 10 for its past 55 games, a school record. The Trojans have been in the AP Top 5 in 60 of the last 64 polls (including 3 pre-season polls).

USC'S WINNINGEST 3, 2 AND 1 YEAR SPANS

USC's 37 wins over the last 3 years (12 in 2003, 13 in 2004 and 12 in 2005) represent the winningest 3-year period in Trojan history. Also, USC's 25 wins during the 2-year spans of both 2003-04 and 2004-05 tie for its best 2-year spans. And USC posted its first 13-win season in 2004, its eighth perfect (unbeaten, untied) season ever.

USC'S PAC-10 TITLES

After sharing the Pac-10 championship in 2002, USC won the 2003 Pac-10 title outright (its first outright crown since 1989) and again in both 2004 and 2005. Those 4 consecutive conference titles ties the Pac-10 record (first set by California in 1920-23 and equaled by USC in 1966-69). USC has now won the league title 35 times, more than twice as much as any other school.

CONNECTIONS

USC has 6 players who previously attended a Bay Area school: TB John Griffin (Saratoga HS), DE Alex Morrow (Rancho Cotate HS), DE Jeff Schweiger (Valley Christian HS), LB Joshua Tatum (McClymonds HS), TE Gerald Washington (Vallejo HS) and OT Dominique Wise (Bellarmine Prep, San Jose CC and Evergreen Valley CC)...USC head coach Pete Carroll has Bay Area roots: he was born in San Francisco, played football at Redwood High in Larkspur, Marin Junior College and Pacific, then was an assistant coach at Pacific (1974-76, 1983) and with the San Francisco 49ers (1995-96)...USC football administrative assistant Albert Dorsey lettered in football at California in 1997 and 1998...USC tight ends coach Brennan Carroll attended Saratoga High...USC linebackers coach Ken Norton Jr. played 7 years (1994-2000) with the San Francisco 49ers...USC assistant head coach/quarterbacks coach Steve Sarkisian was the quarterbacks coach with the Oakland Raiders in 2004...USC linebackers coach Nick Holt played football at Bellarmine Prep in San Jose...USC FB Mike Brittingham's cousins Jack and Robert Brittingham were 3-year (1933-35) football lettermen at California and his great uncle Richard Munroe lettered in football at both Stanford (1942) and California (1943)...Cal DE Keith Browner is the son of former USC LB Keith Browner (1980-83) and the nephew of ex-USC DB Joey Browner (1979-82)...Cal wide receivers coach Dan Ferrigno was an assistant at USC in 2000...USC assistant swimming coach Staciana Stitts Winfield was an All-American swimmer at California...USC pitching coach Dave Lawn was an assistant with Cal's baseball team from 1991 to 2000...Dino Dennis, USC's equipment manager, was an assistant at California from 1975 to 1978...Law professor Noel Ragsdale, USC's faculty athletic representative, received her law degree from California in 1976...The Golden Bear women's swim team is coached by Teri McKeever, who was an All-American swimmer at USC in 1980-81 and later an assistant coach at Troy (her late father, Mike, was an All-American guard for the 1959 USC football team assistant coach with the Women, while her late uncle, Marlin, was a Trojan All-American end in 1959 and 1960)...Cal men's swimming co-head coach Mike Bottom was an All-American swimmer at USC (1975-77)...Cal athletic travel coordinator Angie Abbatecola formerly worked in the USC athletic marketing department.

INJURED STARTERS

Nine starters or projected starters have missed games with injuries this season: WR Dwayne Jarrett (1 game), OG Chilo Rachal (1), DT Sedrick Ellis (3), CB Kevin Thomas (5), FB Stanley Havili (6), FB Ryan Powdrell (7), S Josh Pinkard (8), FB Brandon Hancock (9), TB Hershel Dennis (9). Pinkard, Powdrell, Hancock and Dennis have season-ending injuries. Also, 5 key backups have missed some 2006 games with injuries: LB Kaluka Maiava (1), WR Chris McFoy (5), DT Travis Tofi (8), OG Jeff Byers (8), S Will Harris (9).

YOUNG LINEUP

To put USC's youthfulness in perspective, the Trojans start just 5 seniors (4 on offense, 1 on defense) in 2006. And just 1 backup is a senior. Plus, 15 first-year freshmen have seen action in 2006.

LAST GAME

TB Chauncey Washington ran for 3 touchdowns and the USC defense controlled Oregon's high-powered offense as the No. 7 Trojans beat the No. 21 Ducks, 35-10, before a soldout Homecoming crowd of 92,000 and a national FSN cable audience. It was USC's 31st consecutive home victory and its 21st straight Pac-10 home win, both extending league records, as well as its 18th November win in a row. It also was Troy's 61st consecutive game scoring at least 20 points, advancing its NCAA record. Oregon, making its first visit to the Coliseum since 2000, scored its fewest points since early in the 2004 season and its fewest against USC since 1992. After a scoreless first quarter, USC drove 80 yards early in the second quarter as TB C.J. Gable ran for a 2-yard TD. Then, after S Taylor Mays intercepted QB Dennis Dixon on the Ducks' next play and returned the ball to the Oregon 7, Washington scored on a 5-yard run. Oregon got on the board midway through the third quarter on a 22-yard field goal by PK Paul Martinez. But later in that quarter, USC took advantage of a fumble recovery by LB Dallas Sartz as Washington ran in for a 3-yard score. On USC's next possession, Washington jetted a career-long 43 yards for a touchdown to make it 28-3. Oregon responded with an 80-yard drive early in the fourth quarter, capped by backup QB Brady Leaf's 7-yard TD pass to TB Jonathan Stewart, who caught the ball after it was deflected by a Trojan. But USC answered right away, with QB John David Booty hitting WR Dwayne Jarrett for a 12-yard score. Washington rushed for a career-best 119 yards on 15 attempts (7.9 yards per carry), Booty was 16-of-25 for 176 yards, Jarrett caught 6 passes for 54 yards and WR Steve Smith had a game-best 7 receptions for 88 yards. USC averaged 6.2 yards per play, getting 343 total yards on 55 plays. USC limited Oregon, which was ranked highly in most offensive statistical categories and was averaging 456.2 total yards (including 205.8 rushing) and 36.3 points, to just 358 total yards (only 102 on the ground). The Ducks, who were penalized 12 times and converted only 8-of-19 third downs, were just 2-of-5 in the red zone, getting stopped on their opening drive on fourth-and-1 on the Trojan 13, then missing a second quarter field goal and then getting stopped again on fourth down at the USC 4 late in the game. But Oregon had 88 plays (to USC's 55) and held the ball 33:37. Dixon was 15-of-23 for 130 yards, Leaf was 13-of-22 for 104 yards, Stewart gained just 42 yards on 14 carries, TE Dante Rosario had 7 catches for 69 yards, and WRs Jaison Williams (71 yards) and Jordan Kent (44 yards) each had 6 grabs. For USC, DE Lawrence Jackson, CB Cary Harris and LB Keith Rivers each had 10 tackles, with Jackson getting 3 sacks (his first of 2006), while Sartz added 9 tackles.

SCHEDULE

USC plays a challenging schedule that features 4 foes ranked in the current AP poll and 6 opponents who were in bowls last season, including 5 who won at least 8 games. USC currently plays the nation's second most difficult schedule according to the Sagarin ratings and fifth per the NCAA. USC's first 9 opponents currently own a 52-41 (.559) record (with 8 of the losses to the Trojans), but its last 3 foes are 22-9 (.710). Troy opened its 2006 campaign at Arkansas on Labor Day weekend, then returned home after a bye to meet Nebraska for the first time since 1970. Then, because of the new Pac-

10 round robin scheduling format, the Trojans embarked on a full slate of Pac-10 games for the first time ever. USC faces Washington, Arizona State, Oregon and California at home and travels to Arizona, Washington State, Oregon State and Stanford. USC then concludes its regular season with back-to-back games against annual rivals Notre Dame in the Coliseum on Thanksgiving weekend and UCLA in the Rose Bowl on Championship Saturday (Dec. 2). USC plays 7 night games, tying the school record first set in 2004. Tickets to Trojan games are hard to come by in 2006, as all home games (and most road games) are sold out. For the second year in a row, USC in 2005 set Pac-10 records for total home attendance and home attendance average (90,812) and school marks for overall attendance (going over the million mark for the first time) and overall attendance average (79,813). The Trojans last year also set school standards for the second straight year for home sellouts (4), regular season sellouts (9) and season sellouts (10).

PETE CARROLL

It hasn't taken sixth-year USC head football coach Pete Carroll long to return the Trojan football program to national prominence. He is 1 of 15 semifinalists for the 2006 George Munger Award (given to the nation's top coach). He is 62-11 (84.9%) in 6 years (2001-2006) as a college head coach (all at USC), the best winning percentage of any current Division I coach with at least 5 years of experience. He got to 50 career USC wins faster than any head coach in Trojan history. His losses have been by a total of 47 points (4.3 average) and only 1 was by more than a touchdown (it was by 11 points). After starting off his Trojan career 2-5, he has gone 60-6 (90.9%) with a pair of national championships (2003-04). He is 41-6 in Pac-10 games, giving him an 87.2% winning mark (a league record). He is 18-0 in November. His teams have been ranked in the AP Top 10 for the past 55 games and have scored at least 20 points in the last 61 games (an NCAA record). USC's 13, 25 and 37 wins over the previous 1, 2 and 3 years represent the winningest periods in Trojan history. Under Carroll, USC is riding winning streaks in a Pac-10 record 31 consecutive home games, a Pac-10 record 22 consecutive league home games, 18 November games, 10 September games, 9 non-conference home games and 6 non-conference road games (not including 3 neutral site contests). His USC teams also had a number of since-broken other winning streaks: a Pac-10-record 34 overall games, a Pac-10-record 27 Pac-10 games, a school-record 18 road games (not including 4 neutral site contests), 18 October games, 16 non-conference games, 16 games against AP Top 25 teams and a school-record 13 Pac-10 road games. USC was AP's No. 1 team for a national-record 33 straight polls (including 2 pre-season polls). In 2005, he won at least a share of his fourth consecutive Pac-10 title (tying a Pac-10 record) and a trip to a fourth consecutive BCS bowl (including a second straight BCS Championship Game). Under Carroll, USC is the first school to have 3 Heisman Trophy winners in a 4-year span. Carroll has produced 20 All-American first teamers and 27 NFL draft picks (including 7 first rounders, with a No. 1 selection in Carson Palmer and a No. 2 in Reggie Bush). His last 4 recruiting classes have been ranked in the Top 5 nationally (including first each year by some experts). He also served as USC's defensive coordinator in his first 5 seasons at Troy.

OFFENSIVE OVERVIEW

Four starters returned on offense in 2006: wide receivers Dwayne Jarrett and Steve Smith, tackle Sam Baker and center Ryan Kalil. Others back with starting experience were wide receiver Chris McFoy, tight ends Fred Davis and Dale Thompson, guard Jeff Byers, fullback Brandon Hancock and tailback Hershel Dennis. USC's top 2 pass catchers from 2005 are back, but the Trojans lost their top 2 rushers and their leading passer. The Trojans will be hard-pressed to equal last season's record-setting offense—coordinated by wide receivers coach Lane Kiffin, with the aid of quarterbacks coach Steve Sarkisian—that ranked in the nation's Top 6 in every stat category: tops in total offense (a school-record 579.8), second in scoring offense (a USC-record 49.1), fifth in passing (319.8) and sixth in rushing (260.0). USC set Pac-10 records for total offense yardage (7,537), first downs (376), points scored (638), touchdowns (83) and PATs (83) in 2005. Troy hit the 600-yard mark in total offense 5 times last fall (including 3 games of 700 yards) and averaged a school-record 7.5 yards per play (including a Pac-10 mark 6.4 yards per rush). USC's 4,157 passing yards last season was a school record. The Trojans had a scoring average of 26.2 points in 2005 and scored 50-plus points a USC record 7 times. In 2005, USC became the first school to have a 3,000-yard passer, a pair of 1,000-yard runners and a 1,000-yard receiver in a season.

QUARTERBACKS

All eyes are on the quarterback position in 2006 as a successor fills in for 2004 Heisman winner and NFL first round pick Matt Leinart, USC's second-ever 3-time All-American. It's a daunting challenge, as Leinart was 37-2 as a starter while setting 16 school records, including Pac-10 career marks for touchdown passes (99) and completion percentage (64.8). He threw for 10,693 yards in his career, including 3,815 yards with 28 TDs in 2005. But it's not unlike USC's 2003 season when Leinart emerged from a group of relatively untested signalcallers to become the replacement to 2002 Heisman winner Carson Palmer. The only experienced quarterback on the roster is junior John David Booty (183-of-292, 62.7%, 2,142 yds, 20 TD, 6 int in 2006, plus 1 tac), who entered 2006 as the starter despite missing all but the first day of 2006 spring practice with a herniated disk in his back that required surgery in late March (he was healthy throughout 2006 fall camp).

He is 1 of 15 semifinalists for the 2006 Maxwell Award (given to the nation's top player) and 1 of 18 semifinalists for the Davey O'Brien Award (nation's top quarterback). His 183 completions in 2006 ranks him 14th on USC's season passing list and his 217 career completions is 13th on the USC all-time chart. His 2,101 yards of total offense in 2006 is 17th on USC's season ladder. He has thrown a TD pass in each of his starts in 2006, including 6 games with at least 2 TD throws and 5 with 3 TDs. Booty, the first prep football player to graduate a full year early from high school and enroll at a major university when he did so at USC in 2003, appeared in 10 games last fall as Leinart's backup, completing 64.3% (27-of-42) of his passes for 327 yards and 2 TDs. He also played briefly in 5 games in 2003, but sat out 2004 while injured. In Booty's absence in the spring, redshirt freshman Mark Sanchez (3-of-6, 50.0%, 63 yds in 2006)—who was the national high school player of the year in 2004—ran the offense and had an impressive showing. He'll back up Booty in 2006. Also in the fray is junior Michael McDonald (1-of-1, 100.0%, 20 yds, 1 TD in 2006), the son of ex-USC All-American and NFL standout Paul McDonald (his only 2 career passes were touchdowns), plus a pair of walk-on freshmen in Tyler Davis and left-handed Duron Sylvester.

—Booty was impressive in his debut as a starter, as he completed 68.6% of his passes (24-of-35) for 261 yards and 3 second-half touchdowns at Arkansas (by comparison, his predecessor, 2004 Heisman winner Matt Leinart was 17-of-30 for 192 yards and a TD in his first start in 2003), while Sanchez hit 1-of-2 passes for 19 yards.

—Booty was 25-of-36 for 257 yards and 3 TDs versus Nebraska.

—Booty was 24-of-39 for 179 yards and a short TD toss at Arizona, but threw his first interception of the season after 78 attempts.

—Booty was 23-of-32 for 269 yards and 3 TDs (with a pick) at Washington State.

—Booty hit 23-of-40 passes for 243 yards and a TD (with an interception) against Washington, while McDonald threw a 20-yard touchdown pass off a fake field goal attempt (his second career TD pass in as many attempts).

—Booty was 12-of-25 for 148 yards and 2 TDs against Arizona State, but threw an interception that was returned for a score.

—Booty hit 24-of-39 passes for a career-high 406 yards (the fifth most passing yards in USC history; only Carson Palmer 3 times and Mike Van Raaphorst once threw for more) with 3 TD passes and an interception at Oregon State.

—Booty was 12-of-21 for 203 yards with 3 second-quarter TDs (21, 7 and 2 yards) at Stanford, while Sanchez played the entire fourth quarter and was 2-of-4 for 44 yards and also ran for a 4-yard TD.

—Booty was 16-of-25 for 176 yards with a TD and an interception against Oregon, while Sanchez's only pass was picked off.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT JOHN DAVID BOOTY

Craig James, ESPN: "I'm just amazed at the way he controls games. With all those new players, he's kept this thing together. Even though the games are closer, they're still winning. I just didn't expect him to play as well as he has. His footwork, his poise in the pocket, his arm strength, it looks like he's been doing this for three years."

TAILBACKS

Perhaps even more difficult for USC than fielding a new quarterback, a tailback (or tailbacks) must emerge in 2006 to take over for Reggie Bush and LenDale White, who both departed early for the NFL (Bush was the draft's second overall selection and White was a second rounder). In their time at Troy, the duo accounted for 6,328 rushing yards and an NCAA teammate record 97 touchdowns. They were the first pair of Trojans to eclipse 1,000 yards rushing in the same season when Bush had 1,740 yards and White added 1,302 yards in 2005 (for another NCAA teammate record of 3,042 yards). The 2-time All-American Bush, who won the 2005 Heisman Trophy and Doak Walker Award, topped the nation last fall in all-purpose running (222.3) while getting a Pac-10 record 2,890 yards, including an amazing 513 against Fresno State. He also was fourth nationally in rushing (133.9). He averaged nearly a first down every rush (8.7 yards) and had 8 100-yard rushing outings in 2005. His 19 touchdowns in 2005 averaged 31.6 yards each. In his career, he had 6,617 all-purpose yards (3,169 rushing) and had 99 plays of 20-plus yards. White was second nationally in scoring (12.0) in 2005. His 24 rushing TDs and 26 overall scores last year were Pac-10 records. He had 6 100-yard rushing games in 2005. In his career, he ran for 3,159 yards, scored a USC record 342 points and set Pac-10 standards for rushing (52) and overall (57) touchdowns. Junior Chauncey Washington (132 tcb, 674 yds, 5.1 avg, 8 TD in 2006, plus 8 rec, 89 yds, 11.1 avg and 1 tac), who was a backup in 2003 (he ran for 65 yards in brief appearances in 7 games), looked to start, but he was nagged early in the 2006 season with a hamstring injury. He missed the past 2 seasons and this past spring while academically ineligible. His style is a mix between Bush and White. He is being challenged by a quartet of talented freshmen who were 2005 prep All-Americans: Emmanuel Moody (78 tcb, 457 yds, 5.9 avg, 2 TD in 2006, plus 3 rec, 39 yds, 13.0 avg), C.J. Gable (40 tcb, 159 yds, 4.0 avg, 3 TD in 2006, plus 2 rec, 5 yds, 2.5 avg and 12 KOR, 326 yds, 27.2 avg), Allen Bradford (8 tcb, 19 yds, 2.4 avg, 1 TD in 2006, plus 2 rec, 29 yds, 14.5 avg, 1 TD and 2 tac and 1 KOR, 9 yds, 9.0 avg), who also can play safety, and Stafon Johnson (3 tcb, 17 yds, 5.7 avg in 2006). Moody was USC's rushing leader in its first 3 games of 2006, while Washington topped the team in the last 5 contests. Moody has 5 runs and 1 reception of 20-plus yards in 2006. Gable (at Arkansas) and Moody (versus Nebraska) became USC's first true freshmen to start at tailback in consecutive games. Gable currently is 14th nationally in kickoff returns (27.2, first in Pac-10). Junior Desmond Reed (6 tcb, 1 yds, 0.2 avg in 2005, plus 5 rec, 51 yds, 10.2 avg, plus 12 PR, 50 yds, 4.2 avg and 2 KOR, 42 yds, 21.0 avg and 1 tac), who has Bush-like skills, has recovered from torn knee ligaments in last season's Notre Dame game, although he still is bothered by subsequent nerve damage in his foot (he missed 2006 spring practice). Look for him to make an impact as a punt returner in 2006. He had 331 all-purpose yards in 2005, averaging 13.8 yards per touch. Sophomore Michael Coleman, who is in the White mold, missed 2006 spring drills while recovering from a 2005 hip injury and could be slowed this fall. He had 95 yards and a TD on 20 carries last year. Also available is little-used walk-on junior John Griffin. Senior Hershel Dennis, who started in 2003, appeared ready to re-assume his starting tailback job after redshirting last season because of torn knee ligaments suffered prior to the 2005 Orange Bowl. But he re-tore those ligaments midway through 2006 spring practice and will be sidelined again in 2006 (he might petition for a sixth year of eligibility in 2007). He has 968 career rushing yards, including 661 on 137 carries (4.8 avg) with 4 TDs in 2003.

—In the opener at Arkansas, Moody rushed for a game-high 58 yards on 7 carries with a 9-yard TD, Washington added 55 yards on 8 tries, Gable—who became the first USC true freshman to start an opener at tailback—had 51 yards on 12 attempts with a 3-yard TD, Bradford had 13 yards on 5 carries with a 1-yard score and Reed had 7 yards on 4 ties and also had a 6-yard reception.

—Moody started versus Nebraska and ran for a game-best 70 yards on 9 carries, while Washington added 52 yards on 12 tries and scored his first career TD (a 7-yarder). Gable had 22 yards on 6 rushes and Reed caught 2 passes for 13 yards, returned a punt 4 yards and had a tackle.

—Moody ran for a game-high 130 yards on 21 carries as the starter at Arizona, with a 9-yard TD run and other runs of 40 and 30 yards (he also lost a yard on a reception) to earn Rivals.com National Freshman of the Week honors, while Gable added 34 yards on 5 carries and had a 5-yard reception, Washington had 33 yards on 10 tries and a 4-yard catch, Bradford had a 3-yard carry and Reed returned 3 punts for 19 yards and lost 5 yards while sacked on an attempted reverse pass.

—Washington had a game-high 71 yards on 18 carries, with a 3-yard TD, at Washington State, Moody added 69 yards on 8 carries (including a 48-yard run) and Gable rushed for 6 yards on 3 tries and returned 4 kickoffs for 127 yards (including a 55-yarder).

—Washington had a team-high 81 yards on 17 carries and caught 2 passes for 17 yards versus Washington, Moody added 67 yards on 15 rushes, Gable returned 4 kickoffs for 98 yards and Reed had a 2-yard punt return.

—Washington had a game-best 108 yards on 22 carries, both career bests, with the game-winning 2-yard scoring run with 4:29 to play (he had 64 yards on 10 carries on the decisive 74-yard scoring drive) and added a 29-yard reception against Arizona State in his first career start, while Moody had 29 yards on 6 carries, Gable had 26 yards on 5 rushes with a 2-yard TD and also returned a kickoff 20 yards, Bradford caught a 17-yard TD pass and made a tackle, and Reed had 2 receptions for 32 yards, a 23-yard kickoff return and a 7-yard punt return.

—Washington led USC with 81 yards on 18 carries, with a 2-yard TD run and a 2-point conversion run, and also added 3 catches for 32 yards at Oregon State, while Moody had 8 yards on 3 carries, Gable had a 5-yard run and 2 kickoff returns for 40 yards and Reed had a 19-yard kickoff return, a punt return for no yards and a rush for a 1-yard loss.

—Washington ran for a game-best 74 yards on 12 carries (with a 15-yard TD run on fourth down) at Stanford, while Moody had 26 yards on 9 rushes and 40 yards on 2 receptions, Johnson ran for 17 yards on his first 3 carries of 2006, Bradford caught a 12-yard pass and Gable had 1 yard on 2 tries.

—Washington ran for 3 touchdowns (5, 3 and a career-long 43 yards) and gained a career-high 119 yards on 15 carries (a 7.9 average per carry) against Oregon (he also caught a 7-yard pass), while Gable gained 14 yards on 6 tries and scored a 2-yard TD (he also had a 41-yard kickoff return), Bradford added 3 yards on 2 carries and Moody had a 2-yard carry before spraining his ankle.

FULLBACKS

There also is a new fullback in 2006, as David Kirtman has graduated. He was a strong blocker, dangerous receiver (22 catches for 281 yards in 2005) and limited but effective runner (26 yards in 2005) who was a fifth round NFL draft pick. Emerging as the starter was senior Ryan Powdrell (3 tcb, 9 yds, 3.0 avg in 2006, plus 4 rec, 72 yds, 18.0 avg, 1 TD), a converted linebacker who was moved to offense this past spring. Because of a dearth of tailbacks available last spring, Powdrell was even used at tailback then and was a pleasant surprise. But he suffered a dislocated and fractured ankle against Nebraska, ending his season. So freshman Stanley Havili (4 rec, 24 yds, 6.0 avg in 2006), who was a 2005 prep All-American, took over the starting job at Arizona, but broke his leg in that game and has been sidelined. Havili and tailback Emmanuel Moody became the first USC true freshmen fullback/tailback combo to start a game together when they did so at Arizona. Junior Thomas Williams (17 tac, 1.5 for, 1 sack, 1 int in 2006), USC's utility linebacker the first half of 2006 (in 2005, he started 6 times on the outside and twice in the middle) and a key special teams performer, was moved to fullback in midseason of 2006. He made his first appearance at the position blocking on Chauncey Washington's game-winning 2-yard touchdown run late in the Arizona State game. Also competing now for time at fullback are senior Mike Brittingham (1 tcb, 4 yds, 4.0 avg in 2006, plus 1 rec, 4 yds, 4.0 avg and 2 tac), who is a key special teams performer, junior Jody Adewale (2 rec, 16 yds, 8.0 avg in 2006), who has yet to carry the ball at USC, and sophomore David Buehler, who also can play safety and placekicker (he has kicked off once in 2006). Senior Brandon Hancock, the 2003 starter and Kirtman's backup last fall (he redshirted in 2004 with injuries), was set to start in 2006, but tore knee ligaments during fall camp and is sidelined this season.

—Powdrell ran for 9 yards and caught 4 passes for 72 yards (including a 44-yarder where he juked several defenders) with a 1-yard TD at Arkansas, while Brittingham had a tackle.

—Powdrell's only carry against Nebraska was for no yards and resulted in a season-ending dislocated and fractured ankle.

—Havili started at Arizona and caught 4 passes for 24 yards before breaking his leg, while Brittingham had a 4-yard run and a 4-yard reception.

—Adewale caught a 6-yard pass against Washington.

—Adewale caught a 10-yard pass against Oregon.

JARRETT AND SMITH

The strength of USC's offense is its wide receivers, as both starters returned—they are the best pair of starting wideouts in the nation—and there is undeniable depth. The Trojans' marquee player is 2005 unanimous All-American and Biletnikoff Award finalist Dwayne Jarrett (42 rec, 507 yds, 12.1 avg, 6 TD in 2006, plus 0-of-1 passing, 0.0%, 0 yds, 1 int). The big (6-5), athletic junior was 12th nationally in receptions (7.0) and 13th in receiving yards (98.0) in 2005 when he caught 91 passes for 1,274 yards and his school-record tying 16 touchdown grabs (1 short of the league standard) led the nation. Already fourth on USC's career receptions chart with 188 (that's 17th on the all-time Pac-10 ladder), he needs just 19 catches to equal Trojan leader Keary Colbert. His 35 career TD catches is a Pac-10 record, as the old standard was 26 years old (the NCAA record is 50 by Louisiana Tech's Troy Edwards, 1996-98). His 2,630 career receiving yards is sixth on USC's all-time list (25th on the Pac-10 career chart). He has 11 100-yard receiving games in his career (including 2 in 2006 and 5 in 2005) and he has caught a pass in all 34 games he has played in his career (he sat out the 2006 Washington State game with a shoulder injury), with a TD reception in 22 of those contests. On the other side is steady, speedy senior Steve Smith (49 rec, 786 yds, 16.0 avg, 7 TD in 2006). He had 60 catches for 957 yards and 5 scores in 2005. He currently is 14th nationally in receiving yards (87.3, third in Pac-10) and 23rd in receptions (6.4, second in Pac-10). In his career, he has 168 receptions (tied for sixth on Troy's list) and 8 100-yard receiving outings (2 in 2006), with 20 TDs (tied for 25th on the Pac-10 career list). His 49 catches in 2006 ties him for 22nd on USC's season list. He was a Biletnikoff semifinalist last fall and could be in line for post-season honors in 2006. In their careers, Jarrett and Smith have 57 TD receptions and have caught a touchdown pass in the same game 8 times. Both are among 14 semifinalists for the 2006 Biletnikoff Award.

—Smith (67 yards) and Jarrett (35 yards) each had a game-best 5 receptions at Arkansas.

—Jarrett caught a career high-equalling 11 passes for 136 yards versus Nebraska, with TDs of 12 and 5 yards to give him the USC career touchdown reception record and help him earn Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Week honors, while Smith added 6 catches for 53 yards with a 3-yard scoring grab.

—Jarrett caught 4 passes for 36 yards at Arizona, including a 3-yard TD, before sitting out most of the second half with a sprained shoulder, while Smith had a 9-yard reception.

—Smith was named Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Week as he caught 11 passes for 186 yards (both career highs), including a pair of second-half touchdowns (7 and 11 yards), at Washington State, stepping up for Jarrett, who missed the game with a shoulder injury (10 of Smith's catches were for first downs, including 2 on third downs and another pair on fourth downs).

—Smith caught 5 passes for 96 yards against Washington, including a 20-yard TD off a fake field goal attempt, and Jarrett had a 5-yard reception (Smith sat out the fourth quarter with a sprained ankle and Jarrett sat out the second half when his sore shoulder flared up).

—Jarrett had a game-best 6 receptions for 60 yards, with a 14-yard TD to break the Pac-10 career touchdown reception record (33), against Arizona State, while Smith caught a 12-yard pass before sitting out the second half with a sore foot.

—Smith equaled his career high with 11 receptions at Oregon State for a career-best 258 yards (2 shy of the USC game record, the eighth best showing in Pac-10 history and set Oregon State opponent and stadium records) and a pair of fourth quarter touchdowns (37 and 2 yards), while Jarrett added 4 grabs for 63 yards.

—Jarrett had a game-best 5 receptions for 118 yards, with a 21-yard TD, at Stanford, while Smith had 2 grabs for 17 yards, including a 7-yard TD.

—Smith had a game-best 7 catches for 88 yards against Oregon, while Jarrett caught 6 passes for 54 yards, including a 12-yard TD.

*Pac-10 record (Note: Washington State's Jason Hill currently has 32 career TDs)

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT DWAYNE JARRETT

Nebraska head coach Bill Callahan: "Dwayne Jarrett is an outstanding wide receiver. That's why he's a Heisman Trophy candidate. He's a monster. He physically dominates. He can make plays on the perimeter and the edge and really becomes a factor in the red zone."

Desmond Howard, ESPN: "Dwayne Jarrett is the best receiver in college."

Former Washington head coach Keith Gilbertson: "That's not Mike Williams? That's not Lynn Swann? That's not Keyshawn Johnson? Jarrett is the next great one. He's tremendous. He's a lot like Keyshawn and Mike—tall and rangy and really, really good."

USC head coach Pete Carroll: "Dwayne is a big, strong, acrobatic receiver with great hands and he's so difficult to defend. He has a knack for making big plays...He is extremely talented. If you watch him on the field, you see he is just so natural and so gifted. He is all we could have hoped for...He really is one of the most natural catchers you can find now. He has marvelous hand-eye coordination, exceptional confidence and also great creativity to come up with plays...He is at a whole different level than others. And he is an extraordinary practice player. He works every day, every route. He makes big plays every day, which is the standard he lives by now. He has done things in practice that I have never seen before. He does it gracefully and consistently. And he does it every week...He can do more things with the ball than anybody we have had...His one-handed touchdown catch at Washington (in 2005, with one foot inbounds) was a routine grab for him. He does that all the time."

Former USC Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback Matt Leinart: "He's reminiscent of Mike Williams in the height, the athleticism and just the way they make plays and create mismatches. But Dwayne might be more athletic...What he's done at USC so far is pretty unbelievable. And he's going to get even better."

USC quarterbacks coach Steve Sarkisian: "Dwayne runs every pattern perfectly. He just keeps getting faster, and better."

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT DWAYNE JARRETT AND STEVE SMITH

Oregon head coach Mike Bellotti: "They both have the capacity to take a game over. The scary thing to me is the quarterbacks just throw the ball up and trust that they are going to go get it. They have speed, size, range, and they are tremendous. They are probably the best one-two punch in the nation at wide receiver."

OTHER WIDE RECEIVERS

Providing more-than-solid depth at wideout are senior Chris McFoy (10 rec, 99 yds, 9.9 avg, 1 TD in 2006), who has 50 career clutches (17 in 2005) and 17 starts but didn't snag a touchdown until the fourth game of his 2006 fifth-year senior season, sophomore Patrick Turner (26 rec, 231 yds, 8.9 avg, 2 TD in 2006, plus 0-of-1 passing, 0.0%, 0 yds and 2 tac), who has a promising future (he had 12 catches with 2 TDs in 2005), and junior walk-on Brad Walker (1 tac in 2006). McFoy has missed 5 mid-season games (Washington, Arizona State, Oregon State, Stanford, Oregon) with a shoulder injury. Supplementing this group are 4 supremely-talented freshmen who were 2005 prep All-Americans: Vidal Hazelton (1 rec, 8 yds, 8.0 avg in 2006, plus 1 tcb, 7 yds, 7.0 avg), Travon Patterson (3 rec, 63 yds, 21.0 avg in 2006, plus 1 tcb, 1 yds, 1.0 avg), David Ausberry and Jamere Holland (he'll miss 2006 with a shoulder injury). Then there are freshmen walk-ons Sean Calcagnie, Scott Stephens and Spencer Vigoren, plus senior walk-on Ben Malcolmson.

—Turner had 2 catches for 15 yards (including a 14-yard TD) at Arkansas, while McFoy added 2 catches for 7 yards and Patterson had a 19-yard grab.

—McFoy had 3 receptions for 39 yards versus Nebraska, while Turner threw an incomplete pass on a reverse and had a tackle.

—McFoy caught 3 passes for 41 yards at Arizona. Turner had 2 receptions for 13 yards and Patterson gained a yard on a reverse.

—Turner caught 5 passes for 25 yards at Washington State, while McFoy had 2 grabs for 12 yards, including a 7-yarder for his first career TD.

—Turner started in place of Dwayne Jarrett (slowed with an injury) and had a game-best 12 catches for 116 yards (both career highs) with a 17-yard TD against Washington (the most receptions by a Trojan since Mike Williams had 13 at Oregon in 2002), while Hazelton caught an 8-yard pass.

—Turner got 2 passes for 33 yards at Oregon State and Hazelton had a 7-yard run on a reverse.

—Patterson had 2 catches for 44 yards at Stanford and Turner added a 14-yard reception.

—Turner had a 17-yard reception against Oregon.

TIGHT ENDS

Tight end is another position where a new starter must develop to replace a reliable veteran who has departed. In this case, gone is Dominique Byrd and his 81 career receptions. He had 29 catches in 2005. He was an adept blocker and dangerous receiver (especially as a deep threat) who was a third round pick in the NFL draft. Junior Fred Davis (24 rec, 196 yds, 8.2 avg, 3 TD in 2006), who started 3 times last year and caught 13 passes with 2 TDs, has emerged as the starter. Behind him are junior Dale Thompson (1 rec, 6 yds, 6.0 avg in 2006), who started once in 2005, sophomore Jimmy Miller, who caught 2 touchdowns in 2005, senior Nick Vanderboom, freshman Anthony McCoy (a 2005 prep All-American) and junior Gerald Washington, a 2005 junior college All-American who enrolled at USC this past spring. Then there's freshman walk-on Cooper Stephenson.

—Davis had a game-best 5 catches for 59 yards, with a 9-yard TD, at Arkansas.

—Davis had 2 catches for 16 yards against Nebraska.

—Davis had a team-best 5 catches for 38 yards at Arizona.

—Davis had 5 catches for 46 yards at Washington State.

—Davis caught 2 passes for 15 yards versus Washington State.

—Davis caught 4 passes for 20 yards at Oregon State, including a 4-yard TD.

—Davis had a 2-yard TD reception at Stanford.

OFFENSIVE LINEMEN

Originally, the offensive line appeared it would be a strong, experienced unit in 2006, despite the loss of graduated 2005 consensus All-American left guard Taitusi Lutui, who was an NFL second round draft choice. But then right guard Fred Matua and right tackle Winston Justice, both 3-year starters, decided to test the NFL waters after their junior campaigns (Matua was a seventh round pick and Justice a second rounder), leaving USC with just a pair of returning starters up front. But both of those returnees are good ones and they'll be starting for their third seasons, so the line appears to still be in good shape. Junior left tackle Sam Baker earned All-American first team notice in 2005 after winning Freshman All-American honors in 2004. Senior center Ryan Kalil (1 tac in 2006), a 2005 All-Pac-10 first teamer, is now a candidate for All-American honors and the Rimington Award. Senior Kyle Williams and sophomore Chilo Rachal, who both saw significant action in 2005, entered the 2006 season as the starters on the right side at Justice's and Matua's tackle and guard spots, respectively. Junior Drew Radovich (2 tac in 2006), who missed last fall with a hip injury, which limited him in 2006 spring practice, has emerged as the starter at Lutui's left guard opening over sophomore Jeff Byers, a starter in 2004 who missed last season with a hip injury. Byers, who also can play center, has been bothered most of 2006 with a back injury. Sophomore Travis Draper, a converted defensive tackle, and redshirt freshman Nick Howell are backups at center (Draper also might work at guard and Howell at tackle). Competing for action as backups at guard are junior Alatini Malu (he started against Washington for an injured Rachal), freshman Zack Heberer (a 2005 prep All-American) and senior walk-ons Dominique Wise and Jonathan Richert, while pressing for time at tackle are redshirt freshmen Charles Brown and Thomas Herring (a knee injury sidelined him last year) and freshman Butch Lewis, a 2005 prep All-American. Junior guard-tackle Matt Spanos will sit out the 2006 season while academically ineligible.

—Baker, Radovich, Kalil, Rachal and Williams started versus Arkansas, Nebraska, Arizona, Washington State, Arizona State, Oregon State, Stanford and Oregon, while Malu started in place of an injured Rachal against Washington.

DEFENSIVE OVERVIEW

Six defensive starters returned from 2005: end Lawrence Jackson, linebackers Oscar Lua, Keith Rivers and Thomas Williams, safety-cornerback Josh Pinkard and tackle Sedrick Ellis. Others back with starting experience are linebackers Dallas Sartz, Brian Cushing and Kaluka Maiava, cornerback Terrell Thomas and tackle Fili Moala. Three of USC's top 5 tacklers from 2005 return, as do its leaders in sacks, deflections and fumble recoveries. Although the Trojans were second nationally in turnover margin (+1.6) in 2005 to continue an upward trend in that statistic since Carroll's arrival in 2001, new coordinator Nick Holt (also the defensive line coach) will be looking to shore up a defense that gave up the school's highest averages in total yards since 1999 (360.9), in points since 2000 (22.8) and in rushing yards since 2001 (130.5) and its second highest average in passing yards since 1999 (230.4).

DEFENSIVE LINEMEN

USC lost a couple good defensive linemen from 2005, but the Trojans also returned a couple good ones here. Gone are All-Pac-10 first team end Frostee Rucker, who had 25.5 career tackles for a loss (including a team-best 14 among his 56 tackles in 2005), and tackle LaJuan Ramsey (40 tackles in 2005). Rucker was selected in the NFL draft's third round and Ramsey went in the sixth round. But junior end Lawrence Jackson (30 tac, 7.5 for loss, 3 sack, 2 dfl, 2 BLK FG in 2006) returned for his third season as a starter after winning All-Pac-10 first team honors in 2004. He's an All-American candidate now. He led USC in sacks (10), forced fumbles (4) and fumble recoveries (2) last fall while also posting 46 tackles (13 for loss) and 6 deflections. In his career, Jackson has 31.5 tackles for loss and 19 sacks. Also back as a starter is underrated junior nose tackle Sedrick Ellis (20 tac, 5 for loss, 2.5 sack, 1 FF, 1 BLK FG in 2006), who had 50 tackles (8 for loss, including 4.5 sacks, in 2005. A knee injury sidelined him for 3 games (Nebraska, Arizona, Washington State). Sophomore Kyle Moore (4 tac, 1 dfl in 2006) and junior Jeff Schweiger (2 tac in 2004) are fighting for a key role at end, although sophomore linebacker Brian Cushing (41 tac, 7 for loss, 1 sack, 1 dfl, 1 BLK P in 2006, plus 1 PR, 21 yds, 21.0 avg) has been starting there as USC plays a hybrid 3-4 defense. Also available to play end is junior Alex Morrow (2 tac in 2006). Junior Chris Barrett (13 tac, 2 for loss, 1 sack in 2006), a converted end, and sophomore Fili Moala (10 tac, 3 for loss, 1 sack, 2 dfl in 2006), who started twice in 2005, are pushing each other for Ramsey's tackle job, with Ramsey emerging as the starter (Moala also can play nose tackle, where he started twice in 2006 for an injured Ellis). Also in the hunt at the tackle spots are experienced senior Travis Tofi, redshirt freshman Averell Spicer (3 tac, 2 for loss, 1 dfl in 2006), freshman Walker Lee Ashley (1 tac in 2006), who enrolled at USC this spring after originally signing with the Trojans in 2005 (he did not qualify for admission then) as a 2004 prep All-American, and freshmen Alex Parsons and Derek Simmons (he also can play end), who both were 2005 prep All-Americans. There also is senior walk-on tackle Mike Davis. A pair of ends—senior Rashaad Goodrum, who missed 2006 spring drills while recuperating from a back and rib injury, and sophomore Lawrence Miles, a converted defensive tackle who missed 2006 spring practice while recovering from shoulder surgery—will miss this season while injured.

—Ellis had 3 tackles (with a sack) and a forced fumble at Arkansas, while Jackson added 2 stops, and Moala (for a loss), Ashley, Morrow and Barrett each had 1 tackle.

—Barrett had 4 tackles versus Nebraska, Moala added 4 stops (0.5 for a loss) while starting at nose tackle for an injured Ellis and Jackson had 3 tackles and a deflection.

—Barrett had 3 tackles, with a sack, at Arizona, while Jackson blocked a field goal.

—Jackson had 3 tackles (0.5 for loss) at Washington State, while Barrett had 1 for a loss and both Moore and Moala had a tackle.

—Ellis returned from a 3-game hiatus because of an injury and had 5 tackles against Washington, while Jackson added 3 stops (1 for a loss), Barrett had 1 tackle and Moala had a deflection.

—Ellis had 5 tackles, including 2 for a loss (with 0.5 sack), versus Arizona State, while Jackson had 5 tackles (including 1 for a loss) and Moala and Barrett each had 1 stop.

—Ellis had 5 tackles, including 2 for losses (with a sack), at Oregon State, while Jackson had 2 tackles, a blocked field goal and a deflection, Moala had 2 stops (including a sack) and Barrett had 1 tackle.

—Spicer had 2 tackles (1 for a loss) and a deflection at Stanford, while Moore also had 2 tackles, Ellis had a tackle and blocked a field goal that USC returned for a TD, Jackson had a tackle for a loss and Moala had a tackle (0.5 for loss).

—Jackson had a game-best 10 tackles, including 4 for losses (with 3 sacks), against Oregon, while Schweiger had 2 stops, Spicer had a tackle for loss, Moore had a tackle and deflection and Barrett, Morrow and Ellis each had a tackle.

LINEBACKERS

USC is linebacker heavy, as 6 players who started at the position last year returned in 2006. This unit is the heart of the Trojan defense and the competition for playing time will be fierce. Senior Oscar Lua (21 tac, 2 for loss, 1 dfl in 2006), USC's tackle leader (66) in 2005, returned as the starter in the middle. But he has been supplanted there by promising sophomore Rey Mauluga (team-high 62 tac, 3.5 for loss, 1 sack, 1 int, 2 dfl, 1 FF in 2006), a 2005 Freshman All-American when he had 37 tackles. He was 1 of 10 semifinalists for the 2006 Butkus Award. Junior Keith Rivers (61 tac, 5 for loss, 2 sack, 1 FR, 2 FF, 2 dfl in 2006) is back as the weakside starter after getting 52 tackles in 2005 and is ready for a breakout year (he could be in line for post-season honors). Four players started on the strong side last year. Senior Dallas Sartz (46 tac, 5.5 for loss, 4 sack, 2 FR, 1 FF, 2 dfl in 2006), who began 2005 starting for his third season at the position, suffered a shoulder injury in the second game and was sidelined the rest of the way. He has assumed his starting role in 2006. USC is 29-1 in games that Sartz has started (the loss was at Oregon State in 2006). Junior Thomas Williams (17 tac, 1.5 for loss, 1 sack, 1 int in 2006) started most of the remainder of the year there after Sartz's injury (he even started twice in the middle) and notched 27 tackles, but a late season knee injury forced him to miss USC's final 3 outings. He is USC's utility linebacker, available to play any spot in 2006 (by mid-season of 2006, he was moved to fullback), and is also a key special teams performer. Williams' replacement last year with 4 starts was precocious sophomore Brian Cushing (41 tac, 7 for loss, 1 sack, 1 dfl, 1 BLK P in 2006, plus 1 PR, 21 yds, 21.0 avg), who is coming off post-season shoulder surgery. He had 23 stops in 2005. He'll be used in a variety of defensive roles in 2006, including as a stand-up defensive end (in a hybrid 3-4 defense that Pete Carroll calls the "Elephant defense"). Sophomore Kaluka Maiava (29 tac, 2.5 for loss in 2006) even started once on the strong side in 2005, but is Rivers' backup on the weak side in 2006 (he had 20 tackles in 2005). Sophomore Clay Matthews (11 tac, 1.5 for loss, 1 sack in 2006), a one-time walk-on who earned a scholarship this fall, redshirt freshman Luthur Brown (2 tac in 2006), who missed the 2005 season with a back injury and was limited in 2006 spring drills, and freshmen Michael Morgan and Joshua Tatum (both were 2005 prep All-Americans) also will look to make an impression, as will a pair of walk-ons: redshirt freshman Nick Garratt and freshman Dan Deckas. Tatum is out with a knee injury. Senior walk-on Lou Ferrigno Jr. will miss the 2006 season after suffering a knee injury this past spring.

—Rivers had a team-best 8 tackles, with a fumble recovery and forced fumble, at Arkansas to earn Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Week honors, while Mauluga added 6 stops, Cushing and Sartz each had 5 tackles with 1 for a loss (Sartz also forced a fumble), Williams had 2 tackles and an interception and Brown had 1 stop.

—Mauluga had a game-high and personal-best 11 tackles (1 for a loss) versus Nebraska, while Rivers and Cushing each had 5 stops (Rivers had 1 tackle for a loss and Cushing had 0.5), Williams (with a sack) and Sartz each added 4 tackles, Maiava had 2 tackles and Matthews had a tackle.

—Mauluga had 4 tackles, including 2 for a loss (with a sack), and an interception at Arizona, while Cushing added 4 tackles (1 sack), Rivers had 3 stops (1 sack), Sartz had 3 tackles and recovered a fumble (that led to a USC TD), Lua had a tackle for loss and Matthews had a tackle.

—Mauluga had a team-best 9 tackles with a deflection at Washington State, Cushing added 7 stops (1.5 for loss), Sartz (with a deflection) and Rivers each had 5 tackles, Lua had 3 (0.5 for loss), Maiava had 3 and Williams had 1.

—Rivers had a game-best 12 tackles (1 for a loss), plus 2 deflections, against Washington, Sartz added 6 stops, Cushing had 5 tackles (1.5 for a loss) and blocked a punt to set up a USC field goal, Mauluga had 5 tackles and a deflection, Lua had 2 tackles (0.5 for a loss) and a deflection, Maiava had a tackle for a loss and Matthews had a tackle.

—Rivers and Mauluga each had a team-best 8 tackles against Arizona State (Rivers had 1 for a loss), while Williams and Cushing each added 4 stops (Cushing had 0.5 for a loss) and Sartz and Maiava each had 3 tackles.

—Three of Sartz's 8 tackles were sacks at Oregon State (his first loss in 28 games as a starter), while Maiava also had 8 tackles (0.5 for loss), Mauluga added 7 stops, Rivers and Lua had 5 tackles (Rivers had a sack), Williams had 4 tackles (0.5 for loss), Cushing had 2 tackles and Matthews had 1.

—Lua had a team-best 7 tackles at Stanford, Maiava added 6 stops, Mauluga had 5 tackles (0.5 for loss), Rivers had 5 tackles and forced a fumble that USC recovered, Cushing had 5 stops (1 for a loss), Matthews had 4 tackles (including 1.5 for loss, with a sack), Sartz had 3 tackles, and Brown and Williams each had 1 tackle.

—Rivers had a game-best 10 tackles against Oregon, Sartz had 9 tackles, including 1.5 for a loss (with a sack), and also recovered a fumble (to set up a USC TD) and had a deflection, Mauluga had 6 stops and a forced fumble, Maiava had 6 tackles (1 for a loss), Cushing had 4 tackles and a deflection and Lua and Matthews each had 3 tackles.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT REY MAULUGA

Washington State head coach Bill Doba: "Mauluga has my vote for All-American right now. He is a super linebacker."

Steve Dilbeck, Los Angeles Daily News: "It's so early, there will be an effort made here to keep things in perspective, but have you seen the play of USC linebacker Rey Mauluga? If you watched the Trojans play, could your eyes possibly avoid him?...Does this look like Superman in cardinal and gold or what? He flies to the ball and then hits like a locomotive...Isn't this obviously USC's next superstar?...It's so easy to get carried away, to jump games and years ahead. But if that feels irresponsible, the play of Mauluga argues against logic and patience and the value of experience. Mauluga has given every indication of becoming the ideal middle linebacker. He has the natural size. He has incredible burst. He is powerful and aggressive and uncommonly fast. More than all that, he is also amazingly athletic. He can be a sledgehammer or a ballerina. Dazzle with power or agility. Play with fury and control."

Lou Holtz, ESPN Magazine: "He's the next great Trojans linebacker, very physical, always lining up big hits. He reminds me of (ex-Ohio State All-American) A.J. Hawk. Mauluga's athletic ability is similar to Hawk's, but the infectiousness of his free spirit makes him even more valuable to his team."

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Three-fourths of last year's secondary is gone, so this unit must be rebuilt. But there is quality and depth throughout. All-American strong safety Darnell Bing was USC's only defensive player to leave early for the NFL last year (he was a fourth round selection). He recorded 182 tackles and 4 interceptions in his career as a 3-year starter, including 50 stops and 4 picks last year. His running mate at free safety, Scott Ware (he had 51 tackles and 1 interception in 2005), has graduated, as has 2-year starting cornerback Justin Wyatt, who posted 94 tackles and 4 interceptions in his career (including 34 stops and 1 pick last season). Sophomore Kevin Ellison (45 tac, 4 for loss, 1.5 sack, 1 FF, 1 int, 4 dfl in 2006), who opened eyes in 2006 before an early-season knee injury sidelined him, emerged from 2006 spring practice as the starter at strong safety. Aggressive junior Josh Pinkard (6 tac in 2006) began last season as a safety (even starting once at strong safety), but started the year's last 6 games at cornerback and made quite an impression. He had 54 tackles, 7 deflections and 2 interceptions in 2005. He was the starting free safety in the 2006 opener, but suffered a knee injury and is sidelined for 2006. So freshman Taylor Mays (42 tac, 2 int, 3 dfl in 2006), a 2005 prep All-American, has taken over the starting free safety job. Also battling for time at safety is freshman Antwine Perez (3 tac in 2006), a 2005 prep All-American who got a head start on the competition after graduating a semester early from high school and enrolling at USC this past spring, plus freshmen Garrett Green (1 tac in 2006)—a 2005 prep All-American who also can play quarterback—and Alfred Rowe. Sophomore David Buehler also can play safety, in addition to fullback and placekicker. There also are 5 walk-on safeties: senior Brent Yoshida, junior Chase McWhorter, sophomore Jim Abbott, redshirt freshman Justin Hart and freshman Robert Erickson. Sophomore safety Will Harris, who missed some of 2006 spring practice while recuperating from a knee injury suffered early in 2005, will miss the upcoming campaign after tearing knee ligaments this past off-season. The cornerbacks have limited experience, but are talented. The most veteran of the group is junior Terrell Thomas (33 tac, 2 for loss, 2 sack, 2 int, 9 dfl, 1 FF, 1 TD on BLK FG return in 2006), who started the first 2 games of 2005 at cornerback before a knee injury struck him down. Sophomores Cary Harris (37 tac, 0.5 for loss, 1 int, 1 FR in 2006, plus 6 KOR, 93 yds, 15.5 avg) and Kevin Thomas (10 tac, 1 FR, 1 dfl in 2006) competed to start at the other spot, but Thomas missed the Nebraska and Arizona games with an ankle injury and is now sidelined after breaking his foot against Arizona State. Behind them are sophomore Mozique McCurtis (4 tac, 1.5 for loss, 1 dfl in 2006), who might also work at safety (he redshirted last fall with a sports hernia), and a pair of freshmen who were 2005 prep All-Americans in Vincent Joseph (1 tac in 2006) and Sharece Wright (10 tac, 2 FR in 2006), plus junior walk-on twins Jamel Williams and Jerry Williams (Jerry is out with a knee injury) and walk-on redshirt freshman Matthew Jordan.

—Pinkard had 6 tackles at Arkansas before suffering a season-ending knee injury late in the game, while Cary Harris had 3 tackles, an interception and 3 kickoff returns for 50 yards, Terrell Thomas added 2 stops and an interception, Wright, Mays and Ellison also had 2 tackles (Ellison also had a deflection) and Kevin Thomas had a tackle and an interception.

—Mays had 5 tackles against Nebraska while starting for the first time at free safety, while Terrell Thomas added 4 stops and a forced fumble, Ellison had 2 tackles and a deflection, Cary Harris had a tackle, a fumble recovery and returned 3 kickoffs for 43 yards and McCurtis had a tackle for a loss.

—Terrell Thomas had a team-high 6 tackles (1 sack) at Arizona, Cary Harris added 5 stops, Mays had 3, Ellison had 2 with a deflection and Joseph and McCurtis each had a tackle.

—Terrell Thomas had a team-best 9 tackles with 2 deflections at Washington State, while Ellison added 7 tackles (0.5 for loss), Cary Harris had 6 stops, Mays had 4 tackles, a deflection and an interception near the goal line on the game's last play, and Kevin Thomas had 2 tackles and a deflection.

—Ellison had 9 tackles against Washington, Mays added 8 stops with a deflection, Kevin Thomas had 3 tackles, Cary Harris had 2, Terrell Thomas had a tackle and 4 deflections and Perez and Wright each had a tackle.

—Ellison had 4 tackles, including 1.5 sacks, versus Arizona State, while Kevin Thomas had 4 tackles before breaking his foot, Cary Harris had 3 stops, Wright had 2 tackles and recovered a fumble, Terrell Thomas had a tackle and deflection and Mays had a tackle.

—Mays had a game-best 11 tackles (with a deflection) at Oregon State, while Ellison had 6 stops (1 for a loss) and a deflection, Cary Harris had 4 tackles, Terrell Thomas had 3 stops and a deflection and Wright had a tackle.

—Ellison had 6 tackles and an interception at Stanford, while Mays added 4 stops, Cary Harris had 3, Wright had 2 tackles and recovered a fumble, McCurtis had 2 tackles (0.5 for loss) and a deflection, Terrell Thomas had a sack, an interception and returned a blocked field goal 71 yards for a TD and Perez had a tackle.

—Harris had a team-high 10 tackles (0.5 for loss) against Oregon, while Ellison had 7 stops (1 for a loss) and a forced fumble, Terrell Thomas had 6 tackles and a deflection, Mays had 4 tackles and returned an interception 38 yards, Wright had 2 tackles, and Perez and Green each had a stop.

SPECIAL TEAMS OVERVIEW

USC's placekicker (Mario Danelo), kickoff man (Troy Van Blarcom) and snapper (Will Collins) returned in 2006, but a new punter, holder and returners must develop. The Trojans put up commendable numbers on punts and placekicks in 2005, but are looking to improve across the board on special teams, especially in punt and kickoff coverage. For instance, opponents averaged 17.0 yards per punt return in 2005, with a pair of scoring runbacks, and USC was 115th nationally in net punting (29.1).

SPECIALISTS

USC must replace the only All-American punter in its history, 4-year starter Tom Malone. His 44.0 career punting average was just 0.1 short of the USC record and 0.6 of the Pac-10 mark. A true weapon, 56 of his 185 career punts went at least 50 yards and 95 pinned opponents within the 20-yard line. The candidates to succeed Malone are a pair of walk-on sophomores: Greg Woidneck (40.3 avg in 2006, plus 1 tac), who came to USC via Arizona State and then a junior college, and Taylor Odegard, whose only collegiate experience was 1 punt late in the Hawaii opener last fall. The placekicking task is on solid footing. Accurate junior Mario Danelo (10-of-11 FG, 34-of-35 PAT in 2006) handles the placement kicks for his second season. Last year, he set NCAA season records for PATs (83) and PAT attempts (86). He had a string of 15 consecutive successful field goal tries after missing his first career attempt in 2005 until missing at Arizona in 2006. He was 20th nationally in scoring (8.9) in 2005. In his career, he is 21-of-23 on field goals and 117-of-121 on PATs. Handling the kickoff job for the second season is sophomore Troy Van Blarcom (3 tac in 2006), backed by sophomore David Buehler, a fall junior college transfer who also can play fullback and safety (he has kicked off once in 2006). Of Van Blarcom's 53 kickoffs in 2006, 40 have pinned opponents within the 20-yard line (with 31 touchbacks). In 2005, 51 of Van Blarcom's 110 kickoffs kept opponents within the 20-yard line, including 31 touchbacks. Junior Will Collins (1 tac in 2006) returned for his third year as the snapper, a role he has filled flawlessly. His backup is untested senior fullback Mike Brittingham. There is a new holder after the graduation of Tom Malone, who performed that assignment perfectly the previous 4 years. Junior QB Michael McDonald assumed the job, backed by sophomore punter Greg Woidneck. USC will have to get used to new punt and kickoff returners in 2006. Departed tailback Reggie Bush handled kickoffs the last 3 seasons and punts the past 2 years. In 2005, he averaged 17.6 yards on kickoffs and 9.9 yards (with a TD) on punts. He ended his career second on USC's all-time kickoff return chart (1,523 yards with 1 TD) and fifth on punt returns (559 yards with 3 TDs). Junior tailback Desmond Reed (12 PR, 50 yds, 4.2 avg in 2006, plus 2 KOR, 42 yds, 21.0 avg) returns punts and kickoffs, while freshman tailback C.J. Gable (12 KOR, 326 yds, 27.2 avg in 2006) and sophomore cornerback Cary Harris (6 KOR, 93 yds, 15.5 avg in 2006) have been tried as the kickoff returner, with Reed also deep. Gable currently is 14th nationally in kickoff returns (27.2, first in Pac-10).

—Danelo hit all 3 of his field goal tries (35, 38 and a career-long 44 yards at the first half gun) and 5-of-6 PATs at Arkansas, while Van Blarcom had touchbacks on 8 of his 9 kickoffs and Woidneck pinned the Razorbacks within the 20 on 2 of his 3 punts while averaging 35.7 yards.

—Against Nebraska, 4 of Van Blarcom's 5 kickoffs pinned the Cornhuskers within the 20-yard line (with 3 touchbacks), Woidneck averaged 41.8 yards on his 4 punts and Danelo hit all 4 of his PATs.

—Danelo hit 2 of his 3 field goal attempts (35 and 33 yards), with the miss snapping a streak of 15 consecutive successful attempts, and both of his PATs at Arizona, while Woidneck averaged 44.5 on his 2 punts and Van Blarcom pinned the Wildcats with the 20-yard line on 4 of his 5 kickoffs (with 3 touchbacks).

—All 5 of Van Blarcom's kickoffs were touchbacks at Washington State, Woidneck averaged 44.2 yards on his 4 punts (with a 59-yarder) and Danelo hit all 4 of his PATs.

—Danelo hit all 4 field goals (34, 25, 32 and 21 yards), a career best, and both PATs he attempted versus Washington, including 3 field goals in the second half as his final 2 proved to be the game's decisive points, to earn Pac-10 Special Teams Player of the Week honors, while 5 of Van Blarcom's 7 kickoffs were touchbacks and Woidneck averaged 43.0 yards on his 2 punts.

—Woidneck averaged 42.6 yards on 5 punts versus Arizona State, while 3 of Van Blarcom's 5 kickoffs pinned the Sun Devils within the 20 (with 2 touchbacks) and Danelo hit all 4 of his PATs.

—Danelo hit a 29-yard field goal and both of his PATs at Oregon State, while Woidneck averaged 37.5 yards on his 4 punts and 1 of Van Blarcom's 5 kickoffs was a touchback.

—Danelo hit all 6 of his PATs at Stanford, 4 of Van Blarcom's 6 kickoffs pinned the Cardinal within the 20 (with a touchback) and Woidneck averaged 34.0 on his 4 punts.

—Five of Van Blarcom's 6 kickoffs kept Oregon within the 20 (with 3 touchbacks), while Danelo hit all 5 of his PATs and Woidneck averaged 41.5 yards on his 2 punts.

ASSISTANT COACHES

USC's coaching staff stayed reasonably intact after last season, welcoming back an old face, adjusting the responsibilities of a few others and adding a new staffer. Idaho head coach Nick Holt, who had spent 3 seasons under Carroll as USC's linebackers coach, returned as the defensive coordinator (a role Carroll held for his first 5 seasons) and defensive line coach. David Watson, who was a graduate assistant working with the offensive line last year, becomes a full-time coach and will work with Holt on the defensive line. Rocky Seto, who shared the linebackers job with Ken Norton in 2005, now moves to the secondary. Former junior college assistant Demetric Martin, who played on the collegiate and pro level, joined the Trojan staff in a graduate assistant role, helping Seto with the defensive backs. USC's other holdovers maintained their same job responsibilities as in 2005: Steve Sarkisian (assistant head coach/quarterbacks), Lane Kiffin (offensive coordinator/wide receivers/recruiting coordinator), Pat Ruel (offensive line), Todd McNair (running backs), Brennan Carroll (tight ends) and Sam Anno (special teams graduate assistant).

STATS OF NOTE

WINS

USC has won 42 of its last 44 games, 53 of its last 56, 54 of its last 58, 56 of its last 61 and 60 of its last 66.

OFFENSE

Offensively in 2006, USC currently is 18th nationally in scoring offense (32.0, third in Pac-10) and 22nd in both total offense (396.0, third in Pac-10) and passing offense (247.2, fourth in Pac-10).

Of USC's 46 offensive scoring drives in 2006, 23 took less than 3 minutes (including 16 under 2 minutes, with 7 of those less than a minute), while 16 consisted of 5 plays or less and 13 went 80-plus yards.

Three USC wide receivers—Patrick Turner (12 versus Washington), Steve Smith (11 at both Washington State and Oregon State) and Dwayne Jarrett (11 versus Nebraska)—have each caught at least 11 passes in a game in 2006, a first in a season in Trojan history.

SCORING

USC has scored at least 20 points in its last 61 games, an NCAA record and currently more than twice as many times as any other team (and in 61 of its past 62 contests).

USC has scored at least 30 points in 45 of its last 56 games.

USC has scored at least 40 points 33 times under Pete Carroll (including 13 times of at least 50 points).

USC has scored at least 50 points in 6 of the last 15 games.

USC had a streak of having scored 77 unanswered points in 2006 (the last 21 points at Oregon State and all 42 at Stanford).

USC has a knack for scoring 20 or more unanswered points (5 times in 2006, 13 times in 2005, 12 times in 2004 and 11 times in both 2003 and 2002).

During the Pete Carroll era, USC has more than doubled the score of its opponents in the second half of games (1,364 to 631 points).

Since 2003, USC has scored touchdowns of 20-plus yards 96 times.

USC won 5 consecutive games in 2006 by scoring less than 30 points each outing (Nebraska, Arizona, Washington State, Washington, Arizona State), the first time that happened since the first 5 contests of 2001 in Pete Carroll's first year at Troy.

USC won 3 consecutive games by a touchdown or less in 2006 (Washington State, Washington, Arizona State), the first time that happened since 1968.

DEFENSE

Defensively in 2006, USC currently is 14th nationally in scoring defense (14.8, first in Pac-10), 20th in total defense (290.1, first in Pac-10) and 24th in pass efficiency defense (109.4, second in Pac-10).

USC's turnover margin of +0.1 in 2006 is below the upward trend from each previous year under Pete Carroll (+1.3 in 2001, +1.4 in 2002, +1.5 in both 2003 and 2004 and +1.6 in 2005).

USC has allowed just 16 points in the first quarter in 2006.

USC has scored 73 points following turnovers gained in 2006 (following 11 of the 15 times it has come up with a turnover).

USC has intercepted a pass in 47 of the last 58 games.

USC has held 37 of its last 60 opposing teams to less than 100 rushing yards (4 times in 2006, 5 times in 2005, 8 times in 2004, 10 games in 2003 and 10 times in 2002).

Only 6 opposing runners have rushed for 100 yards against USC in the past 55 games (California's Adimchinobe Echemandu did so in 2003 with 147, breaking a streak of 16 consecutive games without a 100-yard rusher, Cal's J.J. Arrington in 2004 with 112, Washington State's Jerome Harrison in 2005 with 147, Fresno State's Wendell Mathis in 2005 with 109, Texas' Vince Young in 2005 with 200 and Oregon State's Clinton Polk in 2006 with 100).

RANDOM NOTES

Under Pete Carroll, USC is 32-0 when holding opponents to less than 300 yards of total offense.
Since allowing a 69-yard TD pass in the third quarter of the BYU game in 2004, USC has not allowed a pass completion longer than 45 yards (a span of 113 quarters).

MISCELLANEOUS

USC has kicked off to start each of its 9 games in 2006.

USC has played before crowds of at least 85,000 in 19 of its past 38 games.

USC's last 8 home games have been sold out, a school record.

USC had a streak of 12 consecutive games—home, road or neutral site—that were sellouts (from Washington State in 2005 to Arizona State in 2006).

USC's last 10 home games (and 12 of its past 14) have been in front of 90,000-plus crowds.

USC is 31-2 in the final 6 regular-season games in each of head coach Pete Carroll's 6 years (the losses were to Notre Dame in 2001 and Oregon State in 2006).

Ten of the 11 losses in the Pete Carroll era at USC were by a touchdown or less (the other was by 11 points).

TAKEAWAYS

Until this season, USC was effective in the takeaway department during head coach Pete Carroll's tenure. USC's +1.5 turnover margin over Carroll's first 5 seasons was the best in the nation and its 189 takeaways during that span also were the most. In Carroll's 6 seasons at USC, Troy is +95 overall (204 takeaways and 109 giveaways). USC was second nationally in turnover margin in 2005 (+1.6, first in Pac-10), getting 22 interceptions and 16 fumbles (while giving up only 10 interceptions and 7 fumbles) to continue an upward trend in its margin figure. In 2004, Troy led the nation with a +1.5 turnover margin by getting 22 interceptions and 16 fumbles (while giving up only 7 interceptions and 12 fumbles). In 2003, USC was +1.5 in turnover margin (second in the U.S. and first in the Pac-10) by getting 22 interceptions and 20 fumbles (and yielding only 9 interceptions and 13 fumbles). In 2002, the Trojans had 36 takeaways (19 fumbles and 17 interceptions) with only 18 turnovers and ranked fifth nationally in turnover margin (+1.4). In 2001, Troy had 35 takeaways (20 picks, 15 fumbles) with just 19 turnovers and ranked fifth in the nation in turnover margin at +1.3.

ON TV

USC is one of America's most televised teams. The Trojans have appeared on live national, regional or local telecasts 356 times, including 222 of the past 224 games (USC's last 63 games have been televised). In fact, USC had an amazing streak of 111 consecutive games on some form of live television from 1988 to 1997 (snapped against Oregon State) and another streak of 48 in a row from 1997 to 2001 (broken against California).

USC's 2006 captains, as elected by their teammates during fall camp, are: QB John David Booty, C Ryan Kalil, LB Dallas Sartz and LB Oscar Lua. Sartz, who also was a captain in 2005, is only the seventh two-time Trojan captain ever, and just the fourth since 1902-03 (along with Chad Morton in 1998-99, Troy Polamalu in 2001-02 and Matt Leinart in 2004-05).

Former USC All-American tailback Anthony Davis was enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame in South Bend, Ind., this August. Davis, a unanimous All-American on the Trojans' 1972 and 1974 national championship squads and the runnerup for the 1974 Heisman Trophy, was the first player in Pac-8 history to rush for 1,000 yards in three different seasons. He is long remembered for scoring 11 touchdowns in three games against Notre Dame, including six as a sophomore in the 1972 contest and four in the famous 55-24 comeback victory in 1974. He set an NCAA record with six scoring kickoff returns in his career (including three in 1974). USC has 27 former players, 2 ex-head coaches, 4 one-time assistant coaches and a former athletic director in the College Football Hall of Fame.

The 2006 season marks the 75th anniversary of USC's 1931 national championship team, which posted a 10-1 record (including a victory over Tulane in the Rose Bowl) under head coach Howard Jones, and the 25th anniversary of tailback Marcus Allen's 1981 Heisman Trophy campaign, when he became college football's first 2,000-yard runner (2,427 rushing yards).

Head coach Pete Carroll has made it a practice to play first-year freshmen at USC. During Carroll's 6 years at Troy, 66 first-year freshmen have seen action at USC (7 in 2001, 12 in 2002, 13 in 2003, 8 in 2004, 11 in 2005 and 15 in 2006).

QB John David Booty, who enrolled at USC in the fall of 2003, is believed to be the first football player to graduate a full year early from high school and enroll at a major Division I-A university.

USC also currently has 5 players who graduated a semester early from high school and enrolled at USC in the spring. FB Brandon Hancock came to USC in the spring of 2002. TE Fred Davis did so in the spring of 2004. TB Michael Coleman and S Kevin Ellison enrolled at USC in the spring of 2005. And S Antwine Perez enrolled at USC this past spring.

Yes, LB Lou Ferrigno Jr. is the son of bodybuilder/actor Lou Ferrigno, perhaps best known as The Incredible Hulk on television and for winning a pair of Mr. Universe titles.

Here are some of USC's more unusual multi-sport athletes. LB Kaluka Maiava participated in boxing in high school. TE Gerald Washington played tennis as a youth and competed in juniors tournaments. FB Brandon Hancock has been featured in various body building magazines, including Muscle Magazine International.

C Ryan Kalil might be the Trojans' most musically-inclined player. He likes to sing, particularly Frank Sinatra tunes.

Who's the fastest among the 2006 Trojans? It might be WR Jamere Holland, with bests of 10.36 in the 100 meters and 20.92 in the 200. He won the 100 and 200 at the 2005 California state meet (and he was second in the 100 in 2006). Right behind Holland is WR Travon Patterson (bests of 10.44 and 21.41), who was fourth in the 2006 California state 100.

Three Trojans have received their bachelor's degrees from USC in the spring of 2006 and are currently working on another degree. FB Brandon Hancock received his bachelor's in communication (business administration minor) and is now working on his master's degree in communication management, WR Chris McFoy received his bachelor's in economics and is now working on another bachelor's degree in political science and TE Nick Vanderboom received his bachelor's in business administration and is now working on his master's degree in real estate development.

In April of 2006, FB Brandon Hancock accompanied the USC Debate Squad to South Bend, Ind., to formally debate Notre Dame's forensics team on the topic of who will win the 2006 Trojan-Irish football game.

OT Kyle Williams and his fiancée, former USC All-American swimmer Jana Krohn, are parents to a daughter, Kylie, who was born this past May 19.

Not only has head coach Pete Carroll produced numerous NFL draft picks (27) from his USC teams, but 9 of his Trojan assistant coaches went on to the NFL from USC: Norm Chow, Kennedy Pola, Greg Burns, Tim Davis, Jethro Franklin, Steve Sarkisian (he has since returned to USC), Carl Smith, DeWayne Walker and Kirby Wilson. Franklin, Smith, Walker and Wilson all previously had NFL experience before coming to USC (as do current assistants Pat Ruel, Todd McNair and Lane Kiffin). And Nick Holt (Idaho) and Ed Orgeron (Mississippi) both left USC to become collegiate head coaches (Holt now is back at USC after a couple days' detour to the NFL).

USC football fans can get a behind-the-scenes look at life with the Trojans during 2006 fall camp by watching "Trojan TV All-Access" on ustrojans.com. Follow C Ryan Kalil, the host of the periodic segments, as he gives a player's point of view...in quite an entertaining fashion!

USC is ranked No. 2 in Street & Smith's "50 Greatest College Football Programs of All Time (published in 2005)," behind only Notre Dame.

Head coach Pete Carroll has his own website, PeteCarroll.com. The site features a variety of Carroll-related information, multimedia and merchandise, as well as fan club membership that includes exclusive benefits. All proceeds benefit "A Better L.A.," the non-profit organization the Carroll founded to help reduce gang violence in Los Angeles. Carroll also is partnering with Lou Tice of the Pacific Institute on a book—"Leadership Is A Performance Art"—that will be available on the site. Proceeds from the book also will go to "A Better L.A."

In 2003, head coach Pete Carroll helped develop "A Better L.A." a non-profit group consisting of a consortium of local agencies and organizations working to reduce gang violence by empowering change in individuals and communities.

FB Brandon Hancock also has a website, www.brandanhancock.com. He is chronicling his life during the 2006 season. Now that he is sidelined with torn knee ligaments, he'll be part of USC's radio broadcast team on KSPN-AM in hopes of advancing his sports broadcasting aspirations.

Before TE Gerald Washington entered junior college in 2004, he spent the previous 4 years in the U.S. Navy as a helicopter mechanic.

Talk about Walter Mitty. WR Ben Malcolmson was a sportswriter for the Daily Trojan, USC's campus newspaper, who tried out for—and made—the USC football team in the spring of 2006. He chronicled his tryout quest in a series of stories in the D.T., attracting national attention. He separated his shoulder during spring practice, but is healthy now and rejoined the Trojans in late September as a walk-on.

USC plays 7 night games in 2006, tying the school record first set in 2004.

Fight On! The Colorful Story of USC Football" (Cumberland House Publishing), by longtime Southern California sports columnists Steve Bisheff and Loel Schrader, hit the bookstores this summer. The book comprehensively details the Trojan football program, including profiles on great coaches and players and a look at the best rivalries and games throughout USC history.

The Trojan Ten: The Ten Thrilling Victories That Changed the Course of USC History" (New American Library), by former FSN and CNN sportscaster Barry LeBrock, was published in the summer of 2006. The book covers 10 games that helped establish USC as a football dynasty.

Game Day USC Football: The Greatest Games, Players, Coaches and Teams in the Glorious Tradition of Trojan Football" (Triumph Books), produced by sportswriters and photographers of Athlon Sports, came out this summer. As the title implies, the book looks back at USC's gridiron history through text and photos.

USC Trojans: College Football's All-Time Greatest Dynasty" (Taylor Trade Publishing), by Steven Travers, will be published this fall. The book argues the premise that the Trojan program under head coach Pete Carroll is the greatest in college football history.

Two former Trojan halfbacks recently published their autobiographies. First is "Autobiography Of A California Pioneer" (Beech River Books), by 1947-48 letterman Jack Kirby. Kirby led the Trojans in scoring in their 1947 Rose Bowl campaign and then played with the Green Bay Packers in 1949. After his playing days, he became a real estate developer (including communities such as Tahoe Donner), golf club manufacturer and inventor (including fairway distance markers for golf courses).

Then there's "106 Yards" (C&C Publishing), by 1950-51-52 letterman Al "Hoagy" Carmichael. USC's rushing leader in 1950, he caught the game-winning touchdown passes against UCLA in 1952 and Wisconsin in the 1953 Rose Bowl. He was the seventh pick of the 1953 NFL draft, playing for the Packers (1953-58) and Denver Broncos (1960-61). He was one of pro football's top returners during his time, setting an NFL record with a 106-yard kickoff return in 1956 and scoring the first touchdown in the newly-formed AFL in 1960. He also appeared in Hollywood movies and was a successful businessman.

Former USC defensive coordinator Chris Allen (1987-92) has written a novel, "Give Me The Football Life!" ($16.95, PublishAmerica). It's the fictional account of a football coach's life, mixing an instructional guide about the sport between chapters.

This is the 50th anniversary of the Trojan Football Alumni Club. Founded in 1956 by former USC players who felt discontented because they only saw each other at funerals, they banded together and formed a social club with a charitable purpose. Now, about 1,000 former Trojan players maintain their special relationships with teammates from all eras and also, in partnership with the John Wayne Family, they have awarded scholarships in excess of $1.5 million to graduate football players and other recipients. Among TFAC's many activities are the 50- and 25-year team reunions at the annual pre-season "Salute To Troy" kickoff banquet, fully-catered tailgates before every home game and the "Alumni Victory Tunnel" formed on the Coliseum field for the senior introductions before the last home game of the year. For further information, visit the TFAC website at www.trojanfootballalumni.com.

This year, the Trojan Marching Band moves from its seats behind the USC bench (north sideline) to the end zone at the east side of the Coliseum, improving the acoustics by ensuring that the entire stadium—not just the visitor's side—will hear the band. The east end zone will become a new spirit zone, the "Trojan Nation," that will include hundreds of student seats and will feature promotional giveaways, food, and other special spirit activities. All of the seats previously occupied by the band will be dedicated to student seating. Having bands in the end zone is a long-standing tradition among some premiere programs, including Notre Dame, Michigan, Penn State, Florida, Nebraska, Miami and Florida State. "We are psyched to be positioned as such an important catalyst of spirit for the Trojan football experience," said Dr. Arthur C. Bartner, the Trojan Marching Band's director since 1970. "I am inspired by this move, as both the band and all Trojan football ticket holders will reap the benefits. We plan to become the ultimate in spirit sections across the country."

To make the Los Angeles Coliseum more family-friendly, USC and the Coliseum Commission in 2005 ended the sale of alcohol inside the Coliseum on USC game days. This move has received near-unanimous praise from the public and the media. Said USC President Steven Sample: "All across the country, universities are promoting a clean, safe and family-friendly environment in which fans can enjoy their team's games... (Our policy was) developed because of a noticeable rise in recent years of incidents involving the use of alcohol and of rude behavior of fans that is almost always exacerbated by alcohol consumption. This deterioration in fan behavior is a nationwide trend, not a USC phenomenon." Fans possessing alcohol inside the Coliseum, acting in a drunken or disorderly way, or using threatening or obscene language will be evicted and will permanently lose USC ticket buying privileges. USC will reimburse the Coliseum for lost revenue because of this stoppage of alcohol sales.

Trojan Fan Fest, a free fun-filled celebration outside the Coliseum at every USC home football game, debuted in 2005. Beginning 3 hours before every home kickoff just east of the Coliseum peristyle, it features food, activities and live entertainment for young and old alike. It enhances the USC game experience and provides an alternative (or addition) to tailgating in Exposition Park. Adjacent to the Trojan Fan Fest near the Sports Arena is the Miller Lite Great Taste Zone (open to fans at least 21 years old), featuring Miller beverages and a bank of televisions showing live college football games.

Strength and conditioning coach Chris Carlisle has beaten cancer. He learned he had Hodgkin's Disease in December of 2000, began radiation treatments in Tennessee (where he was still the Volunteers' associate strength and conditioning coach), was hired by USC in February of 2001, kept his illness a secret except to Trojan head coach Pete Carroll, continued treatments in Tennessee and at USC/Norris Comprehensive Cancer Center and Hospital, then doctors told him in the summer of 2001 that the cancer was in remission. He informed the USC players of his ordeal at the start of fall 2001 camp. He was 1 of 17 nominees for the 2003 Most Courageous Award presented by the Football Writers Association of America and 1 of 11 nominees for the 2005 award.

Five Trojans have relatives who played on national championship USC football squads: SNP Will Collins (uncle, Joe Collins, was on the 1974 team), C-OT Nick Howell (father, Pat Howell, was an All-American on the 1978 team), LB Clay Matthews (father, 1977 All-American Clay Matthews, was on the 1974 team and brother, Kyle Matthews, was on the 2003 team), QB Michael McDonald (father, 1979 All-American Paul McDonald, was on the 1978 team) and WR Brad Walker (cousin, Norm Katnik, was on the 2003 team and cousin, Kurt Katnik, was on the 2003 and 2004 teams).

Several Trojans have other relatives with USC football connections. SNP Will Collins' brother, Rob Collins, was a walk-on at USC in the 1980s. Two Trojans have uncles who were Trojan footballers: LB Clay Matthews (Bruce Matthews, 1980-82, 1982 All-American) and WR Brad Walker (John Katnik, 1986-87). IN THE NFL

USC is always well-represented in the NFL. At the start of training camp this summer, there were 41 ex-Trojans on NFL rosters. Last year, there were 24 Trojans on opening day NFL rosters, including players such as LBs Lofa Tatupu and Chris Claiborne, DLs Willie McGinest and Kenechi Udeze, WRs Keyshawn Johnson and Johnnie Morton, QB Carson Palmer and DBs Troy Polamalu, Sammy Knight, Brian Kelly and Daylon McCutcheon. Five NFL head coaches have USC ties (either as former players or assistants): Washington's Joe Gibbs, Jacksonville's Jack Del Rio, Tennessee's Jeff Fisher, Seattle's Mike Holmgren and Detroit's Rod Marinelli. Eleven current USC players have relatives with NFL playing backgrounds: DT Walker Lee Ashley (father, Walker Lee Ashley), QB John David Booty (brother, Josh Booty), PK Mario Danelo (father, Joe Danelo), S Kevin Ellison (brother, Keith Ellison), C-OT Nick Howell (father, Pat Howell), LB Clay Matthews (grandfather, Clay Matthews Sr.; father, Clay Matthews; uncle, Bruce Matthews), S Taylor Mays (father, Stafford Mays), QB Michael McDonald (father, Paul McDonald), DT Fili Moala (cousin, Haloti Ngata), WR Brad Walker (cousin, Norm Katnik) and OT Kyle Williams (uncle, Eric Williams; grandfather, Roy Williams). OT Sam Baker's father, David, is the commissioner of the Arena Football League. And C Ryan Kalil's father, Frank, played in the USFL. Additionally, head coach Pete Carroll was an NFL head coach and assistant coach, and assistants Lane Kiffin, Todd McNair, Pat Ruel and Steve Sarkisian were NFL assistants. Five assistant coaches played professionally: Sam Anno, Ken Norton Jr. and Todd McNair were in the NFL, while Steve Sarkisian was in the CFL and Demetrice Martin was in NFL Europe and the Arena Football League.

ACADEMICS

Among the top scholars on the 2006 Trojan squad are: FB Brandon Hancock (team-high 3.91, communication/communication management), TE Nick Vanderboom (3.60, business administration/real estate development), CB Matthew Jordan (3.25, communication), QB Mark Sanchez (3.20), OG Jeff Byers (3.17, business administration), OG Jonathan Richert (3.13, history), LB Clay Matthews (3.10, international relations), LB Lou Ferrigno Jr. (3.05, communication), S Jim Abbott (2.83), CB Cary Harris (2.81), FB Mike Brittingham (2.79, business administration), FB Jody Adewale (2.81, psychology) and LB Nick Garratt (2.75, history). Hancock, Vanderboom and WR Chris McFoy have received their bachelor's degrees and are working on another degree. In 2005, Hancock made the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District VIII first team and the Pac-10 All-Academic first team (Vanderboom made Pac-10 All-Academic honorable mention). Vanderboom made 2004 Pac-10 All-Academic honorable mention. Hancock, a member of Phi Beta Kappa (the nation's oldest honor society), was a 2003 CoSIDA Academic All-District VIII first team and Pac-10 All-Academic first team selection. In its history, USC football has produced 22 Academic All-American first teamers (tops in the Pac-10 and sixth in the nation), 20 NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship winners, 12 National Football Foundation Scholar-Athletes, 5 NCAA Silver Anniversary Award winners, 4 NCAA Today's Top Six winners, 1 Rhodes Scholar and 1 Academic All-American Hall of Famer.

USC IS THE PLACE TO BE

Based on several national accolades it has received in recent years, USC can stake its claim as one of the nation's premier schools. USC was named the "College of the Year" by the 2000 edition of the Time/Princeton Review College Guide because of the remarkable bonds it has forged with the local community. The editors said USC has one of the most ambitious social-outreach programs of any university in the nation and cited the school's model of service learning (applying academic theory to real-life situations through public service). They also pointed out that USC's undergraduate applications have nearly doubled over the last few years and it is enrolling the most academically accomplished freshman classes in its history. Troy also was selected as one of America's nine "hottest schools" by the 2001 edition of the Newsweek/Kaplan College Guide because it lives up to its reputation as a top-notch institution of higher education. Students quoted in the guide said that what attracted them to the university was Los Angeles' ethnic diversity, the offer of scholarships, the small classroom sizes and USC's standing in academe. Also in 2001, the Association of American Colleges and Universities picked USC as one of 16 "Leadership Institutions" for providing stimulating educational experiences both inside and outside of the classroom. USC was cited for emphasizing a campus culture featuring new learning techniques, curriculum and organizational structure and for demonstrating a strong commitment to liberal arts education relevant to the contemporary world. The organization said USC not only linked liberal arts and pre-professional study, but offered students the opportunity to learn by doing through off-campus work in community projects and internships. Also, USC was lauded for stressing critical thinking, effective communication and contributing to a diverse society.

SCOUTING CALIFORNIA

After dropping its opener at Tennessee, California roared back with 8 straight wins before being upset at Arizona last weekend, 24-20. A win over USC would clinch the program's first Rose Bowl berth since the 1958 season, regardless of the outcome of its Dec. 2 game against rival Stanford. Fifth-year head coach Jeff Tedford's team features a high-powered offense that is in the Top 3 in all of the Pac-10 statistical categories, with the league's top rusher, passer and all-purpose runner. In fact, the Bears are ninth nationally in both scoring offense (34.7, first in Pac-10) and total offense (431.3, second in Pac-10) and are 12th in passing offense (266.4, first in Pac-10) and 22nd in passing efficiency (146.6, first in Pac-10). Junior TB Marshawn Lynch (168 tcb, 1,090 yds, 6.5 avg, 9 TD in 2006, plus 25 rec, 265 yds, 10.6 avg, 4 TD and 5 KOR, 101 yds, 20.2 avg), who has rushed for 1,000 yards each of the past 2 seasons, headlines the offensive performers. He is 10th nationally in rushing (109.0, first in Pac-10) and all-purpose running (145.6, first in Pac-10) and tied for 23rd in scoring (7.8, tied for third in Pac-10). Junior TB Justin Forsett (98 tcb, 422 yds, 4.3 avg, 3 TD in 2006, plus 10 rec, 116 yds, 11.6 avg, 1 TD rec) has proven an effective backup to Lynch. Sophomore QB Nate Longshore (177-of-284, 62.3%, 2,393 yds, 21 TD, 10 int in 2006) is 17th nationally in passing efficiency (150.5, first in Pac-10) and 22nd in total offense (236.2, first in Pac-10).

Among his targets are soph WR DeSean Jackson (45 rec, 811 yds, 18.0 avg, 9 TD in 2006, plus 22 PR, 455 yds, 20.7 avg, 4 TD), who set Pac-10 records for career (5) and season (4) scoring punt returns and is first nationally in punt returns (20.7, first in Pac-10), 18th in receiving yards (81.1, fourth in Pac-10), 20th in all-purpose running (130.1, third in Pac-10) and tied for 23rd in scoring (7.8, tied for third in Pac-10), and junior WRs Lavelle Hawkins (38 rec, 613 yds, 16.1 avg, 2 TD in 2006) and Robert Jordan (38 rec, 452 yds, 11.9 avg, 4 TD in 2006). The Bears are 17th nationally in turnover margin (+0.8, first in Pac-10) and their defense is led by senior MLB Desmond Bishop (85 tac, 11.5 for loss, 3 sack, 3 int, 1 dfl, 2 FR, 2 FF in 2006), who is 24th nationally in tackles (9.1, second in Pac-10), plus a pair of senior 2005 All-Pac-10 first teamers in CB Daymeion Hughes (53 tac, 8 int, 10 dfl in 2006), who is second nationally in interceptions (0.8, first in Pac-10), and DT Brandon Mebane (31 tac, 6 for loss, 3.5 sack, 1 FF, 1 BLK in 2006).

GAME PROMOTIONS

Hurdler Virginia Powell and golfer Irene Cho will be saluted for winning a 2006 Honda Award, presented annually to the top collegiate female athlete in each of 12 sports...The USC baseball team, which advanced into the second round of the 2006 NCAA tournament, will be recognized during the Office Depot Trojan Spotlight...Aven Wright (men's track), Kaes Van't Hof (men's tennis) and Kinga Marciszwickia (women's rowing) will be honored during the AT&T Academic Salute...Some 2,000 underprivileged youngsters will attend the game as part of USC's Kid's Corner program.

USC'S OTHER SPORTS IN ACTION

The USC men's basketball team hosts St. Mary's at noon on Saturday (Nov. 18) in the Galen Center...The top-ranked USC men's water polo team hosts California on Saturday (Nov. 18) at noon in the McDonald's Swim Stadium...The Top 10 USC women's volleyball teams plays at UCLA on Friday (Nov. 17) at 7 p.m.
