TOP-RANKED, DEFENDING NATIONAL CHAMP USC FOOTBALL FACES COLORADO STATE IN HOME OPENER

FACTS

USC (1-0 overall) vs. Colorado State (0-1), Saturday, Sept. 11, 5 p.m. PDT, Los Angeles Coliseum.

THEMES

Following a week off after its season-opening road win over Virginia Tech, the top-ranked and defending national champion USC football team now plays its home opener. It's the first time since the 1981 loss to Arizona that USC has appeared in the Coliseum while ranked No. 1. For the second game in a row, the Trojans are playing an opponent (Colorado State this week) for the first time ever. The Trojans will attempt to extend not only their 10-game winning streak, but a 15-game Coliseum victory string. It's also the first of back-to-back games against Mountain West Conference foes (next up is a road contest at BYU). The likes of Heisman Trophy candidate Matt Leinart, "Thunder and Lightning" tailbacks Reggie Bush and LenDale White, All-American defensive candidates Shaun Cody, Mike Patterson and Matt Grootegoed and their Trojan teammates will be making their 2004 Coliseum debuts. Colorado State, which has never before faced a No. 1-ranked team, is coming off a gut-wrenching season-opening loss at Colorado last weekend. Coach Sonny Lubick's squad returns 8 offensive players from last year, including WR David Anderson and TE Joel Dreessen. To commemorate the third anniversary of Sept. 11, USC has proclaimed the game as "Joint Forces Day"—there will be a moment of silence, a fighter jet flyover and a special ticket deal for all military, police and fire personnel. The game will be shown live regionally by ABC-TV, with a near-sellout crowd expected in the 92,000-seat Coliseum (USC averaged 77,000-plus fans at home last season).

SERIES

This is the first meeting between USC and Colorado State.

VERSUS MOUNTAIN WEST CONFERENCE

USC is 11-3-1 all-time against current Mountain West Conference teams: 6-3 versus Utah, 2-0-1 versus San Diego State and 1-0 against BYU, UNLV and Wyoming. USC's last game against a MWC foe was a 35-18 home win over BYU in 2003.

HOME OPENERS

USC's record in home openers is 84-18-7 (.803). The Trojans have won their past 6 home openers.

WIN STREAKS

The Trojans have captured their last 15 home games (with 2 shutouts). That's USC's longest Coliseum win streak since getting 19 in a row during the 1931 through 1933 campaigns. Besides that Pac-10 leading 15-game home winning streak, USC also has the longest current Pac-10 win streaks for overall games (10), Pac-10 games (7) and road games (6).

HIGH RANKING

USC has been ranked in the AP Top 10 for its past 20 games, its longest string since 34 in a row in 1978-80. The Trojans have been in the AP Top 5 in 15 of the last 19 polls.

RECORD WHEN NO. 1

USC has a 37-4-2 (.884) record games when it is ranked No. 1 by AP. When a No. 1-ranked Trojan team faces an unranked opponent, it is 23-1-1 (.940).

IN THE COLISEUM

USC has a 374-122-27 (.741) all-time record in the Coliseum since the stadium opened in 1923.

IN SEPTEMBER

USC has a 144-37-8 (.783) all-time record while playing in the month of September.

AFTER BYES

USC is 80-42-4 in all regular season games it has played following byes. This is the third season in the last decade that the Trojans have 3 regular-season byes (also in 1996 and 2003); before that, it hadn't happened since 1935.

CONNECTIONS

USC has 2 players (TB LenDale White and C Jeff Byers) from Colorado, while Colorado State claims 29 California natives...USC WR coach Lane Kiffin—who was an offensive line assistant at Colorado State in 1999—is the older brother of Colorado State DL Chris Kiffin...USC DE Frostee Rucker redshirted as a first-year freshman outside linebacker at Colorado State in 2001, then transferred to USC...USC WR Dwayne Jarrett will celebrate his 18th birthday this Saturday (Sept. 11).

LAST GAME

TB Reggie Bush caught 3 long touchdown passes from QB Matt Leinart to propel top-ranked and defending national champion USC to a 24-13 comeback victory over unranked Virginia Tech in the collegiate season-opening Black Coaches Association Football Classic before a sold-out crowd of 91,665 fans at steamy FedEx Field in Landover, Md., and an ESPN national primetime audience on Aug. 28. It extended Troy's winning streak to 10 games. Bush became the 10th USC player to catch a school-record 3 TD passes in a game, but the first running back to do so. He had 258 all-purpose yards (127 on 5 receptions, 60 on 4 punt returns, 44 on 3 kickoff returns and 27 on 9 rushes). Following an interception by LB Lofa Tatupu, USC opened the scoring late in the first quarter as Bush took a short pass over the middle and raced 35 yards up the middle for a TD. But the Hokies answered on the next series with a 35-yard field goal by PK Brandon Pace. After a missed USC field goal on the ensuing possession, Virginia Tech took the lead midway through the second quarter when QB Bryan Randall hit WR Josh Hyman on a 12-yard scoring pass. That lead held up until late into the third quarter until Bush hauled in a 53-yard Leinart bomb for a TD. But Virginia Tech pulled within 14-13 midway through the final quarter on a 42-yard Pace field goal. However, USC struck right back on the next series on a 29-yard Leinart scoring pass to a wide-open Bush. Then, following a fumble recovery by CB Ronald Nunn, PK Ryan Killeen nailed a 41-yard field goal. Leinart was 19-of-29 for 272 yards (he was 11-of-13 for 170 yards and 2 TDs in the second half, with 11 consecutive completions at one point). TB LenDale White ran for 78 yards on 15 carries, while WR Steve Smith had 4 catches for 68 yards. USC outgained Virginia Tech, 373 yards to 294, despite having less plays (63-58), possession time (31:31-28:29) and first downs (18-16). The Hokies had 207 yards of total offense in the first half, but managed just 87 total yards in the second half. Randall was 14-of-29 passing for 153 yards and ran for a game-high 82 yards on 17 carries (he had 96 rushing yards in the first half), with TE Jeff King catching getting 4 grabs for 65 yards. The Trojan defense posted 5 sacks, with DT Mike Patterson getting 2.5 (4 of his 6 tackles were for losses) along with a forced fumble. Tatupu added 8 tackles and S Darnell Bing had 7 stops. It was USC's first meeting against Virginia Tech (playing its first game as a member of the Atlantic Coast Conference) and its second-ever appearance in Maryland. The attendance not only was a FedEx Field record and the most ever to view a Virginia Tech game, but it was USC's largest road crowd since the 1994 UCLA game and its most for an opener since the 1980 contest at Tennessee.

SCHEDULE

USC will defend its national championship against a schedule that features 6 opponents who played in bowls last season. The challenge started right away, as the Trojans opened on Aug. 28 against perennial power Virginia Tech in the Black Coaches Association Football Classic in Landover, Md. USC then hosts Colorado State and travels to BYU and Stanford before having a trio of home games (California, Arizona and Washington) followed by another pair of road contests (Washington State and Oregon State). The Trojans—who have 3 byes in 2004 for the second consecutive year—then return home to host Arizona and Notre Dame before concluding their season on "Championship Saturday" (Dec. 4) at UCLA. It's a schedule that could help USC better the average overall (72,806) and home (77,804) attendance school records it set last year...and gives credence to the Trojan marketing department's 2004 slogan of "Still The Hottest Ticket In Town."

1979 DÉJÀ VU?

There were numerous similarities between last year's national champion Trojans and the USC team from 25 years earlier, the 1978 national champs. This year, again there are many coincidental repeats between the 2004 Trojans and the USC team from 25 years earlier, the 1979 squad that went 11-0-1 and finished No. 2 in the polls. As in 2004, that 1979 team was a pre-season No. 1 coming off a controversial split national title shared with an SEC team (Alabama) and a Rose Bowl win over a Top 5 Michigan team, and was led by a head coach in his fourth year at the helm (John Robinson). More similarities for both teams: an opening win against a "Tech" team (Texas Tech, Virginia Tech), an efficient left-handed quarterback in his second year as a starter (Paul McDonald, Matt Leinart) who set the school touchdown pass record the previous season, a running back named White (Charles, who wore 12, and LenDale, who is No. 21), a player named Mike McDonald (this year's Mike is the son of the 1979 quarterback, Paul), a highly-touted freshman receiver from New Jersey (Timmy White, Dwayne Jarrett), a top Heisman candidate (Charles White, Matt Leinart) and a No. 1-ranked recruiting class. Also, eerily, the previous season for both squads featured a Heisman winner from Oklahoma who returned for his final year (Billy Sims, Jason White).

USC'S NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

USC has won 10 national championships in football: 1928-31-32-39-62-67-72-74-78-2003. In 5 other years (1929-33-76-79-2002), the Trojans were picked by some as No. 1, but the selectors were deemed not all-encompassing enough to claim a legitimate national crown.

PAC-10 TITLE

After sharing the Pac-10 championship in 2002, USC won the 2003 Pac-10 title outright (its first outright crown since 1989). That was the first time that USC won back-to-back Pac-10 titles since 1988 and 1989 (the Trojans also won it in 1987). USC has now won the league title 33 times, nearly twice as much as any other school.

FUN FACT I

USC is 27-0-1 in its last 28 games in the current style home jersey, with the last loss coming against Notre Dame in 1966. (USC began wearing this style jersey again in 2002 after having done so from 1958 to 1969.)

FUN FACT II

In his 4 USC season openers, head coach Pete Carroll's Trojans have scored 21 (San Jose State, 2001), 24 (Auburn, 2002), 23 (Auburn, 2003) and 24 (Virginia Tech, 2004) points.

QUOTABLE

OG John Drake, on his sore foot: "My foot's like a '72 Cadillac. Once it gets going, it won't stop. You just need to warm it up for 15 minutes."

ASSISTANT COACHES

USC's assistant coaching staff welcomed 3 new faces in 2004: QB coach Carl Smith, who has 32 years of coaching experience (his last 17 years were spent in the NFL); RB coach Todd McNair, a former NFL running back and assistant; and DEF/LB coach Ken Norton Jr., the ex-NFL and UCLA star linebacker. There were also some slight adjustments involving 3 returning coaches. Rocky Seto switched from safeties to linebackers. Brennan Carroll, an offensive assistant the past 2 seasons, became a full-time assistant, handling the tight ends. And WR coach Lane Kiffin took on the added duty of passing game coordinator.

PETE CARROLL

It took energetic and charismatic fourth-year USC head football coach Pete Carroll only 3 years to restore the glory of the Trojan football program and return Troy to national prominence. He is 30-9 (76.9%) as a college head coach (all at USC). His losses were by a total of 42 points (4.7 average) and only 1 was by more than a touchdown (it was by 11 points). After starting off his Trojan career 2-5, he has gone 28-4 (87.5%). He is 10-0 in November. His teams already have posted 4 shutouts. He also serves as USC's defensive coordinator.

—The 2003 season—his third at Troy—was one of the best in USC history. The Trojans won the AP national championship (USC's first national crown since 1978) and entered the Rose Bowl also ranked No. 1 in the USA Today/ESPN poll but weren't allowed to keep the top spot after winning that bowl because of a contractual agreement which required the coaches to vote the Sugar Bowl winner as their poll's champion (USC ended up second). USC was 12-1 overall (the only loss was by 3 points at California in triple overtime) and, at 7-1 in the Pac-10, Troy won its second consecutive league title for the first time since 1988-89 (and its first outright crown since 1989). His Trojans won their last 9 games (and 20 of the last 21) and posted back-to-back seasons of double digit wins for the first time since 1978 and 1979. For just the second time in history (the other time also was 1978 and 1979), USC swept traditional rivals UCLA and Notre Dame in consecutive years. His 2003 squad featured a potent offense, a stingy defense and productive special teams. USC, which scored at least 20 points in its last 26 games (a school record), had a stretch of 11 consecutive 30-point games (also a school mark) and 7 straight 40-point contests (a Pac-10 record). USC's 534 points was a Pac-10 record. The defense led the nation in rushing defense and was second in turnover margin, forced 42 turnovers and scored 8 touchdowns. And the Trojans topped the nation in net punting. Five Trojans—wide receiver Mike Williams, offensive tackle Jacob Rogers, defensive end Kenechi Udeze, punter Tom Malone and quarterback Matt Leinart—were first team All-Americans (Leinart and Williams finished sixth and eighth, respectively, in the Heisman Trophy voting). For all this, Carroll was named the 2003 American Football Coaches Association Division I-A Coach of the Year, Home Depot National Coach of the Year, Maxwell Club College Coach of the Year, ESPN.com National Coach of the Year, Pigskin Club of Washington D.C. Coach of the Year and All-American Football Foundation Frank Leahy Co-Coach of the Year. He also was the Pac-10 Co-Coach of the Year (USC's first honoree since Larry Smith in 1988).

—In 2002, just his second season at USC, his Trojans thrived despite playing what was ranked by the NCAA, Sagarin and the BCS as the nation's most difficult schedule (facing 9 AP-ranked teams and 11 bowl squads). USC—which beat Iowa in the Orange Bowl—posted an 11-2 overall record and a No. 4 ranking in the final polls, and won the Pac-10 championship while going 7-1. The Trojans also won their last 9 home games. It was USC's first 11-win season since 1979 and its highest ranking since 1988. Troy won its final 8 games (scoring at least 30 points in each), including blow-outs of traditional rivals UCLA and Notre Dame (the first time USC beat both in the same season since 1981 and the first time in back-to-back games since 1978). USC led the Pac-10 in total offense (449.3) and total defense (284.9), as well as scoring offense (35.8) and scoring defense (18.5), and was in the NCAA's Top 25 in nearly every team statistical category on both sides of the ball. Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback Carson Palmer and safety Troy Polamalu were first team All-Americans.

—Carroll brought big doses of experience, enthusiasm and leadership in his quest to revive the USC football program when he was named the Trojans' head football coach on Dec. 15, 2000 (he signed a 5-year contract). After USC started off his opening 2001 season slowly at 1-4, Carroll stayed the course and got his troops to rally by winning 5 of their last 7 games (including the final 4 regular season contests) to finish at 6-6 overall. USC, which won its last 5 Pac-10 games after beginning league play at 0-3, placed fifth in the conference at 5-3 and earned a berth into the Sega Sports Las Vegas Bowl. Putting an exclamation point on the regular season was a 27-0 blanking of No. 20 UCLA, USC's first shutout in the crosstown rivalry since 1947 and the series' biggest margin of victory since 1979.

—The 52-year-old Carroll has 29 years of NFL and college experience, including 13 on the college level. He was the head coach of the NFL's New England Patriots for 3 seasons (1997-99) and New York Jets for 1 year (1994). He guided the Patriots into the playoffs in his first 2 seasons, winning the AFC Eastern Division title at 10-6 in 1997 and advancing to the second round of the playoffs. His overall record in New England was 27-21 in the regular season and 1-2 in the playoffs. After serving as the Jets' defensive coordinator for 4 seasons (1990-93), he became the team's head coach the following season. His 1994 Jets went 6-10. He spent the next 2 years (1995-96) as the defensive coordinator with the San Francisco 49ers, who won the NFC Western Division title both seasons. Carroll began his coaching career at the college level, serving as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Pacific, for 3 years (1974-76), working with the wide receivers and secondary. He then spent a season as a graduate assistant working with the secondary at Arkansas (1977), and then a season each as an assistant in charge of the secondary at Iowa State (1978) and at Ohio State (1979). That Buckeye squad lost to USC in the 1980 Rose Bowl. He next spent 3 seasons (1980-82) as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at North Carolina State, then returned to Pacific in 1983 as the assistant head coach and offensive coordinator. He entered the NFL in 1984 as the defensive backs coach of the Buffalo Bills, then held a similar position with the Minnesota Vikings for 5 seasons (1985-89). Carroll spent the 2000 season as a consultant for pro and college teams, doing charitable work for the NFL and writing a column about pro football for CNN.com.

—Carroll was a 2-time (1971-72) All-Pacific Coast Conference free safety at Pacific and earned his bachelor's degree in 1973 in business administration. He received his secondary teaching credential and a master's degree in physical education from Pacific in 1976. He was inducted into the Pacific Athletic Hall of Fame in 1995. He was born on Sept. 15, 1951 in San Francisco. He and his wife, Glenna, who played volleyball at Pacific, have 3 children: sons Brennan, 24, who played tight end at Pittsburgh (he previously played at Delaware) and is now an assistant at USC, and Nathan, 16, and daughter Jaime, 21, a senior at USC who played on the Women of Troy's highly-ranked volleyball team which competed in the 2000 NCAA Final Four.

OFFENSIVE OVERVIEW

Four starters returned on offense in 2004: quarterback Matt Leinart, tailback Hershel Dennis, guard Fred Matua and fullback Brandon Hancock. Hancock (knee injury) likely won't play this season. Others back with starting experience include guard John Drake, tight end Dominique Byrd, fullbacks Lee Webb and David Kirtman, and wide receivers Chris McFoy and William Buchanon. USC's top 4 rushers (and 14 of its 17 ballcarriers), its top 4 passers and 14 of the 17 players who caught passes last year return in 2004. But this year's offense has a high standard to live up to: in 2003, the Trojans were fifth nationally in passing efficiency (159.1, first in Pac-10) and scoring offense (a school-record 41.4, first in Pac-10), 13th in passing offense (291.6, second in Pac-10) and 14th in total offense (447.5, second in Pac-10). And USC's rushing offense (155.9), though not nationally ranked, was its best since 1991. Troy scored 68 touchdowns and 534 points last year, both Pac-10 records, and its 6.5 yards per play average was a school record. As an indication of just how prolific USC's offense has become under coordinator Norm Chow, consider that the Trojans have scored at least 20 points in their last 27 games (a school record), including a stretch of 11 consecutive 30-point games (also a USC mark) and 7 straight 40-point contests (a Pac-10 record). And of Troy's 77 offensive scoring drives in 2003, 59 took less than 3 minutes.

LEINART

USC has perhaps the nation's top quarterback in record-setting All-American first teamer Matt Leinart (19-of-29, 65.5%, 272 yds, 3 TD, 0 int 2004), a leading Heisman Trophy candidate. He's off to a good start in 2004, as his 272.0 passing yards per game average is nearly equal to his 2003 average (273.5). He currently is 11th nationally in passing efficiency (178.4, second in Pac-10) and 15th in total offense (269.0, first in Pac-10). He already has thrown 41 touchdowns in just 14 career games and he is averaging a TD pass every 10.5 career attempts. During USC's current 10-game winning streak, he has thrown 33 TDs and just 3 interceptions. The junior finished sixth in last year's Heisman Trophy voting and was only the second sophomore (along with Stanford's John Elway) to win Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Year honors. The accurate and efficient left-handed Leinart came out of relative obscurity to more-than-capably fill the shoes of 2002 Heisman winner Carson Palmer. In the process, Leinart has thrust himself to the front of this year's Heisman race and is also a leading candidate for the Davey O'Brien Award. He hit 63.4% of his passes (255-of-402) for 3,556 yards with just 9 interceptions in 2003. He gave an early indication of his talent when his first career pass went for a touchdown at Auburn in last fall's opener. He went on to throw a Pac-10 record 38 TDs (1 shy of the NCAA sophomore mark). His 164.5 passing efficiency rating ranked third nationally and was a USC record (he's the nation's top-rated returning passer). He set a Pac-10 season mark with 212 consecutive passes without an interception (just 4 throws short of the league's career record). And he punctuated USC's Rose Bowl victory over Michigan by catching a 15-yard scoring pass off a reverse.

—In the opener against Virginia Tech while breaking in a new receiving corps, he hit 65.5% of his passes (19-of-29, despite missing on his first 4 throws) for 272 yards and 3 long TDs (he was 11-of-13 for 170 yards and 2 TDs in the second half, with 11 consecutive completions at one point).

OTHER QUARTERBACKS

Behind Matt Leinart is a stable of very capable backups, but none have seen much time yet at USC. Sophomore John David Booty, believed to be the first football player to graduate a full year early from high school and enroll at a major Division I-A university when he did so last year, became Leinart's backup by the middle of the 2003 season before breaking his wrist late in the year. Then there's senior Brandon Hance, who started 9 games at Purdue in 2001 and was No. 2 at USC after Booty got hurt last year, as well as senior Matt Cassel, who has also spent time in his career at tight end and is a pitcher on the Trojan baseball team, junior Billy Hart, an infielder/outfielder on USC's baseball team, and walk-on redshirt freshman Michael McDonald, the son of ex-USC All-American quarterback Paul McDonald. Joining the signalcalling corps this fall as a freshman was prep All-American Rocky Hinds.

"THUNDER AND LIGHTNING" TAILBACKS

USC features a "Thunder and Lightning" duo splitting time at tailback: sophomores LenDale White (15 tcb, 78 yds, 5.2 avg in 2004) and Reggie Bush (9 tcb, 27 yds, 3.0 avg in 2004, plus 5 rec, 127 yds, 25.4 avg, 3 TD receiving, 4 PR, 60 yds, 15.0 avg and 3 KOR, 44 yds, 14.7 avg). The bull-like White, who had a trio of 100-yard games last season, was the first true freshman to lead USC in rushing (his 754 yards in 2003 were the second most by a Trojan frosh behind Charles White's 858 in 1976) and his 13 rushing TDs were a USC freshman mark (his 14 total TDs tied the USC frosh record). The electrifying Bush currently is second nationally in scoring (18.0, tied for first in Pac-10), third in all-purpose running (258.0, first in Pac-10), 11th in receiving yards (127.0, first in Pac-10) and 14th in punt returns (15.0, third in Pac-10). He earned Freshman All-American first team honors as he set the USC freshman all-purpose yardage record (1,331 yards) and, as a hold-your-breath-when-he-gets-the-ball runner, had 24 plays of 20-plus yards in 2003. He was 10th nationally in kickoff returns (27.3, first in Pac-10) and had a scoring runback. He rushed for 521 yards in 2003.

—In the opener against Virginia Tech, Bush caught 3 long scoring passes to become the 10th USC player to catch a school-record 3 TD passes in a game (but the first running back to do so) and he had 258 all-purpose yards (127 on 5 receptions, 60 on 4 punt returns, 44 on 3 kickoff returns and 27 on 9 rushes), while White added a team-best 78 rushing yards on 15 carries (5.2 avg).

OTHER TAILBACKS

Besides LenDale White and Reggie Bush, USC has some other talented tailbacks. Junior Hershel Dennis, the veteran of the group, started each game last year and was effective. He gained 661 yards on 137 carries (4.8 avg) with 4 TDs in 2003. He was part of a 3-tailback rotation in 2003 that saw the three-some combine for 1,906 rushing yards (146.6 yards a game) with 20 TDs; each rushed for at least 500 yards (the first time that had happened at USC since 1988) and averaged at least 4.8 yards per carry. He'd then give way each game to White and Bush. He missed the 2004 opener against Virginia Tech while suspended for a team rules violation. Looking to break into the tailback rotation in 2004 is quick redshirt freshman Desmond Reed, who worked at wide receiver and in the secondary last fall, along with a pair of walk-ons in junior Andre Woodert and redshirt freshman John Griffin.

FULLBACKS

At fullback, fleet junior Brandon Hancock, a tough blocker and excellent receiver, was expected to return as the starter, but he'll likely miss 2004 while recuperating from knee surgery. So senior Lee Webb (1 rec, 14 yds, 14.0 avg in 2004)—he started 5 times at fullback last year after seeing action at linebacker (where he played in 2001 and the first half of 2002)—took over the starting job. Backing him is junior David Kirtman (3 rec, 32 yds, 10.7 avg in 2004), a rugged blocker who has starting experience and is a key special teamer, and redshirt freshman Jody Adewale, a converted tailback. Walk-on redshirt freshman Sean Kelly, another former tailback, also is available.

—Webb caught a 14-yard pass against Virginia Tech.

WIDE RECEIVERS

It's always difficult to lose a pair of players the caliber of 4-year starter Keary Colbert and All-American first teamer Mike Williams. Colbert was USC's career receptions leader (207) who had 1,000-yard receiving seasons the past 2 years (including 1,013 yards and 9 TDs on 69 catches in 2003). His underrated, yet steady, ability—remember his highlight reel touchdown grabs against Michigan in last season's Rose Bowl—made it unwise for teams to double-cover Williams. Colbert was selected in the NFL's second round. This past February when a court ruled that players didn't have to wait until after their third year out of high school to enter the NFL draft, Williams quickly decided to give up his final 2 seasons at Troy and go pro. But he was not selected because of a judicial stay on that ruling, which was then overturned. So he sought to have his collegiate eligibility restored, but the NCAA ruled against him on Aug. 26. In his 2-year Trojan career, Williams has 176 receptions for 2,579 yards and a USC record 30 touchdowns. He placed eighth in the 2003 Heisman balloting when he had 95 catches for 1,314 yards and a USC record 16 TDs. But there's a host of talented players filling the void: promising sophomores Steve Smith (4 rec, 68 yds, 17.0 avg in 2004, plus 1 tcb, -1 yd, -1.0 avg rushing), who was USC's No. 3 wideout last fall, and Chris McFoy (2 rec, 11 yds, 5.5 avg in 2004), senior Jason Mitchell, and juniors Greg Carlson, who was USC's top punt returner last season, and one-time cornerbacks William Buchanan and John Walker. Then there's freshman Dwayne Jarrett (2 rec, 8 yds, 4.0 avg in 2004), who came in this fall after earning prep All-American acclaim last year. Walk-ons Wil Smith, a sophomore, redshirt freshman John Zilka and true freshman Brad Walker, the cousin of current Trojan tight end Kurt Katnik, also are available.

—Steve Smith had 4 catches for 68 yards against Virginia Tech, while McFoy (11 yards) and Jarrett (8 yards) each had 2 grabs.

TIGHT ENDS

Another deep unit for USC in 2004—9 deep, in fact—is the tight ends corps. And that's even without Gregg Guenther Jr., who became the starter by mid-2003 and performed well (he had 17 grabs for 167 yards and 2 TDs in 2003). USC's tallest player at 6-8, once football season concluded he would change into a basketball jersey and star for the Trojan hoopsters. However, he'll concentrate solely on basketball in his 2004 senior season. Junior Dominique Byrd started the first half of 2003 (he had 14 catches for 268 yards and a score) and was impressive before suffering a season-ending knee injury (he missed 2004 spring drills while recuperating, then broke his kneecap a week before 2004 fall camp and is sidelined). Senior Alex Holmes (2 rec, 12 yds, 6.0 avg in 2004), who has 60 career catches, is back after sitting out last fall with a back injury. He started all of 2002 and has won back his job in 2004. Also in the mix are sophomore ex-center Kurt Katnik, sophomore Nick Vanderboom, a one-time walk-on who earned a scholarship this fall, and senior walk-on Owen Hanson, a one-time USC volleyballer. First-year freshman Fred Davis graduated a semester early from high school after being a prep All-American in 2003 and enrolled at USC this past spring (he originally came in as a wide receiver). Three prep All-Americans came aboard this fall as freshmen: Eugene Germany, Jimmy Miller and Dale Thompson.

—Holmes had 2 catches for 12 yards against Virginia Tech.

OFFENSIVE LINEMEN

A key to USC's success in 2004 will be the play of the partially-rebuilt offensive line, which could be the biggest in Trojan history (there are 8 linemen who weigh at least 300 pounds). Ten years of starting experience had to be replaced now that 2003 All-American first team left tackle Jacob Rogers (3-year starter), who was a second round NFL pick, plus All-Pac-10 first team center Norm Katnik (3-year starter) and left guard Lenny Vandermade (4-year starter) are gone. Last year, USC allowed just 1.2 sacks a game (its lowest average since 1987). Also, junior tackle Winston Justice, who from his right side spot protected Leinart's blind side, was slated to start for his third year and be an All-American candidate. But he was ineligible for this past spring's practice and will not participate in the 2004 season because of a student conduct violation. Sophomore Fred Matua started most of last season at right guard and brings a defensive lineman's mentality to the offensive front. He is starting again there, while senior John Drake is starting at right guard. After transferring from a junior college, Drake had moved into the lineup by mid-2003, where he split 7 starting assignments between right guard and tackle. He proved to be a load at 350 pounds before breaking his ankle late in the year (he missed 2004 spring drills while recuperating). There's a new center, with sophomore Ryan Kalil winning out over first-year freshman Jeff Byers, a prep All-American who was the national high school player of the year in 2003, and junior walk-on Ross Burrue. Competing for time at guard are senior Travis Watkins, sophomore walk-on John Lanza, sophomore junior college transfer Alatini Malu, who enrolled at USC this spring, freshman Travis Draper (originally a 2003 signee, he didn't enroll at USC until this spring), and prep All-American Chilo Rachal, a first-year freshman who also can play tackle. Redshirt freshmen Sam Baker and 370-pound junior Taitusi Lutui, a J.C. All-American transfer this fall, captured the starting tackle spots (Baker on the left and Lutui on the right). Also in the hunt for time at tackle are sophomore Kyle Williams and redshirt freshmen Drew Radovich and Matt Spanos.

DEFENSIVE OVERVIEW

Six defensive starters returned from 2003: end-tackle Shaun Cody, tackle Mike Patterson, linebackers Matt Grootegoed and Lofa Tatupu and safeties Darnell Bing and Jason Leach. Others back with starting experience include cornerbacks Ronald Nunn and Kevin Arbet, linebacker Dallas Sartz, end Frostee Rucker and linebacker Collin Ashton. USC's top 2 tacklers (and 4 of its top 5) return from a 2003 defense that was first nationally in rushing defense (a school-record 60.2), second in turnover margin (+1.5) and tied for 17th in scoring defense (18.4), all Pac-10 bests. It was the third consecutive year that Troy led the league in scoring defense. Opponents averaged just 1.8 yards per carry against the Trojans last fall, a school record and 2003 national low. USC's defense last season posted a national-best 55 sacks, forced 42 turnovers and scored 8 touchdowns (and had 2 safeties). USC has intercepted a pass in 23 of the last 24 games and has held 20 of its past 27 opponents to less than 100 rushing yards (and allowed only 1 player to crack the 100-yard rushing barrier in the last 26 contests). The Trojans have done a superb job of getting turnovers under Carroll, as their +1.33 turnover margin and +111 takeaways the previous 3 seasons are the best marks in the nation.

DEFENSIVE LINEMEN

USC's highly-regarded "Wild Bunch II" defensive line of the past 2 years is now down to "Wild Bunch ½," as veteran starting ends Kenechi Udeze and Omar Nazel are gone. All-American first teamer Udeze—a 3-year starter and Hendricks Award finalist who tied for the national lead in sacks in 2003 while posting 56 tackles, 16.5 sacks, 26 tackles for loss and 5 forced fumbles—opted to skip his senior year and head to the NFL, where he was a first round pick. Nazel, the defense's vocal leader, was a 2-year starter who last year notched 27 tackles, including 6.5 for loss (with 4 sacks), 2 fumble recoveries and an interception. But all is not lost, as the 2 starting tackles returned...and they're among the nation's best. Both are battle-tested seniors and are All-American nominees after winning All-Pac-10 first team honors last fall. Shaun Cody (3 tac in 2004) starts for his fourth year (he has the ability to also slide out to end). He had 10.5 tackles for loss (with 6 sacks) among his 26 stops last year and also blocked 3 field goals. Nose tackle Mike Patterson (6 tac, 4 for loss, 2.5 sack, 1 FF in 2004), who last fall had the most tackles for a loss (13.5) of any Trojan tackle since 1996, starts for his third season. He posted 55 total tackles, including 7 sacks, and recovered 3 fumbles (returning 1 for a TD) in 2003. Both have a knack for creating havoc. When Cody moves to end, sophomore Manuel Wright assumes his tackle spot. The backup tackles are junior LaJuan Ramsey, who also might work at end, sophomore Travis Tofi (1 tac in 2004), who also can play end, and redshirt freshman Sedrick Ellis. Joining the tackles this fall as freshmen were prep All-American Lawrence Miles and Fili Moala, plus walk-on frosh Jeff Tola. Junior Frostee Rucker (1 tac in 2004), who started 5 games last year when Nazel was injured, and redshirt freshman Lawrence Jackson (2 tac, 0.5 for loss, 0.5 sack in 2004) are the new starters at end. Among those looking to get into the action at end are redshirt freshmen Chris Barrett and Alex Morrow, juco transfer junior Rashaad Goodrum and new freshmen Thomas Herring and Jeff Schweiger (3 tac, 1 for loss, 1 sack in 2004), who both were prep All-Americans.

—Four of Patterson 6 tackles against Virginia Tech were for a loss (including 2.5 sacks) and he forced a fumble late in the game that set up a USC field goal, while Cody and Schweiger each had 3 tackles (Schweiger had an 11-yard sack on his second play as a Trojan), Jackson had 2 tackles (with 0.5 sack), and Rucker and Tofi each had 1 stop.

LINEBACKERS

USC's strength on defense is its linebacking corps. Only 2-year starting weakside linebacker Melvin Simmons is gone (he had 55 tackles and 3 fumble recoveries last season). Junior middle linebacker Lofa Tatupu (8 tac, 2.5 for loss, 1 sack, 1 dfl, 1 int in 2004) returns after making the improbable jump from starting at Maine in 2001 to doing so at USC last fall. He currently is tied for 12th nationally in interceptions (1.0, tied for third in Pac-10). He has 4 interceptions in his past 3 games at USC. He ended up as the Trojans' leading tackler in 2003, getting 98 tackles, including 11.5 for loss, to go along with his 10 deflections and 4 interceptions (including 1 for a TD). Senior Matt Grootegoed (6 tac in 2004), who has started the past 3 years at strongside linebacker (he is on the weak side in 2004), has a knack for always being around the ball. He's good enough to merit All-American consideration (he was a Butkus Award and Lombardi Award semifinalist last season). Junior Dallas Sartz (3 tac in 2004) assumes the starting strongside job. He's more than capable, as he started there the last 6 games of 2003 when Grootegoed was bothered by an ankle sprain (he posted 60 tackles last year). Other possibilities on the outside among the returnees are junior Collin Ashton (1 tac in 2004), who performed admirably while starting twice late last year when Simmons was injured (a one-time walk-on, Ashton received a scholarship this fall), and redshirt freshman Thomas Williams, plus walk-on sophomore Mike Brittingham, who also can play fullback. On the inside, there is senior walk-on Marco Chavez (he sat out 2003 after transferring from Hawaii), plus sophomore Oscar Lua (2 tac in 2004), who was sidelined most of last season because of a knee injury (he missed some of 2004 spring drills while recuperating). Enrolling this fall were J.C. All-American Ryan Powdrell, who is a junior, and prep All-Americans Keith Rivers and Michael Stuart, who both are freshmen, along with walk-on freshman Clay Matthews, the son of the ex-USC All-American linebacker of the same name.

—Tatupu had a team-best 8 tackles (2.5 for loss, with a sack), returned an interception 32 yards to set up USC's first TD and had a deflection in the opener against Virginia Tech, while Grootegoed added 6 stops, Sartz had 3, Lua had 2 and Ashton had 1.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

The good news in the secondary is that both starting safeties return. Sophomore strong safety Darnell Bing (7 tac, 1 for loss in 2004) was a Freshman All-American first team selection last year when he had 69 tackles and 2 interceptions. He has an unlimited future. Hard-hitting senior free safety Jason Leach (5 tac, 1 dfl in 2004) was USC's No. 2 tackler last season with 88 stops (he also had 2 interceptions, including 1 for a TD). Providing safety depth is senior Greg Farr, a former walk-on who received a scholarship this fall, twin redshirt freshmen Brandon Ting and Ryan Ting, and senior walk-on Chris Bocage, who missed 2004 spring practice while recovering from a knee injury. Ryan Ting also can play cornerback. Then, enrolling in the fall were J.C. All-American Scott Ware, who is a junior, and prep All-American Josh Pinkard, who is a freshman. Both of 2003's starting cornerbacks are gone: Will Poole, an All-Pac-10 first teamer and NFL fourth rounder whose 7 interceptions (the most at USC since 1994) and 19 deflections last year ranked him in the top 10 nationally in those categories (he also had 80 tackles, 4 forced fumbles and 2 fumble recoveries), and Marcell Allmond, who helped Troy to an 18-1 record when he started in the secondary (he had 3 picks and 48 stops in 2003). Losing that duo might not be as much of a concern as it appears, however, because their replacements include experienced seniors with plenty of starts under their belts. Ronald Nunn (2 tac, 1 FR in 2004), known for his big plays (he returned an interception and a fumble for TDs in 2003), started 3 times in 2002 and played often in extra defensive back formations last year. Kevin Arbet (2 tac in 2004) has 6 career starts. He received a sixth year of eligibility from the NCAA in 2004 because he was out of action for most of the past 2 seasons with a foot injury (he missed 2004 spring drills while recuperating). Also a key special teams player, he led the Trojans in punt returns in 2001 with 25 for 225 yards (9.0 average) and earned All-Pac-10 first team honors as a special teamer that season. Arbet is pushing to be junior Justin Wyatt (3 tac, 1 dfl in 2004), who also saw some action at wide receiver last fall, for a starting job. Also pushing for playing time at the corner spots are redshirt freshmen Eric Wright (2 tac in 2004) and Terrell Thomas, plus 3 walk-ons: juniors Alex Gomez and Justin Tolliver and first-year freshman Jim Abbott.

—Bing had 7 tackles (1 for a loss) versus Virginia Tech, Leach added 5 stops and a deflection, Wyatt had 3 tackles and a deflection, and Arbet, Wright and Nunn each had 2 stops (Nunn also recovered a fumble late in the game that set up a USC field goal).

SPECIAL TEAMS OVERVIEW

Most of USC's specialists from 2003 return, including perhaps the nation's premier punter (Tom Malone) and placekicker (Ryan Killeen), plus an exciting kickoff returner (Reggie Bush), a dependable punt returner (Greig Carlson) and a steady holder (Malone). But new snapper (for both short and long snaps) are developing. The Trojan special teams in 2003 were much-improved from previous years. USC fielded record-setting punt and placekicking squads. Troy led the nation in net punting (43.7 avg.) for the first time ever. The Trojans returned a kickoff for a TD for the first time since 1998. And USC blocked 7 kicks (6 field goals and a punt). But things can still be shored up a bit in 2004, as opponents blocked 4 Trojan kicks (2 punts and 2 PATs) and returned a kickoff for a touchdown last year.

SPECIALISTS

All-American junior Tom Malone (42.8 avg in 2004), the nation's best punter, has proven to be a weapon whenever he boots the ball. The Ray Guy Award candidate broke the USC season punting average record by 3.4 yards last fall (his 49.0 mark was just 0.3 off of the Pac-10 standard). He led the nation in punting for 5 consecutive weeks in the middle of the 2003 campaign and would have finished as the leader (by 1.0 yard), but the efficiency of USC's offense left him 5 punts shy of having the NCAA-required minimum 3.6 punts per game. In 2003, 24 of his 42 punts traveled at least 50 yards and 28 pinned opponents within the 20-yard line. He currently is 22nd nationally in punting (42.8, second in Pac-10). His career average of 44.8 is nearly a yard above the school standard (44.1). Senior Ryan Killeen (3-of-3 FG, 1-of-2 PAT in 2004) ranks among the nation's top placekickers. The Lou Groza Award candidate was 12th nationally in scoring (9.4, second in Pac-10) and tied for 18th in field goals (1.5, third in Pac-10) in 2003. His 65 PATs last fall were a Pac-10 season record and his 19 field goals tied the USC season mark. The 122 points he scored in 2003 were the second-most ever tallied at USC. He had 35 touchbacks among his 99 kickoffs in 2003 (and he kept foes within the 20-yard line 58 times). He also backs up Malone at punter. Behind Killeen is walk-on redshirt freshman Mario Danelo, the son of ex-NFL kicker Joe Danelo, and walk-on first-year frosh Taylor Odgaard. It might not sound like a big deal, but USC had to replace both of its long-time snappers: 4-year short snapper Joe Boskovich and 3-year long snapper Matt Hayward. Both performed flawlessly during their careers. Their replacements are junior walk-on linebacker Collin Ashton on long snaps and redshirt freshman Will Collins, a one-time walk-on who earned a scholarship this spring, on short snaps. Junior punter Tom Malone is the holder for his third season, with senior quarterback Matt Cassel as his backup. USC has back from last year its top kickoff returner in sophomore tailback Reggie Bush (3 KOR, 44 yds, 14.7 avg in 2004), who was 10th nationally in kickoff returns in 2003 (27.3, first in Pac-10) and was the first Trojan to lead the league in kickoff returns since Anthony Davis in 1974 (Bush returned a 96-yarder for a score last year), and its top punt returner in junior wide receiver Greig Carlson. Bush (4 PR, 60 yds, 15.0 avg in 2004) also returns punts. Other potential returners are junior tailback Hershel Dennis, who led USC in kickoff returns in 2002, senior cornerback Kevin Arbet, who led USC in punt returns in 2001, junior cornerback Justin Wyatt, sophomore wide receiver Steve

Smith and redshirt freshman tailback Desmond Reed.

—Malone averaged 42.8 yards on his 5 punts versus Virginia Tech (1 traveled 53 yards and 2 pinned the Hokies within the 20), while Killeen hit 1-of-2 field goals (a 41-yarder) and all 3 PATs, plus 3 of his 5 kickoffs kept Virginia Tech within the 20 (with 2 touchbacks).

USC has been effective in the takeaway department during head coach Pete Carroll's 4-year tenure. So are in 2004, USC is +2.0 in turnover margin (17th in the U.S. and third in the Pac-10) by getting 1 interception and 1 fumble. USC's +1.3 turnover margin over Carroll's first 3 seasons was the best in the nation and its 113 takeaways during that span also were the most. In 2003, USC was +1.5 in turnover margin (second in the U.S. and first in the Pac-10) by getting 22 interceptions and 20 fumbles (and yielding only 9 interceptions and 13 fumbles). In 2002, the Trojans had 36 takeaways (19 fumbles and 17 interceptions) and ranked fifth nationally in turnover margin (+1.4). In 2001, Troy had 35 takeaways (20 picks, 15 fumbles) and ranked fifth in the nation in turnover margin at +1.3. USC's ball security was impressive, too (only 19 turnovers in 2001 and just 18 in 2002).

RANDOM NOTES

QB Matt Leinart is hosting a daily web log ("blog"), chronicling his observations of the USC football team this season. Check it out at www.mattleinartblog.com. It makes for a fun read each day.

Late USC 2-time All-American tailback Ricky Bell was enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame in South Bend, Ind., this Aug. 13-14, while former USC All-American tight end Charles Young will be inducted into the Hall at a Dec. 7 dinner in New York (he'll be enshrined in August of 2005). Bell, who earned All-American honors in 1975 and 1976 (he was the Heisman Trophy runner-up in 1976), ran for 3,689 yards at Troy and then was the No. 1 pick of the 1977 NFL draft (he played 6 years in the NFL) before dying in 1984 of heart disease. Young was a unanimous All-American on USC's 1972 national championship team and caught 68 passes in his Trojan career before playing 13 years in the NFL. USC has 26 former players, 2 ex-head coaches, 4 one-time assistant coaches and a former athletic director in the College Football Hall of Fame.

FieldTurf, the popular artificial turf, was installed this past summer on a portion of USC's practice field. It covers the L-shaped portion on the northwest corner of Howard Jones Field. This marks the first time that USC ever has had artificial turf on its practice field.

After doing significant research, USC now is recognizing its 1939 football team as a national champion, giving the Trojans 10 national titles in program history (1928-31-32-39-62-67-72-74-78-2003). The 1939 Trojans went 8-0-2 and finished atop the Dickinson System poll, thereby winning the Knute Rockne Intercollegiate Memorial Trophy (at the time emblematic of the nation's No. 1 team). According to the NCAA Football Records Book, the Dickinson System was the first to gain widespread national public and media acceptance as a "major selector."

No USC football letterman in history has been heavier than current Trojan OLs Taitusi Lutui (370 pounds), John Drake (350) or Alatini Malu (335, equaling the weight of 1995-98 letterman Ken Bowen).

QB John David Booty, who enrolled at USC in the fall of 2003, is believed to be the first football player to graduate a full year early from high school and enroll at a major Division I-A university.

USC also has 5 players who graduated a semester early from high school and enrolled at USC in the spring. P Tom Malone and FB Brandon Hancock came to USC in the spring of 2002. Identical twin DBs Brandon and Ryan Ting did so in the spring of 2003. WR Fred Davis enrolled at USC this past spring.

USC has retired the jersey numbers of its 5 Heisman Trophy winners. However, SDarnell Bing received permission from USC athletic director Mike Garrett (Troy's 1965 Heisman-winning tailback) to wear Garrett's retired No. 20 jersey.

Several Trojans have participated in other sports at Troy. QB Billy Hart was on the USC baseball team the past 3 seasons (2002-04). He led USC in batting average (.367) and triples (3) in 2004 while starting 44 games in the outfield and then at third base (he also had 58 hits, 26 runs, 9 doubles, 2 home runs and 29 RBI). He started 22 times in right field in 2003, hitting .238 in 42 games with 20 hits, 14 runs, 1 home run and 4 RBI (he redshirted in 2002). QB Matt Cassel was a pitcher for the 2004 Trojans, posting an 0-1 record and 9.35 ERA in 8 games, with 10 strikeouts and 4 walks (he was selected in the 36th round of the 2004 draft by the Oakland Athletics). OG Travis Watkins was a shot putter for the 2001 Trojan track squad (he redshirted). Walk-on CB Justin Tolliver was a sprinter for the 2002 and 2003 Trojans, but did not compete in a meet. Walk-on TE Owen Hanson was a reserve on the USC men's volleyball team for 3 seasons (2001-03), seeing action in 1 match in 2003.

As a youngster, LB Collin Ashton was a ballboy for several years for the USC men's basketball team.

OT Taitusi Lutui is USC's only married player. He and his wife, Pua, were married in July of 2004.

USC's 2004 schedule includes 5 night games (starting at 5 p.m. or later, local time). Since Troy's first night game in 1944, the Trojans have played as many as 5 night games in a season just twice, in 1970 and 1971. Kick-off for 4 of USC's 2004 games are still TBA.

Who's the fastest among the 2004 Trojans? It might be TB Reggie Bush, with bests of 10.42 in the 100 meters and 21.06 in the 200. He placed third in the 100 in the 2002 California state meet.

QB Matt Cassel played on the Northridge (Calif.) team that was a finalist at the 1994 Little League World Series. And LB Matt Grootegoed was a finalist as a 10-year-old in the national Punt, Pass and Kick competition.

Several Trojans have Hollywood connections. As a youngster, CB John Walker was a television actor who appeared in such shows as "E.R." and "7th Heaven" (in fact, he didn't play football until his sophomore year of high school because a clause in his acting contract prevented him from doing anything that could affect his appearance). QB Matt Cassel was featured in the HBO documentary "Freshman Year," which was filmed at his high school in 1999-2000. And QB Brandon Hance, a music industry major, has interned at several Beverly Hills entertainment-based talent and management agencies.

On DE-DT Shaun Cody's right biceps is a large tattoo of the interlock "SC" logo, which stands both for his initials and his university.

FB Brandon Hancock has been featured in various body building magazines, including Muscle Magazine International.

QB Brandon Hance, who was hospitalized briefly in the summer of 2003 with a viral form of spinal meningitis, recorded a public service announcement for the Meningitis Foundation of America as part of the MFA's Meningitis Awareness and Prevention month in August of 2003. Hance's 30-second radio message was geared toward college students.

In his 32-year collegiate coaching career at BYU, North Carolina State and now USC, offensive coordinator Norm Chow has coached quarterbacks who combined have thrown for more than 70,000 career yards... or about 40 miles! Besides Matt Leinart and Carson Palmer at Troy, Chow has tutored BYU's Steve Young, Jim McMahon, Marc Wilson, Gifford Nielsen, Ty Detmer and Robbie Bosco and North Carolina State's Philip Rivers. Two of his pupils (Palmer and Detmer) won the Heisman Trophy.

Also available at the USC Bookstore and online is a 150-minute DVD of ABC-TV's entire commercial-free broadcast of the 2004 Rose Bowl, a 28-14 Trojan victory over Michigan. It is priced at $24.95.

"UCLA Vs. USC: 75 Years Of The Greatest Rivalry In Sports," a 272-page book authored by Los Angeles Times sportswriter (and former Trojan footballer) Lonnie White, has been published this fall and is available at Southern California-area bookstores. The book provides a comprehensive review of all clashes in all sports between the crosstown rivals. Trojan and Bruins luminaries Mike Garrett, Rod Dedeaux, Cheryl Miller, John Wooden, Bill Walton and Rafer Johnson wrote the forewords.

Strength and conditioning coach Chris Carlisle has beaten cancer. He learned he had Hodgkin's Disease in December of 2000, began radiation treatments in Tennessee (where he was still the Volunteers' associate strength and conditioning coach), was hired by USC in February of 2001, kept his illness a secret except to Trojan head coach Pete Carroll, continued treatments in Tennessee and at USC/Norris Comprehensive Cancer Center and Hospital, then doctors told him in the summer of 2001 that the cancer was in remission. He informed the USC players of his ordeal at the start of fall 2001 camp. He was 1 of 17 nominees for the 2003 Most Courageous Award presented by the Football Writers Association of America.

Politically speaking, TB Reggie Bush's nickname is "The President." Troy also presidentially features a Jackson (DE Lawrence Jackson) and a Buchanan (WR William Buchanan, spelled slightly different than the President). And TE Dominique Byrd was an intern for Minnesota senator Mark Dayton. By the way, USC is 176-59-14 (.735) during presidential election years.

USC is 160-52-10 (.743) in seasons that the Summer Olympics have been held. The Trojans won 3 national championships (1928, 1932 and 1972) and played in 9 bowls (winning 6) during those Olympic seasons. Two USC football lettermen have won Olympic gold medals: Fred Kelly (lettered in 1914-15-16) in the high hurdles in the 1912 Games (he is USC's first gold medalist) and Ken Carpenter (1934-37) in the discus in the 1936 Games. Although 2-time gold medalist Quincy Watts (400 meters and 1600-meter relay in the 1992 Olympics) never lettered in football, he was a receiver on the 1990 Trojans (he didn't get into a game).

ACADEMICS

Two of USC's most recent graduation rates for football were the highest in USC history. The 2001 official NCAA graduation rate for Trojan football players was 82%, an all-time high (topping the previous USC high of 80% in 2000). That rate compared to 73% for the general USC student body...and it was about 30 percentage points higher than the national football average for Division I schools. Among the top scholars on the 2004 Trojan squad are: CB Ryan Ting (3.93 GPA), FB Brandon Hancock (3.86, communication major), S Brandon Ting (3.7 GPA), QB Brandon Hance (3.47, music industry), WR John Zilka (3.46), TE Nick Vanderboom (3.4, business), OG Travis Draper (3.35), QB Billy Hart (3.30, business), QB Matt Cassel (3.28, communication), TB Andre Woodert (3.15, kinesiology), FB Mike Brittingham (2.93), WR Wil Smith (2.85, public management and planning), FB Jody Adewale (2.77, psychology), FB David Kirtman (2.76, business), S Greg Farr (2.76, international relations) and QB Matt Leinart (2.75, sociology). Hancock was a 2003 CoSIDA Academic All-District VIII first team and Pac-10 All-Academic first team selection. In its history, USC football has produced 22 Academic All-American first teamers (tops in the Pac-10 and sixth in the nation), 20 NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship winners, 12 National Football Foundation Scholar-Athletes, 4 NCAA Today's Top Six winners, 1 Rhodes Scholar and 1 Academic All-American Hall of Famer.

USC IS THE PLACE TO BE

Based on several national accolades it has received in recent years, USC can stake its claim as one of the nation's premier schools. USC was named the "College of the Year" by the 2000 edition of the Time/Princeton Review College Guide because of the remarkable bonds it has forged with the local community. The editors said USC has one of the most ambitious social-outreach programs of any university in the nation and cited the school's model of service learning (applying academic theory to real-life situations through public service). They also pointed out that USC's undergraduate applications have nearly doubled over the last few years and it is enrolling the most academically accomplished freshman classes in its history. Troy also was selected as one of America's nine "hot-test schools" by the 2001 edition of the Newsweek/Kaplan College Guide because it lives up to its reputation as a top-notch institution of higher education. Students quoted in the guide said that what attracted them to the university was Los Angeles' ethnic diversity, the offer of scholarships, the small classroom sizes and USC's standing in academe. Also in 2001, the Association of American Colleges and Universities picked USC as one of 16 "Leadership Institutions" for providing stimulating educational experiences both inside and outside of the classroom. USC was cited for emphasizing a campus culture featuring new learning techniques, curriculum and organizational structure and for demonstrating a strong commitment to liberal arts education relevant to the contemporary world. The organization said USC not only linked liberal arts and pre-professional study, but offered students the opportunity to learn by doing through off-campus work in community projects and internships. Also, USC was lauded for stressing critical thinking, effective communication and contributing to a diverse society.

USC'S 125TH CELEBRATION

The USC 125th Anniversary Project (1880-2005) showcases USC's leadership in redefining the research university of the 21st century while celebrating and honoring its proud heritage as one of the oldest continuing academic and cultural institutions in the region. USC has been reinventing itself since 1880. Thanks to the dedication, talent, and resources of the Trojan Family, USC will be inventing the future for generations to come. Between now and spring 2006, USC will host a variety of university-wide as well as school-based academic programs, including conferences and guest lectures focused on the first part of USC's 125th anniversary theme — "inventing the future." At the same time, the university will explore the second part of the theme — "honoring the past" — through history projects, celebrations, campus tours, and publications reflecting our rich heritage. Finally, USC's 125th anniversary year — 2005-2006 — will culminate in spring 2006 with a university-hosted international academic conference aimed at defining the research university of the 21st century.

SCOUTING COLORADO STATE

Colorado State, which went 7-6 in 2003 and lost to Boston College in the San Francisco Bowl, is coming off a tough season-opening 27-24 at Colorado last Saturday (the game ended with CSU stopped just short of a game-winning TD). The Rams of the Mountain West Conference, guided by 12th-year head coach Sonny Lubick, return 14 starters from last season, including 8 on offense (but just 3 on defense). Key offensive players include first-year starting junior QB Justin Holland (29-of-41, 70.7%, 403 yds, 2 TD, 1 int in 2004), senior TE Joel Dreessen (4 rec, 26 yds, 6.5 avg in 2004), who was an All-MWC first team pick in 2002, junior SE David Anderson (9 rec, 156 yds, 17.3 avg in 2004), who set CSU season records for receptions (72) and receiving yards (1,293) last fall, and senior OT Erik Pears, a 2003 All-MWC first teamer. Holland currently is fourth nationally in total offense (402.0) and 19th in passing efficiency (164.5), while Anderson is third in receiving yards (156.0), fourth in receptions (9.0) and seventh in all-purpose running (219.0). Senior RB Marcus Houston (20 tcb, 44 yds, 2.2 avg, 1 TD in 2004), who faced USC in 2000 while at Colorado (he gained 150 yards on 25 carries in the Coliseum), leads the ground attack. Returning starters on defense are senior DE Patrick Goodpaster (2 tac in 2004), junior LB Jahmal Hall (4 tac in 2004) and junior FS Ben Stratton (7 tac, 1 dfl in 2004).
