NO. 1 USC FOOTBALL HOSTS BIG TEN POWER NO. 5 OHIO STATE IN MUCH-ANTICIPATED MATCHUP

FACTS

USC (1-0 overall, 0-0 Pacific-10) vs. Ohio State (2-0 overall), Saturday, Sept. 13, 5 p.m. PDT, Los Angeles Coliseum

THEMES

Two of college football's traditional powers—No. 1 USC and No. 5 Ohio State—meet in a highly-anticipated early-season showdown in Los Angeles. Although the teams have faced off 21 times (with a third of those meetings in the Rose Bowl), it's their first match-up since 1990. USC is rested, coming off a bye following its dominating opening win at Virginia. The Buckeyes have opened with a pair of home wins over in-state rivals Youngstown State and Ohio. USC has fared well against the Big Ten recently, winning the last 7 such games (by an average 28-point margin). Both programs can lay claim to dominance at the start of the 21st century. The last 4 BCS Championship Games have featured the Trojans or the Buckeyes. USC—winner of its last 14 September games, last 11 non-conference home games and last 10 home openers—is riding 6 consecutive seasons of AP Top 4 finishes, BCS bowl trips, Pac-10 titles and 11 wins. USC's Pete Carroll—who once coached in Columbus—and Ohio State's Jim Tressel rank among college football's winningest active coaches (Carroll is tops at 84.6%, while Tressel is tied for eighth at 74.0%). USC sports a veteran defense led by Butkus Award candidates Rey Mauluga and Brian Cushing at linebacker and Thorpe Award candidates Taylor Mays (a 2007 All-American first teamer) and Kevin Ellison at safety, plus highly-regarded DT Fili Moala. QB Mark Sanchez got his 2008 season off to a huge start, earning National Player of the Week honors for his 338-yard, 3-TD showing at Virginia. Five Trojan tailbacks scored in that Virginia contest, including regulars Joe McKnight, Stafon Johnson, C.J. Gable and Allen Bradford (they each have different, but complementary, running styles). Troy's receiving corps—featuring the likes of WRs Patrick Turner, Vidal Hazelton, Damian Williams and Ronald Johnson—appears much improved from a year ago. Veteran OG-C Jeff Byers, an Academic All-American candidate in his second year in the M.B.A. program, anchors the offensive line, which didn't allow a sack in the opener. Like USC, Ohio State is a team with talented, star-power players. TB Chris "Beanie" Wells, who ran for 1,609 yards and 15 TDs last season, is among the nation's top running backs. Efficient QB Todd Boeckman directs the Buckeye offense (true frosh QB Terrelle Pryor also gets some time), with speedy WR Brian Robiskie on the end of many of the aeriels. The Buckeye defense features 2007 Butkus Award-winning LB James Laurinaitis, a 2-time All-American first team selection, and senior CB Malcolm Jenkins, a 2-time All-Big Ten first teamer. The expanded Coliseum will be at capacity (all 93,607 seats have been sold) and the nation will be looking in on the ABC-TV telecast. ESPN's College GameDay pre-game show will beam live from the Coliseum on Saturday morning. The schools also will meet in women's volleyball the night before in the Galen Center.

SERIES

USC holds an 11-9-1 series edge over Ohio State. The Trojans have won the past 5 meetings and 6 of the last 7. In games in the Coliseum, USC leads, 4-2-1. Six of the USC-OSU games have been decided by a TD or less and there have been 7 shutouts in the series (5 by Ohio State). At least one of the teams has been ranked in 16 of the meetings (including 11 times when both were ranked), with 9 of the games featuring an AP Top 5 team (and 5 with an AP No. 1 squad). A third of the meetings have been on New Year's Day in the Rose Bowl, where Troy owns a 4-3 mark. Five of those Rose Bowl meetings carried national championship implications for one of the teams (USC won the 1972 and 1974 national crowns after Rose Bowl wins over Ohio State, while the Buckeyes won the 1954 and 1968 titles after beating Troy in Pasadena; and a USC Rose Bowl win knocked Ohio State out of the 1979 top ranking). The teams will meet again on Sept. 12, 2009, in Columbus.

The squads last met in 1990 in Columbus, a 35-26 USC victory where the final 2:36 of play was suspended by game officials when a heavy rainstorm with thunder and lightning hit. In that game, TB Ricky Ervins ran for 199 yards (164 by halftime) and 2 touchdowns in 3 quarters of play for No. 18 USC (coached by Ohio native Larry Smith), which collected 331 yards on the ground. TB-FB Scott Lockwood added 75 rushing yards, including a 66-yard TD, while TB Mazio Royster ran for 70 yards, including a 50-yard sprint that set up a 1-yard TD run by QB Todd Marinovich in the fourth quarter. The Trojans opened up a 14-0 first quarter lead when LB Willie McGinest blocked a punt and CB Zuri Hector ran it 8 yards for a score, then Ervins ran in from 15 yards out. No. 15 Ohio State's scores came on a 46-yard field goal by PK Timothy Williams and a 17-yard pass from QB Greg Frey to WR Bobby Olive in the second quarter (Ervins had a 1-yard TD run to make it 21-10 USC at halftime), then a 29-yard Frey pass to WR Jeff Graham in the third period and a 1-yard run by TB Raymont Harris late in the game. Frey threw for 262 yards, but the Buckeyes rushed for just 79 yards (54 by TB Robert Smith). The second half was played in heavy rain, so when USC recovered an onside kick after Harris' TD, the officials called the game because of the threatening weather.

The teams' last Coliseum meeting was in 1989 (it was their first regular season matchup since 1964), as No. 12 USC won 42-3. It was the Buckeyes' most lopsided loss since a 58-6 defeat by Michigan in 1946 and their fewest points scored since a 6-0 shutout by Wisconsin in 1982. After No. 20 Ohio State led 3-0 early on a 45-yard field goal by PK Patrick O'Morrow, USC scored 42 unanswered points. Marinovich was 14-of-22 for 246 yards and 4 TDs despite suffering a sprained wrist early on. USC got on the board in the second quarter on a 3-yard pass to TE Scott Galbraith from QB Shane Foley, subbing briefly for the injured Marinovich. Then Marinovich returned and fired scoring passes to WR John Jackson (87 yards, a then-USC record for distance) and Galbraith (11 yards) to put Troy up 21-3 at halftime and then he added a pair to WR Gary Wellman (19 and 17 yards) before Royster closed the scoring with a 1-yard TD run. Ervins rushed for 117 yards. The USC defense—led by S Mark Carrier and LB Junior Seau—limited the Buckeyes to 223 total yards (just 88 rushing).

USC VS. BIG TEN

USC is 65-27-2 against Big Ten competition, including 17-9 in bowl meetings. USC has won its last 7 games (by an average margin of 27.8 points), 28 of its last 36 and 35 of its last 44 against Big Ten opponents. USC last faced a Big Ten foe in the 2008 Rose Bowl, when the No. 6 Trojans defeated No. 13 Illinois, 49-17. Ohio State, on the other hand, is 50-23-2 against the Pac-10 (its most recent meeting against a Pac-10 foe was a 33-14 win at Washington in 2007).

HOME OPENERS

USC's record for home openers is 88-18-7 (.785). The Trojans have won their last 10 home openers.

IN THE COLISEUM

USC has a 397-123-27 (.750) all-time record in the Coliseum since the stadium opened in 1923.

IN SEPTEMBER

USC has a 158-37-8 (.798) all-time record while playing in the month of September.

AFTER BYES

USC is 88-43-4 in all regular season games it has played following byes. Since 1955, the Trojans are 49-14-1 following byes.

GRIDIRON POWERS

USC and Ohio State are among the nation's traditional college football powerhouses. To wit: USC has won 11 national championships, Ohio State 7. Both teams rank among the Top 10 in career wins (Ohio State is fifth with 800, USC is 10th with 755) and winning percentage (Ohio State is tied for third at .716, USC is seventh at .704). Both schools have produced 7 Heisman Trophy winners. The Buckeyes claim 181 All-American first teamers, while the Trojans have 151. USC has won 37 league titles and Ohio State has 32. USC has 46 bowl appearances (with 30 wins), while Ohio State has made it to 39 bowls (with 18 victories). The schools have been guided by legendary coaches, including USC's Howard Jones, John McKay and Pete Carroll and Ohio State's Woody Hayes and Jim Tressel. Both programs have nationally-recognized marching bands, famous mascots (Traveler with Tommy Trojan, Brutus Buckeye) and distinctive colors (USC's cardinal and gold, OSU's scarlet and gray).

USC VS. NO. 5/OSU VS. NO. 1

USC is just 7-6 all-time against AP No. 5-ranked teams, including 2-0 against such current Big Ten squads, but the Trojans have lost their last 4 encounters with an AP No. 5 team (most recently at Oregon last season). Conversely, Ohio State is 4-8 when facing an AP No. 1-ranked team, with the last meeting being a 31-24 overtime victory over Miami (Fla.) in the BCS Championship Game in the 2003 Fiesta Bowl to capture the national championship. The Buckeyes' last regular-season game against an AP No. 1 team was a 20-14 loss at Michigan in 1997. The only time Ohio State faced an AP No. 1-ranked USC team was in the 1973 Rose Bowl, a 42-17 Trojan victory that capped Troy's 1972 national championship season.

CONNECTIONS

USC has 1 player from Ohio (P Billy O'Malley from St. Ignatius High in Novelty), while Ohio State claims 3 California natives (DL Mark Johnson of Dorsey High in Los Angeles, TE J.D. Larson of Ventura High and WR Grant Schwartz of Dana Hills High).

TROJAN HEAD COACHES' OHIO ROOTS

Five USC football head coaches have Ohio roots. Current USC head coach Pete Carroll was the secondary coach under Earle Bruce at Ohio State in 1979 (that top-ranked Buckeye squad lost to No. 3 USC in the 1980 Rose Bowl, 17-16). Howard Jones, who guided the Trojans to 3 national championships, was born in Excello, Ohio, and coached the Buckeyes in 1910 to a 6-1-3 record. Larry Smith spent much of his early career in Ohio, playing at Van Wert High and then Bowling Green, then coaching at Lima Shawnee High and Miami of Ohio (he met his wife at a Woody Hayes coaching clinic at Ohio State). Elmer "Gloomy Gus" Henderson, who won 86.5% of his games at USC, graduated from Oberlin. Paul Hackett was an assistant coach with the Cleveland Browns for 2 seasons (1981-82).

PRE-SEASON HONORS

LB Rey Mauluga (Sports Illustrated, The Sporting News, Lindy's, Athlon, Playboy, Phil Steele's, Collegefootballnews.com), S Taylor Mays (Sports Illustrated, ESPN.com, Athlon, Playboy, Phil Steele's), LB Brian Cushing (Playboy, ESPN.com, Phil Steele's), DT Fili Moala (The Sporting News, Phil Steele's) and TB Joe McKnight (The Sporting News) have been named to various pre-season All-American first teams. OG-C Jeff Byers made an All-American second team. USC's linebacker and secondary position units are ranked No. 1 nationally by some of these media outlets. Besides the above-mentioned players, S Kevin Ellison, TB Stafon Johnson and DEs Kyle Moore and Everson Griffen have been selected to various pre-season All-Pac-10 first teams.

6 CONSECUTIVE

USC is riding a streak of 6 consecutive AP Top 4 finishes (including national championships in 2003 and 2004) and BCS bowls (an NCAA record) and Pac-10 crowns (a league record) and 11-win seasons (also an NCAA record).

USC owns several active winning streaks:

—non-conference home games (11);

—non-conference road games (9, not including 5 neutral site wins and 1 neutral site loss);

—non-conference games (9);

—September games (14)

—November games (23).

USC'S PAST 6-PLUS YEARS UNDER CARROLL

Eighth-year USC head coach Pete Carroll has a system in place that, after going 6-6 in his 2001 debut season, has made the past 6-plus years (since 2002) glorious ones for the Trojans:

—Six AP Top 4 finishes, including national championships in 2003 and 2004;

—Six BCS bowl appearances (an NCAA record);

—Six Pac-10 championships (a Pac-10 record);

—Six seasons with at least 11 victories (an NCAA record);

—A winning record of 89.9% (71-8), including 11-1 against traditional rivals Notre Dame and UCLA;

—An AP Top 25 ranking for the past 79 games, a school record;

—68 wins in the last 74 games, with the losses coming by just 20 points (the first by 3 points in triple overtime at California in 2003, the second by 3 points in the final 19 seconds to Texas in the 2006 Rose Bowl's BCS Championship Game to fall just short of an unprecedented third consecutive national championship, the third by 2 points on a failed 2-point conversion pass with 7 seconds to play at Oregon State in 2006, the fourth by 4 points at UCLA in 2006 to deny Troy an appearance in a third straight BCS Championship Game, the fifth by 1 point at home to Stanford and the sixth by a TD at No. 5 Oregon);

—Twenty-seven victories over AP Top 25 teams (27-4 overall, 87.1%);

—No-longer-active win streaks for home games (35), overall games (34), Pac-10 games (27), Pac-10 home games (24), road games (18), non-conference games (16), games against AP Top 25 teams (16) and Pac-10 road games (13);

—A no-longer-active national-record 33 consecutive weeks as AP's No. 1-ranked team;

—A no-longer-active school record 63 consecutive games ranked in the AP Top 10;

—Twenty-nine All-American first teamers;

—Three Heisman Trophy winners;

—Forty NFL draft picks, including 11 first rounders;

—Seven Top 10 recruiting classes.

AP NO. 1

USC has held the AP No. 1 ranking 83 times (not including 6 times in pre-season polls), fourth most of any school (behind Notre Dame's 89 and Oklahoma and Ohio State each with 86). The Trojans are 66-5-2 (.918) in games when ranked No. 1.

HIGH RANKING

USC has been ranked in the AP Top 25 for its past 79 games, a school record. Troy has been in the AP Top 10 for 67 of its past 71 games, including a since-snapped school record of 62 consecutive games. The Trojans have been in the AP Top 5 in 71 of the last 84 polls (including 5 pre-season polls).

USC'S WINNINGEST 6-, 5-, 4-, 3-, 2- AND 1-YEARS

USC's 70 wins during the previous 6 years (11 in 2002, 12 in 2003, 13 in 2004, 12 in 2005, 11 in 2006 and 11 in 2007) is the winningest 6-year span in school history. Its 59 wins during the 5-year periods of 2003-07 and 2002-06 are tied for its best 5-year runs. Its 48 wins during the 4-year spans of both 2002-05 and 2003-2006 tied for its best 4-year spans. Troy's 37 wins from 2003-05 represented the winningest 3-year period in Trojan history. Also, USC's 25 wins during the 2-year spans of both 2003-04 and 2004-05 tied for its best 2-year spans. And USC posted its first 13-win season in 2004, its eighth perfect (unbeaten, untied) season ever.

USC'S PAC-10 TITLES

After sharing the Pac-10 championship in 2002, USC won the 2003 Pac-10 title outright (its first outright crown since 1989) and again in 2004 and 2005 before sharing it in 2006 and 2007. Those 6 consecutive conference titles are unprecedented in Pac-10 history. USC has won the league title 37 times, more than twice as much as any other school.

LAST GAME

QB Mark Sanchez threw for a career-best 338 yards with 3 touchdowns, 5 Trojan tailbacks scored TDs and Troy's defense forced 4 turnovers and allowed just 187 total yards as No. 3 USC got its 2008 campaign off to an impressive start with a 52-7 win at Virginia on a hot, humid day before a Scott Stadium-record sellout crowd of 64,947 and a national ABC/ESPN2 audience. It was USC's 11th consecutive win in a season opener. It was also USC's first game ever against the Cavaliers and the first time the Trojans played in the state of Virginia, as well as the first visit to Charlottesville by a Pac-10 team. USC scored touchdowns on its first 3 possessions, on a 2-yard run by TB Stafon Johnson, a 10-yard Sanchez dump pass to TB Joe McKnight and a 33-yard run by TB C.J. Gable on a fourth-and-1 play. Virginia then scored on a 7-yard run by TB Mikell Simpson late in the first quarter (the only time the Cavaliers penetrated the USC 25-yard line), aided by 40 yards on penalties by the Trojans on the drive. But it was all USC after that. PK David Buehler kicked a 20-yard field goal midway through the second quarter to give USC a 24-7 halftime lead (Troy had 251 total yards ad 15 first downs by intermission, to Virginia's 101 total yards—including just 1 rushing yard—and 8 first downs). USC scored on the opening possession of the second half, as Sanchez hit WR Patrick Turner on a 20-yard pass. Late in the third quarter, WR Ronald Johnson hauled in a 49-yard Sanchez scoring bomb. The Trojans then turned a pair of fumble recoveries (by LB-DE Clay Matthews and then DE Gerald Washington) into touchdowns, first a 2-yard run by TB Allen Bradford and then a 10-yard pass from QB Mitch Mustain to TB Marc Tyler. USC rolled up 558 yards of total offense, including 208 on the ground. Troy also had 27 first downs and held the ball 36:31. Sanchez completed 26-of-35 passes (the completions tied a personal best), including a streak of 12 in a row. He was 16-of-19 in the first half. WR Damian Williams had 7 catches for 91 yards, both game highs, while WR Vidal Hazelton added 5 receptions for 33 yards. Gable had a game-best 73 yards on 9 rushes and McKnight had 112 all-purpose yards (60 on 6 carries, 23 on 4 catches and 28 on 3 punts). USC's defense surrendered just 32 of Virginia's 187 total yards on the ground, plus allowed only 14 first downs, 2-of-12 third down conversions and 56 plays. Matthews had 2 fumble recoveries and a forced fumble to go with his game-high 6 tackles (with a sack), while LB Kaluka Maiava and S Taylor Mays also had 6 tackles. CB Kevin Thomas had an interception. For Virginia, QB Peter Lalich was 18-of-35 for 155 yards, with TE John Phillips catching 5 passes for 33 yards. LB Jon Cooper had 11 tackles.

SCHEDULE

USC's 2008 schedule features 7 teams that were in bowls last season. The Trojans face a challenging start, as their first 5 foes all were bowl teams and won at least 9 games in 2007. USC opened its campaign on Aug. 30 at Virginia in the first-ever meeting between the schools. Troy then hosts Ohio State—which has played in the last 2 BCS Championship Games—on Sept. 13 (it will be the first battle between the teams since 1990 and the Buckeyes' first visit to the Coliseum in 19 years). USC then begins its quest for a seventh consecutive Pac-10 crown when it plays a Thursday night (Sept. 25) game at Oregon State. Troy's other Pac-10 road games are at Washington State, Arizona, Stanford and the Dec. 6 season-ender versus UCLA, while the Trojans host Oregon, Arizona State, Washington and California. USC will try to extend its 6-game winning streak over Notre Dame when the Irish visit the Coliseum on Nov. 29. The Trojans figure to remain a popular attraction. During head coach Pete Carroll's tenure, USC has set school attendance and sellout records, including Pac-10 marks for home total and average attendance. In 2007, USC's overall total (1,056,685) and average (81,283) attendance figures were school records. All 6 of USC's home games in 2008 are sold out (the games sold out by Aug. 4, 2008).

PETE CARROLL

Eighth-year USC head football coach Pete Carroll has returned the Trojan football program to national prominence. He is 77-14 (84.6%) in 8 years (2001-2008) as a college head coach (all at USC), the best winning percentage of any current Division I coach with at least 5 years of experience. He reached 50 career USC wins faster than any head coach in Trojan history. His losses have been by a total of 59 points (4.2 average) and only 1 was by more than a touchdown (it was by 11 points). After starting off his Trojan career 2-5, he has gone 74-9 (89.2%) with a pair of national championships (2003-04). He is 49-9 in Pac-10 games, giving him an 84.5% winning mark (a league record). His teams have been ranked in the AP Top 25 for the past 79 games, a school record. He is 23-0 in November. He has 28 victories over AP Top 25 teams (28-7 overall, 80.0%). His teams have won an unprecedented 6 consecutive Pac-10 titles and appeared in an NCAA record 6 consecutive BCS bowls (including a pair of BCS Championship Games). His teams have recorded at least 11 victories in each of the past 6 seasons, an NCAA record, and finished ranked in the AP Top 4 in each of those seasons. USC's 13, 25, 37, 48, 59 and 70 wins during 1-, 2-, 3-, 4-, 5- and 6-year spans represent the winningest periods in Trojan history. Under Carroll, USC is riding winning streaks in 23 November games, 14 September games, 11 non-conference home games and 9 non-conference road games (not including 5 neutral site contests). His USC teams also had a number of other since-broken winning streaks: a Pac-10 record 35 consecutive home games, Pac-10-record 34 overall games, a Pac-10-record 27 Pac-10 games, a Pac-10 record 24 consecutive league home games, a school-record 18 road games (not including 4 neutral site contests), 18 October games, 16 non-conference games, 16 games against AP Top 25 teams and a school-record 13 Pac-10 road games. His Trojans also set a no-longer-active NCAA record by scoring at least 20 points in 63 consecutive games. USC was AP's No. 1 team for a national-record 33 straight polls (including 2 pre-season polls) and was ranked in the AP Top 10 for a school-record 63 consecutive games. He was named the 2003, 2005 and 2006 Pac-10 Coach of the Year. Under Carroll, USC is the first school to have 3 Heisman Trophy winners in a 4-year span. Carroll has produced 30 All-American first teamers and 42 NFL draft picks (including 11 first rounders, with a No. 1 selection in Carson Palmer and a No. 2 in Reggie Bush). His last 6 recruiting classes have been ranked in the Top 10 nationally (including first 5 times by some experts). He also served as USC's defensive coordinator in his first 5 seasons at Troy.

OFFENSIVE OVERVIEW

Only 4 starters returned on offense in 2008: wide receivers Patrick Turner and Vidal Hazelton, fullback Stanley Havili and guard-center Jeff Byers. Others back with starting experience are quarterbacks Mark Sanchez and Mitch Mustain, tailbacks C.J. Gable and Allen Bradford, wide receivers David Ausberry, Ronald Johnson and Damian Williams, center Kristofer O'Dowd, guard Zack Heberer and tackles Butch Lewis and Charles Brown. Mustain and Williams had their starts while at Arkansas. Although USC's top rusher, passer and receiver from 2007 are gone, its next 4 most productive runners, its next most productive passer and its next 5 most productive receivers returned in 2008. The Trojans aim to rev up an offense that—although much improved over the 2006 model—last year did not rank in the national Top 25 in any offensive statistical category for the first time since coach Pete Carroll's debut season in 2001.

QUARTERBACKS

Much like coach Pete Carroll and crew had to do—and did quite well—in 2003 (replacing Carson Palmer) and in 2006 (replacing Matt Leinart), USC must again replace one of the top quarterbacks in school history in 2008. John David Booty is gone along with his 20-3 record as a starter (including 9-0 against Top 25 teams). He ended up ranked in USC's all-time Top 6 in passing completions (fifth with 518), passing yardage (fifth with 6,125), passing touchdowns (fourth with 55) and total offense (sixth with 5,945 yards). In 2007, the 62.3% career passer hit 215-of-340 (63.2%) of his throws for 2,361 yards and 23 TDs with just 10 interceptions. He was an NFL fifth round draft pick. Several players with outstanding pedigrees competed this past spring to replace Booty in 2008, with junior Mark Sanchez (26-of-35, 74.3%, 338 yds, 3 TD, 1 int in 2008) emerging as the starter. He currently is ranked ninth nationally in total offense (344.0, second in Pac-10) and 14th in passing efficiency (178.0, third in Pac-10). When Booty missed 3 mid-season games (Arizona, Notre Dame and Oregon) with a broken finger in 2007, Sanchez stepped in and not only performed well, but gained valuable experience. He guided Troy last year to victories in his first 2 career starts (including a 38-0 shutout in South Bend) and had the Trojans positioned to come back at No. 5 Oregon before falling just a touchdown short of victory. In his time at USC, he has appeared in 15 games, with 4 starts. Behind Sanchez are sophomore Mitch Mustain (1-of-1, 1.000%, 10 yds, 1 TD in 2008), who sat out the 2007 season after transferring from Arkansas, and untested redshirt freshman Aaron Corp (1-of-2, 50.0%, 2 yds in 2008), who guided his high school team to the California state championship in 2006. Mustain was 8-0 as a true freshman starter for the Razorbacks in 2006 and, in fact, has a 61-2 record as a starting quarterback dating back to eighth grade. While appearing in 10 games for Arkansas in 2006, he completed 69-of-132 passes (52.3%) for 894 yards, 10 scores and 9 picks. Mustain (in 2005), like Sanchez (in 2004), was named the national prep player of the year as a high school senior. Corp possibly is the most mobile of the quarterbacks and could bring another dimension to the Trojan offense. In case of emergency, junior Garrett Green (1 tac in 2008), who came to USC in 2006 as a quarterback before being moved to safety and then spending last year as a wide receiver (he was moved back to quarterback in 2008 fall camp), is available. He will long be remembered for his 34-yard scoring toss off a lateral early in last year's Rose Bowl. New to the quarterback ranks this fall is walk-on redshirt freshman Chris McCaffrey, who was a reserve pitcher on the USC baseball team this past spring.

—Sanchez threw for a career-best 338 yards with 3 TDs (10, 20 and 49 yards) on 26-of-35 passing (tying his career high for completions) at Virginia, including hitting on 12 straight passes at one point and completing 16-of-19 passes in the first half (he was named Rivals.com National Player of the Week, O'Brien National Quarterback of the Week and Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Week for his performance), while Corp played 1 series (1-of-2 for 2 yards). Mustain also played a series (he threw a 10-yard TD on his only pass) and Green took 1 snap.

TAILBACKS

Although Chauncey Washington, USC's leading rusher the past 2 seasons (he had 969 yards and 10 TDs in 2007), has finished his Trojan career after piling up 1,778 yards and 19 scores (he was an NFL seventh round draft pick), there are plenty of returning tailbacks to fill in for him. This might be the best running back corps in America. Troy's 2008 tailback stable includes: junior Stafon Johnson (9 tcb, 28 yds, 3.1 avg, 1 TD in 2008), a consistent, dependable runner who had a trio of 100-yard outings last fall (at Nebraska and Washington and in the Rose Bowl versus Illinois); sophomore Joe McKnight (6 tcb, 60 yds, 10.0 avg in 2008, plus 4 rec, 24 yds, 6.0 avg, 1 TD and 3 PR, 28 yds, 9.3 avg), the exciting all-purpose breakaway back who can strike as a runner, receiver and returner (he had 3 games in 2007 with at least 100 all-purpose yards, including 206 in the Rose Bowl); soph C.J. Gable (9 tcb, 73 yds, 8.1 avg in 2008), who has 8 career starts, including the first 2 contests of 2007 before being sidelined the rest of the way with abdomen surgery; junior Allen Bradford (9 tcb, 41 yds, 4.6 avg, 1 TD in 2008, plus 2 rec, 15 yds, 7.5 avg and 1 tac), a hard-charging runner who is particularly adept catching passes out of the backfield and who also shines on special teams; and redshirt freshmen Broderick Green (1 tcb, 0 yds, 0.0 avg in 2008) and Marc Tyler (1 tcb, 8 yds, 8.0 avg in 2008, plus 1 rec, 10 yds, 10.0 avg, 1 TD), who were both sidelined with injuries in 2007 (foot and leg, respectively). Joining this group this fall as a freshman was prep All-American Curtis McNeal, along with walk-on freshman Chris Fornataro.

—Gable had a game-best 73 yards on 9 carries, with a 33-yard TD, at Virginia, while McKnight had 112 all-purpose yards (60 on 6 carries, 24 on 4 receptions with a 10-yard TD and 28 on 3 kickoff returns), Bradford added 41 yards on 9 carries with a 2-yard score and also caught 2 passes for 15 yards, Johnson had 29 yards on 9 rushes with a 2-yard TD, Tyler caught a 10-yard TD pass (to become USC's fifth tailback to score in the game) to go along with an 8-yard run and Green had a rush for no yards.

FULLBACKS

Sophomore Stanley Havili (1 tcb, 5 yds, 5.0 avg in 2008, plus 1 rec, 14 yds, 14.0 avg) returns as the fullback and could emerge among the best in the nation. He has proven to be not only a fine blocker, but an effective runner and receiver. Behind him are just a couple of untested players. Junior Adam Goodman (1 tac in 2008) was Havili's backup last fall and saw brief action (the one-time walk-on earned a scholarship this past spring). Then there's senior Matt Hillier, a one-time walk-on who earned a scholarship in this fall and who also is on the USC men's volleyball team.

—At Virginia, Havili had a 5-yard run and a 14-yard catch.

WIDE RECEIVERS

USC's entire corps of scholarship wide receivers from 2007 (except for 1 reserve) returns this season. They'll be counted on to up their production in 2008, as they accounted for less than half of USC's 286 receptions last year. Both starters—senior split end Patrick Turner (2 rec, 62 yds, 31.0 avg, 1 TD in 2008, plus 1 tac) and junior flanker Vidal Hazelton (5 rec, 33 yds, 6.6 avg in 2008)—are back. Turner's 91 career grabs puts him 20th on USC's career pass catching chart. He had 5 games with 5-plus receptions in 2007, including 9 versus Stanford. Hazelton caught a pass in every game last year. But hot on their heels are the likes of sophomores David Ausberry, who had 5 starts last fall, Ronald Johnson (3 rec, 78 yds, 26.0 avg., 1 TD in 2008, plus 2 KOR, 25 yds, 12.5 avg), who started once and also was Troy's top kickoff returner in 2007, and Damian Williams (7 rec, 91 yds, 13.0 avg in 2008), who sat out the 2007 campaign after transferring from Arkansas (where he started 5 times and caught 19 passes as a true freshman in 2005). Williams currently is tied for 23rd nationally in receptions (7.0, tied for third in Pac-10). Also in the mix are sophomore Travon Patterson, who missed most of last fall with a foot injury, and redshirt freshman Brandon Carswell (1 KOR, 14 yds, 14.0 avg in 2008). Then there are 6 walk-ons who have yet to catch a pass: sophomores Sean Calcagnie, Preston Cavignac, Scott Stephens (1 tac in 2008), Duron Sylvester and Spencer Vigoren and redshirt freshman Drew Ness. A pair of talented freshmen enrolled this fall—prep All-Americans Brice Butler and D.J. Shoemate—along with junior college transfer Jordan Cameron, a sophomore, and walk-on freshman Robbie Boyer.

—Williams had 7 receptions for 91 yards (both game highs) at Virginia, Hazelton added 5 grabs for 33 yards, Johnson had 3 catches for 78 yards (with a 49-yard TD) and returned 2 kickoffs for 25 yards for 103 all-purpose yards and Turner had 2 catches for 62 yards with a 20-yard score.

TIGHT ENDS

USC will be hard-pressed to replace Fred Davis, the most prolific tight end in Trojan history. Davis, Troy's first-ever Mackey Award winner, set school tight end records for career catches (117), receiving yardage (1,408) and touchdowns (13). His 2007 All-American first team showing also produced USC season tight end standards: a team-best 62 receptions for 881 yards and 8 TDs. He was drafted in the NFL's second round. Looking to fill his shoes are junior Anthony McCoy (2 rec, 21 yds, 10.5 avg 2008), redshirt freshman Rhett Ellison, the son of ex-USC and NFL linebacker Riki (Gray) Ellison, and senior Jimmy Miller, who missed most of 2007 with a back injury (he has 2 touchdowns among his 3 career receptions, all in 2005), plus soph Cooper Stephenson, who also will be a long snapper (the one-time walk-on earned a scholarship past this spring). Figuring to get an instant look at the position is Blake Ayles (1 rec, 2 yds, 2.0 avg in 2008), a prep All-American who came aboard this fall as a freshman.

—McCoy had 2 catches for 21 yards at Virginia, while Ayles added a 2-yard reception.

OFFENSIVE LINEMEN

The Trojan offensive line is undergoing a near-complete reconstruction in 2008, as only 1 starter returned. That veteran is left guard Jeff Byers, the line's only senior. He also has seen time at center. Now in his second year working on his M.B.A., he is an Academic All-American candidate. Departed are 3-time All-American first team left tackle Sam Baker (a first round NFL draft pick), 2007 All-Pac-10 first team right guard Chilo Rachal (he opted out after his junior season to enter the NFL draft, where he was a second rounder), center Matt Spanos and right tackle Drew Radovich, a 2-year starter. But things aren't as bleak as might be imagined. Because injuries forced all the 2007 starters but Byers to miss some games, a number of younger offensive linemen acquired valuable playing time last fall. That experience should propel them into starting jobs in 2008. Sophomore Butch Lewis started 3 mid-season games at left tackle for Baker last year (he's now at right tackle). Fellow sophomore Zack Heberer started twice in mid-2007 at right guard for Rachal. Soph Kristofer O'Dowd—a 2007 Freshman All-American first team selection—started 3 early contests at center for Spanos, becoming the first USC true freshman to start at center (as well as only the third Trojan true freshman to start a post-World War II opener on the offensive line). Junior Charles Brown started the 2007 opener at right tackle for Radovich, but he's now at left tackle). Also vying for playing time are 3 little-used juniors—guard Thomas Herring, tackle Nick Howell (his father, Pat, was a USC All-American and NFL star guard) and tackle-center-guard Alex Parsons—plus redshirt freshmen Martin Coleman, a guard-tackle, and tackle-center Michael Reardon. Sophomore Derek Simmons (2 tac in 2007) was moved this fall from defensive tackle to offensive guard. Freshman guard Matt Meyer, a prep All-American who graduated a semester early from high school, enrolled at USC this past spring and participated in spring drills. So did junior walk-on center-guard Garrett Nolan, an All-State junior college transfer who previously played at Holy Cross. Joining the fray this fall as freshmen was a trio of prep All-Americans: guard Khaled Holmes and tackles Matt Kalil and Tyron Smith. The older brothers of Holmes (Alex) and Kalil (Ryan) played football recently for the Trojans and then in the NFL. Also new this fall were a pair of walk-ons in junior center-tackle Steve Gatena, who started at UC Davis in 2007, and freshman center Abe Markowitz.

—Brown, Byers, O'Dowd, Heberer and Lewis started at Virginia.

DEFENSIVE OVERVIEW

Seven defensive starters returned from 2007: linebackers Rey Mauluga and Brian Cushing, safeties Taylor Mays and Kevin Ellison, cornerback Cary Harris, tackle Fili Moala and end Kyle Moore. Others back with starting experience are safety-cornorback Josh Pinkard, linebackers Kaluka Maiava and Clay Matthews, end Everson Griffen, cornerbacks Kevin Thomas and Shareece Wright and safety Shane Horton (while at UNLV). The 2008 Trojans are looking to replicate the stinginess of last year's unit, which was second nationally in both total defense (273.2) and scoring defense (16.0), as well as fourth in rushing defense (84.2) and sixth in pass efficiency defense (102.1). USC also was third nationally in sacks (3.5), 11th in tackles for a loss (7.7) and 15th in pass defense (189.0). Troy allowed a national-low 9 TD passes in 2007. Opponents averaged just 4.1 yards per play (including only 2.5 per rush) last fall. But performing at that level could be a challenge this year, as 5 of USC's top 9 tacklers from 2007 are gone, as are last year's leaders in interceptions, sacks, tackles for losses, fumble recoveries, forced fumbles and deflections. Most importantly, the Trojans are aiming to get back to the hallmark of coach Pete Carroll defenses: a high positive number in turnover margin (for the second year in a row, USC was just mediocre in this area in 2007).

DEFENSIVE LINEMEN

The biggest area of concern on defense in 2008 is rebuilding the line, which lost 2 of the best defensive linemen in school history: nose tackle Sedrick Ellis and end Lawrence Jackson. Ellis, a 2-time All-American who was the 2007 Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year and a 2-time Morris Trophy recipient, posted 28.5 tackles for a loss and 17.5 sacks in his career. Jackson, who owns the USC game records for tackles for a loss (5.5) and sacks (4), was a 4-year starter who had 52 tackles for a loss and 30.5 sacks in his career. Both were NFL first round draftees. Two starting linemen do return and both are steady seniors: tackle Fili Moala, who will be in the lineup for his third season, and end Kyle Moore. Competing for time at the open nose tackle spot are junior Averell Spicer and sophomore Christian Tupou. Both have loads of potential but minimal experience. Also available at tackle is redshirt freshman DaJohn Harris. Sophomore Everson Griffen (2 tac in 2008), a 2007 Freshman All-American first team choice, has the inside track at the vacant end job. He started twice last year and was the first USC true frosh defensive lineman to start an opener since 1986. Other ends looking to get in the mix are senior Gerald Washington (1 FR in 2008) and redshirt freshman Trey Henderson (he can also play tackle), plus senior Andrew Weiss, a one-time walk-on who earned a scholarship in this fall (he's a converted offensive tackle). Also, senior linebacker Clay Matthews (6 tac, 1 for loss, 1 sack, 2 FR, 1 FF in 2008) might be used as a stand-up end in certain defensive formations. Coming aboard this fall as freshmen were tackles Armond Armstead (1 tac in 2008) and Jurrell Casey and ends Wes Horton, Malik Jackson (2 tac, 1 tac for loss, 1 sack, 1 FF in 2008) and Nick Perry. Jackson currently is 16th nationally in sacks (1.0, tied for second in Pac-10). Armstead, Horton and Perry were prep All-Americans.

—Jackson had 2 tackles (with a sack) and forced a fumble at Virginia, while, Griffen also had 2 tackles, Armstead had 1 stop and Washington recovered a fumble.

LINEBACKERS

Once again, USC is loaded at every linebacker spot. That's saying a lot considering the Trojans lost 2007 All-American Keith Rivers, a 3-year starter on the weak side who had 240 career tackles, and utility man Thomas Williams, who made 14 career starts while playing every linebacker position. Rivers was chosen in the NFL draft's first round, while Williams was a fifth rounder. Headlining the linebacker corps are 2-time All-Pac-10 first teamer Rey Mauauluga (3 tac in 2008) in the middle and Brian Cushing (2 tac, 0.5 for loss, 1 dfl in 2008) on the strong side. Both seniors have been honored as Rose Bowl Defensive MVPs (Mauauluga last season and Cushing the previous year) and both are All-American and Butkus Award candidates in 2008. Mauauluga, USC's tackle leader in 2007, has 196 career stops. Senior Kaluka Maiava (6 tac, 1 for loss in 2008), who has started 3 times in his career, has assumed Rivers' spot on the weak side. Pushing for time is junior Luthur Brown, who is able to play any linebacker position. Fellow senior Clay Matthews (6 tac, 1 for loss, 1 sack, 2 FR, 1 FF in 2008), the son of the former Trojan All-American and NFL star of the same name, started twice last year for an injured Cushing and is versatile enough to play any spot. He might also be used as a stand-up end in certain defensive formations. Matthews currently is 16th nationally in sacks (1.0, tied for second in Pac-10). Other linebackers fighting to see action are junior Nick Garratt (1 tac in 2008), a one-time walk-on who earned a scholarship this fall, sophomores Michael Morgan and Malcolm Smith (3 tac in 2008), the brother of ex-Trojan All-American wide receiver and Super Bowl champion Steve Smith, and redshirt freshmen Chris Galippo, who missed most of 2007 with a back injury, and converted fullback Jordan Campbell. Also available is sophomore walk-on Dan Deckas. Galippo and Deckas are middle linebackers, while the others play on the outside. Freshman prep All-American Uona Kaveinga (1 tac, 1 for loss in 2008) and frosh walk-on Ross Cumming also got thrown into the mix this fall.

—At Virginia, Matthews had 2 fumble recoveries and a forced fumble to go with his game-best 6 tackles (with a sack), while Maiava also had 6 tackles (1 for a loss), Smith added 3 stops, Mauauluga and Cushing each had 2 tackles (Cushing had 0.5 for a loss), Kaveinga had a tackle for a loss and Campbell and Garratt each had a tackle.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

The Trojan secondary should be in good shape in 2008, despite losing lockdown cornerback Terrell Thomas, who had 8 career interceptions (he was chosen in the fifth round of the NFL draft). Seven defensive backs have starting experience. Both safeties are starting for their third seasons and could earn All-American and Thorpe Award acclaim in the fall: 2007 All-American first team free safety Taylor Mays (6 tac, 1.5 for loss, 1 dfl in 2008), a junior, and 2007 All-Pac-10 first team strong safety Kevin Ellison (2 tac, 2 dfl in 2008), a senior. Dependable senior Cary Harris (3 tac, 1 for loss, 1 dfl in 2008) returned at a cornerback spot. Junior Shareece Wright (5 tac in 2008), who started once last year, has won the vacant corner job. But 2 others coming off injuries are challenging for time: senior Josh Pinkard (2 tac in 2008), a 2005 starter (primarily at cornerback) who started the 2006 opener at free safety before knee injuries sidelined him since then (he can also play safety and figures to be USC's nickel back), and junior Kevin Thomas (1 tac, 1 int in 2008), who started twice in 2006 but hasn't played since then because of foot, ankle and shoulder injuries. Thomas currently is 11th nationally in interceptions (1.0, tied for second in Pac-10). There are also 3 walk-on cornerbacks in junior Matthew Jordan, sophomore Omari Crittenden and redshirt freshman Daniel Harper. Other safeties battling for action are junior Will Harris and soph Marshall Jones (1 tac in 2008), plus walk-ons Justin Hart, a junior, sophomore Robert Erickson and redshirt freshman Spencer Spiegel. Sophomore safety Shane Horton, the older brother of Trojan defensive end Wes Horton, transferred to USC this past spring from UNLV, but he'll have to sit out the 2008 season because of NCAA transfer rules. He started 6 games for the Rebels as a first-year freshman last year, getting 35 tackles and an interception. This fall, Brian Baucham and prep All-American T.J. Bryant at cornerback and Drew McAllister at safety entered the competition as freshmen, along with walk-on freshman safety Ryan McMahon.

—At Virginia, Mays had a game-high 6 tackles (1.5 for losses) and a deflection, Wright added 5 tackles, Cary Harris had 3 tackles (1 for a loss), Ellison had 2 tackles and 2 deflections, Pinkard had 2 stops, Thomas had a tackle and an interception and Jones had a tackle.

SPECIAL TEAMS OVERVIEW

USC's punter (Greg Woidneck), placekicker (David Buehler) and top kickoff (Ronald Johnson) and punt (Joe McKnight) returners from last year are back in 2008, but there is a new snapper and holder. Troy is looking to improve in all facets of special teams, as none were exceptionally "special" in 2007. The Trojans were decent on kick returns and placekicking last year, but were in the nation's bottom 20 in net punting (partly because 3 punts were blocked) and punt returns and yielded a scoring kickoff return.

SPECIALISTS

Senior Greg Woidneck (36.0 avg in 2008) returned for his third season as USC's punter. Although 40% of his punts pinned opponents within the 20-yard line last fall, he is looking to improve his distance and eliminate blocked punts (he's had 4 in his career, including 3 last year). Backing him is sophomore walk-on Billy O'Malley. Strong-legged senior placekicker David Buehler (7-of-7 PAT and 1-of-1 FG in 2008) is handling all the kicks again this year and could be among the top kickers in the nation. He has hit 18-of-21 field goals in his career, including 4-of-6 of 40-plus yards. In 2008, 3 of his 9 kickoffs were touchbacks and 5 pinned foes within the 20-yard line. Last season, 18 of his 84 kickoffs were touchbacks (including 5 in the Rose Bowl) and 35 pinned foes within the 20-yard line. Behind him are walk-ons Jordan Congdon, a junior who was Nebraska's kicker in 2004 and 2005, and sophomore Joe Houston. Believe it or not, a crucial position that USC needs to fill in 2008 is at long snapper now that 4-year starter Will Collins, who performed flawlessly in his career, is gone. Sophomore tight end Cooper Stephenson (the one-time walk-on earned a scholarship past this spring) emerged from spring practice with the job snapping to the punter. Enrolling this fall as a freshman was Chris Pousson and he'll snap on placekicks. Like at snapper, USC is breaking in a new holder on placekicks in 2008 after the graduation of 2-year holder Michael McDonald. Senior punter Greg Woidneck takes over, backed by junior quarterback-wide receiver Garrett Green. USC's top returners from last season are back in 2008. Sophomore wide receiver Ronald Johnson (2 KOR, 25 yds, 12.5 avg in 2008) topped Troy in kickoffs and already ranks 11th on the all-time Trojan kick return list. Soph tailback Joe McKnight (3 PR, 28 yds, 9.3 avg in 2008) led the team in punt returns and was employed whenever punts were expected to reach midfield, although gone is sure-handed tailback Desmond Reed, who was used when punts had to be fielded deep in Trojan territory (he also returned some kickoffs and ended up ranked 17th on that USC career list). McKnight could also be used on kickoff returns. Also experienced on kickoffs is sophomore tailback C.J. Gable, who is 20th on the Trojan career kickoff return ladder. Junior tailback Stafon Johnson and redshirt freshman wide receiver Brandon Carswell (1 KOR, 14 yds, 14.0 avg in 2008) are also available to return punts.

—At Virginia, Buehler hit all 7 of his PATs and a 20-yard field goal, plus 5 of his 9 kickoffs pinned the Cavaliers within the 20-yard line (with 3 touchbacks), while Woidneck averaged 36.0 yards on his 2 punts (1 pinning the Cavs within the 20).

ASSISTANT COACHES

USC's continuity in 2008 should be helped because the coaching staff remained intact from 2007, except for the loss of secondary graduate assistant Demetric Martin (he was replaced by former Trojan and NFL cornerback Kris Richard). USC's holdovers maintained their same job responsibilities as in 2007: Steve Sarkisian (assistant head coach/offensive coordinator/quarterbacks), Nick Holt (defensive coordinator/defensive line), Todd McNair (running backs/special teams coordinator), Pat Ruel (offensive line), Brennan Carroll (tight ends/recruiting coordinator), Ken Norton Jr. (linebackers), Rocky Seto (secondary), David Watson (defensive line), John Morton (passing game coordinator/wide receivers) and Yogi Roth (quarterbacks graduate assistant).

The 2008 season marks the 80th anniversary of USC's first national championship team (1928) and the 30th anniversary of the 1978 national championship squad (USC's last title prior to the Pete Carroll era). The 1928 team went 9-0-1 (the blemish was a scoreless tie at California) under coach Howard Jones, posted Troy's first-ever win over Notre Dame and was led by the likes of All-Americans Jess Hibbs and Don Williams. Coach John Robinson's 1978 Trojans were 12-1 (losing at Arizona State), recorded victories over Top 10 teams Alabama, Notre Dame and Michigan and featured players such as All-Americans Charles White and Pat Howell, plus Paul McDonald, Brad Budde, Anthony Munoz, Dennis Johnson, Rich Dimler, Ronnie Lott and Marcus Allen.

It covers all 19 of USC's men's and women's sports, with an emphasis on football and basketball. Nearly all of USC's home sporting events are shown live, and include pre- and post-game shows. Most home and road football, basketball and other games that are aired live on commercial or cable television networks, and thereby protected contractually from live coverage elsewhere, are replayed almost immediately upon their conclusion on Trojan All-Access. Also featured on Trojan All-Access are daily post-practice reports, live coverage of head football coach Pete Carroll's Tuesday and post-game press conferences and video blogs (USCTrojans.com/blogs) centered around key USC athletes and teams, as well as coverage of breaking news pertaining to Trojan athletics. A vault of historic USC football games, dating to the 1930s, is available for viewing, as is other archived Trojan sports programming. There is live "GameTracker" statistical coverage of many USC's events. USCTrojans.com also continues to feature extensive historical material and an online athletic merchandise store and ticket office.

USC president Steven Sample has issued the following message to Trojan fans regarding good sportsmanship in the Coliseum: "Dear Friends of Trojan Football: The Coliseum is 'our house' on game days. I hope you are as committed as I am to being good hosts. You set the example: The way you cheer our team and show respect to your fellow fans (including those of the opposing team) has a powerful influence on everyone around you. Only a small number of fans—most of them not USC students or alumni—cause trouble at games. However, those being subjected to boorish behavior or abusive language certainly don't take the time to discover the offenders' affiliation to USC. Crass fans sully the game for everyone. The best way for us to be good hosts is, first, to model good sportsmanship and civility and, second, to refuse to tolerate other spectators' bad or unruly behavior. If you see someone disrupting others' enjoyment of the game, please alert a Coliseum usher or security staff. You also can report inappropriate behavior by calling 213-765-8525. Let's enjoy the games and show our true Trojan spirit by setting a tone of sportsmanship and civility. Fight On!"

Head coach Pete Carroll has his own website, PeteCarroll.com. It offers an exclusive window into the Trojan football program, complete with an hour-by-hour blog and behind-the-scenes photos and stories. Run by former Daily Trojan sportswriter-turned-USC walk-on wide receiver Ben Malcolmson, PeteCarroll.com features a variety of Carroll-related information, multimedia, merchandise, and fan club memberships that include exclusive benefits. Proceeds benefit "A Better LA," the non-profit organization the Carroll helped found to help reduce gang violence in Los Angeles.

In 2003, head coach Pete Carroll helped develop "A Better L.A.," a non-profit group consisting of a consortium of local agencies and organizations working to reduce gang violence by empowering change in individuals and communities. For more information, go to ABetterLA.com. In the fall of 2008, he helped organize "LA LivePeace 08," a march and rally at the Coliseum to promote gang intervention and non-violence in Los Angeles.

USC's current head coaches in football (Pete Carroll) and baseball (Chad Kreuter) both attended the same high school (Redwood High in Larkspur, Calif.).

Strength and conditioning coach Chris Carlisle has beaten cancer. He learned he had Hodgkin's Disease in December of 2000, began radiation treatments in Tennessee (where he was still the Volunteers' associate strength and conditioning coach), was hired by USC in February of 2001, kept his illness a secret except to Trojan head coach Pete Carroll, continued treatments in Tennessee and at USC/Norris Comprehensive Cancer Center and Hospital, then doctors told him in the summer of 2001 that the cancer was in remission. He informed the USC players of his ordeal at the start of fall 2001 camp. He was 1 of 17 nominees for the 2003 Most Courageous Award presented by the Football Writers Association of America and 1 of 11 nominees for the 2005 award.
