TOP-RANKED, DEFENDING NATIONAL CHAMP USC FOOTBALL OPENS 2004 SEASON VS. VIRGINIA TECH IN D.C.

FACTS

USC (0-0 overall) vs. Virginia Tech (0-0), Black Coaches Association Football Classic, Saturday, Aug. 28, 7:45 p.m. EDT/4:45 p.m. PDT, FedEx Field, Landover, Md.

THEMES

For the first time since 1979, the USC football team enters a season as the defending national champion and the pre-season No. 1 pick. The Trojans, who'll be the home team despite being thousands of miles from Los Angeles, will attempt to protect their 9-game winning streak when they meet perennial power Virginia Tech. It's the first game of the 2004 college season. It's also the first matchup between the schools, only the second time USC has played in Maryland and just the seventh time Troy has competed in August. Although USC has been so-so historically against Atlantic Coast Conference foes, it usually fares well both when top-ranked and in openers (especially in openers coming off a national title campaign). Virginia Tech will be playing its first game as a member of the ACC, having come over from the Big East. Pete Carroll, the 2003 National Coach of the Year, will bring in a Trojan team capable of an explosive offense, a stifling defense and a potent kicking game. All-American signalcaller Matt Leinart, a leading contender for the Heisman Trophy, will attempt to better his record-setting 2003 season. The rushing attack will be led by the "Thunder and Lightning" tailback duo of LeDale White and Reggie Bush. All-American Shaun Cody headlines a defense that also includes the likes of Matt Grootegoed, Mike Patterson and Lofa Tatupu. Tom Malone was a record-breaking All-American punter last year. Yet, some questions remain for USC: Can the relatively-inexperienced offensive line do its job? Will the young receiving corps step up? How will the cornerbacks play? What's the playing status of several key Trojans? Has USC been able to maintain its focus despite the hype and off-season distractions? Virginia Tech, noted for 18th-year head coach Frank Beamer's "Beamer Ball" style that produces touchdowns by its defense and special teams, returns only 9 starters, including talented quarterback Bryan Randall and cornerback Jimmy Williams. The game is a sellout in 91,655-seat Fed Ex Field, but it will be shown live nationally in prime time on ESPN (on whose air USC is making a rare appearance).

PAC-10 COACHES TELECONFERENCE—Pac-10 football coaches are available for 10 minutes each on a media teleconference beginning at 10 a.m. (PDT) every Tuesday (through Nov. 16) during the season. USC coach Pete Carroll comes on at 10:40 a.m. (PST). Beginning at 2:30 p.m. (PDT) each of those Tuesdays, a taped replay of the teleconference is available until the next call. Call the Pac-10 office (925-932-4411) or USC sports information office (213-740-8480) to obtain the media-only phone numbers for the Pac-10 Coaches Teleconference.

PETE CARROLL MEDIA LUNCHEON—USC head coach Pete Carroll hosts a media-only luncheon in the Heritage Hall lounge at 11:30 a.m. (PDT) each Tuesday during the season (except bye weeks). Transcribed quotes from each session are available from the USC sports information office.

PETE CARROLL/MATT LEINART TELECONFERENCE—USC head coach Pete Carroll and quarterback Matt Leinart will be on a media-only conference call on Tuesday (Aug. 24) at 11:30 a.m. (PDT). Call the USC Sports Information Office (213-740-8480) for the phone number and passcode.

RANKINGS

USC is ranked first by AP and USA Today/ESPN. Virginia Tech is not ranked.

SERIES

This is the first meeting between USC and Virginia Tech.

VERSUS ACC

USC is 7-6 all-time against current Atlantic Coast Conference teams: 3-0 versus Duke, 1-0 versus Clemson, 2-1 vs. Georgia Tech, 1-1 versus Miami (Fla.) and 0-2 against both Florida State and North Carolina. USC's last game against an ACC opponent was a 30-10 loss at Florida State in 1998.

LAST TIME PRE-SEASON NO. 1/DEFENDING NATIONAL CHAMPS

USC last opened a season with a No. 1 AP ranking in 1979, which was also the last time it entered a season as the defending national champion (having won the UPI crown in 1978). The Trojans posted an 11-0-1 record in 1979 (the only blemish was a 21-21 tie against Stanford) to finish second in the AP poll.

USC IN OPENERS AFTER A NATIONAL CROWN

USC has an 8-0-1 record in season openers immediately following its national championship seasons. The average score of those games was 31.1 to 5.3, with 5 shutouts. The list:

1929—USC 76, UCLA 0
1932—USC 35, Utah 0
1933—USC 39, Occidental 0
1940—USC 14, Washington State 14
1963—USC 14, Colorado 0
1968—USC 29, Minnesota 20
1973—USC 17, Arkansas 0
1975—USC 35, Duke 7
1979—USC 21, Texas Tech 7

OPENERS

USC's record in all season openers is 80-23-8 (.757), with 36 shutout victories. In season openers on the road, the Trojans are 23-7-1 (.758). In its first road game of each season, USC is 72-27-8 (.710).

USC IN MARYLAND

This will be only USC's second game ever in the state of Maryland. In 1950, the Trojans lost to Navy, 27-14, in Baltimore's Memorial Stadium.

IN AUGUST

USC has a 4-2 mark in games played in August (all since 1990), including a 23-0 season-opening victory at Auburn last season (Aug. 30).

WIN STREAKS

The Trojans have captured their last 15 home games (with 2 shutouts). That's USC's longest Coliseum win streak since getting 19 in a row during the 1931 through 1933 campaigns. Besides that Pac-10 leading 15-game home winning streak, USC also has the longest current Pac-10 win streaks for overall games (9), Pac-10 games (7) and road games (5).

HIGH RANKING

USC has been ranked in the AP Top 10 for its past 19 games, its longest string since 34 in a row in 1978-80. The Trojans have been in the AP Top 5 in 14 of the last 18 polls.

RECORD WHEN NO. 1

USC has a 36-4-2 (.881) record games when it is ranked No. 1 by AP. When a No. 1-ranked Trojan team faces an unranked opponent, it is 22-1-1 (.938).

CONNECTIONS

USC has no players from Virginia or Maryland, while Virginia Tech claims 1 California native (DE Jordan Trott)...USC quarterbacks coach Carl Smith was the quarterbacks/wide receivers coach with the USFL champion Baltimore Stars in 1984 and 1985...OT Kyle Williams' uncle, Eric Williams, played for the Washington Redskins from 1990 to 1993 (including on the 1991 Super Bowl champs).

LAST YEAR

USC was named the 2003 national champion by Associated Press, Football Writers Association of America, The Sporting News, New York Times, ESPN.com, SI.com, CBS.SportsLine.com, Collegefootballnews.com and several other organizations. Last year's record-setting team won its last 9 games en route to a 12-1 overall mark. Troy captured its second consecutive Pac-10 title (going 7-1) and beat Michigan in the Rose Bowl to secure its 10th national crown (its first in 25 years). Along the way, USC swept traditional rivals UCLA and Notre Dame for the second year in a row (only the second time it has ever done that in back-to-back seasons). All of that came on the heels of USC's nearly-as-successful 2002 campaign that ended with an 11-2 mark, a victory in the Orange Bowl and a No. 4 final ranking. The Trojans have won 20 of their last 21 games (and their past 15 home contests) and have been dominant on both sides of the ball. Offensively, Troy has scored at least 20 points in the past 26 outings, with stretches of 11 consecutive 30-point games and 7 straight 40-point performances, and last year scored a Pac-10 record 534 points. And the Trojan defense—whose +1.33 turnover margin and +111 takeaways in Carroll's first 3 seasons are best in the nation—topped the country in 2003 in rushing defense. Last year, 2 Trojans finished in the Top 10 in the Heisman Trophy balloting, 5 were All-American first team selections and 9 were All-Pac-10 first teamers.

SCHEDULE

USC will defend its national championship against a schedule that features 6 opponents who played in bowls last season. The challenge starts right away, as the Trojans open on Aug. 28 against perennial power Virginia Tech in the Black Coaches Association Football Classic in Landover, Md. USC then hosts Colorado State and travels to BYU and Stanford before having a trio of home games (California, Arizona and Washington) followed by another pair of road contests (Washington State and Oregon State). The Trojans—who have 3 byes in 2004 for the second consecutive year—then return home to host Arizona and Notre Dame before concluding their season on "Championship Saturday" (Dec. 4) at UCLA. It's a schedule that could help USC better the average overall (72,806) and home (77,804) attendance school records it set last year...and gives credence to the Trojan marketing department's 2004 slogan of "Still The Hottest Ticket In Town."

1979 DÉJÀ VU?

There were numerous similarities between last year's national champion Trojans and the USC team from 25 years earlier, the 1978 national champs. This year, again there are many coincidental repeats between the 2004 Trojans and the USC team from 25 years earlier, the 1979 squad that went 11-0-1 and finished No. 2 in the polls. As in 2004, that 1979 team was a pre-season No. 1 coming off a controversial split national title shared with an SEC team (Alabama) and a Rose Bowl win over a Top 5 Michigan team, and was led by a head coach in his fourth year at the helm (John Robinson). More similarities for both teams: the opener against a "Tech" team (Texas Tech, Virginia Tech), an efficient left-handed quarterback in his second year as a starter (Paul McDonald, Matt Leinart) who set the school touchdown pass record the previous season, a running back named White (Charles, who wore 12, and LenDale, who is No. 21), a player named Mike McDonald (this year's Mike is the son of the 1979 quarterback, Paul), a highly-touted freshman receiver from New Jersey (Timmy White, Dwayne Jarrett), a record-breaking receiver named Williams (Kevin then, maybe Mike now!), a top Heisman candidate (Charles White, Matt Leinart) and a No. 1-ranked recruiting class. Also, eerily, the previous season for both squads featured a Heisman winner from Oklahoma who returned for his final year (Billy Sims, Jason White).

RETURNING TROJANS

The Trojans return 13 starters (5 on offense and 6 on defense, plus both kickers) from last year. In all, 72 squadmen return from last year's national championship team, including 51 who saw playing time in 2003 (46 were lettermen and 30 were on the season-ending 2-deep). Some 22 Trojans have started at least once in their career. Joining them are 22 new scholarship players, including 3 who enrolled at USC this past spring and participated in spring practice. They comprise what many are saying is the school's second consecutive No. 1 recruiting class in the nation.

GONE FROM 2002

Key losses from the offense are wide receiver Keary Colbert, a 4-year starter who set the USC career receptions record (207), and a trio of experienced linemen: All-American tackle Jacob Rogers (a 3-year starter), All-Pac-10 center Norm Katnik (a 3-year starter) and guard Lenny Vandermade (a 4-year starter). Gone from the defense are All-American end Kenechi Udeze, a 3-year starter who left after his junior season to enter the NFL draft (he was the nation's sack co-leader in 2003 when he had 16.5 sacks, 26 tackles for loss and 5 forced fumbles), and fellow end Omar Nazel (a 2-year starter), plus both starting cornerbacks (All-Pac-10er Will Poole, who had 7 interceptions and 80 tackles in 2003, and Marcell Allmond, who led USC to an 18-1 mark when he started in the secondary, and 2-year starting outside linebacker Melvin Simmons).

USC'S NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

USC has won 10 national championships in football: 1928-31-32-39-62-67-72-74-78-2003. In 5 other years (1929-33-76-79-2002), the Trojans were picked by some as No. 1, but the selectors were deemed not all-encompassing enough to claim a legitimate national crown.

PAC-10 TITLE

After sharing the Pac-10 championship in 2002, USC won the 2003 Pac-10 title outright (its first outright crown since 1989). That was the first time that USC won back-to-back Pac-10 titles since 1988 and 1989 (the Trojans also won it in 1987). USC has now won the league title 33 times, nearly twice as much as any other school.

PRE-SEASON RANKINGS...

FUN FACT

Although USC football games have been televised live 321 times overall, this will be just Troy's fifth appearance on ESPN. The Trojans sport a 3-1 record on ESPN's air, with wins in 1988 (Boston College), 1990 (Washington State) and 1991 (Oregon) and the loss coming in the last appearance in 1992 (UCLA).

QUOTABLE

OG John Drake, on USC's efforts to control his weight (350 pounds): "A terrorist has a better chance of walking through an airport than I do getting a cookie around here. They've got me on high alert. If somebody gives me food, they get fired."

PETE CARROLL

It took energetic and charismatic USC head football coach Pete Carroll only 3 years to restore the glory of the Trojan football program and return Troy to national prominence. He is 29-9 (76.3%) as a college head coach (all at USC). His losses were by a total of 42 points (4.7 average) and only 1 was by more than a touchdown (it was by 11 points). After starting off his Trojan career 2-5, he has gone 27-4 (87.1%). He is 10-0 in November. His teams already have posted 4 shutouts. He also serves as USC's defensive coordinator.

—The 2003 season—his third at Troy—was one of the best in USC history. The Trojans won the AP national championship (USC's first national crown since 1978) and entered the Rose Bowl also ranked No. 1 in the USA Today/ESPN poll but weren't allowed to keep the top spot after winning that bowl because of a contractual agreement which required the coaches to vote the Sugar Bowl winner as their poll's champion (USC ended up second). USC was 12-1 overall (the only loss was by 3 points at California in triple overtime) and, at 7-1 in the Pac-10, Troy won its second consecutive league title for the first time since 1988-89 (and its first outright crown since 1989). His Trojans won their last 9 games (and 20 of the last 21) and posted back-to-back seasons of double digit wins for the first time since 1978 and 1979. For just the second time in history (the other time also was 1978 and 1979), USC swept traditional rivals UCLA and Notre Dame in consecutive years. His 2003 squad featured a potent offense, a stingy defense and productive special teams. USC, which scored at least 20 points in its last 26 games (a school record), had a stretch of 11 consecutive 30-point games (also a school mark) and 7 straight 40-point contests (a Pac-10 record). USC's 534 points was a Pac-10 record. The defense led the nation in rushing defense and was second in turnover margin, forced 42 turnovers and scored 8 touchdowns. And the Trojans topped the nation in net punting. Five Trojans—wide receiver Mike Williams, offensive tackle Jacob Rogers, defensive end Kenechi Udeze, punter Tom Malone and quarterback Matt Leinart—were first team All-Americans (Leinart and Williams finished sixth and eighth, respectively, in the Heisman Trophy voting). For all this, Carroll was named the 2003 American Football Coaches Association Division I-A Coach of the Year, Home Depot National Coach of the Year, Maxwell Club College Coach of the Year, ESPN.com National Coach of the Year, Pigskin Club of Washington D.C. Coach of the Year and All-American Football Foundation Frank Leahy Co-Coach of the Year. He also was the Pac-10 Co-Coach of the Year (USC's first honoree since Larry Smith in 1988).

—In 2002, just his second season at USC, his Trojans thrived despite playing what was ranked by the NCAA, Sagarin and the BCS as the nation's most difficult schedule (facing 9 AP-ranked teams and 11 bowl squads). USC—which beat Iowa in the Orange Bowl—posted an 11-2 overall record and a No. 4 ranking in the final polls, and won the Pac-10 championship while going 7-1. The Trojans also won their last 9 home games. It was USC's first 11-win season since 1979 and its highest ranking since 1988. Troy won its final 8 games (scoring at least 30 points in each), including blow-outs of traditional rivals UCLA and Notre Dame (the first time USC beat both in the same season since 1981 and the first time in back-to-back games since 1978). USC led the Pac-10 in total offense (449.3) and total defense (284.9), as well as scoring offense (35.8) and scoring defense (18.5), and was in the NCAA's Top 25 in nearly every team statistical category on both sides of the ball. Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback Carson Palmer and safety Troy Polamalu were first team All-Americans.

—Carroll brought big doses of experience, enthusiasm and leadership in his quest to revive the USC football program when he was named the Trojans' head football coach on Dec. 15, 2000 (he signed a 5-year contract). After USC started off his opening 2001 season slowly at 1-4, Carroll stayed the course and got his troops to rally by winning 5 of their last 7 games (including the final 4 regular season contests) to finish at 6-6 overall. USC, which won its last 5 Pac-10 games after beginning league play at 0-3, placed fifth in the conference at 5-3 and earned a berth into the Sega Sports Las Vegas Bowl. Putting an exclamation point on the regular season was a 27-0 blanking of No. 20 UCLA, USC's first shut-out in the crosstown rivalry since 1947 and the series' biggest margin of victory since 1979.

—The 52-year-old Carroll has 29 years of NFL and college experience, including 13 on the college level. He was the head coach of the NFL's New England Patriots for 3 seasons (1997-99) and New York Jets for 1 year (1994). He guided the Patriots into the playoffs in his first 2 seasons, winning the AFC Eastern Division title at 10-6 in 1997 and advancing to the second round of the playoffs. His overall record in New England was 27-21 in the regular season and 1-2 in the playoffs. After serving as the Jets' defensive coordinator for 4 seasons (1990-93), he became the team's head coach the following season. His 1994 Jets went 6-10. He spent the next 2 years (1995-96) as the defensive coordinator with the San Francisco 49ers, who won the NFC

Western Division title both seasons. Carroll began his coaching career at the college level, serving as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Pacific, for 3 years (1974-76), working with the wide receivers and secondary. He then spent a season as a graduate assistant working with the secondary at Arkansas (1977), and then a season each as an assistant in charge of the secondary at Iowa State (1978) and at Ohio State (1979). That Buckeye squad lost to USC in the 1980 Rose Bowl. He next spent 3 seasons (1980-82) as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at North Carolina State, then returned to Pacific in 1983 as the assistant head coach and offensive coordinator. He entered the NFL in 1984 as the defensive backs coach of the Buffalo Bills, then held a similar position with the Minnesota Vikings for 5 seasons (1985-89). Carroll spent the 2000 season as a consultant for pro and college teams, doing charitable work for the NFL and writing a column about pro football for CNNSI.com.

—Carroll was a 2-time (1971-72) All-Pacific Coast Conference free safety at Pacific and earned his bachelor's degree in 1973 in business administration. He received his secondary teaching credential and a master's degree in physical education from Pacific in 1976. He was inducted into the Pacific Athletic Hall of Fame in 1995. He was born on Sept. 15, 1951 in San Francisco. He and his wife, Glenna, who played volleyball at Pacific, have 3 children: sons Brennan, 24, who played tight end at Pittsburgh (he previously played at Delaware) and is now an assistant at USC, and Nathan, 16, and daughter Jaime, 21, a senior at USC who played on the Women of Troy's highly-ranked volleyball team which competed in the 2000 NCAA Final Four.

OFFENSIVE OVERVIEW

Five starters return on offense in 2004: quarterback Matt Leinart, wide receiver Mike Williams, tailback Hershel Dennis, guard Fred Matua and fullback Brandon Hancock. Hancock (knee injury) likely won't play this season, while Williams' reinstatement status is still pending. Others back with starting experience include guard John Drake, tight end Dominique Byrd, fullbacks Lee Webb and David Kirtman, and wide receivers Chris McFoy and William Buchanon. USC's top 4 rushers (and 14 of its 17 ballcarriers), its top 4 passers and 14 of the 17 players who caught passes last year return in 2004. But this year's offense has a high standard to live up to: in 2003, the Trojans were fifth nationally in passing efficiency (159.1, first in Pac-10) and scoring offense (a school-record 41.4, first in Pac-10), 13th in passing offense (291.6, second in Pac-10) and 14th in total offense (447.5, second in Pac-10). And USC's rushing offense (155.9), though not nationally ranked, was its best since 1991. Troy scored 68 touchdowns and 534 points last year, both Pac-10 records, and its 6.5 yards per play average was a school record. As an indication of just how prolific USC's offense has become under coordinator Norm Chow, consider that the Trojans have scored at least 20 points in their last 26 games (a school record), including a stretch of 11 consecutive 30-points games (also a USC mark) and 7 straight 40-point contests (a Pac-10 record). And of Troy's 77 offensive scoring drives in 2003, 59 took less than 3 minutes.

LEINART

USC has perhaps the nation's top quarterback in record-setting All-American first teamer Matt Leinart (255-of-402, 63.4%, 3,556 yds, 38 TD, 9 int in 2003), a leading Heisman Trophy candidate. The junior finished sixth in last year's Heisman Trophy voting and was only the second sophomore (along with Stanford's John Elway) to win Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Year honors. The accurate and efficient left-handed Leinart came out of relative obscurity to more-than-capably fill the shoes of 2002 Heisman winner Carson Palmer. In the process, Leinart has thrust himself to the front of this year's Heisman race and is also a leading candidate for the Davey O'Brien Award. He gave an early indication of his talent when his first career pass went for a touchdown at Auburn in last fall's opener. He went on to throw a Pac-10 record 38 TDs (1 shy of the NCAA sophomore mark). His 164.5 passing efficiency rating ranked third nationally and was a USC record (he's the nation's top-rated returning passer). He set a Pac-10 season mark with 212 consecutive passes without an interception (just 4 throws short of the league's career record). And he punctuated USC's Rose Bowl victory over Michigan by catching a 15-yard scoring pass off a reverse.

OTHERQUARTERBACKS

Behind Matt Leinart is a stable of very capable backups. Sophomore John David Booty (7-of-14, 50.0%, 90 yds in 2003), believed to be the first football player to graduate a full year early from high school and enroll at a major Division I-A university when he did so last year, became Leinart's backup by the middle of the 2003 season before breaking his wrist late in the year. Then there's senior Brandon Hance (4-of-9, 44.4%, 44 yds in 2003), who started 9 games at Purdue in 2001 and was No. 2 at USC after Booty got hurt last year, as well as senior Matt Cassel (6-of-13, 46.2%, 63 yds in 2003), who has also spent time in his career at tight end and is a pitcher on the Trojan baseball team, junior Billy Hart, an infielder/outfielder on USC's baseball team (he has yet to throw a pass at USC and has seen only brief action in 2002), and walk-on redshirt freshman Michael McDonald, the son of ex-USC All-American quarterback Paul McDonald. Joining the signalcalling corps this fall as a freshman was prep All-American Rocky Hinds.

TAILBACKS

USC is loaded once again at the running back spots. Last fall, the Trojans used a rotation of 3 young tailbacks that worked so well, look for more of the same in 2004. The threesome combined for 1,906 rushing yards (146.6 yards a game) with 20 TDs in 2003; each rushed for at least 500 yards (the first time that had happened at USC since 1988) and averaged at least 4.8 yards per carry. Junior Hershel Dennis (137 tcb, 661 yds, 4.8 avg, 4 TD in 2003, plus 10 rec, 62 yds, 6.2 avg, 1 TD), the veteran of the group, started each game last year and was effective. He'd then give way to USC's "Thunder and Lightning" duo: LenDale White (141 tcb, team-high 754 yds, 5.3 avg, 13 TD in 2003, plus 6 rec, 15 yds, 2.3 avg, 1 TD) and Reggie Bush (90 tcb, 521 yds, 5.8 avg, 3 TD in 2003, plus 15 rec, 314 yds, 20.9 avg, 4 TD and team-best 18 KOR, 492 yds, 27.3 avg, 1 TD), now both sophomores. The bull-like White, who had a trio of 100-yard games last season, was the first true freshman to lead USC in rushing (his 754 yards were the second most by a Trojan frosh behind Charles White's 858 in 1976) and his 13 rushing TDs were a USC freshman mark (his 14 total TDs tied the USC frosh record). The electrifying Bush earned Freshman All-American first team honors as he set the USC freshman all-purpose yardage record (1,331 yards) and, as a hold-your-breath-when-he-gets-the-ball runner, had 24 plays of 20-plus yards in 2003. He was 10th nationally in kickoff returns (27.3, first in Pac-10) and had a scoring runback. Looking to break into the tailback rotation is quick redshirt freshman Desmond Reed, who worked at wide receiver and in the secondary last fall, along with a pair of walk-ons in junior Andre Woodert (3 tcb, 19 yds, 6.3 avg in 2003) and redshirt freshman John Griffin.

FULLBACKS

At fullback, fleet junior Brandon Hancock (1 tcb, -2 yds, -2.0 avg in 2003, plus 13 rec, 160 yds, 12.3 avg, 2 TD), a tough blocker and excellent receiver, was expected to return as the starter, but he'll likely miss 2004 while recuperating from knee surgery. So senior Lee Webb (9 tac, 1 FF in 2003, plus 4 tcb, 0 yds)—he started 5 times at fullback last year after seeing action at linebacker (where he played in 2001 and the first half of 2002)—will take over the starting job. Backing him will be junior David Kirtman (5 tcb, 23 yds, 4.6 avg in 2003, plus 5 rec., 28 yds, 5.6 avg), a rugged blocker who has starting experience and is a key special teamer, and redshirt freshman Jody Adewale, a converted tailback. Walk-on redshirt freshman Sean Kelly, another former tailback, also is available.

WILLIAMS

This past February when a court ruled that players didn't have to wait until after their third year out of high school to enter the NFL draft, All-American first teamer Mike Williams quickly decided to give up his final 2 seasons at Troy and go pro. But he was not selected because of a judicial stay on that ruling, which was then overturned. So he sought to have his collegiate eligibility restored (as of late-August, the NCAA hadn't ruled). In his 2-year Trojan career, Williams has 176 receptions for 2,579 yards and a USC record 30 touchdowns. He has 12 100-yard receiving games in his career. He averages a touchdown every 6.1 times he touches the ball. As a sophomore in 2003 when he placed eighth in the Heisman balloting, he had 95 catches for 1,314 yards (his second consecutive 1,000-yard season) and a USC record 16 TDs. He was sixth nationally in receptions (7.3, second in Pac-10) and 10th in receiving yards (101.1, third in Pac-10) in 2003. He'll long be remembered for his spectacular one-handed, Frisbee-like TD grab against Oregon State last fall. As a 2002 freshman, he set NCAA frosh records for receiving yards (1,265) and TD catches (14) and the Pac-10 frosh mark for receptions (81).

OTHER WIDE RECEIVERS

It's always difficult to lose a player the caliber of 4-year starter Keary Colbert, USC's career receptions leader (207) who had 1,000-yard receiving seasons the past 2 years (including 1,013 yards and 9 TDs on 69 catches in 2003). His underrated, yet steady, ability—remember his highlight reel touchdown grabs against Michigan in last season's Rose Bowl—made it unwise for teams to double-cover Mike Williams. Colbert was selected in the NFL's second round. But there's a host of talented players hoping to fill the void: promising sophomores Steve Smith (17 rec, 319 yds, 18.8 avg, 2 TD in 2003), who was USC's No. 3 wideout last fall, and Chris McFoy (2 rec, 23 yds, 12.5 avg in 2003), senior Jason Mitchell (2 rec, 27 yds, 13.5 avg in 2003), and juniors Greig Carlson, who was USC's top punt returner last season (21 PR, 188 yds, 9.0 avg in 2003), and one-time corner back William Buchanan (3 tac, 1 dfl, 1 int in 2003). Walk-ons Wil Smith, a sophomore, and redshirt freshman John Zilka are also available. Three of the nation's top recruits could make an immediate impact as freshmen (all were prep All-Americans). Fred Davis graduated a semester early from high school and enrolled at USC this past spring (he can also play tight end). Dwayne Jarrett and Derrick Jones came in this fall. There's also walk-on freshman Brad Walker, the cousin of current Trojan tight end Kurt Katnik.

TIGHT ENDS

Another deep unit for USC in 2004—7 deep, in fact—is the tight ends corps. Senior Gregg Guenther Jr. (17 rec, 167 yds, 9.8 avg, 2 TD in 2003, plus 1 blk FG) became the starter by mid-2003 and performed well. USC's tallest player at 6-8, once football season concluded he would change into a basketball jersey and star for the Trojan hoopsters. However, he'll concentrate solely on basketball in his senior season. Junior Dominique Byrd (14 rec, 268 yds, 19.1 avg, 1 TD in 2003) started the first half of 2003 and was impressive before suffering a season-ending knee injury (he missed 2004 spring drills while recuperating, then broke his kneecap a week before 2004 fall camp and is sidelined). Senior Alex Holmes, who has 58 career catches, is back after sitting out last fall with a back injury. He started all of 2002 and has won back his job in 2004. Also in the mix are sophomore ex-center Kurt Katnik (1 rec, 13 yds, 13.0 avg in 2003), plus sophomore Nick Vanderboom, a one-time walk-on who earned a scholarship this fall. Coming aboard this fall as freshmen were 3 prep All-Americans: Eugene Germany, Jimmy Miller and Dale Thompson.

OFFENSIVE LINEMEN

A key to USC's success in 2004 will be the play of the partially-rebuilt offensive line, which could be the biggest in Trojan history (there are 8 linemen who weigh at least 300 pounds). There will be an entirely new left side and middle, as 10 years of starting experience must be replaced now that 2003 All-American first team left tackle Jacob Rogers (3-year starter), who was a second round NFL pick, plus All-Pac-10 first team center Norm Katnik (3-year starter) and left guard Lenny Vandermade (4-year starter) are gone. Last year, USC allowed just 1.2 sacks a game (its lowest average since 1987). Also, junior tackle Winston Justice, who from his right side spot protects Leinart's blind side, was slated to start for his third year and be an All-American candidate. But he was ineligible for this past spring's practice and will not participate in the 2004 season because of a student conduct violation. Sophomore Fred Matua started most of last season at right guard and brings a defensive lineman's mentality to the offensive front. He likely will start again, as could senior guard John Drake. After transferring from a junior college, Drake had moved into the lineup by mid-2003, where he split 7 starting assignments between rightside guard and tackle. He proved to be a load at 350 pounds before breaking his ankle late in the year (he missed 2004 spring drills while recuperating). A new center must emerge, with sophomore Ryan Kalil holding an edge over first-year freshman Jeff Byers, a prep All-American who was the national high school player of the year in 2003, and junior walk-on Ross Burrue. Competing for time at guard are senior Travis Watkins, sophomore walk-on John Lanza, sophomore junior college transfer Alatini Malu, who enrolled at USC this spring, freshman Travis Draper (originally a 2003 signee, he didn't enroll at USC until this spring), and prep All-American Chilo Rachal, a first-year freshman who also can play tackle. In the hunt for the tackle jobs are sophomore Kyle Williams and redshirt freshmen Sam Baker, Drew Radovich and Matt Spanos, plus 370-pound junior Taitusi Lutui, a J.C. All-American transfer this fall. Lutui and Williams have the edge on the right side, while Baker should start on the left.

DEFENSIVE OVERVIEW

Six defensive starters return from 2003: end-tackle Shaun Cody, tackle Mike Patterson, linebackers Matt Grootegeod and Lofa Tatupu and safeties Darnell Bing and Jason Leach. Others back with starting experience include cornerbacks Ronald Nunn and Kevin Arbet, linebacker Dallas Sartz, end Frostee Rucker and linebacker Collin Ashton. USC's top 2 tacklers (and 4 of its top 5) return from a 2003 defense that was first nationally in rushing defense (a school-record 60.2), second in turnover margin (+1.5) and tied for 17th in scoring defense (18.4), all Pac-10 bests. It was the third consecutive year that Troy led the league in scoring defense. Opponents averaged just 1.8 yards per carry against the Trojans last fall, a school record and 2003 national low. USC's defense last season posted a national-best 55 sacks, forced 42 turnovers and scored 8 touchdowns (and had 2 safeties). USC has intercepted a pass in 22 of the last 23 games, held 20 of its past 26 opponents to less than 100 rushing yards (and allowed only 1 player to crack the 100-yard rushing barrier in the last 25 contests) and had a stretch of 22 consecutive quarters without allowing a rushing touchdown. The Trojans have done a superb job of getting turnovers under Carroll, as their +1.33 turnover margin and +111 takeaways the past 3 seasons are the best marks in the nation.

DEFENSIVE LINEMEN

USC's highly-regarded "Wild Bunch II" defensive line of the past 2 years is now down to "Wild Bunch ½," as veteran starting ends Kenechi Udeze and Omar Nazel are gone. All-American first teamer Udeze—a 3-year starter and Hendricks Award finalist who tied for the national lead in sacks in 2003 while posting 56 tackles, 16.5 sacks, 26 tackles for loss and 5 forced fumbles—opted to skip his senior year and head to the NFL, where he was a first round pick. Nazel, the defense's vocal leader, was a 2-year starter who last year notched 27 tackles, including 6.5 for loss (with 4 sacks), 2 fumble recoveries and an interception. But all is not lost, as 2 starters return...and they're among the nation's best. Both are battle-tested seniors and are All-American nominees after winning All-Pac-10 first team honors last fall. Shaun Cody (26 tac, 10.5 for loss, 6 sack, 1 FF, 1 dfl, 3 blk FG in 2003) will be starting for his fourth year, likely at tackle (but he has the ability to slide out to end). Nose tackle Mike Patterson (55 tac, 13.5 for loss, 7 sack, 3 FR with 1 for a TD in 2003), who last fall had the most tackles for a loss of any Trojan tackle since 1996, will be starting for his third season. Both have a knack for creating havoc. If Cody moves to end, sophomore Manuel Wright (8 tac, 2 for loss, 1 sack, 3 dfl in 2003) will assume his tackle spot. The backup tackles will be junior Lajuan Ramsey (6 tac, 2.5 for loss, 1.5 sack, 1 FF in 2003), who also might work at end, sophomore Travis Tofi (3 tac, 1 for loss, 2 dfl, 1 sack for a safety in 2003), who also can play end, and redshirt freshman Sedrick Ellis. Joining the tackles this fall as freshmen were prep All-American Lawrence Miles and Fili Moala, plus 2 walk-ons in junior juco transfer Mike Davis and frosh Jeff Tola. A mix of players with experience and youth will contend for the vacant end jobs: junior Frostee Rucker (26 tac, 4 for loss, 1.5 sack, 1 int, 1 dfl, 1 FF, 2 FR in 2003), who started 5 games last year when Nazel was injured, and redshirt freshmen Chris Barrett, Lawrence Jackson and Alex Morrow (Rucker and Jackson are in the lead). A pair of new freshmen—prep All-Americans ends Thomas Herring and Jeff Schweiger—and juco transfer junior Rashaad Goodrum have a chance to make a contribution at end after arriving this fall.

LINEBACKERS

USC's strength on defense will be its linebacking corps. Only 2-year starting weakside linebacker Melvin Simmons is gone (he had 55 tackles and 3 fumble recoveries last season). Junior middle linebacker Lofa Tatupu (98 tac, 11.5 for loss, 3 sack, 10 dfl, 4 int with 1 for a TD, 1 FF in 2003) returns after making the improbable jump from starting at Maine in 2001 to doing so at USC last fall. He ended up as the Trojans' leading tackler in 2003. Senior Matt Grootegeod (41 tac, 4.5 for loss, 1.5 sack, 1 dfl, 1 FR, 2 FF), who has started the past 3 years at strongside linebacker (he'll be on the weak side in 2004), has a knack for always being around the ball. He's good enough to merit All-American consideration (he was a Butkus Award and Lombardi Award semifinalist last season). Junior Dallas Sartz (60 tac, 6 for loss, 2 sack, 4 dfl, 1 blk P in 2003) assumes the starting strongside job. He's more than capable, as he started there the last 6 games of 2003 when Grootegoed was bothered by an ankle sprain. Other possibilities on the outside among the returnees are junior Collin Ashton (28 tac, 0.5 for loss, 1 FF, 1 dfl in 2003), who performed admirably while starting twice late last year when Simmons was injured (a one-time walk-on, Ashton received a scholarship this fall), and redshirt freshman Thomas Williams, plus walk-on sophomore Mike Brittingham, who also can play fullback. On the inside, there is senior walk-on Marco Chavez (he sat out 2003 after transferring from Hawaii), plus sophomore Oscar Lua, who was sidelined most of last season because of a knee injury (he missed some of 2004 spring drills while recuperating). Enrolling this fall were J.C. All-American Ryan Powdrell, who is a junior, and prep All-Americans Keith Rivers and Michael Stuart, who both are freshmen, along with walk-on freshman Clay Matthews, the son of the ex-USC All-American linebacker of the same name.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

The good news in the secondary is that both starting safeties return. Sophomore strong safety Darnell Bing (69 tac, 2 for loss, 1 FR, 2 int, 5 dfl in 2003) was a Freshman All-American first team selection last year and he has an unlimited future. Hard-hitting senior free safety Jason Leach (88 tac, 5.5 for loss, 1 sack, 6 dfl, 1 FR, 1 FF, 2 int with 1 for a TD in 2003) was USC's No. 2 tackler last season. Providing safety depth will be senior Greg Farr (6 tac in 2003), a former walk-on who received a scholarship this fall, twin redshirt freshmen Brandon Ting (3 tac in 2003) and Ryan Ting (1 tac in 2003), and senior walk-on Chris Bocage (1 tac in 2003), who missed 2004 spring practice while recovering from a knee injury. Ryan Ting also can play cornerback. Then, enrolling in the fall were J.C. All-American Scott Ware, who is a junior, and prep All-American Josh Pinkard, who is a freshman. Both of 2003's starting cornerbacks are gone: Will Poole, an All-Pac-10 first teamer and NFL fourth rounder whose 7 interceptions (the most at USC since 1994) and 19 deflections last year ranked him in the top 10 nationally in those categories (he also had 80 tackles, 4 forced fumbles and 2 fumble recoveries), and Marcell Allmond, who helped Troy to an 18-1 record when he started in the secondary (he had 3 picks and 48 stops in 2003). Losing that duo might not be as much of a concern as it appears, however, because their possible replacements are experienced seniors with plenty of starts under their belts. Ronald Nunn (40 tac, 4 for loss, 3 sack, 1 int for a TD, 4 dfl, 1 FF, 3 FR with 1 for a TD in 2003), known for his big plays, started 3 times in 2002 and played often in extra defensive back formations last year. Kevin Arbet (5 tac, 1 for loss, 1 dfl, 1 FF in 2003, plus 4 PR, 19 yds, 4.8 avg) has 6 career starts. He received a sixth year of eligibility from the NCAA because he was out of action for most of the past 2 seasons with a foot injury (he missed 2004 spring drills while recuperating). Also a key special teams player, he led the Trojans in punt returns in 2001 with 25 for 225 yards (9.0 average) and earned All-Pac-10 first team honors as a special teamer that season. Also pushing for playing time at the corner spots will be juniors Justin Wyatt (10 tac in 2003, plus 3 rec, 20 yds, 6.7 avg and 3 KOR, 41 yds, 13.7 avg), who also saw some action at wide receiver last fall, and John Walker (3 tac, 1 dfl in 2003), and redshirt freshmen Eric Wright and Terrell Thomas, plus 4 walk-ons: juniors Alex Gomez and Justin Tolliver, redshirt freshman Da'Sean Cunningham and first-year freshman Jim Abbott.

SPECIAL TEAMS OVERVIEW

Most of USC's specialists from 2003 return, including perhaps the nation's premier punter (Tom Malone) and placekicker (Ryan Killeen), plus an exciting kickoff returner (Reggie Bush), a dependable punt returner (Greig Carlson) and a steady holder (Malone). But a new snapper (for both short and long snaps) must be developed. The Trojan special teams in 2003 were much-improved from previous years. USC fielded record-setting punt and placekicking squads. Troy led the nation in net punting (43.7 avg.) for the first time ever. The Trojans returned a kickoff for a TD for the first time since 1998. And USC blocked 7 kicks (6 field goals and a punt). But things can still be shored up a bit in 2004, as opponents blocked 4 Trojan kicks (2 punts and 2 PATs) and returned a kickoff for a touchdown last year.

SPECIALISTS

All-American junior Tom Malone (49.0 avg in 2003), the nation's best punter, has proven to be a weapon whenever he boots the ball. The Ray Guy Award candidate broke the USC season punting average record by 3.4 yards last fall (his 49.0 mark was just 0.3 off of the Pac-10 standard). He led the nation in punting for 5 consecutive weeks in the middle of the 2003 campaign and would have finished as the leader (by 1.0 yards), but the efficiency of USC's offense left him 5 punts shy of having the NCAA-required minimum 3.6 punts per game. In 2003, 24 of his 42 punts traveled at least 50 yards and 28 pinned opponents within the 20-yard line. His career average of 44.9 is nearly a yard above the school standard. Senior Ryan Killeen (19-of-24 FG, 65-of-57 PAT in 2003) ranks among the nation's top placekickers. The Lou Groza Award candidate was 12th nationally in scoring (9.4, second in Pac-10) and tied for 18th in field goals (1.5, third in Pac-10) in 2003. His 65 PATs last fall were a Pac-10 season record and his 19 field goals tied the USC season mark. The 122 points he scored in 2003 were the second-most ever tallied at USC. He had 35 touchdowns among his 99 kickoffs in 2003 (and he kept foes within the 20-yard line 58 times). He also backs up Malone at punter. Behind Killeen is walk-on redshirt freshman Mario Danelo, the son of ex-NFL kicker Joe Danelo, and walk-on first-year frosh Taylor Odegard. It might not sound like a big deal, but USC must replace both of its long-time snappers: 4-year short snapper Joe Boskovich and 3-year long snapper Matt Hayward. Both performed flawlessly during their careers. The leading candidates for both roles are junior walk-on linebacker Collin Ashton and redshirt freshman Will Collins, a one-time walk-on who earned a scholarship this spring. Junior punter Tom Malone will be the holder for his third season. Senior quarterback Matt Cassel is his backup. USC has back from last year its top kickoff returner in sophomore tailback Reggie Bush (18 KOR, 492 yds, 27.3 avg, 1 TD in 2003), who was 10th nationally in kickoff returns (27.3, first in Pac-10) and was the first Trojan to lead the league in kickoff returns since Anthony Davis in 1974, and its top punt returner in junior wide receiver Greig Carlson (21 PR, 188 yds, 9.0 avg in 2003). Bush might also return punts. Other potential returners are junior tailback Hershel Dennis, who led USC in kickoff returns in 2002 (9 KOR, 151 yds, 16.8 avg), senior cornerback Kevin Arbet (4 PR, 19 yds, 4.8 avg in 2003), who led USC in punt returns in 2001 (25 PR, 225, yd, 9.0 avg), and junior cornerback Justin Wyatt (3 KOR, 41 yds, 13.7 avg in 2003).

ASSISTANT COACHES

USC's assistant coaching staff welcomed 3 new faces in 2004: QB coach Carl Smith, who has 32 years of coaching experience (his last 17 years were spent in the NFL); RB coach Todd McNair, a former NFL running back and assistant; and DEF/LB coach Ken Norton Jr., the ex-NFL and UCLA star linebacker. There were also some slight adjustments involving 3 returning coaches. Rocky Seto switched from safeties to linebackers. Brennan Carroll, an offensive assistant the past 2 seasons, became a full-time assistant, handling the tight ends. And WR coach Lane Kiffin took on the added duty of passing game coordinator.

STATS OF NOTE

WINS

USC has won 20 of its last 21 games, 21 of its last 23, 23 of its last 26 and 27 of its last 31.
 Before doing so in 2002 and 2003, the last time USC posted back-to-back seasons of double digit wins was in 1978 and 1979.
 USC's 23 wins in 2002 and 2003 ties its 1978-79 teams for most victories over 2 seasons in Pac-10 history.
 USC is the only Pac-10 school to have more than one 12-win season (1972-78-2003).

DEFENSE

Defensively in 2003, USC was first nationally in rushing defense (60.2, first in Pac-10), second in turnover margin (+1.5, first in Pac-10) and tied for 17th in scoring defense (18.4, first in Pac-10).
 USC's defense forced 42 turnovers in 2003 (22 interceptions, 20 fumbles).
 USC has intercepted a pass in 22 of the last 23 games, including 16 consecutive games before being blanked at Notre Dame in 2003.
 USC's 20 fumble recoveries in 2003 were its most since 1976 (22).
 USC posted 2 shutouts in 2003 (its most in a season since getting 3 in 1982).
 USC led the Pac-10 in scoring defense (18.4) in 2003 for the third consecutive season, the first time it has done that since 1972-76.
 USC held 5 opponents in 2003 under 300 yards of total offense.
 In the last 5 games of 2003, USC allowed an average of just 28.6 rushing yards.
 Opponents averaged just 1.8 yards per carry against USC in 2003, the lowest average since at least 1952 (records were not complete before then) and a national-low in 2003.

USC allowed just 60.2 yards rushing in 2003, USC's fewest allowed since at least 1952 (records were not complete before then) and only the second time it has ever topped the nation in that category (the other was 1989).

USC has held 20 of its last 26 opposing teams to less than 100 rushing yards (10 games in 2003 and 10 times in 2002).

Only 1 opposing runner has rushed for 100 yards against USC in the past 25 games (California's Adimchinobe Echemandu did so in 2003, breaking a streak of 16 consecutive games without a 100-yard rusher).

USC's defense scored 8 touchdowns and 2 safeties in 2003.

USC posted a national and Pac-10 best 55 sacks in 2003 (the second most in school history) and allowed just a Pac-10 low 15.

SPECIAL TEAMS

USC was first nationally in net punting (43.7, first in Pac-10) in 2003, the first time it has ever led the nation.

USC blocked 7 kicks in 2003 (6 field goals and 1 punt).

OFFENSE

Offensively in 2003, USC was fifth nationally in passing efficiency (159.1, first in Pac-10), fifth in scoring offense (41.1, first in Pac-10), 13th in passing offense (291.6, second in Pac-10) and 14th in total offense (447.5, second in Pac-10).

USC's scoring average of 41.1 in 2003 broke the school record of 41.0 set in 1929.

In its last 9 games in 2003, USC averaged 489.2 yards of total offense—including 174.4 rushing—and 42.6 points (outscored foes 384-155).

USC has averaged 400-plus yards of total offense in 4 of the past 5 seasons (all but 2001).

USC rushed for at least 195 yards in 6 midseason games in 2003, the most in a row since doing it 8 consecutive times in 1979.

USC's average of 6.5 yards per play in 2003 was the best in school history.

USC's average of 155.9 rushing yards per game in 2003 was its best since 1991 (185.4).

USC's average of 4.5 yards per carry in 2003 was its best since 1989's 4.6.

USC's 39 TD passes in 2003 was a school and Pac-10 record.

USC had 72 touchdown passes in 2002 and 2003, the most prolific 2-year stretch in Trojan history.

USC had 7,779 passing yards in 2002 and 2003, the most prolific 2-year stretch in Trojan history.

Four Trojans had 100-yard receiving games in 2003 (WRs Mike Williams, Keary Colbert and Steve Smith and TB Reggie Bush).

In 2003, USC rushed for 2,000 yards in a season for the first time since 1991.

USC had 19 plays of 40-plus yards in 2003 (by 8 different players).

USC had scoring drives of 80-plus yards 15 times in the last 6 games in 2003.

Of USC's 77 offensive scoring drives in regulation in 2003, 59 took less than 3 minutes (including 35 under 2 minutes) and 20 were at least 80 yards.

USC allowed just 1.2 sacks per game in 2003, its lowest average since 1987's 0.8

SCORING

USC has scored at least 20 points in its last 26 games, a school record (and in 28 of its past 29).

USC scored at least 30 points in 11 consecutive games in 2003 (a school mark) and in 19 of its last 21 games (the only exception was a 23-0 win at Auburn in the 2003 opener and a 28-14 win over Michigan in the 2004 Rose Bowl).

USC scored at least 40 points 8 times in 2003 (and 15 times under Pete Carroll), including 7 in a row (a Pac-10 record).

USC's 534 points in 2003 was a Pac-10 and USC record (breaking the Pac-10 mark set in 1920 and the school record set in 1929).

USC led the Pac-10 in scoring (41.1) in 2003 for the second consecutive year, the first time it has done so since 1964-65.

USC's scoring average of 41.1 in 2003 was a school record.

USC's 68 touchdowns scored in 2003 tied the Pac-10 record (with the 1929 USC and 1920 California teams).

USC's 65 PATs in 2003 was a school record.

USC scored 177 points (23 TDs, 5 field goals, 1 safety) after getting a turnover in 2003.

USC had a +22.7 scoring margin in 2003 (and in its 2003 wins, the margin was 24.8).

USC has had 16 consecutive victories by at least 17 points, the longest stretch since it happened 16 times in a row in 1929-31.

USC outscored opponents 293-110 in the first half in 2003 and 231-129 (including overtime) in the second half.

USC started off each half impressively in 2003, outscoring foes 148-45 in the first quarter and 147-45 in the third quarter.

In its current 9-game winning streak, USC has won by a combined 205 points (an average of 22.8).

In a 6-game span that began in 2002, USC beat UCLA, Notre Dame, Iowa, Auburn, BYU and Hawaii by a combined 152 points (25.3 margin).

USC had a knack for scoring unanswered points (23 at Auburn, 21 versus BYU, 42 against Hawaii, 27 at Arizona State, 27 against Stanford, 31 at Notre Dame, 20 at Washington, 45 at Arizona, 30 against UCLA, 28 against Oregon State and 21 against Michigan) in 2003, continuing a trend from 2002 when Troy scored 20 or more consecutive points on 11 occasions.

MISCELLANEOUS

USC's last 2 losses (at Washington State in 2002 and California in 2003) have come in 4 overtimes.

Seven of the 8 losses in the Pete Carroll era at USC have been by a touchdown or less (the other was by 11 points).

USC's win against Stanford in 2003 was the 700th victory in its history, making Troy only the 10th Division I school with that many wins.

USC's average home attendance in 2003 was a Pac-10 and USC season record 77,804 (466,824 total). USC's average overall attendance in 2003 was 72,806 (946,482 total), both USC season records.

USC played before at least 73,000 fans in 4 consecutive home games (Arizona State and Notre Dame in 2002 and BYU and Hawaii in 2003), averaging 78,581 in that span.

With its 2003 season-opening win over No. 6 Auburn (following wins to close 2002 over No. 7 Notre Dame and No. 3 Iowa), USC defeated 3 consecutive AP Top 7 teams for the first time in its history.

USC has won its last 5 games against AP Top 7 teams (No. 7 Notre Dame and No. 3 Iowa in 2002, No. 6 Auburn, No. 6 Washington State and No. 4 Michigan in 2003) and has done so by a 176-60 score (an average of 35-12).

USC had an 11-game winning streak (its longest since also capturing 11 in a row over the 1979 and 1980 seasons) snapped in 2003 at California (during that span, Troy defeated its opponents by an average score of 41-19).

The only other time USC had 2 players finish in the Top 10 of the Heisman Trophy voting (QB Matt Leinart was sixth and WR Mike Williams was eighth in 2003) was in 1979 when TB Charles White won the award and QB Paul McDonald was sixth.

TAKEAWAYS

USC has been effective in the takeaway department during head coach Pete Carroll's 3 seasons. USC's +1.33 turnover margin over Carroll's first 3 seasons was the best in the nation and its 113 takeaways during that span also were the most. In 2003, USC was +1.5 in turnover margin (second in the U.S. and first in the Pac-10) by getting 22 interceptions and 20 fumbles (and yielding only 9 interceptions and 13 fumbles). In 2002, the Trojans had 36 takeaways (19 fumbles and 17 interceptions) and ranked fifth nationally in turnover margin (+1.4). In 2001, Troy had 35 takeaways (20 picks, 15 fumbles) and ranked fifth in the nation in turnover margin at +1.3. USC's ball security was impressive, too (only 19 turnovers in 2001 and just 18 in 2002).

RANDOMNOTES

USC's 2004 captains, as elected by their teammates at the end of fall camp, are QB Matt Leinart, DE-DT Shaun Cody and LB Matt Grootegoed.

Late USC 2-time All-American tailback Ricky Bell was enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame in South Bend, Ind., this Aug. 13-14, while former USC All-American tight end Charles Young will be inducted into the Hall at a Dec. 7 dinner in New York (he'll be enshrined in August of 2005). Bell, who earned All-American honors in 1975 and 1976 (he was the Heisman Trophy runner-up in 1976), ran for 3,689 yards at Troy and then was the No. 1 pick of the 1977 NFL draft (he played 6 years in the NFL) before dying in 1984 of heart disease. Young was a unanimous All-American on USC's 1972 national championship team and caught 68 passes in his Trojan career before playing 13 years in the NFL. USC has 26 former players, 2 ex-head coaches, 4 one-time assistant coaches and a former athletic director in the College Football Hall of Fame.

FieldTurf, the popular artificial turf, was installed this past summer on a portion of USC's practice field. It covers the L-shaped portion on the northwest corner of Howard Jones Field. This marks the first time that USC ever has had artificial turf on its practice field.

After doing significant research, USC now is recognizing its 1939 football team as a national champion, giving the Trojans 10 national titles in program history (1928-31-32-39-62-67-72-74-78-2003). The 1939 Trojans went 8-0-2 and finished atop the Dickinson System poll, thereby winning the Knute Rockne Intercollegiate Memorial Trophy (at the time emblematic of the nation's No. 1 team). According to the NCAA Football Records Book, the Dickinson System was the first to gain widespread nation public and media acceptance as a "major selector."

No USC football letterman in history has been heavier than current Trojan OLs Taitusi Lutui (370 pounds), John Drake (350) or Alatini Malu (335, equaling the weight of 1995-98 letterman Ken Bowen).

QB John David Booty, who enrolled at USC in the fall of 2003, is believed to be the first football player to graduate a full year early from high school and enroll at a major Division I-A university.

USC also has 5 players who graduated a semester early from high school and enrolled at USC in the spring. P Tom Malone and FB Brandon Hancock came to USC in the spring of 2002. Identical twin DBs Brandon and Ryan Ting did so in the spring of 2003. WR Fred Davis enrolled at USC this past spring.

USC has retired the jersey numbers of its 5 Heisman Trophy winners. However, SDarnell Bing received permission from USC athletic director Mike Garrett (Troy's 1965 Heisman-winning tailback) to wear Garrett's retired No. 20 jersey.

Several Trojans have participated in other sports at Troy. QB Billy Hart was on the USC baseball team the past 3 seasons (2002-04). He led USC in batting average (.367) and triples (3) in 2004 while starting 44 games in the outfield and then at third base (he also had 58 hits, 26 runs, 9 doubles, 2 home runs and 29 RBI). He started 22 times in right field in 2003, hitting .238 in 42 games with 20 hits, 14 runs, 1 home run and 4 RBI (he redshirted in 2002). QB Matt Cassel was a pitcher for the 2004 Trojans, posting an 0-1 record and 9.35 ERA in 8 games, with 10 strikeouts and 4 walks (he was selected in the 36th round of the 2004 draft by the Oakland Athletics). Walk-on CB Da'Sean Cunningham was a quartermiler for the 2004 USC track team, with bests of 47.44 in the 400 and 22.01 in the 200. OG Travis Watkins was a shot putter for the 2001 Trojan track squad (he redshirted). Walk-on CB Justin Tolliver was a sprinter for the 2002 and 2003 Trojans, but did not compete in a meet.

As a youngster, LB Collin Ashton was a ballboy for several years for the USC men's basketball team.

OT Taitusi Lutui is USC's only married player. He and his wife, Pua, were married in July of 2004.

USC's 2004 schedule includes 5 night games (starting at 5 p.m. or later, local time). Since Troy's first night game in 1944, the Trojans have played as many as 5 night games in a season just twice, in 1970 and 1971. Kick-off for 4 of USC's 2004 games have yet to be determined.

Who's the fastest among the 2004 Trojans? It might be TB Reggie Bush, with bests of 10.42 in the 100 meters and 21.06 in the 200. He placed third in the 100 in the 2002 California state meet. Or perhaps it's WR Derrick Jones, with PRs of 10.44 in the 100 and 20.97 in the 200. He won the 200 at the 2004 California state meet. Or how about walk-on CB Da'Sean Cunningham, who as a freshman on the 2004 USC track team went 22.01 in the 200 and 47.44 in the 400 (as a prepster in 2003, his 47.19 was the fastest time in California and he was second at the 2003 California state meet and fourth at the Junior Olympics).

QB Matt Cassel played on the Northridge (Calif.) team that was a finalist at the 1994 Little League World Series. And LB Matt Grootegoed was a finalist as a 10-year-old in the national Punt, Pass and Kick competition.

Several Trojans have Hollywood connections. As a youngster, CB John Walker was a television actor who appeared in such shows as "E.R." and "7th Heaven" (in fact, he didn't play football until his sophomore year of high school because a clause in his acting contract prevented him from doing anything that could affect his appearance). QB Matt Cassel was featured in the HBO documentary "Freshman Year," which was filmed at his high school in 1999-2000. And QB Brandon Hance, a music industry major, has interned at several Beverly Hills entertainment-based talent and management agencies.

On DE-DT Shaun Cody's right biceps is a large tattoo of the interlock "SC" logo, which stands both for his initials and his university.

FB Brandon Hancock has been featured in various body building magazines, including Muscle Magazine International.

QB Brandon Hance, who was hospitalized briefly in the summer of 2003 with a viral form of spinal meningitis, recorded a public service announcement for the Meningitis Foundation of America as part of the MFA's Meningitis Awareness and Prevention month in August of 2003. Hance's 30-second radio message was geared toward college students.

In his 32-year collegiate coaching career at BYU, North Carolina State and now USC, offensive coordinator Norm Chow has coached quarterbacks who combined have thrown for more than 70,000 career yards...or about 40 miles! Besides Matt Leinart and Carson Palmer at Troy, Chow has tutored BYU's Steve Young, Jim McMahon, Marc Wilson, Gifford Nielsen, Ty Detmer and Robbie Bosco and North Carolina State's Philip Rivers. Two of his pupils (Palmer and Detmer) won the Heisman Trophy.

Strength and conditioning coach Chris Carlisle has beaten cancer. He learned he had Hodgkin's Disease in December of 2000, began radiation treatments in Tennessee (where he was still the Volunteers' associate strength and conditioning coach), was hired by USC in February of 2001, kept his illness a secret except to Trojan head coach Pete Carroll, continued treatments in Tennessee and at USC/Norris Comprehensive Cancer Center and Hospital, then doctors told him in the summer of 2001 that the cancer was in remission. He informed the USC players of his ordeal at the start of fall 2001 camp. He was 1 of 17 nominees for the 2003 Most Courageous Award presented by the Football Writers Association of America.

Politically speaking, TB Reggie Bush's nickname is "The President." Troy also presidentially features a Jackson (DE Lawrence Jackson) and a Buchanan (WR William Buchanan, spelled slightly different than the President). And TE Dominique Byrd was an intern for Minnesota senator Mark Dayton. By the way, USC is 175-59-14 (.734) during presidential election years. The Trojans are 105-26-5 (.790) in years when Republicans won the White House and 70-33-9 (.663) when Democrats won.

With the 2004 Athens Olympics in full swing, it should be noted that USC is 159-52-10 (.742) in seasons that the Summer Olympics have been held. The Trojans won 3 national championships (1928, 1932 and 1972) and played in 9 bowls (winning 6) during those Olympic seasons. Two USC football lettermen have won Olympic gold medals: Fred Kelly (lettered in 1914-15-16) in the high hurdles in the 1912 Games (he is USC's first gold medalist) and Ken Carpenter (1934-37) in the discus in the 1936 Games. Although 2-time gold medalist Quincy Watts (400 meters and 1600-meter relay in the 1992 Olympics) never lettered in football, he was a receiver on the 1990 Trojans (he didn't get into a game).

Seven Trojans have relatives who played on national championship USC football squads: SNP Will Collins (uncle, Joe Collins, was on the 1974 team), TE Kurt Katnik (brother, Norm Katnik, was on the 2003 team), LB Clay Matthews (father, 1977 All-American Clay Matthews, was on the 1974 team and brother, Kyle Matthews, was on the 2003 team), QB Michael McDonald (father, 1979 All-American Paul McDonald, was on the 1978 team), LB Lofa Tatupu (father, Mosi Tatupu, was on the 1974 team), CB Justin Tolliver (father, Kevin Williams, was on the 1978 team) and WR Brad Walker (cousins, Norm and Kurt Katnik, were on the 2003 team).

Several Trojans have other relatives with USC football connections. CB Kevin Arbet is the stepson of ex-Trojan (1980-82) Jeff Simmons. SNP Will Collins' brother, Rob Collins, was a walk-on at USC in the 1980s. Four Trojans have uncles who were Trojan footballers: TE Kurt Katnik (John Katnik, 1986-87), LB Clay Matthews (Bruce Matthews, 1980-82, 1982 All-American), OG Fred Matua (Titus Tuiasosopo, 1990-92) and WR Brad Walker (John Katnik, 1986-87). WR William Buchanan's second cousin is former Trojan C.R. Roberts (1955-56).

Speaking of genes: CB Kevin Arbet's cousin, Lamarr Arbet, was a defensive lineman at San Jose State and his uncle, Darren Arbet, is the head coach of the San Jose SaberCats of the Arena Football League. OT Sam Baker's father, David, formerly played basketball at UC Irvine and then professionally in Europe, while his brother, Ben, was an offensive lineman at Duke. QB John David Booty's father, Johnny, played quarterback at Arkansas, Louisiana Tech and Mississippi State, while his brother, Josh, played quarterback at LSU for 2 seasons (1999-2000) following a 5-year (1994-98) baseball career as an infielder in the Florida Marlins organization (he then played with the NFL's Cleveland Browns) and another brother, Abram, was a wide receiver at LSU (1997-99) and Valdosta State (2001). LB-FB Mike Brittingham has 5 relatives with athletic backgrounds: sister, Kristine, lettered on UCLA's women's soccer team in 2000 and 2001, cousins Jack and Robert Brittingham were 3-year (1933-35) football lettermen at California, great uncle Richard Munroe lettered in football at both Stanford (1942) and California (1943), and great great grandfather Louis Sumner lettered in football at Wisconsin (1889, 1891-92). WR William Buchanan is the son of ex-NFL star Willie Buchanan, a 1971 All-American cornerback at San Diego State who was a 3-time Pro Bowler during his 11-year (1972-82) NFL career with the Green Bay Packers and San Diego Chargers. QB Matt Cassel's older brother, Jack, is a pitcher in the San Diego Padres organization, while his younger brother, Justin, is a sophomore on UC Irvine's baseball team. PK Mario Danelo's father, Joe, was a placekicker at Washington State (1972-74) before playing in the NFL with the Green Bay Packers (1975), New York Giants (1976-82) and Buffalo Bills (1983-84). TB Hershel Dennis' father, Hershel Sr., played tailback at North Carolina A&T. DE Rashaad Goodrum's brother, Nuru, is a sophomore fullback at The Citadel. LB Matt Grootegoed's brother, John, was an offensive guard at San Jose State in 1994 and 1995. TE Alex Holmes' father, Mike, lettered at defensive end at Michigan in 1974 and 1975. DE Lawrence Jackson's brother, Keith, was an offensive tackle at Arizona. C Ryan Kalil's father, Frank, was a center at Arizona (1980-82) and with the USFL's Arizona Wranglers (1983) and Houston Gamblers (1984). TE Kurt Katnik's father, Norman, was a 2-year starting center at Arizona (1978-79). FB Sean Kelly's father, Mike, was an All-American swimmer at USC (1977-80) and his great grandfather, Arnold Horween, kicked the winning PAT in Harvard's 7-6 victory over Oregon in the 1920 Rose Bowl to help the Crimson to the last of its 7 national football championships (also a fullback, Arnold played alongside his brother, RB Ralph Horween). FB David Kirtman's father, Louis, ran track at California, his brother, Michael, was on Pomona-Pitzer's football and track teams and his uncle, Nate Kirtman, played football at Stanford in 1967. S Jason Leach's cousin is former Arizona State S Alfred Williams (1999-2002). OT Taitusi Lutui's brother, Sam, is an assistant football coach at Southern Utah, where he also started on the line in 1995 and 1996, while he is also related to current BYU players Ofa Moheeta and David Tafuna and former Cougar T.J. Sitake (1999-2000). OG Fred Matua's uncle, Navy Tuiasosopo, played offensive line at Utah State and later with the Los Angeles Rams and a distant cousin, Manu Tuiasosopo, was a 3-time All-Conference defensive lineman at UCLA (1976-78) who then played with the Seattle Seahawks and San Francisco 49ers. WR Jason Mitchell's cousin, Christian Radley, was a coxswain on the USC women's rowing team in 2002. DT Fili Moala's cousin is Oregon sophomore defensive lineman Haloti Ngata. CB Ronald Nunn's sister, Natalie, is a redshirt freshman defender on the USC women's soccer team. OT Drew Radovich's father, Mark, was a linebacker at Arizona State (1974-76). LB Dallas Sartz's father, Jeff, played safety at Oregon State and his grandfather, also named Dallas, was a Golden Gloves boxer at Washington State and a professional hydroplane racer. Twin DBs Brandon and Ryan Ting's brother, Rich, was a quarterback at Yale (1998-2001). DT Travis Tofi's cousin, Suaese "Pooch" Taase, played football at Louisiana Tech. WR Brad Walker's uncle, Norman Katnik, was a 2-year starting center at Arizona (1978-79). OG Travis Watkins' brother, Todd, is a junior wide receiver at BYU (he formerly played at 2001 Norfolk State), while his father, Don, was a lineman at Pasadena City College and his great uncle, Tom Watkins, was a running back at Iowa State and then played 8 seasons in the NFL in the 1960s with the Cleveland Browns, Detroit Lions and Pittsburgh Steelers. TB LenDale White is the cousin of former Notre Dame (1998) and Pittsburgh (2000-01) tailback/wide receiver Darcey Levy (who played in the NFL), ex-Wyoming (1998-2002) linebacker Herman White and former Colorado point guard Chauncey Billups, now in the NBA. OT Kyle Williams' father, Scott, played college basketball, while an uncle, Eric Williams, was a defensive lineman with the Detroit Lions (1984-89) and Washington Redskins (1990-93, including on the 1991 Super Bowl champs) after earning 1983 All-Pac-10 first team honors in his 3 years (1981-83) at Washington State; his grandfather, Roy Williams, played for the Detroit Lions and San Francisco 49ers, another uncle played professional basketball in Europe, while his other grandfather played 3 sports at Lehigh in the 1960. DT Manuel Wright's cousin is former Arizona State tailback Mike Williams. WR John Ziika's grandfather, Jake Nagode, played basketball at Northwestern (1936-38) and then professionally in the late-1940s, while his sister, Allison, lettered on the Arizona women's soccer team in 1994. DB coach Greg Burns' brother, Dexter, was a defensive back at San Jose State in the mid-1990s. Head coach Pete Carroll's wife, Glenna, played volleyball at Pacific, while his son, Brennan, was a tight end at Delaware and Pitt (he currently is an assistant football coach at USC) and his daughter, Jaime, played on the 2000 USC women's volleyball team. WR coach Lane Kiffin's father, Monte, is the defensive coordinator of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (he is a longtime NFL and collegiate assistant coach who also served as North Carolina State's head coach in the early 1980s), while his brother, Chris, is a senior defensive lineman at Colorado State. LB coach Rocky Seto's wife, Sharla, played soccer at USC. TE coach Brennan Carroll is the son of USC head coach Pete Carroll. DEF/LB coach Ken Norton Jr. is the son of Ken Norton Sr., the former world heavyweight boxing champion who played football at Northeast Missouri State.

How about these names: DE Frostee Rucker. OT Taitusi Lutui (he goes by "Deuce"). OG Alatini Malu, who answers to "Tiny" (he's 6-4 and 335 pounds). LB Lofa Tatupu. DT Travis Tofi. DT Fili Moala. Then, there's S Darnell Bing and the Tingtwins (DBs Brandon and Ryan).

IN THE NFL

USC is always well-represented in the NFL. At the start of training camp this summer, there were 43 ex-Trojans on NFL rosters. Last year, there were 28 Trojans on opening day NFL rosters, including players such as LBs Junior Seau, Chris Claiborne and Zeke Moreno, DL Willie McGinest, WRs Keyshawn Johnson, Johnnie Morton and Curtis Conway, QBs Carson Palmer, Rodney Peete and Rob Johnson and DBs Sammy Knight, Troy Polamalu, Brian Kelly and Daylon McCutcheon. Six NFL head coaches have USC ties (either as former players or assistants): Tennessee's Jeff Fisher, Seattle's Mike Holmgren, San Francisco's Steve Mariucci, Miami's Dave Wannstedt, Jacksonville's Jack Del Rio and Oakland's Norv Turner. Thirteen current USC players have relatives with NFL playing backgrounds: QB John David Booty (brother, Josh Booty), WR William Buchanan (father, Willie Buchanan), PK Mario Danelo (father, Joe Danelo), TE Kurt Katnik (brother, Norm Katnik), OG Fred Matua (cousins, Navy and Manu Tuiasosopo), LB Clay Matthews (grandfather, Clay Matthews Sr.; father, Clay Matthews; uncle, Bruce Matthews), QB Michael McDonald (father, Paul McDonald), LB Lofa Tatupu (father, Mosi Tatupu), CB Justin Tolliver (father, Kevin Williams), WR Brad Walker (cousin, Norm Katnik), OG Travis Watkins (uncle, Tom Watkins), TB LenDale White (cousin, Darcey Levy) and OT Kyle Williams (uncle, Eric Williams; grandfather, Roy Williams). OT Sam Baker's father, David, is the commissioner of the Arena Football League. And C Ryan Kalil's father, Frank, played in the USFL. Additionally, head coach Pete Carroll was an NFL head coach and assistant coach, and assistants Carl Smith, Lane Kiffin and Todd McNair were NFL assistants. Four assistant coaches played professionally: Ken Norton Jr. and Todd McNair were in the NFL, while Norm Chow and Tim Davis were in the CFL (Davis also played in the USFL).

ON TV

USC is one of America's most televised teams. The Trojans have appeared on live national, regional or local telecasts 321 times, including 187 of the past 189 games. In fact, USC had an amazing streak of 111 consecutive games on some form of live television from 1988 to 1997 (snapped against Oregon State) and another streak of 48 in a row from 1997 to 2001 (broken against California).

BIOS OF NEW SCHOLARSHIP TROJANS

COLLIN ASHTON—A one-time walk-on linebacker and snapper, he earned a scholarship in the fall of 2004...As a sophomore in 2003 while appearing in all 13 games, he had 28 tackles (0.5 for a loss), 1 forced fumble and 1 deflection as a backup linebacker and key special teams player...He even started 2 late-season games (Arizona and UCLA), becoming just the second USC walk-on to start a game in the previous 20 years...He had 8 tackles at Arizona and 5 against UCLA...As a redshirt freshman in 2002, he made 3 tackles while seeing brief action in 3 games (Oregon State, Oregon and UCLA)...He redshirted as a first-year freshman in 2001...He prepped at Mission Viejo (Calif.) High...As a youngster, he served as a ballboy for several years for the USC men's basketball team.

GREG FARR—A one-time walk-on safety, he earned a scholarship in the fall of 2004...As a junior in 2003 while appearing in 10 games (all but Auburn, California and Arizona State), he made 6 tackles as a reserve safety and on special teams...As a sophomore in 2002, he saw brief action in just 1 game (at Colorado), but he did not make a tackle...He transferred to USC in the fall of 2002 from Palomar Junior College in San Marcos (Calif.)...He prepped at Carlsbad (Calif.) High.

RASHAAD GOODRUM—He was a 2-year (2002-03) starting defensive end and linebacker at Los Angeles Valley Junior College in Valley Glen (Calif.)...He was a 2003 Super Prep Juco 100, J.C. Grid-Wire All-American honorable mention and All-Western State Conference Northern Division first team (unanimous) selection...He posted 55 tackles (35 solo), including 16 tackles for loss (with 6 sacks), and 2 forced fumbles in 2003...He also made the 2002 All-Western State Conference Northern Division first team...He originally signed with Washington in 2004, but did not enroll there in the spring because he did not graduate from junior college in time...He prepped at Pine Forest High in Fayetteville (N.C.), where he was a 2000 All-Mid South Conference second teamer as a senior linebacker and fullback...He averaged 6.0 yards per carry as a senior...He did not attend any school during the 2001 season...His brother, Nuru, is a sophomore fullback at The Citadel.

FILI MOALA—He originally signed with USC in 2003, but did not qualify for admission, so he attended Cypress (Calif.) Junior College in 2003 as a part-time student (he didn't play football there)...He was a 2002 Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tom Lemming All-West and Tacoma News Tribune Western 100 selection as a senior offensive and defensive lineman at Western High in Anaheim (Calif.)...He missed all but 2 games of his 2002 senior season because of an injured left foot ligament...As a junior in 2002, he made All-CIF Division IX first team and All-League while posting 60 tackles and 4 sacks...His cousin is Oregon sophomore defensive lineman Haloti Ngata.

NICK VANDERBOOM—A one-time walk-on tight end, he earned a scholarship in the fall of 2004...Appeared in 8 games (all but California, Arizona State, Washington, Washington State and Michigan) as a redshirt freshman tight end and special teams player in 2003, but did not catch a pass or make a tackle...Was switched to tight end from quarterback in 2003 spring drills...Redshirted as a freshman quarterback in 2002, his first year at USC...Prepped at The Breck School in Minneapolis (Minn.)...Current Trojan Dominique Byrd also prepped at The Breck School.

ACADEMICS

Two of USC's most recent graduation rates for football were the highest in USC history. The 2001 official NCAA graduation rate for Trojan football players was 82%, an all-time high (topping the previous USC high of 80% in 2000). That rate compared to 73% for the general USC student body...and it was about 30 percentage points higher than the national football average for Division I schools. Among the top scholars on the 2004 Trojan squad are: CB Ryan Ting (3.93 GPA), FB Brandon Hancock (3.86, communication major), S Brandon Ting (3.7 GPA), QB Brandon Hance (3.47, music industry), WR John Zilka (3.46), TE Nick Vanderboom (3.4, business), OG Travis Draper (3.35), QB Billy Hart (3.30, business), QB Matt Cassel (3.28, communication), TB Andre Woodert (3.15, kinesiology), FB Mike Brittingham (2.93), WR Wil Smith (2.85, public management and planning), FB Jody Adewale (2.77, psychology), FB David Kirtman (2.76, business), S Greg Farr (2.76, international relations) and QB Matt Leinart (2.75, sociology). Hancock was a 2003 CoSIDA Academic All-District VIII first team and Pac-10 All-Academic first team selection. In its history, USC football has produced 22 Academic All-American first teamers (tops in the Pac-10 and sixth in the nation), 20 NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship winners, 12 National Football Foundation Scholar-Athletes, 4 NCAA Today's Top Six winners, 1 Rhodes Scholar and 1 Academic All-American Hall of Famer.

USC IS THE PLACE TO BE

Based on several national accolades it has received in recent years, USC can stake its claim as one of the nation's premier schools. USC was named the "College of the Year" by the 2000 edition of the Time/Princeton Review College Guide because of the remarkable bonds it has forged with the local community. The editors said USC has one of the most ambitious social-outreach programs of any university in the nation and cited the school's model of service learning (applying academic theory to real-life situations through public service). They also pointed out that USC's undergraduate applications have nearly doubled over the last few years and it is enrolling the most academically accomplished freshman classes in its history. Troy also was selected as one of America's nine "hottest schools" by the 2001 edition of the Newsweek/Kaplan College Guide because it lives up to its reputation as a top-notch institution of higher education. Students quoted in the guide said that what attracted them to the university was Los Angeles' ethnic diversity, the offer of scholarships, the small classroom sizes and USC's standing in academe. Also in 2001, the Association of American Colleges and Universities picked USC as one of 16 "Leadership Institutions" for providing stimulating educational experiences both inside and outside of the classroom. USC was cited for emphasizing a campus culture featuring new learning techniques, curriculum and organizational structure and for demonstrating a strong commitment to liberal arts education relevant to the contemporary world. The organization said USC not only linked liberal arts and pre-professional study, but offered students the opportunity to learn by doing through off-campus work in community projects and internships. Also, USC was lauded for stressing critical thinking, effective communication and contributing to a diverse society.

USC'S 125TH CELEBRATION

The USC 125th Anniversary Project (1880-2005) showcases USC's leadership in redefining the research university of the 21st century while celebrating and honoring its proud heritage as one of the oldest continuing academic and cultural institutions in the region. USC has been reinventing itself since 1880. Thanks to the dedication, talent, and resources of the Trojan Family, USC will be inventing the future for generations to come. Between now and spring 2006, USC will host a variety of university-wide as well as school-based academic programs, including conferences and guest lectures focused on the first part of USC's 125th anniversary theme — "inventing the future." At the same time, the university will explore the second part of the theme — "honoring the past" — through history projects, celebrations, campus tours, and publications reflecting our rich heritage. Finally, USC's 125th anniversary year — 2005-2006 — will culminate in spring 2006 with a university-hosted international academic conference aimed at defining the research university of the 21st century.

SCOUTING VIRGINIA TECH

Under 18th-year head coach Frank Beamer, Virginia Tech has become one of the nation's premier programs. His Hokies—in their first year as an Atlantic Coast Conference member—have been to a bowl game the past 11 years, including to the Insight Bowl in 2003. Only 9 starters return from last year's 8-5 squad. Senior 2-year starting QB Bryan Randall (150-of-245, 61.2%, 1,996 yds, 15 TD, 10 int in 2003, plus 82 tcb, 404 yds, 3.9 avg, 5 TD) will direct an offense that features an experienced line. Among the top defensive players are CB Jimmy Williams (114 tac, 2 int, 5 dfl, 2 FR in 2003), LB Mikal Baaqee (109 tac, 2 sac, 1 int in 2003) and brothers Kevin (43 tac, 6 for loss in 2003) and Jonathan (69 tac, 7 for loss, 4 sac, 1 int in 2003) Lewis at tackle. Under Beamer, the Hokies have blocked 101 kicks and scored 88 touchdowns on defense and special teams in 201 games.
