Men’s Head Coach: Chris Zambri (6th year)
Assistant Coach: Josh Brewer (4th year)
Assistant Coach: John Wurzer (1st year)
Chris Zambri, a former USC All-Pac-10 performer and longtime Nationwide Tour veteran, is in his sixth year as USC’s men’s golf head coach. In a short amount of time, Zambri has established himself as among the top coaches in the nation and has taken his team to the NCAA Championships final in each of his first four years.

Zambri’s teams have won 11 events, including Pac-10 titles in 2007 and 2011 and an NCAA Regional in 2008. His 2008 team came within three strokes of first place at the NCAA Championships. Trojan golfers have also won 11 individual crowns under Zambri.

The 2010-11 Trojans made their fifth trip in a row to the NCAA Championships finals in Zambri’s fifth year at the helm and won the Pac-10 title for the second time in five years. Zambri’s squad won twice on the season, getting hot in the spring. Troy claimed the ASU Thunderbird Invitational, took second at the Western Intercollegiate and then won the Pac-10 title (in a playoff). In addition to the conference crown, sophomore Martin Trainer won a seven-hole playoff for the individual title. USC finished second at the NCAA San Diego Regional to advance to the NCAA final. But the team ran out and saw the Trojans tied for 12th, missing the top 8 cut for the match play portion of the championships. Trainer earned All-Pac-10 first team honors while junior Steve Lim and freshman Jeffrey Kang nabbed second team notice.

Zambri directed the 2009-2010 squad deep into the postseason despite fielding a team often relying on three freshmen and a sophomore in many events. Junior Matt Giles (the team’s only upperclassmen) and freshman T.J. Vogel, a 2010 NGCA Freshman All-American and Pac-10 Co-Freshman of the Year, helped lead USC to seven top 5 finishes, including a third at the Pac-10 Championships and a second at the NCAA Regional in Washington that sent USC to the NCAA Final for the fourth year in a row. Following the season, Zambri served as head coach for the U.S. team that defeated Europe, 13-11, to claim the 2010 Palmer Cup, America’s first win since 2002.

In the 2008-2009 season, Zambri directed a squad that featured three All-Americans in Giles, Tom Glissmeyer and Tim Sluiter. Giles was also the 2009 Pac-10 Player of the Year. The Trojans, who won two tournaments on the year, advanced past the NCAA Championships strokeplay stage into the eight-team match-play competition before falling in the quarterfinals.

After a highly successful 2007-2008 season, Zambri was named the 2008 GCAA National, the Pacific Region and the Pac-10 Coach of the Year. The honors came on the heels of a stellar campaign that saw USC finish just three strokes short of winning its first-ever NCAA title. As it was, USC finished third at the NCAA Championships (something Troy hadn’t done since 1975). USC won four tournaments on the season (all within its final seven events), including its first ever NCAA Regional championship. Troy also tied for first at the Pac-10 Championships (but fell in a playoff). Sophomores Jamie Lovemark and Rory Hie were tabbed as All-American first teamers while Glissmeyer, Sluiter and Giles all earned All-American honorable mention honors. It was the first time in school history USC featured five All-Americans. Lovemark and Hie also marked the first time USC had two All-American first teamers in one season.

In his first season as head coach, Zambri guided USC to an appearance in the 2007 NCAA Championships and the Trojans’ 18th Pac-10 team title.

At the NCAA Championships, Lovemark, then a freshman, became Troy’s fourth NCAA individual champion. Lovemark earned the Arnold Palmer (national championship individual medalist), Jack Nicklaus (national player of the year) and Phil Mickelson (nation’s outstanding freshman) Awards and was tabbed a Ping All-American first teamer. Lovemark earlier became USC’s 20th Pac-10 individual champion while four other Trojans finished in the top 10 en route to the team crown. Lovemark was named Pac-10 Co-Golfer and Freshman of the Year honors while fellow freshman Rory Hie was tabbed a Pac-10 second teamer. On the season, the Trojans posted 12 top 5 finishes and six in the top 2.

Zambri, 40, played six years on the Nationwide Tour and was an active teaching professional when he was not competing.

A 1993 USC graduate who played for the Trojans from 1989 to 1993, Zambri played six seasons on the Nationwide Tour between 1997 and 2004. He finished as high as 19th on the circuit’s money list in 1998, posting two second-place finishes that year. He competed in four PGA Tour events as well as the 1995 and 1999 U.S. Opens. As a Trojan, he was a two-time All-Pac-10 second team selection in 1991 and 1993.

“This is the opportunity of a lifetime,” said Zambri when he was hired. “I look forward to not only bringing championships to USC, but to influencing the young people on the team in positive ways on and off the golf course.”

Zambri is married to Kim Zambri and they have three children: Wyatt, 13; Joseph, 9; and Laney, 7.

Josh Brewer

Assistant Coach • Fourth Year

Josh Brewer, who owns more than a decade of collegiate golf experience as a successful player, instructor and recruiter, is in his fourth year as a USC men’s and women’s golf assistant coach.

Brewer came to USC after spending the previous six seasons (2003-08) as an assistant men’s golf coach at his alma mater, Indiana.

“Josh has a wide array of competitive, coaching and recruiting experience at the Division I level,” USC Director of Golf Kurt Schuette said. “His experience and commitment will immediately contribute to our mission of developing champions and championships.”

In his short time at USC, Brewer has helped guide five women’s and three men’s All-Americans (and a men’s freshman All-American) as well as two women’s and one man’s Pac-10 Players of the Year and a man’s and women’s Pac-10 Freshman of the Year.

During Brewer’s six years with the Hoosiers, Indiana made four trips to the NCAA Championships (2004-06, 2008). Its berth in the NCAA Finals this past season was its first since 1996.

Also during Brewer’s tenure at Indiana, the Hoosiers won 11 team titles and claimed a runner-up finish at the 2005 Big Ten Championships. He helped guide Jorge Campillo and Jeff Overton to Big Ten Championships individual titles and Big Ten Player of the Year and All-American honors in 2008 and 2005, respectively. Campillo tied for second at the 2008 NCAA Championships while Overton has been a PGA Tour member since 2006.

Brewer played four years at Indiana (1995-98), helping the Hoosiers reach the 1996 NCAA Finals, the 1997 NCAA Regionals and the 1998 Big Ten Championship crown. He was a two-time All-American Scholar Team selection (1997-98) and a three-year Academic All-Big-Ten honoree (1996-98).

The Hoosier-state native graduated from Indiana in 1998 with a degree in Business Management. Following graduation, he erased a nine-shot deficit to win the Indiana Amateur Championship that year and then began a three-year stint as a financial advisor before beginning his career as a coach. He also recently completed a Master’s of Kinesiology from Indiana.

Born Sept. 17, 1975, Brewer is married to the former Selena Ofredo.

John Wurzer

Assistant Coach • First Year

John Wurzer, a successful high school coach and golf instructor for more than a decade, is in his first year as a USC men’s and women’s golf assistant coach 2012 after two years as the golf operations director (2010-11).

Wurzer brings a wealth of golf knowledge and business experience to the Trojan Golf program. He was the head golf coach at Torrance (Calif.) High from 2000-08, where he won the 2005, 2007 and 2008 California Interscholastic Federation (CIF) State Girls Golf Championships.

Under his leadership, Torrance became the most successful high school girl’s golf program in California with 24 Top 2 finishes in CIF events (17 CIF championships and 7 CIF runner-up finishes). His teams produced 2007 LPGA Rookie of the Year Angela Park, Futures Tour players Maria Ham, Jane Rah & Jenny Shin and numerous Division I golfers.

Wurzer played collegiately at Long Beach State (1993-1997), where he posted seven top 10 tournament finishes and won the 1996 CSUN Bill Cullum Invitational. He graduated with a degree in Interdisciplinary Studies in Coach Education and Sport Development.

He owns Golf Excellence International Teaching Center in Manhattan Beach and has been a golf swing instructor for 11 years. John is a Titleist Performance Institute (TPI) Level-3 Certified Golf Fitness Instructor and a Certified Golfing Machine Instructor (GSEM). John is single and resides in Long Beach.
The 2011-2012 season was perhaps the finest combined men's and women's campaigns in school history. The women's team won its second NCAA title, its third consecutive NCAA Regional title, its first Pac-10 title in almost two decades and featured five All-Americans (Moza, Dewi Claire Schreefel, Paola Moreno, Salas and Stefanie Endstrasser). Moreno also finished third at the NCAA Championships after falling in a playoff. Sophomores Jamie Lovemark and Rory Hie were tabbed as All-American first teamers while Glissmeyer, Sluiter and Giles all earned All-American honorable mention honors. It was the first time in school history USC featured five All-Americans. Lovemark and Hie also marked the first time USC had two All-American first teamers in one season.

In 2007, the Trojan men returned to the NCAA Championships final for the fourth time in the past five years, enjoying NCAA postseason action for the 18th year in a row. Lovemark, as a freshman, became USC's third NCAA Championship individual title winner and also led USC to its 18th Pac-10 Championship while winning the conference individual crown as well.

In 2006, Taylor Wood represented the Trojans at the 2006 NCAA Championships when he finished tied for 27th while competing individually.

In 2005, USC made it to the NCAA Championships for the third straight season. Its sixth-place finish that year was the Trojans’ best since taking fifth in 1995.

In 2002, USC won its first back-to-back conference championship since 1972-73. It was yet another milestone in the re-establishment of USC as a national golf power.

The Trojans have been moving up from the moment Schuette came to USC in 1994-95. That year, Schuette directed the USC men’s golf team well beyond expectations, all the way to a fifth-place finish at the 1995 NCAA Championships, and he earned District VIII Coach of the Year honors (Pac-10, Big West and WCC).

It was USC’s highest national finish in 20 years and the eight strokes that separated USC from the championship matched the closest Troy has ever been to the national title.

That year, Schuette directed the USC men’s golf team well beyond expectations, all the way to a fifth-place finish at the 1995 NCAA Championships, and he earned District VIII Coach of the Year honors (Pac-10, Big West and WCC).

It was USC’s highest national finish in 20 years and the eight strokes that separated USC from the championship matched the closest Troy has ever been to the national title.

Then in 1995-96, he led the Trojan men’s team to its second consecutive Top 10 finish with a ninth-place showing at the NCAAs. And under his guidance, Brian Hull earned first-team All-American honors. Schuette was also honored by being selected to serve on the NCAA District VIII Advisory Committee.

In 1996-97, Schuette kept the Trojans ranked between No. 3 and No. 7 all year with three All-Americans in the lineup and eventually finished 14th at the NCAAs.

After graduating six players, his young men’s teams didn’t qualify for the NCAA Finals in 1997-98 or 1998-99 (Jorge Corral did qualify as an individual in ’99), but they rebounded nicely in 1999-2000, finishing fourth at the NCAA West Regional to qualify for the NCAA Finals at Opelika, Ala. Although they missed the cut at that tourney, the Trojans showed the mettle once again to compete at the highest levels of collegiate golf.

In 2001 and 2002, Schuette led the Trojans to consecutive Pac-10 titles, while helping coach Hunter Mahan—the 2001 Pac-10 Freshman of the Year—and Kevin Stadler—the 2002 Pac-10 Golfer of the Year—to All-American honors.

Schuette was elevated to Director of Golf at USC in 1996. Under his direction and the hard work of outstanding women’s coach Andrea Gaston, the USC women’s golf program has also blossomed into one of the top programs in the country. USC has made 14 straight NCAA Championship final appearances, winning the team title in 2003 and 2008, finishing among the top five seven of the past nine years and among the top 10 in 11 of the past 14 years.

In 2007, junior Paola Moreno earned All-American first team honors while Mozo, as a freshman, was tabbed an All-American honorable mention pick.

In 2006, Schreefel, as a sophomore, became USC’s third NCAA individual title winner and joined 2006 Women’s Golf Honda Award winner Irene Cho as an All-American first team selection. Schreefel was also an All-American honorable mention pick in 2005.

In 2003, the Women of Troy had a magical season, winning the first-ever NCAA team golf title, senior Mikaela Parmlid won the NCAA individual title, while Cho was an honorable mention All-American selection.

In 2002, the Women of Troy placed 14th at the NCAAAs and both Parmlid and Becky Lucidi were named to All-American teams. In back to back summers, Candie Kung won the U.S. Women’s Pub Links and Lucidi won the U.S. Women’s Amateur Championship. In 2000-01, the USC women finished seventh again as Kung made All-American for the second season.

In 2000, the Women of Troy finished fourth at the NCAAAs and were led by All-American and Pac-10 Champion Kung, then a freshman.

In 1999, the Women of Troy won the NCAA West Regional, then finished seventh at the NCAA Finals. Sophomore Jennifer Rosales placed fourth and was named Collegiate Player of the Year.

The 1998 Women of Troy finished seventh at the NCAA Championships, but the highlight of the season was Rosales, then a freshman, winning USC’s first-ever women’s NCAA individual title in only her sixth collegiate tournament.

Schuette has laid a great foundation for Trojan Golf. However, he views it as just that -- a foundation. Schuette feels that the opportunities for Trojan Golf are limitless, and that both the men’s and women’s programs will continue to grow stronger every year.

In a recent annual ranking, Golf Digest ranked the USC women’s golf team 3rd and the men’s golf team 5th in their balanced ranking, which accounted for strength of both the academic program and the golf program. Furthermore, USC ranked No. 1 among private universities in the balanced category for men and No. 2 for women. The Trojans have created a standard of excellence both on the golf course and in the classroom.

“We are very serious about elevating both our programs to a championship level,” Schuette said. “Our goal here is to succeed at whatever we do. We are striving to continue to win Pac-10 titles and our first men’s team NCAA Championship. We are also proud to say we have recently had success with former players earning both PGA and LPGA Tour cards. All this is part of our mission to become the program by which all others are measured. Our philosophy is to develop smart, aggressive competitors who are confident, independent decision makers.”

Schuette, 49, came to USC after six successful seasons (1988-94) at Pepperdine. During his tenure in Malibu, he led the Waves to four WCC crowns and was the 1993 WCC Coach of the Year and Pepperdine athletic department Coach of the Year. His teams were ranked as high as 16th in the nation and the 1993 team participated in the school’s first-ever NCAA Golf Championship. Schuette recruited four of the five players on the Pepperdine team that won the 1997 NCAA championship.

In 1986 and 1988, Schuette served as an assistant coach for the Waves, while gaining experience in the private sector, working as an instructor at the Santa Barbara Golf Club and the North Ranch Country Club. In 1994, he was hired as USC head coach and he quickly built the program into not only the top team in Southern California, but a national contender.

One of the greatest benefits of USC is that the relationship with the players goes far beyond their years at USC. Schuette has graduated the lion’s share (over 90%) of his athletes, including one Valedictorian at Pepperdine and he wants to see his players succeed at whatever career path they choose.

He is proud to have former players who have chosen to pursue successful careers as doctors, lawyers, authors, coaches, stock brokers, bankers, professional golfers and even an intelligence agent.

Schuette attended Santa Barbara City College, where he rapidly progressed, earning All-Western State Conference honors. He earned a scholarship to Pepperdine, serving as captain in 1984 and 1985. Schuette was an All-West Coast Conference selection in 1985 and graduated in 1986 with a bachelor’s degree in communications and marketing.

Schuette lives in Mar Vista. He has one son, Kyle, who is 12.
Senior Steve Lim
HAGENSTAD SO FAR IN 2011-2012: Hagestad has provided depth for the Trojans as a 2011-12 junior but has not seen any action.

2010-2011: Hagestad played in six events as a 2011 sophomore and registered a season-best tie for 12th at the Anteater Invitational at 5-over 221 (75-71-75). He followed that with a tie for 14th at the USC Collegiate Invitational at 2-over 215 (72-72-71). He was also 35th at the Jack Nicklaus Invitational at 17-over 227 (74-77-76). He fired a low round of 71 twice on the year.

2009-2010: As a 2010 freshman Hagestad, saw action in eight events and had two top 30 finishes. At the Southern Highlands Collegiate Masters, Hagestad turned in a season-best tie for 21st and tied for 29th at the Mauna Lani Invitational. At the USC Collegiate he finished with back-to-back 69s to tie for 43rd. Hagestad played at the Callaway Collegiate Match Play Championship, winning once, and played on USC's Pac-10 squad, taking 59th.

HIGH SCHOOL: Hagestad prepped at the International Junior Golf Academy in Hilton Head Island, S.C. Among his highlights during his prep career was winning the 2009 Scott Robertson Memorial at the Roanoke C.C. ... He was also a 2009 West Coast Canon Cup Team member, was third at the Golfweek Invitational and was a qualifier for the 2008 U.S. Amateur ... He tied for fifth at the Callaway Junior World Championship and was second at both the 2007 and 2008 Optimist Junior International.

PERSONAL: Stewart is the son of John and Merry Hagestad.

PERSONAL NOTES:
Favorite Music/Band: Offspring, Third Eye Blind, John Mayer, Goo Goo Dolls
Favorite Pastimes: Surfing, hanging out at the beach with friends
Favorite Food: Italian
Favorite TV show: Scrubs, Entourage
Favorite Movie: Van Wilder, Wedding Crashers, The Hangover
Favorite Thing about playing golf at USC: All the guys on the team have a common goal and we are prepared to do anything to achieve those goals.

KANG SO FAR IN 2011-2012: Sophomore Jeffrey Kang posted his first college victory after winning a one-hole playoff to nab the Amer Ari at Waikoloa Beach. He finished regulation at 11-under 205 (67-69-69) and used a par on the first playoff hole for the win. Kang was also sixth at the Gifford Collegiate and tied for eighth at the San Diego Intercollegiate at 3-over 219 (72-75-72) during a stretch of three top 8 finishes in a row. He tied for 10th at the U.S. Intercollegiate at 2-over 212 (70-70-72). He was named to the 2012 All-Pac-12 team for the second year in a row.

KANG IN 2010-2011: Kang earned 2011 All-Pac-10 second-team honors as a freshman, posting a trio of top 5 finishes while being one of only two Trojans to play in every event of the season ... Kang finished third on the team in stroke average (73.14) and tied for a season-high with nine rounds in the 60s ... He notched a career-best third at the ASU Thunderbird, firing a 5-under 209 (71-69-68) for his best spring result. That finish followed up his strong showing at the Callaway Collegiate Match Play, where he went 4-0. He tied for fourth at the Jack Nicklaus Invitational at 5-over 215 (73-71-71) and tied for fifth at the Pac-10 Championships when he finished 1-under 279 (72-68-68-71) ... He also had four other top 30 finishes, including a tie for 20th during strokeplay at the 2011 NCAA Championships at 4-over 220 (72-73-75) and a tie for 17th at the NCAA San Diego Regional at 2-over 218 (66-76-76) ... Kang's off-season was highlighted by a semifinal appearance at the 109th Western Amateur Championship. He fell to UCLA's Patrick Cantlay, 1-up, after weathering four rounds of the 156-person field to make it to the 16-player match play final ... He also tied for 12th at the Pacific Coast Amateur Championship at 3-under 285, was 13th at 6-under 282 at the 11th Annual Players Amateur and finished eighth at 13-under 275 in the Dogwood Invitational.

HIGH SCHOOL: Kang, who prepped at Sunny Hills High in Fullerton, Calif., was the No. 1 ranked 2010 high school golfer in the country as a senior according to Golfweek magazine. Kang was a 2009 Rolex Junior All-American first teamer and a 2008 Rolex All-American second teamer. Kang, along with Trojan teammate T.J. Vogel, was among four players who represented the U.S. at the Toyota Junior Golf World Cup in June of 2009. Kang helped the U.S. to a second-place finish and was the top U.S. finisher. Earlier in 2009, he tied for eighth at the HP Junior and posted top five finishes in 2008 at the Polo Junior Classic, Junior PGA, HP Junior, Rolex Tournament of Champions and Dixie Amateur. He also went 3-0 at the Junior Ryder Cup, won the 2009 West Junior Open and led the West over the East at the 2009 Canon Cup with a win in the event's final match. Also in 2008 he led Sunny Hills High to the CIF-CGA State High School Golf Championship, earning medalist honors.

JUNIOR • 6-2 • TURLOCK, CA

SMITH SO FAR IN 2011-2012: Junior Sam Smith has improved each semester he’s been at USC and earned All-Pac-12 honorable mention honors for the second year in a row after another solid regular season. He posted a career-best tie for second at the U.S. Intercollegiate with a 1-under 209 (70-69-70) and led USC at the Pac-12 Championships with a tie for third at 9-under 279 (77-68-67-67). He also tied for eighth (while playing as an individual) at the San Diego Intercollegiate, tied for 20th at the Gifford Collegiate and tied for 23rd at the Amer Ari at 3-under 213 (68-70-72).

2010-2011: Smith was a 2011 All-Pac-10 honorable mention pick as a sophomore and was part of USC’s starting lineup all spring. He had three top 10 finishes and five in the top 20, including a string of three straight in the top 13. At the 2011 Pac-10s, Smith was eighth at 2-under 282 (73-71-71-67), helping USC to the team title. That followed a tie for 13th at the Western Intercollegiate at 4-over 214 (70-71-73) and a tie for seventh at the ASU Thunderbird at 2-under 211 (72-68-71). He tied for fourth at the Anteater Invitational at 2-under 214 (71-73-70) and also tied for 17th at the Amer Ari Invitational at 5-under 211 (66-69-76). He was 60th at the NCAA San Diego Regional though his second-round 72 was a counting round. Smith's first round at the NCAA Championships was tossed out after he signed for a wrong scorecard (albeit for a round that would not have counted anyhow), but he followed it with a 71, the Trojans best round of the NCAAAs ... Following the season, Smith tied for 19th at the Pacific Coast Amateur at 3-over 291 and was fourth at the Sahalee Players Championship at 1-over 289 (74-69-74-72).

2009-2010: Smith, as a 2010 freshman, had three top 30 finishes in nine outings and three others in the top 45. His best result of the season came at the Pac-10 Championships, where he tied for 20th at 2-under 282 (68-74-71-69) while posting his first two sub-70 rounds of the year. He followed it with a solid effort at the NCAA Regional, tying for 24th. His stroke average of 74.32 was fifth on the team. His other top 30 result was a tie for 28th at the Gifford Collegiate Invitational, where he finished the event at par.

HIGH SCHOOL: Smith prepped at Turlock (Calif.) High, where he put together a strong junior career and was the No. 1 ranked 2008-2009 prep golfer in California. Smith was a four-time Central California Conference MVP and champion and held an under par average throughout his high school-playing career. In 2008, he tied for fifth at the CIF State Championships and won the 2007 NCGA Junior Championship ... Smith played in the 2007 and 2008 U.S. Juniors and also played in the 2008 and 2009 U.S. Amateur, making match play in 2008. He was the 2008 Sacramento Bee boys' Golfer of the Year ... Smith tied for 10th at the Western Junior Amateur in 2007 and was second at both the AJGA PING Phoenix Championships and the AJGA West Coast Championships.

PERSONAL: Born April 5, 1991, he is the son of Todd and Jane Smith.

JUNIOR • 6-1 • PALO ALTO, CALIF.

2010-2011: Trainer earned 2011 All-Pac-10 first team honors as a sophomore, not only winning the conference crown after a seven-hole sudden death playoff but helping the Trojans to the Pac-10 team title in extra holes as well. He had six top 8 finishes on the season, including his Pac-10 win that saw him finish at 5-under 275 (68-68-69-70) before battling Oregon State's Alex Moore for seven holes (Trainer finally won with a par on the 18th hole, the only hole they played). While in regulation, Trainer had to two-putt from 90 feet to force both a team and individual playoff (he got to within five feet after the first putt and tapped in the second putt to keep he and USC alive). He earned USC's 21st conference individual title and it was his first as a college player. Trainer, who led USC in stroke average (72.46) and tied for team high with nine rounds in the 60s, finished seventh at the 2011 NCAA San Diego Regional at 3-under 213 (73-71-69) ... He warmed up for the Pac-10s by tying for fourth at the ASU Thunderbird, where he carded a 4-under 209 (74-66-69), and tying for fifth at the Western Intercollegiate at even 210 (70-69-71). His 66 at the Thunderbird was a season best ... He had two top 10 results in the fall, a tie for seventh at the Gifford Intercollegiate at 2-over 215 (73-70-72) and a tie for eighth at the Bill Cullum Invitational at even 216 (71-71-74) ... Trainer, thanks to his Pac-10 win, earned an amateur's exemption into the PGA Tour's Reno-Tahoe Open in August. He didn't waste the opportunity, making the cut in his first PGA event before tying for 71st at 3-over 291 (72-72-74-73) ... Earlier in the summer, Trainer was seventh at the Pacific Coast Amateur at 6-under 282 (76-70-70-66) ... He was a 2011 Pac-10 All-Academic honorable mention selection.

2009-2010: Trainer, as a 2010 freshman, was ranked among the top 100 players in the country and was a consistent performer, earning 2010 NCAA All-West Region honors with six top 21 finishes and four others in the top 40. His stroke average of 73.11 was third-best on the team. He posted a season-best tie for 12th at the Ping-Golfweek Preview, tied for 18th at The Prestige at 3-over 219 (74-71-74), tied for 19th at the Olympia Fields-Fighting Illini Invitational and the Stanford Intercollegiate and tied for 21st at the Mauna Lani Invitational. He tied for 28th at the Pac-10 Championships and tied for 21st at the NCAA Regional. In the Callaway Collegiate Match Play Championship, Trainer won his first three matches and halved his final match (before falling in sudden death).

HIGH SCHOOL: Trainer prepped at Gunn High in Palo Alto, Calif. He qualified for USGA events during his high school career, including the U.S. Junior twice (2007, 2008) as well as the 2007 U.S. Public Links and the 2007 U.S. Amateur. Martin also qualified for and made match play in the 2008 California State Amateur and just missed qualifying for the 2008 U.S. Open. In 2009, Trainer won the 2009 NorCal Championship and played in the California State Championship. In 2008, Martin won the prestigious San Francisco City Amateur against a field of the best amateur players of all ages in Northern California. At 16 at the time, he was the youngest player to win the event in its 92-year history.

PERSONAL: Martin's parents are Paul and Isabelle Trainer.

*USC won in playoff over Oregon

Decades of Dominance

- USC men’s golf has won 19 Pac-10 Championships in the 51-year history of competition, far more than any other school.
- In addition, the Trojans won an unprecedented four straight titles and 10 in 16 years (1960-75).
- USC has also recorded nine runner-up finishes in Pac-10 Championship play, giving USC first or second place finishes in 27 of the 50 years.

* USC finished third in stroke play to qualifying for the eight-team match-play final

NCAA Individual Championships Won by Trojans

---

Scott Simpson, NCAA Individual Champion 1976, 1977

Jamie Lovemark, NCAA Individual Champion 2007

Tom Glissmeyer tied for third in stroke play at the 2009 NCAA Championships, leading USC to the match play quarterfinals.
The Haskins Award

The Haskins Award, college golf's equivalent of the Heisman Trophy, has been presented each year since 1971 to the top collegiate golfer in the nation.

Three Trojans have been Haskins Award recipients:

• Scott Simpson won it after capturing the second of back-to-back NCAA championship crowns in 1977. Simpson went on to compete on the U.S. Walker Cup team in 1977, beginning an outstanding pro career which includes seven tour victories and over $6 million in earnings.
• Sam Randolph was named the winner after his NCAA runner-up finish and 1985 U.S. Men's Amateur title. Randolph also competed on the '85 U.S. Walker Cup team.
• Jamie Lovemark won it in 2007 after winning the 2007 NCAA championship title as a freshman.

The award, voted on by media and collegiate coaches and players, is housed in the World Golf Hall of Fame in Pinehurst, N.C., and a replica is given to the winner.

USC Golf Team Goals

- Earn a USC degree
- Be a class team in victory or defeat
- Win the Pac-10 Championship
- Win the NCAA Championship
- Work together as a team to reach these common goals
KEVIN STADLER — The 2002 Pac-10 Player of the Year and second team All-American continues to shine in his post-collegiate career. Stadler has more than $5 million in career earnings thanks in large part to three great seasons in a row. He pocketed $768,172 in 2011 during a season in which he had six top-25 finishes. He earned a career-best $931,720 in 2010, when he posted five top 10 finishes on the PGA Tour and seven in the top 25. That followed a 2009 season in which he earned $925,514 with six top-25 finishes, including a second at the Wyndham Championship. He posted five Top 25 finishes in 2008, including a tie for fourth at the inaugural Puerto Rico Open. Stadler had three top 30 finishes through the first three months of the 2007 PGA Tour and later finished second at the Reno-Tahoe Open and seventh at the Wyndham Championship in consecutive events, finishing the season with $810,876 in earnings. Stadler won the Johnnie Walker Classic in Australia in February of 2006, earning $366,340 for the win and giving him an exemption for the European Tour. That win complemented his victory at the Argentine Open in December of 2005. In August of 2006, he won the Nationwide Tour's Xerox Classic. Stadler made the cut at the AT&T Pro Am at Pebble Beach and at the San Diego Open earlier in 2005. He also won the 2002 Colorado State Open and the 2003 Nevada State Open. He made the cut in 11 of 13 tournament appearances on the 2004 Nationwide Tour, including six top-25 finishes. He ranked 13th on the official money list, with $228,001 at the end of the year. He won his first tournament at the Lake Erie Charity Classic at Peek 'n Peak Resort the same day his dad, Craig, won the Champions Tour's Bank of America Championship. He was also the first sponsor exemption to win on the tour since 2001. He followed up that win with another victory at the Scholarship America Showdown two weeks later. It was his second win in tour starts, making him the fastest player to capture two wins in Nationwide Tour history. He had two other top 10 finishes on the season as well. Stadler earned his first PGA Tour Card for 2005 by virtue of his 14th-place finish on the 2004 Nationwide Tour money list.

JAMIE LOVEMARK — A 2007 and 2008 All-American first teamer and the 2007 NCAA individual title winner, Jamie Lovemark is in his second year competing on the PGA Tour in 2012 after two years on the Nationwide Tour (when he also made PGA appearances). After completing his 2009 junior season, Lovemark turned pro and earned more than $450,000 in 2009 thanks chiefly to a second-place finish at the Frys.com Open. He competed in four PGA events in 2010, but became the youngest person ever to win the money title on the Nationwide Tour that year with $452,951. He battled injuries in 2011, playing only in nine PGA events. As a 2007 freshman, Lovemark turned in perhaps the most successful season in USC men's golf history, capped by winning Troy's fourth NCAA individual title (and becoming just the third Trojan to do it). The top-ranked golfer for much of the season, Lovemark earned the Arnold Palmer (national championship individual medalist), Jack Nicklaus (national player of the year) and Phil Mickelson (nation's outstanding freshman) Awards and was tabbed a Ping All-American first-teamer. A semifinalist for the 2007 Ben Hogan Award, Lovemark won four tournaments, including USC's first Pac-10 title since 1983. Lovemark finished second or third four other times ... As a 2008 sophomore, Lovemark became only USC's eighth two-time All-American first teamer and earned All-Pac-10 first teams again as well. He posted a team-high-tying seven top-10 finishes (all in the top 8). Lovemark was one of 11 finalists for the 2007 Sullivan Award.

Introducing USC's 'Fearsome Foursome'

AL “MR. 59” GEBERGER
(B.S., ’59)

After winning 11 titles (including the 1966 PGA championship) and more than $1.2 million on the PGA tour, Geiberger joined the Senior Tour in 1987. Since then, he has continued his success, winning 10 Senior PGA Tour events, earning a career-high $608,877 in 1993. That year, he won the Infini Tournament of Champions and the GTE West Classic, with 10 Top 10 finishes. During his career, he has won 21 tournaments and finished first on the Champions Tour 10 times. However, it was at the 1977 Danny Thomas-Memphis Classic that he etched his name into the record books forever with an amazing 13-under-par 59 at the Colonial Country Club. A two-time All-American at USC (1958-1959), Geiberger was named an NCAA Silver Anniversary Award winner in 1984. Al, who participates in the annual “Trojan Golf Fantasy” fundraiser, has won over $6 million in career earnings on both the regular and senior tours. In 2001, he had three top 25 finishes, including a season-best tie for 19th at the Bruno’s Memorial Classic, and earnings totalling $122,624. In 2002, he played in five events, with his best finish being a tie for 17th at the Royal Caribbean Classic. He returned to the Champions Tour in 2004, finishing 74th at the Administaff Small Business Classic and 75th at the SBC Championship. His son, Brent, won the Chrysler Classic of Greensboro 28 years after his triumph at the same tourney. They became the first father/son duo to win the same PGA tour event. He was inducted into the USC Hall of Fame in 1994.

SCOTT SIMPSON
(Business Admin., ’78)

A two-time first team All-American and back-to-back NCAA individual titleist (1976-77), Simpson had his biggest year on the PGA Tour in 1993, earning $707,166 while winning the GTE Byron Nelson Classic. In 1987, he finished No. 4 on the money list, earning more than $620,000, and joined an elite group when he captured the U.S. Open at San Francisco’s Olympic Club. Since turning pro in 1977, Scott has won over $6.4 million, notching seven PGA Tour victories during his pro career, including the 1998 Buick Invitational. Simpson also served on the 1987 Ryder Cup team. He suffered a broken ankle in 2000 and was unable to play on the tour, but he returned in 2001 to earn $512,530 with his best finish being a tie for second at the Greater Greensboro Chrysler Classic. In 2003, he played in his first-ever Nationwide Tour event and finished tied for 54th at the Chitimacha Louisiana Open. His best effort for the season was a tie for 22nd at the MCI Classic. In 2004, he had one top 10 finish, a tie for 10th at the Valero Texas Open. He was inducted into the USC Hall of Fame in May of 1997. In his first full year on the Champions Tour in 2006, he won the Wal-Mart First Tee Open at Pebble Beach, had eight top 10 finishes and finished sixth on the money list. In 2007 on the Champions Tour, Simpson had five top 10 finishes and 14 in the top 25, earning more than $800,000. He had nine top 10 finishes in 2008 and was 14th on the money list ($1,272,626) and had seven top 10s in 2009.
CRAIG STADLER (’75)

A tour member since 1975, Stadler had perhaps his finest PGA season ever in 1991, placing second on the Tour’s money list with $827,628. “The Walrus,” as he is affectionately called, has won 13 PGA Tour events, most recently the 2003 B.C. Open. Stadler also received the PGA Arnold Palmer Award as the tour’s leading money winner in 1982. His fifth tour victory, the 1982 Masters, served notice that he was among the tour’s top players. Since winning the 1973 U.S. Amateur Championship and earning All-American honors four consecutive years at USC (1972-75), Stadler has gone on to earn over $11 million on the PGA tour and crack the Top 15 on the all-time career money list. He played on the 1983 and 1985 Ryder Cup teams and won the Kemper Open twice (1981-82). In 2001, he had earnings of $196,000, with his best finish being a tie for fifth at the WGS-Accenture Match Play Championship. In 2002, he played with his son, Kevin (another former USC golfer), for the first time in an official TOUR event at the B.C. Open. He later tied for 10th at the Worldcom Classic and earned over $500,000 for the year. In 2003, he was named the Champions Tour “Rookie of the Year” as he was 14th on the money list in just 14 starts, with two wins and seven top-10 finishes. He was on fire for most of 2004, winning the Champions Tour’s Player of the Year after a career-best five victories in a single season, the most wins by any player in a year since Larry Nelson in 2001. He also received the Arnold Palmer Award as the circuit’s leading money winner, with a personal-best $2,306,606—the 10th-highest money total ever. He joined Lee Trevino and Tom Watson as the third player to earn money titles on both the Champions and PGA Tours. In 2006, he had two runner-up finishes and five in the top 10 while in 2007, he carded four top 10 finishes with earnings of more than $500,000. Six top 10 finishes in 2008 helped him earn $752,732 and he had 10 top 10s in 2009. He was inducted into the USC Hall of Fame in 1999.

DAVE STOCKTON
(General Management, ’63)

Dave Stockton, who has earned a reputation as one of the golf world’s best putters, is another in the distinguished line of Trojan standouts. Stockton has won 25 titles on the PGA and Senior PGA Tours, including the 1996 U.S. Senior Open, winning career earnings of more than $9.5 million, which ranks him at No. 6 on the all-time money list. Stockton joined the tour in 1964 and won the 1970 and 1976 PGA Championships. Before joining the Senior Tour in 1991, Stockton logged 11 PGA Tour victories, earning over $1.2 million. Upon joining the Senior Tour in 1991, he earned Rookie of the Year honors. In 1993, he dominated the Senior Tour, winning five tournaments and earning more than $1.1 million in earnings. Dave followed that up with three victories in 1994 and won his second straight Arnold Palmer Award as the circuit’s leading money winner. In 1997, he won the Franklin Quest Championship. In 2002, he had his highest finish on the money list since 1998 with $304,000 in earnings. In 2003, he appeared in 20 events, placing top 10 in five of them with earnings of $142,833. In 2004, he had three top-10 finishes and finished among the top 50 money winners for an unprecedented 12th consecutive season, earning $145,250. He continues to play on the Champions Tour and has five top 10 finishes in the past five years. After serving as a Ryder Cup member in 1971 and 1977, Dave had the prestigious honor of being the 1991 PGA Ryder Cup Captain. He was inducted into the USC Hall of Fame in 1995. He served as chairman of the Senior Tour Player Advisory Council up until 2001. He is a second-generation Trojan.
JEFF HART (Physical Education, ’83) — A two-time All-American at USC, Hart finished 20th at the 1996 Buick Challenge. He previously competed on the Nike Tour, where he logged third place finishes in three 1992 tournaments. Jeff has career earnings of more than $500,000. In 1998 he captured numerous mini tour titles on the Golden State and Tear Drop tours. He also won the 2000 Buy.com Steamtown Classic and logged earnings of $178,489 -- 15th on the money list for the year. In 2002, he finished No. 47 on the 2002 Nationwide Tour final money list with $97,595. He made the cut in 7 of 19 tournaments in 2003, his best finish being a tie for 21st at the Price Cutter Charity Championship. He had two top 10 finishes on the Nationwide Tour in 2004 and rejoined the PGA Tour in 2005.

BRIAN HENNINGER (Psychology, ’87) — Henninger, who was a standout performer at USC after walking on to the team, is one of the bright young performers on the PGA Tour. After winning three times in 1992 and finishing second in earnings on the Nike Tour (to fellow Trojan John Flannery), he joined the PGA Tour in 1993. His first PGA Tour victory was at the 1994 Deposit Guaranty Golf Classic. Brian has career earnings of more than $1.7 million, and he contended for the 1995 Masters. His most recent win was at the 1999 Southern Farm Bureau Classic. He also has three wins on the Buy.com tour. His 2002 PGA Tour money total was $281,614, with his best finish being a tie for 3rd at the B.C. Open. In 2003, his best finish was a tie for 18th at the B.C. Open, while his best 2006 finish was a tie for 24th at the Chrysler Classic of Tucson.

MARK PFEIL — Pfeil has logged 24 seasons on the PGA Tour and was exempt on the Champions Tour in 2003. He serves as a volunteer assistant to the USC program. He won the Tallahassee Open on the PGA Tour in 1980. He has career earnings of more than $570,000. Pfeil was a two-time All-American, a Pac-10 Champion and a member of the Walker Cup team while at USC. He recently qualified for the Champions Tour in his first attempt. Played in 15 events in 2002 and finished 78th on the final money list with $174,090. In 2003, he played in 17 events and made the cut in all of them, his best finish being a tie for 11th at the Farmer’s Charity Classic.

JOHN JACOBS — Jacobs joined the PGA Tour in 1968 and the Senior Tour in 1995. He has three Senior victories under his belt, including the 1998 Nationwide Championship, the 1999 MasterCard Championship and the 2000 Bruno's Memorial Classic. His best PGA Tour finish was a second place finish at the 1971 United Airlines Ontario Open. He has four top 10 finishes and has earned more than $740,000 in winnings in 2001 on the Senior Tour. In 2002, he had a career-best year from an earnings standpoint with $1,224,737. He moved up 11 spots on the money list and increased his earnings by nearly $500,000 over his 2001 total. In 2003, he finished in the top 30 on the money list for the eighth-straight season and had four top 10 finishes. The biggest of those was the Senior PGA Championship, when he became the oldest winner of the event (58) since Pete Cooper (61) in 1976. He had five top 10 finishes on the Champions Tour in 2004.

MARK PFEIL — Pfeil has logged 24 seasons on the PGA Tour and was exempt on the Champions Tour in 2003. He serves as a volunteer assistant to the USC program. He won the Tallahassee Open on the PGA Tour in 1980. He has career earnings of more than $570,000. Pfeil was a two-time All-American, a Pac-10 Champion and a member of the Walker Cup team while at USC. He recently qualified for the Champions Tour in his first attempt. Played in 15 events in 2002 and finished 78th on the final money list with $174,090. In 2003, he played in 17 events and made the cut in all of them, his best finish being a tie for 11th at the Farmer’s Charity Classic.
SAM RANDOLPH — After winning 12 collegiate titles at USC and becoming the second three-time first-team All-American in Trojan history, Randolph has had a productive pro career, with career earnings of more than $600,000. His first PGA Tour victory was at the 1987 Bank of Boston Classic. Sam was the 1985 U.S. Amateur champion and won the Fred Haskins Award (as the top collegiate golfer) that same year. His best finishes in 2001 include a tie for 46th at the B.C. Open and a tie for 17th at the Buy.Com Permian Basin Open. In 2000, he had three top 10 finishes on the Buy.Com tour. He has been on the Nationwide Tour since 2002.

DAVE STOCKTON, JR. — Dave Stockton, Jr., following in the footsteps of his father, shows promise of becoming a major figure in the golf world. Stockton, Jr., won the Connecticut Open and the Hawkeye Open on the 1993 Nike Tour. He was the co-medalist at the 1993 PGA Tour Qualifying Tournament. His best PGA Tour finish was at the 1995 Canon Greater Hartford Open, where he earned a tie for second. Dave’s best finish in 1998 was a sixth-place showing at the Shell Houston Open. In 1999, he tied for sixth at the Canon Greater Hartford Open. In 2002, he earned $110,000 on the Nationwide Tour. In 2003, he earned more than $90,000 as he had three top 25 finishes. Dave has career earnings of more than $1.4 million and a career low round of 63. He was a volunteer assistant on USC’s staff in 2006.

ROGER TAMBELLINI (Education, ’98) — A third team All-American at USC, Tambellini returned to the PGA Tour in 2010. He finished in the money in seven 2006 PGA tournaments, highlighted by a tie for 21st at the Shell Houston Open. In 2008, he earned $194,227 on the Nationwide Tour, more than doubling his total from 2007. He earned paychecks in 12 2004 PGA Tour events, including a tie for 14th at the BellSouth Classic. He earned his first PGA Tour card via T21 finish at 2003 PGA Tour Qualifying Tournament. He made the cut in 14 of 17 events on the 2003 Nationwide Tour and had eight Top 25 finishes. He finished the season No. 22 on the money list ($177,963), winning his first Tour title at the Albertsons Boise Open. He collected $108,000 for the win and was named the Nationwide Tour Player of the Month in September. He finished second in All-Around Ranking, fourth in Total Driving and fifth in Scrambling. He made the cut seven times on the 2002 Nationwide Tour.

Annadale Golf Club

- Annadale Golf Club
  - Est.: 1906
  - Yards: 6,500
  - Par: 70, Rating: 71.9
  - Course architect: Bill Bell, Sr.
  - Annadale has served as a qualifying site for the L.A. Open, and its narrow fairways and quick greens present a strong challenge. The facility boasts an outstanding short game practice area and golf legends Bobby Jones and Walter Hagen were frequent visitors.
  - Host pro: Wade Burzus, PGA.

Bel-Air Country Club

- Bel-Air Country Club
  - Est.: 1926
  - Yards: 6,800
  - Par: 70, Rating: 73.8
  - Course designer: George C. Thomas, Jr.
  - A very challenging layout that plays more difficult than the yardage alone indicates. One of the more prestigious clubs in all of Southern California. Bel-Air has been ranked among the top 100 golf courses in America by Golf Digest and has a very traditional and historic feel.
  - Host pros: Dave Podus, PGA & Ed Merrins, PGA, Pro Emeritus.

Hillcrest Country Club

- Hillcrest Country Club
  - Est.: 1920
  - Yards: 6,700
  - Par: 71, Rating: 71.9
  - Course architect: Willie Watson
  - One of the oldest clubs in the metropolitan Los Angeles area, Hillcrest hosted the 1932 and 1942 men’s Los Angeles Opens, won by MacDonald Smith and Ben Hogan. Leo Diegel won the PGA Championship at Hillcrest in 1929. It has outstanding short game facilities and the course requires a wide variety of shots on hilly terrain.
  - Host pro: Paul Wise, PGA.

Lakeside Golf Club

- Lakeside Golf Club
  - Est.: 1924
  - Yards: 6,600
  - Par: 70, Rating: 71.9
  - Course architect: Max Behr
  - Located in Toluca Lake, the course has long been one of the top clubs in Southern California. Lakeside has been an L.A. Open qualifying course, and lists celebrities Kevin Costner, Joe Pesci, Sylvester Stallone, the late Bob Hope, Bing Crosby and W.C. Fields among its members.
  - Host pro: Rick Stegall, PGA.

Los Angeles Country Club

- Los Angeles Country Club
  - Est.: 1897
  - Yards: 6,950
  - Par: 71, Rating: 74.0
  - Course architect: George C. Thomas, Jr.
  - Featuring 36 holes, The Los Angeles Country Club, one of the most prestigious locations in the country, has been voted as one of the top 25 golf courses in the nation by Golf Digest. The club, which has one of the most demanding layouts in the golf world, has also hosted the Pac-10 Championships.
  - Host pro: Jim Schaeffer, PGA.

Lost Canyons Golf Club

- Lost Canyons Golf Club
  - Est.: 2000
  - Yards: 7,285
  - Par: 72, Rating: 75.6
  - Course architect: Pete Dye
  - Lost Canyons Golf Club has 36 holes of challenging golf. Its length and its undulating fairways require a player to hit every club in his bag. Additionally, Lost Canyons also has a fantastic short game practice area.
  - Host pro: Jay Colliatie, PGA G.M., Director of Golf.

North Ranch Country Club

- North Ranch Country Club
  - Est.: 1975
  - Yards: 6,900
  - Par: 71, Rating: 73.3
  - Course architect: Ted Robinson
  - North Ranch Country Club, which hosts the Ashworth Collegiate Invitational, USC’s home tournament, has outstanding practice facilities, 27 holes and is considered by many to be one of the best-maintained golf courses in Southern California. Trojan alumnus Dave Stockton served as a consultant during construction.
  - Director of Golf: Mark Wilson, PGA; Head Golf professional Scott Miller, PGA.

Riviera Country Club

- Riviera Country Club
  - Est.: 1926
  - Yards: 7,300
  - Par: 71, Rating: 75.6
  - Course architect: George C. Thomas
  - Located in Pacific Palisades, Riviera is among Golf Digest’s “Top 20” courses in the United States. Riviera has hosted numerous L.A. Opens and was the site of the 1983 and 1995 PGA Championships. The 1998 U.S. Senior Open was hosted here and won by Hale Irwin. Ben Hogan won the 1948 U.S. Open here. Golf Digest also ranks Riviera among the 50 best courses in the world. Host pro: Todd Yosshitake, PGA.

Trump National Golf Club

- Trump National Golf Club
  - Est.: 1999
  - Yards: 7,311
  - Par: 71, Rating: 75.0
  - Course architect: Donald J. Trump Signature Design
  - Located on the luxurious Palos Verdes Peninsula just thirty minutes from downtown Los Angeles, Trump National provides a challenging layout that demands accuracy and length. Besides its incredible ocean views throughout the whole golf course, Trump National has outstanding practice facilities. Everything from its practice putting green, short game area and driving range provide a stimulating environment.
  - David Conforti, PGA, Director of Golf, G.M., John Corey, PGA, Head Golf professional.

Wilshire Country Club

- Wilshire Country Club
  - Est.: 1919
  - Yards: 6,600
  - Par: 71, Rating: 71.5
  - Course architect: Norman MacBeth
  - A beautiful course located in Los Angeles’ mid-Wilshire district, Wilshire Country Club has played host to the L.A. Open and Senior PGA Tour events. The challenging course layout requires the golfer to have the ability to work the ball both ways off the tee and typically has slick greens.
  - Host pro: Rick Rielly, PGA.
The USC men’s golf team has hosted one of the premier tournaments in collegiate golf for 29 years. Formerly known as the Southwestern and Cleveland Golf Collegiate, it was changed to the USC Collegiate Invitational in 2007. Always an extremely competitive event featuring strong fields, past participants include Arizona, Arizona State, Arkansas, Cal, Houston, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Stanford, Texas, TCU, Tennessee, UCLA, USC, UTEP and Pepperdine.

The Invitational is a two-day event (54 holes) at the spectacular North Ranch Country Club. North Ranch is a challenging par-71 layout with a course rating of 73.3. We pride the course playing firm and fast with green speeds of 11.0-plus on the stimp meter. It played host to the 1988 NCAA Championships - a testament to its difficulty. Preceding the tournament each year is a College Am, which provides amateur golfers with an opportunity to play with some of the nation’s top collegiate players.

Players like Fred Couples, Corey Pavin, Tiger Woods, and Trojan golf greats Dave Stockton, Jr., Brian Henninger, Jeff Hart, Sam Randolph, Jr. and Kevin Stadler have participated in the event.

A special thanks goes out to C.W. Johnson, the tournament director for more than 25 years. Host pro and director of golf Mark Wilson has also been extremely welcoming and supportive. Our signature college-amateur cook-out with In ’n’ Out has become a trademark of the event.

At USC, we look forward to continuing to provide this wonderful opportunity for college players to compete and develop their golf games.

The Burell C. Johnson Family Short Game Practice Facility

The Burell C. Johnson Family Short Game Practice Facility was made possible by a generous gift from Burell C. Johnson and family, as well as donations from numerous other friends of Trojan Golf. It was dedicated on Nov. 25 of 2000. The beautiful facility, designed by Ted Robinson Jr., is located behind Dedeaux Baseball Field on the campus of USC, is night-lighted and provides the Trojan Golf teams with a convenient opportunity to practice chipping, pitching, putting and bunker play year-round. The green is maintained daily to championship standards. It is also a great spot for team gatherings, especially prior to football games.

This facility was also made possible by the generous contributions of the following companies and individuals:

- AA-1 Services, Inc.--Rex Johnson
- The Tommy Davis Family
- Jones Lumber Company, Inc.--Rod M. Jones
- Southwest Growers and Landscaping, Inc.--John Lamrock
- West Coast Turf--John Foster
- Russ and Joan Burkett
- Robert and Joy Foote
- Jaime and Susan Gesundheit
- Randy Hecht and Family
- Richard Meyers
- Bernie and Rena Shapiro
- Gary Shemano and Family
