THIS WEEK: The No. 3 Women of Troy now turn their attention to tournament action with a trip down the 405 to play in the 16-team UC Irvine Invitational. The Trojans open the competition against No. 15 Long Beach State at 9 a.m. on Saturday (Feb. 24) at Corona del Mar HS, needing a win to move within reach of the medal rounds. The winner of the USC-LBSU game will face either No. 7 LMU or No. 10 UC Davis at 2 p.m. at the same pool. A win there would put the Trojans in a 9:15 a.m. semifinal on Sunday (Feb. 25) at UC Irvine. The rest of the winner's bracket will remain at UCI, with the third-place game at 4 p.m. and the championship match at 5:15 p.m.

• • •

THE BRACKETS: USC is joined by Long Beach State, LMU and UC Davis for its first day of action. Possible semifinal matchups could include Stanford, Michigan, San Jose State and Arizona State. On the other side of the bracket sit UCLA, Santa Clara, San Diego State and UC Irvine, as well as California, UC San Diego, Hawai'i and UC Santa Barbara.

• • •

RANKINGS: USC (6-2, 2-1 MPSF) is ranked No. 3 in the national poll this week.

• • •

LAST WEEK: USC ended up with an MPSF split last week, winding up with a 10-8 overtime loss at No. 2 Stanford for the Trojans' first MPSF loss of the year before getting it together with a 12-5 win over No. 6 San Jose State the next day. Patty Cardenas had a hat trick against Stanford, including one to give the Trojans a 5-4 lead entering the fourth quarter and then her third to tie up the game with eight seconds left in regulation. USC managed one goal in overtime, but Stanford got three to get the win. Against SJSU, Brittany Hayes scored three goals to lead eight different scorers in the game. Kami Craig had her second straight two-goal game as well, helping to chalk up USC's second MPSF win of the year.

• • •

STARTING STRONG: USC senior Brittany Hayes opened 2007 with a bang, claiming MPSF Mikasa Co-Player of the Week honors in the first week of action following her 10-goal performance at the Stanford Invitational and a hat trick to start the year in a win over LMU. She's now fifth in the MPSF in scoring with 19 goals (2.38 per game).

• • •

FIRST THING'S FIRST: Three Trojan newcomers wasted no time making an impact for USC in their freshman seasons at Troy. First-year backup goalie Tumua Anae saw time in the cage in USC's opener at LMU and jumped in for two more halves of play at the Stanford Invitational, tallying nine saves and seven goals against in her first three games in the cage for the Trojans. On the offensive end, freshmen Alexandra Kiss and Kally Lucas also got to the back of the net for USC in the season opener. Kiss drilled out a hat trick to start off her USC career, and Lucas added one goal. Kiss is now third on the team in scoring with 12 goals, and Lucas has scored three.

STARS (& STRIPES) AT TROY: The Trojans boast the most current national teamers on any collegiate roster this season. All told, four Women of Troy are doing double duty this season as USC stars also shining as members of the U.S. National Team. Seniors Patty Cardenas, Erika Figge and Brittany Hayes along with sophomore 2-meter powerhouse Kami Craig have been training and competing with Team USA for several summers now and are also vying for ultimate spots on the United State Olympics Team for the 2008 Games in Beijing. The four current Trojans regularly join USC grads Moriah Van Norman and Lauren Wenger as members of the U.S. National Team, which also boasts 1996 USC grad and 2000 Olympian Bernice Orwig as an assistant coach. USC sophomore Michelle Stein also has been spending time capped up in red, white and blue as a member of the U.S. Junior National Team.

• • •

SENIOR STRENGTH: The talent and leadership in this year's senior class quite possibly outweighs all others to come through the USC waters. Erika Figge and Brittany Hayes have been starting since their freshman years, and Marina Mayer and Jana Wenger were regulars in that 2004 rotation that won the NCAA Championship to start those four Trojans' careers off on a winning note. Denise Madrid also factored into USC's 2004 season as a freshman. Patty Cardenas may a relative newcomer to the Trojan roster, but her experience, talent and value to the program has lifted the transfer from Golden West to an immediate mainstay in the starting lineup since joining the Women of Troy in 2006.

• • •

CLASS WARS: Vying for that status level that the USC seniors hold are the USC juniors on the roster. It's another talented set of players who are helping to anchor the Trojans' powerful monopoly on returning experience. Miranda Nichols was named to the MPSF All-Freshman Team in 2005, and she returns as a junior regular in the starting lineup. Veronika Bartunkova also continues to factor into USC's offensive onslaught along with transfer Carolyn Conway in her second season at Troy and USC's driving force of depth, Alison Riddle and Julie Spataru.

• • •

TAKE ME HOME: The depths of McDonald's Swim Stadium have been good to the Women of Troy. USC has won 32 straight games at its home pool, dating back to a 7-6 MPSF Semifinal loss to UCLA on April 27, 2002, when USC last hosted the MPSF Tournament. The Trojans went 7-0 at home in 2003, 7-0 in 2004, 8-0 in 2005 and 9-0 in 2006.

• • •

VAVIC ON DECK: Head coach Jovan Vavic serves a dual role as the head coach of both the USC men's and women's teams. He has been with the USC women's program since its inception in 1995, and has led his men's and women's teams to national championships twice in the same school year (the men in 1998 and 2003 and the women in 1999 and 2004). In his 11th season at the helm of the men's program, Vavic led the Trojans to the 2005 NCAA Men's Water Polo Championship and was named 2005 National Coach of the Year. For the first time in school history, Vavic saw two of his players earn collegiate water polo's highest honor, as Juraj Zatovic and Lauren Wenger made it a Trojan sweep of the Peter J. Cutino Award for the 2005 men's and 2006 women's seasons. Vavic brings a 277-98 (.739) all-time record on the women's side into the 2007 season -- his 13th as the women's head coach. Since 1999 when the program was fully funded, Vavic's record is 207-31 (.870) with an even more impressive 159-20 (.888) record in his last six seasons. He was named the National and MPSF Coach of the Year in 1999 after winning USC's first national championship and then again in 2004 after USC became the first team in NCAA Championship history to go undefeated (29-0) during the regular season. Vavic oversaw the team's move from Division II in 1995 to Division I in 1996.

• • •

2006 RECAP: Last season, USC raced undefeated through the regular season and finished second in the NCAA Tournament, falling in the last second to UCLA in a 9-8 decision that left the Trojans with a 27-3 overall record. USC held a 26-game win streak before tripping up in the MPSF Semifinal against Hawai'i. Senior 2-meter defender Lauren Wenger became the fourth USC woman to win the Peter J. Cutino Award.
