TORERO TO WATCH

DOMINIQUE CONNERS

Senior guard Dominique Conners recorded a game-high 20 points in on 6-of-15 shooting from the field in Thursday's win over BYU. This marked the seventh time this season that Conners has scored 20 or more points, and it is also the sixth consecutive game that Conners has scored in double figures. On the season, Conners paces the USD offense with a 16.1 ppg average.

TIP-OFF: The University of San Diego women's basketball team (12-3, 3-0 WCC) will continue their four-game home stand this Saturday s they welcome the newest member of the WCC into the Jenny Craig pavilion, Brigham Young University. The tip is set for 2 p.m.

LAST TIME OUT: Behind a 17-point performance from Amy Kame, and 20-point effort from Dominique Conners, the University of San Diego women's basketball team cruised to a 80-58 victory over Loyola Marymount University Thursday evening in a West Coast Conference game at the Jenny Craig Pavilion. Conners led all scorers with her 20 points on 6-for-15 shooting from the field, while pulling down four rebounds and recoding three steals. Kame scored her 17 points on 6-for-11 shooting from the field, while recording two steals, four rebounds and two assists. Morgan Woodrow was the final USD player in double figures, as she recored 13 on 4-of-10 shooting, while Izzy Chilcott poured in nine points, and pulled down five rebounds. Kameron Knutson had a monster day on the boards, as she came off the bench to lead the team with 11 rebounds, and she recorded six points and had three blocks. As a team, USD shot .456 from the field, but were out rebounded for only the third time this season at 44-41.

THE FRIENDLY CONFINES: The Jenny Craig Pavilion has become a difficult place for opponents to play, as the Toreros are bolstering an impressive 7-1 record at home. While playing at home, USD has outscored their opponents 640-468, are shooting .458 from the field, while holding opponents to .331 shooting, and USD is out rebounding the opponents 376-307. Morgan Woodrow (19.6 ppg), Dominique Conners (15.0 ppg), and Amy Kame (11.8 ppg) are all averaging double figures in home games. Izzy Chilcott is averaging an impressive 9.5 ppg and 7.6 rebounds-per-game while playing at the JCP.

SCOUTING THE COUGARS:

2011-12 Record
 15-3 4-1 WCC
 Series Record
 1-0, BYU

The Cougars enter the game with an overall record of 15-3 and they are 4-1 in the WCC after defeating Pepperdine, 80-56, this past Thursday to win their fourth consecutive game. The Cougars are 1-0 all-time against the Toreros with the only meeting between the two programs coming last season in Hawaii, a 70-44 win for the Cougars. BYU is led offensively by Kim Parker, who is scoring 11.1 ppg, while shooting .453 from the field. Kristen Riley (10.3 ppg) and Lexi Eaton (10.1 ppg) are the only other BYU players averaging double figures. The Cougars are under the direction of Jeff Judkins, who just became the all-time winningest coach in BYU women's basketball history, picking up his 220th career win this past Thursday.

LAST TIME VS. THE COUGARS:

A pair of University of San Diego women's basketball players recorded double-digits, but it wasn't enough as future WCC member BYU claimed a 70-44 win at the Hakilau Invitational Dec. 4, 2010 in a non-conference game. Junior guard Morgan Woodrow led the Toreros (5-3) offense as she scored 12 points on 5-for-10 shooting, while also dishing out five assists. The only other Torero in double figures was senior guard Sara VanderHorst, who had 10 on 3-for-7 shooting from the field and Emily Hatch recorded a team-leading 11 rebounds. As a team, USD shot .326 from the field and were out rebounded 39-35.

CONNERS NAMED WCC PLAYER OF THE WEEK:

Senior point guard Dominique Conners of the University of San Diego women's basketball team has been named the West Coast Conference Player of the Week, the conference office announced Monday Morning. This is Conner's first player of the Week honor this season. Conners, a 5-10 guard from Oceanside, Calif., scored a team-best 20 points and grabbed five rebounds in a 77-60 win at Saint Mary's College this past Saturday, San Diego's only game of the week. Conners also dished out four assists and had two steals. This marked the fifth game this season that Conners has scored 20 or more points and it was also the fourth consecutive game that Conners has scored in double figures. For the season, Conners leads the Toreros with 16.1 points-per-game average.

RECORD WATCH: Senior guard Dominique Conners scored 20 points against Loyola Marymount this past Thursday, which moved her career total to 1,480, good for third all-time and just 30 points behind Susie Erpelding for second all-time. Conners is aiming to reach the all-time leader in career points at USD, Amber Sprague, and is now only 248 points shy of that mark.

USD All-Time Scoring Leaders

1. Amber Sprague.....1,728
2. Susie Erpelding1,510
3. Dominique Conners ... 1,480
4. Sam Child1,393
5. Marta Menuet1,233
6. Candida Echeverria.....1,211
7. Kiva Herman.....1,199
8. Chris Enger.....1,187
9. Jill Shaver.....1,171
10. Tiara Harris.....1,150

Considering Conners is averaging 16.1 ppg this season, Conners could find herself passing Sprague by season's end.

USD'S BIG 3: San Diego has its own version of the "Big 3" in the form of senior guards Dominique Conners, Morgan Woodrow and sophomore guard Amy Kame. These three ladies are not only leading the Toreros in scoring, but they are all taking turns doing it. Conners leads the team with a 16.1 ppg average while Woodrow isn't far behind at 15.1 ppg and Kame has now raised her average to 12.1 ppg. Woodrow has paced the Toreros in scoring in seven games this season, while Conners has done it four times. Kame has been an added surprise this season, and she is second in scoring for USD in WCC games at 14.1 ppg. On any given night, these three have the ability to go off.

NO GAMETRACKER OR VIDEO STREAM SATURDAY: The women's basketball game between the University of San Diego and Brigham Young University scheduled for this Saturday at 2 p.m. will not have any Gametracker or live video stream due Information Technology Services initiating a major network upgrade. There will also be no working telephone lines on campus this Saturday due to the network upgrade, so any inquires that fans may have day of the game, we will not be able to answer by telephone. We apologize for any inconvenience this may cause both USD sand BYU fans. However, fans can still listen to a live play-by-play of the game through a Listen Link on the USDToreros.com, with Paula Bott bringing Torero fans all the live action.

SLAPPING ON THE D: San Diego's defense has been huge this season, as they currently lead the West Coast Conference with scoring defense, as they only allow 54.9 ppg. In Monday's game against SCU, USD held the normally potent Santa Clara offense to 25 percent shooting from the field, they also held Saint Mary's to just 31 percent shooting in the WCC opener and they held LMU to 31 percent shooting in Thursday's win.

ABOUT THE RECORD San Diego enters Saturday's game with an 12-3 overall record, which matches the best start in program history with the 2006-07 team. Should USD win on Saturday, they will keep pace with the 2006-07 team, who opened up the season 16-3, 6-0 WCC, before finishing the year with a 21-9 overall record, the best mark in program history.

CONNERS EARNS PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE HONORS: Senior guard Dominique Conners was the lone Torero selected to the All-WCC preseason team. Conners was an All-WCC first-team honoree last season, after averaging a team-best 14.1 ppg, and she led the team with 64 steals. Conners scored in double figures in 23 games last season, with a season-high of 26 coming in the win against San Francisco on Jan. 15.

TOREROS ON TV: The West Coast Conference and CBS Sports Network have announced that one San Diego women's basketball game will air nationally this season. The University of Portland at the University of San Diego will be televised on January 19, 2012 with tip-off scheduled for 6:00 p.m. USD will also be on TV on February 4 when they travel to Spokane, Wash. to take on Gonzaga on SWX, and the final televised regular-season game will be on BYUTV, when USD travels to Provo, Utah on Feb. 18.

GAMETRACKER AVAILABLE: All San Diego women's basketball home and select road games can be followed live via Gametracker on the Toreros athletic web site at www.usdtoreros.com. Gametracker is a service of CBS College Sports, the official web provider for San Diego athletics, and is a real time update of the action.

CAN YOU SEE ME?: All USD home games, as well as select road games, will be streamed live via video on the athletics department website. Fans can watch all the action live from the comfort of their home by logging onto usdtoreros.com. Former USD basketball standout Paula Bott provides all the live play-by-play and Judson Richards will be providing color commentary for the season. This service a free of charge for all who wish to watch the broadcast.

MEET THE COACH: Head coach Cindy Fisher is entering her seventh season at the helm of the Toreros program. She was named the program's third head coach on April 19, 2005. In 2008, Fisher led USD to the WCC Tournament championship and back into the NCAA Tournament for the first time in eight seasons. In only her second season at the helm of the program, Fisher orchestrated the biggest turn around in school history, a 12-game improvement from 9-19 in the 2005-06 season to a 21-9 record in 2006-07 season. The turn around was the fourth best in the nation.

Under her tutelage, the Toreros placed three players on the All-WCC lists highlighted by Amanda Rego being named the WCC Co-Player of the Year. For her efforts, Fisher was named the 2007 WCC Co-Coach of the Year.

TOREROS TABBED SEVENTH IN WCC PRESEASON POLL: The USD women's basketball team was picked to finish seventh by the WCC head coaches in the WCC preseason coaches poll. Gonzaga was the consensus favorite to claim the West Coast Conference women's basketball title for the third straight year, while WCC newcomer Brigham Young University was picked to finish second. Pepperdine was tabbed to finish in third, Loyola Marymount was picked fourth and Saint Mary's was fifth with a total of 34 total points. In sixth place was the Portland Pilots closely behind the Gaels with 32 total points, and USD was picked to finish seventh and Santa Clara was picked eighth respectfully.

GAME 1SAN DIEGO 80, Cal State San Marcos 56

Nov. 11, 2011 at the Jenny Craig Pavilion

SAN DIEGO, Calif.- The University of San Diego women's basketball team kicked off the 2011-2012 regular season with a commanding 80-56 victory at home against Cal State San Marcos on Friday night. Senior Morgan Woodrow led all players with 18 points, while Amy Kame added 16 points off the bench for USD.

USD was able to spread the offensive wealth around as 10 players scored for the Toreros on the night, including three in double figures. The Toreros (1-0) outshot Cal State San Marcos (0-3) 46.6 percent to 26.6 percent in the contest as well, helping USD overcome a 36% night from the free throw line.

The Toreros got out to an early lead and never looked back, holding the lead the entire game with the exception of a 4-4 tie after two minutes of play. USD gradually stretched their lead over the course of the first half before closing out the half on a 16-4 run that put them up 49-28.

Coming out in the second half, it was more of the same for the Toreros as they stretched their lead to a game-high 28 points with a 75-47 lead at the 4:17 mark before eventually wrapping up the win.

Woodrow was nearly perfect from the field on the night, going 7-for-8 and 2-for-2 from beyond the arc. Senior Dominique Conners chipped in with 12 points and a pair of assists to go along with some stellar defense. Near the end of the second half, Conners stripped Megan Conroy in the backcourt on consecutive possessions and converted the layups.

Freshman Sophia Ederaine proved to be a defensive force down low as she registered five blocks on the night to go along with seven points and seven rebounds coming off the bench. Kameron Knutson grabbed a game-high 12 rebounds and added four points.

Justine Chacon scored 12 points to lead the Cougars, while Michel'La Logan contributed 11 points.

GAME 2SAN DIEGO 57, Eastern Washington 68

Nov. 17, 2011 at Reese Court

CHENEY, Wash. - Senior guard Dominique Conners scored a season-high 20 points, and Amy Kame added in 15 points, but it wasn't enough as the University of San Diego women's basketball (1-1) team dropped a 68-57 non-conference decision to Eastern Washington University (2-1) Thursday evening at Reese Court.

Conners scored her team-best 20 points on 8-for-17 shooting from the field, while recording two steals and nine rebounds. Kame was the only other Torero in double figures, as she recorded her 15 points on 5-for-16 shooting from the field, while pulling down six rebounds. As a team, USD shot .362 from the field, and out rebounded the home team 42-34.

Eastern scored the first seven points of the game, but a Kame free throw sparked a 10-6 Toreros run that saw three different San Diego players score at least one point, and pulled San Diego back to within three at 13-10 with 13:58 to go. EWU would then respond with a 10-3 which gave them their first double-digit lead of the game at 23-13 with 9:44 to in the first half.

After Eastern pushed its lead to 11 at 27-16, a Felicia Wijenberg lay-up ignited a 8-1 Torero run that was bookended on a pair of Kame free throws to pull the Toreros back to within four at 28-24 with 1:24 to go, but the Eagles managed to score the final bucket of the half to go into the break up 30-24.

In the second half, the Eagles managed to push their lead back up to double digits and took their biggest lead of the game at 45-32 with 14:51 to go. Then with the Eagles leading 48-38, a Kameron Knutson lay-up sparked a 14-5 Torero run that pulled San Diego back to within striking distance at 50-46 with 8:47 to go. USD would eventually manage to tie the game up at 52-52 all on a Knutson lay-up with 6:14 to go, but the Eagles then closed out the final six minutes of the game on a 15-3 run to take home the victory.

GAME 3SAN DIEGO 82, Seattle 65

Nov. 19, 2011 at Key Arena

SEATTLE, Wash.- Morgan Woodrow's career-high 24 points paced the University of San Diego women's basketball team (2-1) to a 82-65 win over Seattle University (1-2) Saturday afternoon in a non-conference game at Key Arena.

Woodrow scored her game-high 24 points on 6-for-13 shooting from the field, and she was a perfect 10-for-10 from the charity stripe. Dominique Conners was the second of three Toreros in double figures, as she recorded 18 points on 7-for-13 shooting from the floor and Amy Kame scored 11 points on 4-of-7 shooting from the field. As a team, USD shot .458 from the field and out rebounded the Redhawks 41-31.

In the first half, it was a close battle in the early going, as the two teams appeared to be trading basket-for-basket. Then with the score knotted at 4-4, a Conners lay-up sparked a 10-4 Torero run to give USD the momentum and a 14-8 lead with 14:44 to go. The Redhawks then got back to within three at 14-11 with 14:09 to go, but the two teams went scoreless over the next two minutes until a Woodrow lay-up snapped that streak and gave USD a 16-11 lead. The Redhawks would eventually pull to within one at 22-21 with 6:09 to go, but USD then went on a 13-3 run to close out the half and take a 35-24 lead into the break.

In the second half, The Toreros kept the pedal to the medal as they opened up the frame on a 12-6 run to take a 16-point lead at 44-28 with 17:20 to go. The Toreros were able to then maintain a double-digit lead for a majority of the game before opening things up and down the stretch and settling for a 17-point victory.

GAME 4SAN DIEGO 103, Louisiana 44

Nov. 25, 2011 at the Jenny Craig Pavilion

SAN DIEGO, Calif.- The University of San Diego women's basketball team (3-1) upended the University of Louisiana-Lafayette (1-4), 103-44 Friday evening in a non-conference game at the Jenny Craig Pavilion. This marked only the third time in program history that USD has eclipsed the 100-point mark, and it is the second most points in program history. The 59-point victory marks the largest margin of victory in program history.

USD has twice hit the century mark, both came against WCC opponent Portland, and both came in San Diego. The last time this happened was in the 2004-05 season, when USD hit 104 points in a win over the Pilots in the Jenny Craig Pavilion, and the previous time before that was in 1991 in the Sports Center, a 104-64 win.

The Toreros were paced by senior guard Izzy Chilcott, who recorded a career-high 20 points on 9-for-14 shooting from the field, while pulling down five rebounds and recording four steals. Freshman guard Katie Kuklok also had a monster of a game, as she recorded a career-high 18 points on 7-for-8 shooting from the field including hitting 4-of-5 from beyond the arc. Guards Morgan Woodrow (14 points), Nicole Ballester (12 points) and Dominique Conners (11 points) were the three other Toreros to score in double figures, while Woodrow recorded a double-double with 11 rebounds. USD shot an impressive .531 from the floor and out rebounded the visitors 54-31. All but two Toreros who stepped onto the court recorded at least two points.

For the Ragin' Cajuns, Krystal Motley was the lone player to record double figures as she had 11 points on 5-for-10 shooting from the field. As a team, UL shot .302 from the field.

In the first half, the Toreros got off to a slow start as Louisiana grabbed a 6-3 lead through the first four minutes of action. After Chilcott was inserted into the line-up, San Diego got some life, as Chilcott proved to be a spark plug for the Toreros. With USD trailing 7-6 with 14:37 to go, a Conners lay-up jump started a 15-3 San Diego run to give USD its first double-digit lead at 21-10 with 9:38 to go in the period. San Diego then kept the pedal to the medal and closed out the half on a 25-7 run to go in to the break up 44-17.

In the second half, the Toreros picked up right where they left off the first half, completely dominating every aspect of the game, as the Ragin' Cajuns could only score one basket over the first 7:30 of the frame, and USD then found themselves up by 52 at 71-19 with 13:38 to go. USD never let up as they simply cruised their way to a historic victory.

GAME 5SAN DIEGO 75, Colgate 73 (OT)

Nov. 28, 2011 at the Jenny Craig Pavilion

SAN DIEGO, Calif.- Behind a 20-point effort from senior guard Dominique Conners and a career-high 17-point performance from sophomore guard Amy Kame, the University of San Diego women's basketball team was able to outlast Colgate University, 75-73, in overtime Monday evening at the Jenny Craig Pavilion.

With time running out in the extra period and the Toreros (4-1) trailing by one, USD looked to its senior point guard for some help, and she delivered. Conners drove in the lane and pulled up for a jumper, only to get fouled by Kelly Korkowski to put Conners at the line. The Oceanside, Calif. native was calm, cool and collected as she hit a pair of free throws to give the Toreros a one-point lead at 74-73 with :35 seconds left. USD's defense then forced a turnover, Morgan Woodrow was then fouled with two seconds left, and she hit one of two free throws to put the game at its final of 75-73.

Conners scored her team-best 20 points on 5-for-15 shooting from the field, while just missing a double-double with nine rebounds. Kame was almost unstoppable as she scored her 17 points on 8-for-17 shooting, while racking up seven rebounds and dishing out four assists. Woodrow was the final USD player in double figures as she recorded 13 points on 5-for-12 shooting. As a team, the Toreros shot .359 from the floor, and out rebounded the Raiders 52-44.

In the first half, San Diego came out fire as they opened up the game on a 19-6 run over the first six minutes of action and it appeared that another USD blowout was in the works. However, the Raiders (0-8) had other ideas, as they put together a 9-0 run to pull back to within four at 19-15 with 11:47 to go in the half. A pair of Kameron Knutson free throws then sparked a 9-2 Torero run that was bookended on a Conners jumper to give San Diego back the momentum and a 9-point edge at 26-17 with 7:51 to go. San Diego was then able to withstand a few little Colgate runs and held on to go into the break up seven at 40-33.

In the second half, the Raiders began to slowly chip away the USD lead and managed to claw their way back to within one at 52-51 on a Mariah Jones 3-pointer with 14:16 to play. The two teams then saw sawed back and forth for the next five minutes before the Raiders took their first lead of the half at 60-59 on a Korkowski lay-up with 9:20 to play. That lead was short lived, as two separate free-throws from Kame gave USD back the lead at 62-61 with 7:09 to play. The Raiders kept things close and eventually tied things up at 66-61 on a Jhzmie Lynch lay-up with just 32 seconds left. After USD turned over the ball, Lynch found herself with a last second shot attempt that fell short, forcing the game into overtime.

In the extra period, the Raiders jumped out to a 3-point lead on a Tricia Oakes lay-up at 73-70 with 2:54 to go. USD then began to grind things out and managed to pull back to within one at 72-73 on a Conners lay-up, which set up for the thrilling finish.

GAME 6SAN DIEGO 54, Columbia 32

Dec. 1, 2011 at Levien Gymnasium

NEW YORK, N.Y. - Behind freshman guard Katie Kuklok's game-high 17 points, the University of San Diego women's basketball team picked up a thrilling 54-32 win over Columbia University Thursday evening in a non-conference game.

With the win, the Toreros improve to 5-1 overall and run their winning streak to four. With the loss, the Lions fall to 1-6 overall.

Kuklok scored her 17 points on 6-for-14 shooting from the floor, including hitting on four shots from beyond the arc. Dominique Conners was the second USD player in double figures, as she had 12 on 5-of-9 shooting from the field. Freshman forward Sophia Ederaine recorded a career-high seven blocks in the win as well. As a team, USD shot .350 from the field and out rebounded the Lions 46-38.

In the first half, Columbia jumped out to an early 6-2 lead over the first five minutes of action. Then a Conners lay-up jump-started a 13-0 San Diego run that saw four different USD players record at least one point and gave USD a 15-6 lead with 7:14 to go. USD didn't slow down, as they went on to close out the half on a 11-5 run to go into the break up 26-11, marking the fewest first half points the Toreros have allowed on the season.

In the second half, USD and Columbia began to trade basket-for-basket in the early going, as USD quickly built up its lead to 16 at 30-14 with 16:42 to go. USD would maintain the double-digit lead throughout the frame, and eventually built up a 22-point lead and then maintained that margin until the final buzzer.

GAME 7SAN DIEGO 42, Fordham 44

Dec. 3, 2011 at the Rose Hill Gymnasium

BRONX, N.Y. - Dominique Conners' last second shot rimed out, as the University of San Diego women's basketball team (5-2) saw its four-game winning streak come to an end with a 44-42 loss to Fordham University (5-2) Saturday afternoon in a non-conference game.

With the score knotted at 42-all, Fordham had the ball with 11.7 seconds remaining. The Rams then killed some time off the clock, drove down the right side of the key, and put up a shot that missed by a mile, but USD was called for a foul, which sent the Rams to the free throw line. Becky Peters then hit a pair of free throws to take a 44-42 lead with just 3.7 seconds remaining.

After USD inbounded the ball to Conners, she drove to mid-court and was fouled, but the Rams had one foul to give. Then with under two seconds left, Conners again got the ball on the inbounds and launched a 3-point shot from in front of the Torero bench, only to see it not go into the basket, allowing Fordham to escape with a win.

Conners recorded her first double-double of the season, as she scored a game-high 18 points and she pulled down 10 rebounds. Felicia Wijenberg was the only other Torero in double figures, as she recorded 12 points on 6-for-10 shooting from the floor, and she pulled down seven rebounds. As a team, USD shot 36% from the floor, but was out rebounded for the first time this season at 40-31.

In the first half, the Toreros grabbed the first four points on a Conners lay-up and a Wijenberg lay-up, but the Rams responded with a 5-0 run of their own to take their first lead of the game at 5-3 with 17:53 to go. The two teams then traded basket-for-basket over the next few minutes, and with USD leading 8-7, a Wijenberg lay-up sparked a 6-2 Torero run to give USD the momentum and a 14-9 lead with 11:25 to go. Fordham then went on a 9-0 run of their own, to take a lead at 18-14 with 4:07 to go. The Toreros however managed to close out the frame on an 8-0 run to go into the break up 22-18.

In the second half, it was a back and forth affair as both teams took their turn with the lead and neither team had a lead bigger than five. Then with the Rams leading 42-39 with 1:21 to go, a Morgan Woodrow 3-pointer tied up the game at 42-all with 1:08 remaining. The Rams then had an opportunity to take the lead, but they missed a jumper, and Conners grabbed the rebound with 29 seconds left to give USD a shot at winning, and they called a 30-second timeout. However, Conners missed a jumper after the timeout, which gave the ball back to Fordham, setting up for the thrilling finish.

GAME 8SAN DIEGO 56, San Diego State 45

Dec. 8, 2011 at the Viejas Arena

SAN DIEGO, Calif. - A big second half sparked off a strong defensive effort, and Dominique Conners' season-high 22 points, the University of San Diego women's basketball team (6-2) picked up a 56-45 win over cross-town rival San Diego State University (4-4) Thursday evening in a non-conference game at Viejas Arena.

Conners led all players with her season-high 22 points on 7-for-14 shooting, while pulling down five rebounds and recording four steals. Both Morgan Woodrow and Amy Kame had 10 points apiece to round off the USD scoring attack. Izzy Chilcott also had a huge game for the Toreros, as she recorded 10 rebounds and helped hold the normally potent SDSU offense in check all game long. As a team, USD shot .333 from the field, and was out rebounded for only the second time this season, 44-42.

"This was a big game for us, the city championship, and I am just so proud of this team," stated head coach Cindy Fisher. "I am really happy for our seniors, especially Dominique Conners, who is a local kid, and for her to go out like this is just awesome."

In the first half, the Toreros came out firing on all cylinders, as an Chilcott lay-up jump started a 7-2 San Diego run, that was capped on five straight points by Conners to give USD the early momentum with 17:14 to go. The Aztecs then responded with an 11-0 run over the next six minutes to take a 13-7 lead with 11:09 to go in the half, forcing USD into a timeout.

Out of the timeout, Felicia Wijenberg hit a lay-up to snap the run, but the Aztecs then got the next four points to take a 17-9 lead with 7:46 to go. After the media timeout, Conners went to the line and hit a pair of free throws to ignite a spark in the USD energy level, as USD then went on an 11-2 run to regain the lead at 21-19 with 6:07 to go. USD then continued to push forward and went on to take a 26-21 lead, but the Aztecs then closed out the half on a 7-2 run to knot the score up at 28-all.

In the second half, the first four minutes was a defensive struggle, as each team managed to score just one basket, with USD managing to get to the charity stripe to hit one free throw and take a 31-30 lead with 14:47 to go. A Kame free throw then sparked a 7-0 USD run to give USD a 38-30 lead with 8:31 to go. The Aztecs then began to chip away at the lead and pulled back to within two at 39-37, forcing the Toreros into a timeout with 6:26 to go.

A Conners free throw then sparked a 7-2 Torero run to give USD some breathing room and a 46-39 lead with 3:14 to go. USD was then able to fend off the last Aztec effort and eventually build up a 12-point lead at 55-43, before settling for the 56-45 win.

GAME 9SAN DIEGO 77, Pacific 57

Dec. 11, 2011 at the Jenny Craig Pavilion

SAN DIEGO, Calif. - Behind a career-high 31-points from senior guard Morgan Woodrow, the University of San Diego women's basketball team (7-2) cruised to a 77-57 non-conference win over the University of the Pacific (4-4) Sunday afternoon at the Jenny Craig Pavilion.

Woodrow recorded her career-high 31 points on 12-for-20 shooting from the field, including hitting on 5-of-5 from the charity strip, while pulling down five rebounds. Sophomore guard Amy Kame recorded her first career double-double as she had 16 points and pulled down 10 rebounds. Kame recorded her 16 points on 5-of-15 shooting from the field. Felicia Wijenberg was the only other USD player to score in double figures for USD, as she tied her career-high with 12 points on 4-of-5 shooting from the floor. Izzy Chilcott had another solid game as well, pulling down a career-high 14 rebounds, while scoring five points. As a team, USD shot .459 from the field and out rebounded the Tigers 50-34.

San Diego came out of the gates ready to play, as they opened up the game on a 6-2 run over the first 4:39 of action to grab the early momentum. The Tigers then answered the run with a 8-4 run of their own to pull even with USD at 10-all with 13:03 to go. The half continued to be a series of runs, as a Woodrow lay-up sparked a 10-3 run that was bookended on a Woodrow lay-up to give USD a 20-13 lead with 8:25 to go. Pacific then began to slowly chip away at the lead and eventually took a one-point lead at 25-24 on a Erica McKenzie lay-up with 2:32 to go. However, a pair of Kame free throws then gave USD a one-point edge at 26-25 going into the break.

In the second half, USD would go on a 13-4 run to open up things over the first four minutes of play to take a 38-29 lead with 16:13 to go, grabbing all the momentum. USD then went on to build up its first double-digit lead at 47-36 on a Woodrow lay-up with 13:51 to go. San Diego was then able to withstand a few Tiger runs and regained its double-digit lead for good on a Woodrow jumper at the 11:04 mark, and never looked back. USD just gradually built up its lead over the remaining eight minutes of the game and settled for a 20-point win.

For the Tigers, Ashley Wakefield paced the team with 24 points, while McKenzie was the second of three players in double figures with 16 points and the final Pacific player to record double figures was Kendall Rodriguez, as she had 10 points. As a team, Pacific shot .324 from the field.

GAME 10SAN DIEGO 69, Cal Poly 52

Dec. 17, 2011 at the Jenny Craig Pavilion

SAN DIEGO, Calif. - Behind a 22-point effort from senior guard Morgan Woodrow, and a 20-point outing from senior guard Dominique Conners, the University of San Diego women's basketball team cruised its way to a 69-52 win over visiting Cal Poly Saturday afternoon in a non-conference game at the Jenny Craig Pavilion.

With the win, the Torero improve to 8-2 overall, have won their third consecutive game, and have matched the second best start in program history with the 2006-07 team. With the loss the Mustangs fall to 3-7 overall and have lost four in a row.

Woodrow scored her game-high 22 points on 8-for-19 shooting, while managing to pull down seven rebounds, while Conners scored her 20 points on 8-for-12 shooting. And with her 20 points, Conners has now moved into third all-time on the USD career-scoring charts, passing former Torero great Sam Child. The final Torero in double figures was senior guard Izzy Chilcott, who scored 10 points on 5-for-8 shooting from the field. Freshman forward, Sophia Ederaine recorded four blocks, and as a team, USD recorded 10. The Toreros shot .448 from the field, and were even in rebounds at 42 apiece.

In the first half, a Conners lay-up sparked an 11-3 San Diego run over the first 3:47 of action to give USD all the momentum. After a Cal Poly 3-pointer by Jonae Ervin, the Toreros put together an 14-1 run that was sparked on a Woodrow 3-pointer and capped on a Conners jumper to give USD a 25-7 lead with 9:09 to go. Cal Poly just could not recover, as USD continued to score at will, closing out the final nine minutes on a 20-12 run to go into the break up 45-19, as the Toreros swarming defense held the Mustangs to just 17% shooting in the first half.

In the second half, it was a back and forth affair as both teams appeared to be trading basket-for-basket over the first half of action. Finally with USD leading 51-29, a Conners lay-up ignited a 8-3 run to give USD its biggest lead of the game at 59-33 with 10:11 to go. USD then simply cruised its way to victory, as this deficit proved to be too much for the Mustangs to overcome.

Cal Poly was led by Kristiana Santiago, who scored 13 points and pulled down 10 rebounds. Santiago had been averaging 21.6 ppg, and USD's post players Felicia Wijenberg, Sophia Ederaine, Kameron Knutson and Katelyn McDaniel held her to just one point in the first half, before she scored 12 in the second frame. As a team, the Mustangs shot .262 for the game.

GAME 11SAN DIEGO 99, CSU Bakersfield 70

Dec. 28, 2011 at the Jenny Craig Pavilion

SAN DIEGO, Calif. - The University of San Diego women's basketball team came just one-point shy of hitting the century mark, as they cruised to a 99-70 non-conference win over visiting CSU Bakersfield in the opening game of the Maggie Dixon Surf N Slam Classic Wednesday evening at the Jenny Craig Pavilion.

With the win, the Toreros improve to 9-2 overall and run their winning streak to four. With the loss, the Roadrunners fall to 3-13 overall and have now dropped six consecutive contests.

Morgan Woodrow paced all players with her 26 points on 10-for-16 shooting, including hitting six 3-pointers, while dishing out a season-high five assists. This marked the third consecutive game that Woodrow has scored at least 20 points. Dominique Conners wasn't far behind, as she recorded 20 points of her own on 9-for-14 shooting, while pulling down seven rebounds. Izzy Chilcott also had a solid performance, recording her first double-double of the season, as she tied a career-high with 14 rebounds to go along with 16 points. Nicole Ballester was the final Torero in double figures, as she recorded 10 points on 3-for-5 shooting from the field. All but one Torero who stepped on the floor managed to score at least one point in tonight's win. As a team, USD shot .527 from the floor, while out-rebounding the opponents 49-26.

In the early going, the Roadrunners, who only suited up six players, were hanging close to the Toreros not allowing USD to get more than a four-point lead over the first nine minutes of action. Then after Bakersfield cut the lead down to one at 23-22 on a Madison McKenney jumper with 11:15 to go, a Woodrow 3-pointer would ignite a 15-2 San Diego run to give USD all the momentum and a 14-point edge at 38-24 with 6:27 to go. The Toreros would eventually build up their lead in the first half to as many as 17 at 43-26 on a 3-pointer by Ballester with 4:34 to go, before going into the break up 14 at 47-33.

In the second half, the first six minutes of play was a back and forth affair with USD maintaining a 14-17 point edge. Then the Roadrunners would get back to within 11 at 13:40 on a Ciarra Ford 3-pointer to move the score to 60-49, but a pair of Conners free-throws then reignited the Torero offense as USD went on a 10-0 run to take a commanding 70-49 lead with 11:46 to go. The Roadrunners could not overcome this deficit and the USD defense would not allow them to get into any kind of a rhythm. The Toreros would eventually build up their lead to as many as 30 on a Kameron Knutson free throw with 2:10 to go, before settling for a 29-point victory.

Bakersfield was paced offensively by Kristine Herman and Ford, who each scored 18 points, while Lauren Carter scored 16 points before fouling out of the game. As a team, CSUB shot .400 from the field.

GAME 12SAN DIEGO 57, No. 13 Texas Tech 58

Dec. 30, 2011 at the Jenny Craig Pavilion

SAN DIEGO, Calif. - The University of San Diego women's basketball team put up a fight, but fell one point short in a heartbreaking loss to No. 13 Texas Tech University in the championship game of the Maggie Dixon Surf N Slam Classic Friday evening at the Jenny Craig Pavilion.

After the Lady Raiders (12-0) scored the go-ahead basket with 7.6 seconds remaining on the clock, USD head coach Cindy Fisher called a timeout. Out of the break, Dominique Conners drove the length of the floor, drew three defenders, was pushed, but managed to pass the ball to sophomore forward Felicia Wijenberg underneath the basket, and Wijenberg's lay-up rimmed out as time expired to allow the Lady Raiders to escape the building with a win.

Morgan Woodrow led all players with 20 points on 7-of-17 shooting, including hitting three 3-pointers. This marked the fourth consecutive game Woodrow has scored at least 20 or more points. Conners was the only other Torero in double figures, as she scored 11 points. Klara Wischer had her best game in a Torero uniform, as she scored a career-high eight points on 4-for-7 shooting from the field. As a team, USD shot .400 from the field and was out rebounded for only the third time this season, 41-33.

In the early going, it was a close nit battle as both teams took their turn with the lead and neither team had a lead bigger than two. Then with the score knotted at 6-all with 15:06 to go, a Wischer lay-up sparked a 5-0 San Diego run to give USD (9-3) a 5-point edge at 11-6 with 13:06 to go.

The Toreros managed to maintain that margin and pushed that lead up to nine at 26-17 on a Amy Kame lay-up with 4:53 to go. After a Texas Tech basket cut the lead to seven, a back-to-back Woodrow baskets gave USD its biggest lead of the game at 30-19, marking the largest deficit Texas Tech has had this season. The Lady Raiders then closed the final 2:29 on a 9-0 run, which gave USD a 30-28 lead at the break.

In the second half, the Lady Raiders managed to tie things up at 32-all on a pair of Kelsi Baker free-throws with 16:11 to go, but the Toreros refused to go away as a Woodrow jumper then sparked a 5-0 run to give USD some breathing room and a 37-32 lead with 13:38 to go.

Texas Tech would pull to within one again at 39-38 on a Chynna Brown jumper with 12:09 to go, but the Toreros then answered that with a Kame basket to regain a three-point edge. Texas Tech would regain the lead at the 9:45 mark on a Brown 3-pointer to give the Lady Raiders their first lead since 16:56 left in the first half at 44-41.

TTU would then build up their biggest lead of the game at 48-44, but the Toreros continued to push forward and came back to regain the lead at 51-50 on a pair of Conners free-throws with 5:18 to go. The two teams then battled back and forth over the next five minutes with each team taking their turn with the lead, setting up the thrilling finish.

For Texas Tech, Brown led the way with 14 points on 5-of-9 shooting, while Kierra Mallard was the only other Lady Raider in double figures with 12 points. As a team, TTU shot .375 from the field.

GAME 13SAN DIEGO 77, Saint Mary's 60Jan 7, 2012 at the McKeon Pavilion*

MORAGA, Calif. - The University of San Diego women's basketball team snapped a 7-game Saint Mary's College winning streak Saturday afternoon with a 77-60 win in the West Coast Conference opener for the Toreros at the McKeon Pavilion.

With the win, the Toreros improve to 10-3 overall, move to 1-0 WCC and have snapped a five-game losing streak to the Gaels. With the loss, SMC falls to 12-5 overall, suffer their first WCC loss, falling to 3-1 in the WCC, and they saw their season-high seven-game winning streak come to an end.

"I thought our defensive intensity took them out of their rhythm, and we executed great on both ends of the floor today," stated head coach Cindy Fisher. "We had great contribution's by so many players, and I thought Amy Kame stepped up on both ends of the floor, and helped create a lot of offense for us today. This was just a great team win."

Dominique Conners led the team with 20 points on 7-for-13 shooting from the field, while pulling down five rebounds and dishing out four assists. Amy Kame was the second of three Toreros in double figures, as she had a career-high 18 points on 7-of-11 shooting, while Morgan Woodrow rounded things off with a 12-point performance on 4-of-14 shooting from the field. Izzy Chilcott had a solid eight points and a team-high eight rebounds. As a team, USD shot .508 from the field and out rebounded the Gaels 41-35.

In the first half, SMC got the first basket, but back-to-back jumpers from Chilcott gave USD a brief 4-2 lead with 18:42 to go. The two teams then sawed back and forth with both teams taking their turn with the lead and neither team having a lead bigger than three. Then with the Gaels leading 16-15, a Klara Wischer 3-pointer ignited a 12-2 San Diego run to give USD all the momentum and a comfortable 28-18 lead with 6:43 to go. USD never let up, as they managed to maintain the double-digit lead over the remaining six minutes of action and took a 12-point lead into the break at 38-26.

In the second half, the Toreros came out firing on all cylinders, and just took complete control of the game, as they easily built up a 15-point lead on a Conners 3-pointer to give USD a 45-30 lead with 17:16 to go. After the Gaels grabbed the next basket, a Conners jumper then sparked a 12-6 Torero run over the next four minutes of action to blow open the game and give USD a 21-point edge at 57-36 with 12:42 to go. The Toreros never looked back as they cruised their way to a 77-60 win.

For the Gaels, Alex Carbonel led the team with 24 points on 9-of-20 shooting, while Jasmine Jackson was the only other Gael in double figures with 17 points on 7-of-15 shooting from the field. The Toreros defense held the normally potent Gaels offense to a .359 shooting percentage.

GAME 14SAN DIEGO 58, Santa Clara 41Jan 9, 2012 at the Leavy Center*

SANTA CLARA, Calif. - Behind a double-double from senior guard Morgan Woodrow, and an 11-point outing from senior guard Dominique Conners, the University of San Diego women's basketball team was able to remain perfect in West Coast Conference action, as they picked up a 58-41 win over Santa Clara University Monday evening at the Leavy Center.

With the win, the Toreros match the best start in program history with an 11-3 overall record, and they are 2-0 in the WCC. With the loss, the Broncos fall to 8-8 overall and 1-2 in the WCC.

Woodrow led the team with 14 points on 4-of-14 shooting, while pulling down a career-high 14 rebounds to record her second double-double of the season. Conners scored her 11 points on 4-of-14 shooting from the field. Amy Kame had a near double-double herself, as she recorded nine points and pulled down 10 rebounds. As a team, USD shot .339 from the field and out rebounded the Broncos 54-36.

In the first half, it was a close nit battle in the early going, as USD grabbed the first basket of the game on a Felicia Wijenberg jumper, and never trailed in the game. The Broncos would stay to within five of the Toreros over the first six minutes of action. Then with San Diego leading 11-8, a pair of Conners free throws sparked a 4-0 USD run to give the Toreros some breathing room and a 9-point edge at 17-8 with 11:07 to go. The Toreros would gradually begin to pull ahead and took their first double-digit lead of the game on a Katie Kuklok 3-pointer with 4:43 to go, giving USD a 25-15 lead. The Broncos would eventually cut the lead back down to five, but a Woodrow 3-pointer at the end of the half gave USD an 8-point edge at 30-22.

In the second half, the two teams would trade basket-for-basket over the first five minutes of play. Then with the Toreros leading 33-27, a pair of Woodrow free throws ignited a 16-2 Toreros run that gave USD all the momentum and a 20-point lead at 49-29 with 5:50 to go. USD never let up as they maintained this margin for the remainder of the half before settling for a 41-58 win.

For the Broncos, Ashley Armstrong led the team's scoring with 13 points on 6-of-15 shooting from the field, while Ricki Radanovich was the only other SCU player in double figures with 11 points. As a team, SCU shot .254 from the field.

GAME 15SAN DIEGO 80, Loyola Marymount 58Jan 12, 2012 at the Jenny Craig Pavilion*

SAN DIEGO, Calif. - Behind a 17-point performance from Amy Kame, and 20-point effort from Dominique Conners, the University of San Diego women's basketball team cruised to a 80-58 victory over Loyola Marymount University Thursday evening in a West Coast Conference game at the Jenny Craig Pavilion.

With the win, the Toreros improve to 12-3 overall, matching the best start in program history with the 2006-07 team, and they remain perfect in the WCC with a 3-0 record. USD also runs their winning streak to three with the win. With the loss, the Lions fall to 4-13 overall, and 0-5 in the WCC.

"I thought our defense was outstanding at times tonight, and I thought our team did a good job of attacking the basket, and getting to the foul line" stated head coach Cindy Fisher. "Our defense did a good job of allowing us to get out and run, and really push the ball, and I thought Amy (Kame) and Dominique (Conners) did a good job of getting to the rim, and finishing at the foul line. I was also really, really pleased with Kameron (Knutson) tonight, I thought she came in and gave us great minutes and did exactly what we asked her to do."

Conners led all scorers with her 20 points on 6-for-15 shooting from the field, while pulling down four rebounds and recording three steals. Kame scored her 17 points on 6-for-11 shooting from the field, while recording two steals, four rebounds and two assists. Morgan Woodrow was the final USD player in double figures, as she recorded 13 on 4-of-10 shooting, while Izzy Chilcott poured in nine points, and pulled down five rebounds. Kameron Knutson had a monster day on the boards, as she came off the bench to lead the team with 11 rebounds, and she recorded six points and had three blocks. As a team, USD shot .456 from the field, but were out rebounded for only the third time this season at 44-41.

In the early going, it was a close battle, as LMU grabbed the early lead at 6-5, and managed to hold onto the lead for about three minutes. Then with USD trailing 10-7, a Woodrow lay-up sparked a 15-0 San Diego run over the next four minutes to give the Toreros all the momentum and a 22-10 lead with 11:42 to go.

The Lions and Toreros then began to trade basket-for-basket over the next several minutes, and LMU would manage to cut the deficit back down to single digits on a Hazel Ramirez lay-up with 7:09 to go, moving the score to 26-18. However, that is as close as they would get, as a pair of Conners free throws then sparked a 19-9 run to close out the frame and give USD a comfortable 45-27 lead heading into halftime.

Out of the break, USD did not slow down, as they managed to maintain the double-digit margin, and didn't allow the Lions to get any closer than 14 for the rest of the game. USD would hold a 16-18 point lead for a majority of the half, before finally being able to break the 20-point lead barrier on a Conners jumper at the 12:46 mark, and USD never looked back, as they cruised their way to a 80-58 victory.

For the Lions, Ramirez led the way as she scored 20 points on 6-of-9 shooting, while Alex Cowling was the only other LMU player to record double digits, with 17 on 7-of-23 shooting. As a team, USD held the Lions to a .310 shooting performance.
