 Utah State (19-7, 10-5) needs just one more win on the season to notch its fourth-straight 20-win season, which would set a new school record. The only other time USU had three straight 20-win seasons was from 1962-64.

 Idaho is 11-13 on the season and currently in fifth place in the Big West Conference with a 7-8 league record. The Vandals are 4-8 on the road this season, which includes a 3-5 road record in league play. They're averaging 63.3 points per game, ninth in the league, and allowing 63.8, which is third in the league.

 Utah State will be looking to avoid back-to-back losses for the second time this season as the Aggies dropped a pair of road games at Jackson State (57-63) and at BYU (56-66) earlier this year. Over the last four years, USU has had only four back-to-back losses.

 Over the last four years, Utah State is 19-4 (.826) following a loss, and 24-11 (.686) under head coach Stew Morrill. Thus far this season, USU is 5-1 in games following a loss.

 Utah State is not in first place in the Big West Conference for the fifth week this season and for just the 13th week in the last four years.

average last week) to No. 22. The RQS is determined by a team's top six scores, three of which must be from away meets. The high score is thrown out and the remaining five are averaged.

 Freshman Meagan Nelson is the first gymnast in Utah State history to score more than 39.00 in the all-around in seven consecutive meets. The school record for 39.00-plus all-around scores in a season is nine, set by Christy Denson in 2000.

 Meagan Nelson and Nicole Kilpatrick are 19th and 21st, respectively, in the national all-around rankings. Regionally, Nelson is fifth and Kilpatrick is sixth.

 Never before has USU scored better than 195.00 four times in its first seven meets. In both 1997 and 1999, the Aggies reached the 195 mark twice in their first eight meets, but it took at least 11 meets before they managed to post four. Last year, USU had just two team scores of 195.00 or better.
