This Week
Fri.-Sat., April 20-21 --- MARK FALDMO INVITATIONAL
• Utah State’s outdoor track and field teams will continue its 2012 season on Friday and Saturday, April 20-21 when it hosts its lone outdoor meet of the season in the Mark Faldmo Invitational.

Last Week
M: 1/8; W: 1/9 --- at Sacramento State Invitational
• Utah State’s men and women’s track and field teams won both team titles along with seven event titles as part of 36 top-five finishes Saturday at Sacramento State’s Mondo Mid-Major Challenge at Hornet Stadium in Sacramento, Calif. The Aggie women totaled 148 points, topping Western Athletic Conference foe Fresno State’s 123 points. The USU men amassed 158.5 points, edging out host Sacramento State with 153 points. Winning events for USU were seniors Sonia Grabowska in the pole vault (13-05.25) and Lindsey Spencer in the discus (178-09), along with junior Silas Pimentel in the 200m (21.62), sophomore AJ Bouly in the 400m hurdles (52.84) and freshman Nic Bowens in the 100m (10.49). Spencer extended her current Aggie record in the discus with a mark of 54.48m (178-09). The women’s 4x400m relay team and the men’s 4x100m relay team also earned top honors with times of 3:45.54 and 41.04, respectively. The women’s relay team consisted of seniors Camille Fehlberg and Katelyn Heiner as well as juniors Aubrie Haymore and Bailee Whitworth. The men’s relay team consisted of Bowens, Bouly and Pimentel along with junior Will Henry. Spencer’s school-record mark also leads the Western Athletic Conference and is the ninth-best toss in the nation this season. She also moved up to No. 5 in school history for the shot put with a throw of 14.93m (48-11.75). Sophomore Sam Nielson threw the javelin 43.00m (141-01) to place third, with a mark that ranks third-best all-time in Utah State history, while Bowens tied Anthony Stewart with the 10th-best time in school history in the 100m (10.49). Overall, in addition to their seven titles, the Aggies had athletes take second-place in eight events, third-place in 10 events, fourth-place in six events and fifth-place in five events.

On Friday, Utah State’s men and women’s track and field teams won three event titles as part of nine top-five finishes. Winning events for the Aggies were senior Daniel Howell, junior Jon Goble and freshman Mariah Thompson. Howell won the 5,000m with a personal-best time of 14:12.41, ranking him fifth all-time in Utah State history. Goble won five of the 10 decathlon events to capture the title with a personal-best point total of 6,603, which ranks him ninth in USU history, while Thompson won the 5,000m with a personal-best time of 14:12.41, ranking him fifth all-time in Utah State history. Goble won five of the 10 decathlon events to capture the title with a personal-best point total of 6,603, which ranks him ninth in USU history, while Thompson took top honors in the high jump clearing a personal-best 1.70m (5-07.00). Joining Goble in the top five of the decathlon were fellow juniors Jordan McMurray in third-place (5,444 points) and Sam Hawkins in fifth-place (5,209 points), respectively. The point totals for McMurray and Hawkins are also personal-best marks. Freshman Jodi Williams finished in second-place in the high jump as she cleared 1.65m (5-05.00) to tie her personal-best height. Sophomores Kyle McKenna, Bryce Hall and Cherice Chugg also placed in the top five of their respective events with McKenna placing third in the 5,000m (14:38.46), while Hall placed fourth in the discus [48.09m (157-09)] and Chugg captured fifth in the 5,000m (18:31.60).
