GREGG GENSEL

Head Coach

Gregg Gensel is in his 27th year of coaching track & field, and cross country at Utah State. He is in his 20th season as head coach of the men's program and his 15th year at the helm of the women's team.

Prior to being named head coach in 1988, the 51-year-old Gensel was an assistant coach for five years and a graduate assistant coach for one year. As an assistant, he worked with all field events and with the sprinters. Currently Gensel works specifically with cross country, distance athletes and high jumpers along with his head coaching responsibilities.

During his tenure at USU, Gensel has coached the Aggies to 22 conference championships in both men's and women's cross country and track & field, including both the men and women winning the 2006 WAC Cross Country championships and the men winning the 2007 WAC Outdoor Championship. The Aggie women have won seven of the last 15 track titles while the men have won eight of the last 14 championships. He has coached 143 conference individual champions and 29 All-Americans.

In the 1998-99 school year, Gensel guided both the men's and women's track teams to Big West Conference Championships along with a first-ever women's crown in cross country.

Gensel has been named the Conference Coach of the Year 19 times during his career, including WAC Men's and Women's Cross Country this past fall.

He earned coach of the year honors in the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation after the men's team won the indoor title in 1993.

Athletes to earn NCAA All-America status under Gensel include: LaDonna Antoine (400), Shane Bingham (1,500, mile), Mark Calvin (pole vault), Craig Carter (hammer throw, 35-pound weight), Shae Bair (pole vault), John Kelly (javelin), Corey Murdock (400 outdoor hurdles, 400 indoor hurdles), James Parker (hammer throw, 35-pound weight, discus), Lance White (pole vault), Dave Hoffman (high jump), Brett Guyman (400 outdoor hurdles), Rebekah Thornley (1500), and Trever Ball (cross country).

A native of Long Beach, Calif., Gensel attended Utah State and was a middle-distance runner for the Aggies, finishing sixth in the 1,500-meters at the Pacific Coast Athletic Association Championships in 1981 (now the Big West Conference).

Gensel earned a bachelor's degree in health in 1981 and earned a master's in physical education with an emphasis in sport psychology in 1988, both from USU. He has been certified as a Level II coach by USA Track & Field, the national track and field governing body, and is also a Level I certified instructor.

He and his wife, Kaye, have four children: Chelsey, Janaea, Morgan and Britton.

STEVE REEDER

Assistant Coach

Steve Reeder enters his 28th year as the Aggie distance coach. He coaches both the indoor and outdoor runners in the 800 and longer distances, as well as working with the cross country team.

Reeder currently teaches physical education at Mount Logan Middle School.

Reeder was a long jumper at Box Elder High School before earning a bachelor's degree at Brigham Young University. He later earned a master's degree at Utah State.

While teaching English at Duchesne High School for one year, Reeder also coached basketball, wrestling and track. He then came to Logan and taught at the junior high level, coaching its track and wrestling teams for two years prior to becoming an assistant coach at Utah State.

Reeder carried the Olympic Torch as it passed through Logan on its way to the Opening Ceremonies in Salt Lake City for the 2002 Winter Olympic Games.

Reeder and his wife, Donna, have five children: Emily, Daisy, Marty, Isaac and Sadie.
