Coaches

Christian Wright enters his 17th season as Utah State's men's and women's head tennis coach. Wright, a native of St. George, Utah, attended Pineview HS where he was a two-time state champion at No. 1 singles in 1984 and 1985. In high school he lettered in three sports including, tennis, football and soccer.

Wright then went on to play tennis at Dixie College (1985-86) and qualified for nationals in Tyler, Texas. In 1986, he served a two-year LDS Church Mission in Alberta, Canada. Following that Wright came to Utah State where he graduated in 1991 with a degree in parks and recreation.

Wright was the head tennis pro in Elmira, N.Y. and also spent one year as a youth counselor before moving back to Cache Valley. He is also currently a local real estate agent.

Wright also enjoys spending time with family, reading and golfing when he is not coaching the Aggies or one of his tennis camps.

Wright married his wife, Mindi, on Aug. 21, 1989 and the couple have three daughters, Madison (14), Kennedy (11) and McCartney (6).

Lukas Bouton is in his first year as the Aggies assistant coach. Bouton is also the tennis director and head pro at the Sport Academy and Racquet Club in Logan.

The Anchorage, Alaska native came to Utah State in 2003 on a tennis scholarship. Bouton was named team captain for the Aggies his junior and senior seasons.

He is in his final year in the aviation and pilot program at USU and will graduate in May, 2008.
