ON TAP – Utah State (0-1, 0-1 WAC), ranked No. 41 in the Troster Gymnastics Poll, will host two-time defending Western Athletic Conference champion and 29th-ranked Sacramento State (0-1, 0-1 WAC), in the Aggies' home opener on Friday, Jan. 18... The WAC dual meet will start at 6:30 p.m. at USU's Dee Glen Smith Spectrum (10,270).

UP NEXT – Utah State continues its two-meet homestand by hosting Boise State in a WAC dual at the Dee Glen Smith Spectrum (10,270).

UTAHSTATE.TV – Fans can watch all USU gymnastics home meets live via the internet through UtahState.tv, available through www.UtahStateAggies.com, the official web site of USU athletics.

ABOUT UTAH STATE – USU brings an 0-1 record into Friday's meet after the Aggies lost in their season-opener at Boise State last Friday, 192.625-187.925.

Sophomore Heather Heinrich took all-around honors, posting a 36.875 while junior teammate Nicki Felley was second with a 36.775. Heinrich and Felley were the only two all-arounders in the meet.

Freshman Nicole Simoneau made a successful Aggie debut by winning the uneven parallel bars event with a 9.800, while fellow freshman Chelsea Marquardt also had a positive opening and was third on beam with a 9.550 and tied for third on vault with a 9.700.

The Aggies have six freshmen who will compete this season along with seven returners from last season's squad that finished third at the 2007 WAC Championships and sixth at last year's NCAA Regionals, marking the 26th time in the 30 years of USU Gymnastics that Utah State qualified for postseason competition.

The veterans are led by seniors Megan Tschida and Katie Omann, along with junior Nicki Felley, as well as sophomores Heather Heinrich and Devin Markle.

Tschida has the highest average score on floor exercise from last season with a 9.808. Omann is the leading returner on vault with an average score of 9.781 and had an average score of 9.443 on the beam, which is second among the returners. Felley holds the highest returning average score on bars with a 9.700 and the second-leading returning score in both floor exercise and all-around with 9.686 and 38.635, respectively.

Markle owns the leading returning all-around average score of 38.758, while Heinrich has the second-highest returning average score on vault with a 9.723 and the third-highest in the all-around with 38.250.

Headlining the freshmen are Lyndsie Boone, Jackie Dillon, Erica Huelsmann, Chelsea Marquardt, Jasmine Minion, Nicole Simoneau and Maegan Snodgrass.

ABOUT SACRAMENTO STATE – The Hornets are also 0-1 overall and 0-1 in WAC action after losing in their home opener on Sunday to Cal State Fullerton, 189.525-189.000.

Junior Marina Borisova was second in the all-around with a 38.050 after winning the bars with a 9.750 and beam with a 9.675, as well as third on vault with a 9.625.

Freshman Alycia Chan won the vault with a 9.700 and sophomore Eryn Stubblefield was third in the all-around with a 37.850 and second on beam with a 9.600. Junior Amber Basgall was in a three-way tie for second on bars with a 9.675 while sophomore Lissa Zamolo was third on beam with a 9.525.

The Hornets are coming off a 2007 season in which they won their seventh league title in the last eight years and also advanced to the NCAA West Regional for the second consecutive season. All but one all-WAC selection returns from last year's team, including five seniors.

Last year, the Hornets finished the season with a 18-10 overall record and were ranked 34th nationally in the final poll.

USU-CSUS SERIES HISTORY – Utah State is 4-5 against Sacramento State all-time, including 1-2 at Logan.

The Aggies and Hornets met twice last season, first in the season-opening meet on Jan. 7 in a triangular at Sacramento State with Wisconsin-LaCrosse, with the Hornets winning the meet with a 191.375 while USU was second with a 190.000.

At the WAC Championships on March 31, Sacramento State won its second WAC title in a row with a 195.275 while Utah State was third with a 195.175.

The Hornets' last visit to Logan was in 2006 when they made two trips to the Spectrum, first on Feb. 24, 2006 in a dual, outlasting USU, 193.750-192.175. At the WAC Championships, hosted by USU, on March 25, 2006, the Hornets won the team title with a 193.950 while USU was fifth with a 193.100.

REGIONAL HISTORY – In the 30 year history of the USU gymnastics program, the Aggies have qualified for regionals 26 times, with the highest finish coming in 1982 when the Aggies placed second and went on to the National Championships and placed ninth.

The most recent appearance at the regional championships by USU was in 2007 when the Aggies placed sixth at the regional meet.

2008 WAC PRESEASON RANKINGS – Utah State was tabbed in a tie for third in the Western Athletic Conference preseason gymnastics poll, released by the conference Monday, Jan. 7. This is the first season that the conference has done a preseason poll.

The Aggies, who garnered one first-place vote and 23 points, are tied with Boise State, who received the same amount of first-place votes and points.

Southern Utah had three first-place votes and 27 points, tying with defending WAC champion Sacramento State who also had 27 points but just one first-place vote.

Cal State Fullerton and San Jose State round out the poll at fifth and sixth with 14 and 12 points, respectively.

The 2008 WAC gymnastics championship will take place at the Taco Bell Arena in Boise, Idaho on Saturday, March 29.

IN THE NATION – Utah State gymnastics began the 2008 season ranked 33rd in the country according to the Troester Women's Preseason Coaches Poll, before falling to No. 41 in this week's poll.

Four USU opponents are ranked in the preseason top 25 in third-ranked Utah, eighth-ranked Oklahoma, No. 15 Denver and No. 24 Kentucky. Other Aggie opponents are BYU at No. 27, followed by Western Athletic Conference foes Boise State and Southern Utah at No. 's 28 and 29 respectively, Sacramento State at No. 34, San Jose State at No. 35 and Cal State Fullerton at No. 36.

2008 Utah State Gymnastics

WESTERN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE – The Aggies return four all-WAC honorees, in seniors Katie Omann (first-team vault) and Megan Tschida (first-team floor), junior Nicki Felley (second-team bars, floor) and sophomore Heather Heinrich (first-team vault).

Tschida also earned WAC Specialist of the Week honors (Feb. 26, 2007).

Five Aggie returners also earned academic all-WAC accolades in seniors Katie Omann, Ana Rickard-Whitfield, junior Nicki Felley and sophomores Heather Heinrich and Devin Markle.

2008 TEAM CAPTAINS – Seniors Kelly Patterson and Katie Omann along with junior Nicki Felley are serving as team captains. This is Patterson's third season in the position, while it is Omann's and Felley's first.

2008 SEASON OUTLOOK – Upon first glance at Utah State's gymnastics roster one would notice that is laden with newcomers, and thoughts of a rebuilding year would come to mind.

However, Corn and his two new assistants, DeEtte Kozlow and Dave Hancock, are excited and optimistic about this season and hope to lead Utah State to its 27th postseason appearance, ending with its first trip to the NCAA Championships in over 15 years.

"We have an outstanding blend of youth and experience with seven freshman and seven veterans returning back to our squad," Corn said. The 2008 season will be Corn's 31st season at the helm of the USU program and he is the only head coach in USU's Division I history.

The veterans are led by seniors Megan Tschida and Katie Omann, along with junior Nicki Felley, as well as sophomores Heather Heinrich and Devin Markle.

Tschida has the highest average score on floor exercise from last season with a 9.808. Omann is the leading returner on vault with an average score of 9.781 and had an average score of 9.443 on the beam, which is second among the returners. Felley holds the highest returning average score on bars with a 9.700 and the second-leading returning score in both floor exercise and all-around with 9.686 and 38.635, respectively.

Markle owns the leading returning all-around average score of 38.758, while Heinrich has the second-highest returning average score on vault with a 9.723 and the third-highest in the all-around with 38.250.

Headlining the freshmen are Lyndsie Boone, Jackie Dillon, Erica Huelsmann, Chelsea Marquardt, Jasmine Minion, Nicole Simoneau and Maegan Snodgrass.

"On paper, it's a very impressive class of freshmen, with their experience and successes as USA Junior Olympic competitors," Corn said.

Nevertheless, according to Corn the Aggies have had their challenges since the signing date last year and before the newcomers' reporting date with injuries obtained during their senior year of competition in high school. Along with recent and late surgeries of the veterans, Corn sees it as just one of many challenges.

"Those are our challenges to overcome and we will overcome those obstacles," said an optimistic Corn.

Utah State was 11-11 last year, finishing sixth at the NCAA Regional Championships. The Aggies entered the regional meet ranked 28th in the country with a regional qualifying score of 194.695, but Corn believes that USU can improve on both that ranking and the score this season.
