UTAH STATE vs SAN JOSE STATE - Utah State holds a 23-21 all-time advantage against San Jose State, USU's second-most games against a Western Athletic Conference foe. The two teams first met in 1988. Prior to 2006's WAC series, the Aggies and Spartans hadn't meet since 2002. SJSU won all three meetings against USU in 2006, after USU had won three of the previous four match-ups. Last year, Utah State was 1-3 vs. San Jose State.

In 2006 at Logan, SJSU won three one-run games, 2-1 on April 21, followed by 9-8 and 3-2 victories on April 22.

Last season at San Jose, SJSU won, 3-1, on April 20, while the teams split games on April 21 with the Spartans winning the first game, 5-0, and the Aggies won the second game, 2-0, after eight innings.

USU also paired up with SJSU in the second game of the 2007 WAC Tournament falling, 9-1, after five innings due to the run-rule, eliminating USU from the tournament.

Earlier this season, the Aggies went 2-1 against the Spartans, falling in the first game, 15-8, on April 4 before picking up two come-from-behind wins, 8-6 and 11-10, on April 5.

SEASON 33 - The 2008 season marks the 33rd year of softball at Utah State... The Aggies enter the season with a 758-804-3 (.485) overall record. USU has one college World Series appearance (1984, tied for 7th) and four NCAA Tournament appearances (1984, 1989, 1992, 1993). Utah State won the 1980 and 1981 AIAW National Championships. This is USU's third year in the Western Athletic Conference (WAC).

ADMISSION - All games at LaRee and LeGrand Johnson Field are free admission to the public.

LETT'S BITS

- Candi Letts (Creighton, 1983) is in her second year at the helm of the Aggies and has a 31-68 record (.313), but has 13 years of experience as a Division I head coach.

- Letts won her first game last season at the helm of the Aggies with an 11-2 win against Southern Utah on Feb. 9, 2007. Letts became the first USU head coach to win their opener since Pam McCreesh won her first game in 1998.

- Letts came to USU from Northern Illinois, where she was an assistant for one season. Prior to NIU, Letts was the head coach at the University of Mississippi, where she spent seven seasons guiding the Ole Miss program from 1999-2005, compiling a 153-246 (.372) record, including leading the Rebels to a school-record 30 wins in 2005.

- Before Ole Miss, Letts was head coach at Colorado State University from 1994-98, amassing a 160-106-1 (.602) record in her five seasons there, as she re-established the softball program after it had been eliminated for one season. In 1997, Letts led the Rams to a 51-14 mark, winning the Western Athletic Conference championship and finishing ninth in the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) final poll. That season Letts was named the WAC Coach of the Year, as well as the NCAA West Regional Coach of the Year.

- Letts has a career head coaching mark of 344-425-1 (.447) in 13 seasons, reaching the 200 and 300 win milestones while at Ole Miss.

- This is Letts' second go-round in the WAC, as she posted a 79-62 (.560) mark in WAC games while at Colorado State and is now 86-90 (.489) in six seasons.

- As a head coach, Letts has coached four All-Americans, seven all-region players, 13 all-conference winners, one conference player of the year, and one freshman of the year.

- As a pitcher at Creighton University from 1979-1983, Letts helped the Bluejays to three-straight trips to the College World Series. In her career in the circle, Letts compiled 43 wins to go with 16 saves, while logging an ERA of 0.76 and firing 276 strikeouts. In the 1982 season, Letts led the country with nine saves, a mark that still ranks as the fifth-most single-season saves in NCAA history.

- After graduating from Creighton in 1983 with a bachelor's degree in physical education, Letts began her coaching career at the high school ranks, including head coach at Burlington, Iowa, for five seasons. Letts moved up to the college level in 1988, returning to Creighton, where she served as an assistant for six years, helping the Bluejays to two NCAA Regional trips, as well as making three appearances in the Top 25 poll and coaching one All-American. In 1991, Letts and Creighton played Utah in the longest game in NCAA history, a 31-inning contest.
