"I'm just glad I've been able to play for Dick Hunzaker and be a part of his program and atmosphere. It has been a great experience for me. I wouldn't change it for the world. He's the best coach I've ever played for; he's taught me so much."

DICK HUNSAKER

Dick Hunsaker's 2007-08 Wolverines completed another winning season. Hunsaker guided the Utah Valley State men's basketball team to a 22-7 record and a United Basketball League championship in the 2006-07 season. The 22-7 mark is the best record by a Division I Independent school since Notre Dame went 23-6 in 1985-86. The success Utah Valley had this year earned Hunsaker Independent Coach of the year by Collegeinsider.com and by his fellow Division I Independent coaches. Hunsaker's Wolverines finished the season with an RPI of 130, the best of any Independent and Big Sky Conference school. He also coached the nations best free throw shooter in 2007, who hit 97 percent of his attempts. That mark is the second best in NCAA history.

Hunsaker is no stranger to success as he has been tabbed as Street & Smith's top Independent coach for three consecutive years. He also garnered NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR honors by the Los Angeles Times while serving as the acting head coach of the University of Utah in 2001. That same year he was named Mountain West Coach of the Year by the coaches and media while leading the Utes to the Mountain West Conference championship.

In Hunsaker's six years at Utah Valley State he has compiled a 119-57 record and a 286-130 overall record in 14 years as a collegiate head coach. Hunsaker has seen his players at Utah Valley move on professionally as Ronnie Price signed a two-year guaranteed contract with Sacramento Kings after his three-year career concluded in 2005.

"My son attended your (Dick Hunsaker's Individual) basketball camp this past summer and it has been the best preparation for him for sure. I'm telling you this because I coach his AAU team and he has improved in many areas. This year he attempted 20 foul shots and hit 18 of them. Your camp boosted his confidence as well, that's why he's getting to the line so much as a point guard. I could go on but just wanted to thank you for your personal involvement with the camp. Without a doubt he will attend again next summer,, because HE is choosing it over all the other basketball camps."
