

2007-08 Division I Independent Women's Basketball

Independent Players of the Week

January 1, 2008

Player of the Week

Robyn Fairbanks
Utah Valley
Jr. - C - Raymond, Alberta

Newcomer of the Week

Nikki Robinson,
Savannah State
Jr. - F - Swainsboro, Georgia

Utah Valley's Robyn Fairbanks and Savannah State's Nikki Robinson have been named the Division I Independent Players of the Week (Dec. 17-30). Fairbanks earned the player of the week award for the third time this season while Robinson has been honored with the newcomer of the week award for the first time.

Fairbanks averaged 26.3 points and 11.7 rebounds per game over a three-game span, hitting 61.4% (35-for-57) from the field as Utah Valley went 2-1.

In a loss at #14 Duke, Fairbanks set a new Cameron Indoor Stadium record with 20 rebounds while also scoring 17 points. In a 92-67 win over Western State, she scored 32 points on 14-of-16 shooting and scored 30, on 13-of-18 shooting, in a 104-99 win over Portland State.

In four games for Savannah State, Nikki Robinson averaged 9.5 points and 5.3 rebounds, as the Tigers went 3-1. In SSU's 71-62 victory over Louisiana-Lafayette, Robinson came off the bench to score a game-high 21 points along with six rebounds and one block.

She averaged six rebounds in three of SSU's four games and had four steals and three blocks during the two-week span.

The weekly independent awards are nominated and voted on by sports information directors at NCAA Division I independent schools.
