

2007-08 Division I Independent Women's Basketball

Independent Players of the Week November 20, 2007

Player of the Week
Robyn Fairbanks
 Utah Valley
 Jr. - C - Raymond, Alberta

Newcomer of the Week
Patrice Robinson
 Savannah State
 Jr. - F - Swainsboro, Ga.

Utah Valley junior Robyn Fairbanks has been named the Division I Independent Player of the Week while Savannah State junior Patrice Robinson has earned the Newcomer of the Week Award.

Fairbanks scored 36 points and grabbed 15 rebounds as Utah Valley started 4-0 for the first time at the Division I level with a 103-83 win over UC Irvine.

Fairbanks, the reigning independent player of the year, averaged 24.5 points and 11.5 rebounds in two wins (both 20-point victories) last week. She was 21-for-36 (.553) from the floor during the week.

She was the independent player of the week six times in 2006-07.

Robinson averaged 14.5 points and eight rebounds along with four blocks in SSU's wins over Voorhees College and Morris College last week.

In her debut as a Lady Tiger, she had a team-high 14 points and eight rebounds and shot 7 for 8 from the field. Against Morris College, Robinson finished with 15 points, eight rebounds and four blocks and was named the Hornet Classic Tournament Most Valuable Player.

The weekly independent awards are nominated and voted on by sports information directors at NCAA Division I independent schools.
