Independent Players of the Week December 4, 2007

Player of the Week

Sandy Marvin
Utah Valley
Jr. - G - Payson, Utah

Newcomer of the Week

Adriana Johnson
NJIT
Fr. - G - Tobyhanna, Pennsylvania

Utah Valley junior Sandy Marvin earned this week's Division I Independent Player of the Week while NJIT freshman Adriana Johnson picked up the Newcomer of the Week award.

Marvin averaged 24.0 points and 5.0 rebounds per game on her way to the Most Valuable Player award at the Air Force Classic. She led Utah Valley to the championship with wins over Ohio and Air Force.

She scored 24 points in the championship win over Air Force, hitting 9-for-17 from the field including 4-for-6 from the three-point line to go along with five rebounds, two assists and a steal. For the week she hit 48.5% (16-of-33) from the floor and 66.6% (6-of-9) from the three point line as the Wolverines stayed perfect on the season.

Johnson averaged for 8.5 points 2.5 rebounds and one assist per game in two contests last week, including NJIT's 58-44 upset over defending American East Conference champion UMBC.

In that win she scored a career-high 11 points on 4-of-7 shooting and hit two three pointers in the Highlanders first win of the season. Johnson chipped in six points against Lafayette in a 61-53 loss.

The weekly independent awards are nominated and voted on by sports information directors at NCAA Division I independent schools.
