

2007 Division I Independent Volleyball

Independent Players of the Week September 25, 2007

Co-Offensive Players of the Week:
Elizabeth Flynn
Providence College
Jr. - MB - Bellerose, New York

Sarah Norman
CSU Bakersfield
Jr. - OH - Bakersfield, California

Defensive Player of the Week:
Danielle Reed
Texas-Pan American
Fr. - MB - League City, Texas

Providence College's Elizabeth Flynn and Sarah Norman of CSU Bakersfield have been named the Division I Independent Co-Offensive Players of the Week while Texas-Pan American's Danielle Reed has earned Defensive honors.

It's the first time this season that both Reed and Flynn have been honored and the third time in the season's first five weeks that Norman has won the award.

Norman a career high last week in CSUB's near upset at Saint Mary's with 32 kills and 75 attacks. The 32 kill effort ranks 2nd on CSUB's all-time list for a five-game match. She currently leads all independents in both kills (4.60) and points (5.18) per game.

Flynn was named to her third all-tournament team of the season when she compiled 43 kills, a hitting percentage of .323 and 13 total blocks. She averaged 3.91 kills per game and 1.18 blocks per game in three matches last week. Flynn ranks 1st among all independent players with a .380 hitting percentage.

Reed averaged 1.62 blocks per game for the Lady Broncs last week to go along with a 1.25 kills per game average. The freshman recorded a career-high 11 blocks against Sam Houston State, which was the third highest in program history.

The weekly Division I independent awards are nominated and voted on by the sports information department at seven independent NCAA schools.
