VANDERBILT RE-VU

The Commodores pounded a season-best 16 hits en route to a 9-0 win over Purdue on Tuesday. Four Vandy pitchers combined to pitch the club's first shutout of 2011. Kevin Ziomek notched his first collegiate win with five innings of work. Anthony Gomez had four hits and Brian Esposito knocked in four runs in the win. Vanderbilt finished off the team's third series sweep of the year with a 2-1 win over Illinois-Chicago Sunday afternoon. Anthony Gomez's single with the bases loaded in the ninth inning delivered the team's ninth straight win. Navery Moore notched his second win in as many days working a scoreless ninth inning. The Commodores rallied from a six-run deficit to beat UIC 9-8 in 10 innings Saturday. Mike Yastrzemski's RBI-double in the 10th inning delivered the walk-off win. Vanderbilt used a grand slam from Curt Casali and seven scoreless innings from Sonny Gray to beat UIC in the series opener Friday night.

BACK ON TOP

The Commodores are ranked first in the NCBWA poll this week. The top ranking in the country is the first since 2007 for Vanderbilt. The Dores replaced Florida, who is ranked first in the other four polls, as the No. 1 team in the nation.

COMEBACK KIDS

The Commodores rallied three times last week to win games, including twice over the weekend against UIC. The team's rally from six runs down on Saturday to win 9-8 in 10 innings was the biggest deficit the Dores have faced this year. Vanderbilt rallied from a run down on Sunday to win and trailed Kennesaw State by a run on Wednesday before eventually emerging with a 9-5 win. VU has six come-from-behind victories this year.

GO-GO STREAKING

Anthony Gomez enters the game today with a 13-game hitting streak. Gomez started his streak against Stanford on February 25 and has at least one hit in every game since. The Dores shortstop entered the game against Stanford hitting .158 (3-for-19 in the team's first five games) and comes into today's action hitting .347 for the season. During the streak he is 23-for-56 (.411) with RBI in nine of the 13 contests and has seven multi-hit games.

AGAINST THE BULLDOGS

Mississippi State visits Hawkins Field for the first time since 2009 when the Dores swept a three-game series from the Bulldogs. Vanderbilt has won the last 10 meetings between the two schools dating back to 2007. The last time the Dores lost to Mississippi State was 2005. The Bulldogs have not won on West End since 2002 when they took 2-of-3 from the Commodores. Coach Corbin is 15-4 against MSU in his tenure at VU.

COMMODORE NOTES

Head Coach Tim Corbin by the Numbers

322 wins at Vanderbilt makes him the second-winningest coach in school history.

216 wins over the last five years ranks second in the SEC during that span.

112 of Corbin's players and recruits have been drafted by MLB in his career, including 79 while at VU.

101 SEC All-Academic selections during Corbin's tenure.

13 Vandy players have been selected as All-Americans.

11 Dores have earned Freshman All-American honors.

SIX Commodores have been drafted in the first round, including FIVE in the Top 10 picks.

SIX trips to the NCAA Tournament under Corbin. Vanderbilt had made the tournament just three times prior to his arrival.

SIX straight summers have seen a Commodore suit up for Team USA.

THREE Summer League Players of the Year in the past five years.

TWO Super Regionals in the Corbin-Era are the only two in VU history.

ONE MLB first round pick has pitched in the weekend rotation in every year since Corbin's arrival.

4-RUN HOMER + 2 KNOCKS = GOOD WEEKEND

Curt Casali's grand slam March 11 was the first from a Commodore since Connor Harrell hit a slam last April against Auburn. Casali's round tripper was his first of the year and just the fourth of the season by the Commodores. Casali also became the first Commodore to record two hits in an inning since Brian Harris turned the trick last season against Belmont. Casali had two of the Dores' six hits in the team's five-run fifth inning on March 12.

STRONG LIKE BULL(PEN)

The Commodores bullpen has been strong all year long posting a 1.77 ERA through the first 18 games. Closer Navery Moore and left-hander Keenan Kolinsky have yet to allow a run and Mark Lamm has allowed only one run. Moore and Lamm lead the team with nine appearances already placing them among the most by any pitcher in the SEC.

ESPOSITO RUNS INTO TOP 10

Jason Esposito moved into the Top 10 all-time for stolen bases in a career at Vanderbilt when he stole a base on Opening Day against San Diego. The junior third baseman has added to his total and now is in eighth place with 59 stolen bases. Next up on the list is Nick Morrow (1991-94), who had 65 steals in his career. Charles DeFrance (1980-82) holds the school record with 96 stolen bases.

FANN BLOG

Catcher Drew Fann is keeping a weekly blog this season for CollegeBaseballDaily.com. The junior backstop talks about college life, the team and what the team does off the field. Fann's blog can be read every Tuesday on the site.

VANDY PICKED 2ND IN SEC EAST BY COACHES

Vanderbilt was picked to finish second in the SEC East division by the league's coaches behind Florida, who the coaches tabbed as the favorite to win the league. Defending national champion South Carolina was picked to finish third in the East followed by Kentucky, Georgia and Tennessee. LSU was chosen to win the SEC West followed by Arkansas, Auburn, Ole Miss, Alabama and Mississippi State.

THE ALL-AMERICANS

Juniors Sonny Gray, Jason Esposito and Aaron Westlake were all named preseason All-American's by Baseball America. Gray was a first team selection while Esposito and Westlake were placed on the second team. The Commodore trio was three of the 10 SEC players on the three team list. Gray and Esposito were recognized by multiple media outlets as All-Americans.

HEAD COACH TIM CORBIN

Head Coach Tim Corbin begins his ninth season at the helm of the Vanderbilt baseball program. During his tenure Corbin has turned the Commodores into a national power and taken the program to unprecedented success with five straight NCAA tournament births, including the school's second-ever trip to a Super Regional last season at Florida State.

The 2010 Commodores racked up the second-most wins in school history finishing the year with a 46-20 mark, eventually falling at Florida State in the third game of the Super Regional. In order to get to Florida State the team advanced out of the Louisville regional, a place that saw the Commodores' 2009 season end.

During the regular season, Corbin led the Commodores to a 16-12 mark, good enough for third in the Southeastern Conference East division behind Florida and eventual national champion South Carolina.

Corbin's overall record of 322-177 (.645) is second all-time in terms of wins at Vanderbilt, and first in terms of winning percentage for coaches with 100 games or more.

In 2009, Corbin took a young squad with seven new offensive starters and molded them into a team that finished with a 37-27 record and runner-up finishes in the SEC tournament and the NCAA Louisville Regional. The 2009 draft saw six Commodores selected, highlighted by junior pitcher Mike Minor's selection with the seventh overall pick by the Atlanta Braves. His selection marked the fifth time in the last three seasons a Vanderbilt player has been picked in the first round.

In 2008, Corbin guided the Commodores to their second straight 40-win season (41-22) and third consecutive appearance in the NCAA tournament. The Commodores battled through the first half of the season without the services of Preseason Player of the Year Pedro Alvarez and managed to record road sweeps over Mississippi State and Tennessee for the first time in school history. The 2008 draft saw eight Commodores selected, highlighted by Pedro Alvarez who was taken with the second overall pick by the Pittsburgh Pirates. Vanderbilt became the first school in draft history to have the first overall pick (David Price in 2007) and second overall pick in consecutive drafts, an indication of the talent Corbin has brought into the program over the last six years.

In 2007, Corbin guided the Commodores to their best season ever, finishing with a school record 54 wins. The team also achieved a No. 1 national ranking for the first time in school history and held that honor for 13 of 15 weeks during the regular season. The Vanderbilt baseball team also swept through the Southeastern Conference, winning both the regular season and tournament crown for the first time ever, and it marked the first time an SEC team had done it since 1996. The team lost only one conference series the entire season against SEC West Division winner Arkansas in Fayetteville and avenged the series loss by defeating the Razorbacks in the SEC tournament title game. The conference recognized Corbin for the work he had done, naming him SEC Coach of the Year. Corbin also picked up Co-National Coach of the Year by College Baseball Insider and regional coach of the year honors by the American Baseball Coaches Association. The Commodores hosted their first ever NCAA regional as the No. 1 National Seed and arrived as a power in college baseball. Corbin's success and methods of running the Vanderbilt program has earned him respect among the college and international baseball communities.

In the summer of 2006 he managed the USA Baseball National Team to a 28-2-1 record that culminated with a gold medal finish at the FISU (International University Sports Federation) World University Championship in Havana, Cuba. The .919 winning percentage set a new national team high and it garnered special recognition by the United States Olympic Committee.

Corbin, along with his coaching staff, are a tireless group that saw their recruiting efforts pay in 2005 as their recruiting class was labeled the nation's best by Baseball America. Professional baseball has also taken notice of the program as 33 VU players have been drafted over the last five years, including five first round picks.

In 2004, Corbin not only directed the Commodores to their first NCAA Tournament appearance in 24 years, he guided them to their first-ever Super Regional as they swept through the Charlottesville Regional with victories over George Mason, Princeton and host Virginia. In the Super Regional they fell to the eventual national runner-up, Texas, but still carved out a piece of history as the first team in NCAA baseball history to make it that far one year after having finished with a sub-.500 record. Along the way Vanderbilt racked up 45 wins, was the only team to rank among the SEC's top five in earned run average (first), batting average (fourth) and fielding percentage (first), and finished with a .703 winning percentage, which was third-best in the highly competitive conference, which sent nine schools to the NCAA Tournament. The Commodores' school-record .978 fielding percentage was second in the nation, and their 30 error-free games were 11 more than the previous season.

Before Corbin was hired as the 21st coach in program history, Vanderbilt had not earned a spot in the conference tournament in a decade but made the post-season tournament in 2004. During the 2004 regular season, Vanderbilt swept a series against Mississippi State for the first time. It was one of three conference whitewashes and one of five series wins in all. His efforts earned him the 2004 Vanderbilt Coach of the Year award and a nomination for the Nashville Sports Council's Sports Person of the Year. Plus, a school-record five players were named to the SEC All-Tournament team, five players were drafted on the first day and seven VU players in all were chosen in the Major League Baseball Draft, topped by No. 6 overall pick pitcher Jeremy Sowers.

His first Vanderbilt team in 2003 finished 27-28 overall and 14-16 in the SEC, good enough for second in the Eastern Division. It earned a conference tournament berth with a season-ending sweep of Tennessee capped by a dramatic ninth-inning rally in the finale. The overall and conference victory totals were the most by a first-year Vanderbilt coach and were made more impressive by the fact that the Commodores were 12-5 in one-run games. That squad set then school records for fielding percentage (.972), fewest errors in a season (60), most saves in a season (15) and fewest walks allowed in a season (168) -- all of which were bettered in 2004. The team notched series victories over nationally-ranked conference foes LSU, Auburn and Florida, each of which was ranked among the top 15 at the time. Plus, on May 6, 2003, Vanderbilt recorded the first perfect game in school history, which was a collective effort. Four different pitchers contributed to the 4-0 victory over Western Kentucky University.
