What's On Tap

Vanderbilt closes out the regular season this weekend as in-state rival Tennessee comes to town for a three-game Southeastern Conference series. The teams will open the series a day earlier than usual on Thursday at 6 p.m. and will continue on Friday at 6 p.m., before closing things out on Saturday at Noon. Saturday's game will be televised regionally on Comcast Sports Southeast (CSS).

Scouting Tennessee

Tennessee is 23-29 overall and 8-19 in Southeastern Conference play after dropping two of three against South Carolina last weekend in Knoxville. The Vols defeated Middle Tennessee, 5-4 in 11 innings, in Murfreesboro Tuesday night as first baseman Cody Hawn hit a solo homer in the top of the 11th.

Hawn is UT's top offensive performer with a .350 batting average to go with 19 homers and 74 RBI. Catcher Blake Forsythe is hitting at a .346 clip with 14 homers and 43 RBI. As a team the Vols sport a .283 batting average to go with 82 homers and 360 runs scored in 52 games (6.9 per game).

Left-hander Nick Hernandez (3-5, 5.42 ERA) is slated to go on Friday, with the Saturday and Sunday starters to be determined. UT's staff has a 6.28 ERA, 11th in the SEC, with 465 strikeouts and 199 walks in 456.0 innings.

SEC Tournament Scenarios

Heading into the final weekend, Vanderbilt can finish as high as sixth and as low as ninth after the dust settles Saturday night. To a clinch a spot in the field of eight next week in Hoover, the Dores will have to hold off Kentucky which is a game and a half back with three games left to play. VU's magic number is two, if the team wins two against Tennessee they will clinch a spot no matter what the Wildcats do. If the Dores win one, Kentucky would have to sweep Florida in Gainesville, with one loss ending its hopes for Hoover.

Vanderbilt could finish as high as sixth if they were to sweep the Vols and Ole Miss takes two of three at Arkansas and either South Carolina or Georgia sweeps the other in the series in Columbia.

Kentucky's hope to finish eighth would be to take a minimum of two games at Florida and for the Commodores to get swept, or to sweep the Gators and have the Vols take two against VU.

The SEC tourney picture will get significantly clearer after Thursday night's contests around the league.

Westlake Named SEC Player of the Week

Aaron Westlake was named Southeastern Conference Player of the Week after helping lead the team to a series win at then No. 13 Georgia.

Westlake went 10-for-17 (.588) with two homers, five RBI and seven runs scored in five games last week. Against the Bulldogs, he was 7-for-11 (.636), with two homers, five RBI and five runs scored, vaulting him past UGA's Rich Poythress into the SEC batting title lead.

He now leads the conference with a .395 batting average along with six homers and 44 RBI. The California native is trying to become the first player to hit over .400 since Warner Jones hit at a .414 clip in 2004. Currently Westlake's average is the ninth best mark in Vanderbilt single season history.

It is the second SEC weekly award for Westlake as he earned Freshman of the Week plaudits on March 2. He is the second hitter to receive the award this season, joining Brian Harris who got the honor on April 27.

Cotham Knee Injury Causes Move To Bullpen

Sophomore right-hander Caleb Cotham has a partial tear of the lateral meniscus in his left knee which will require surgery immediately following the season. He will pitch out of the bullpen for the remainder of the year.

Cotham was the Saturday starter for the first nine weeks of the season before suffering the

Vanderbilt Newcomers Among Nation's Best

For the second time in four seasons, Vanderbilt's baseball recruiting class has been ranked in the Top 3 in the country.

Baseball America ranked the class second in the country while Collegiate Baseball had the class ranked at No. 3. Both publications listed Arizona State as having the No. 1 class, while Collegiate Baseball had Oregon at No. 2 with a 35 member class in its first season back since being eliminated as a varsity sport after the 1980-81 season.

13 members of the class reported to school in August with three other players choosing the professional ranks. Of the 13 that are in school, eight were drafted and decided to play collegiately.

The coaching staff put together the class in anticipation of a mass exodus following the 2008 season. The Commodores lost seven offensive players who had started over the last three years, including first round draft picks Pedro Alvarez and Ryan Flaherty as well as the school's all-time hits leader Dominic de la Osa.

Of Perfect Game's Top 250 prospects for college, high school and Puerto Rico, 32 players from high school did not sign professional contracts and are attending Division I schools or junior colleges. Of the 32, Vanderbilt had five players, the most of any school in the country.

Facility Upgrades Are Complete

Two seasons ago temporary bleachers were put out in right field due to Vanderbilt's first ever NCAA regional at Hawkins Field. The success of that regional set in motion plans to add permanent bleachers from right to the left-field "Green Monster". Those bleachers were added in the offseason along with 200 additional chairback seats down the first base line, bringing the seating capacity to 3,700. Season and single-game tickets are available for both the chairbacks and bleacher seats. Fans can purchase them via www.vucommodores.com or via the ticket office at (615) 322-GOLD.

Also added in the Baseball Fieldhouse is a new Hall of Honor showcasing the top players and teams in Vanderbilt history. Video highlights of recent seasons are also available via a touchscreen monitor in the facility.

HEAD COACH TIM CORBIN

In six seasons at Vanderbilt, Tim Corbin has turned Vanderbilt into one of the national powers of college baseball. In 2008, Corbin guided the Commodores to their second straight 40-win season (41-22) and third consecutive appearance in the NCAA tournament. The Commodores battled through the first half of the season without the services of Preseason Player of the Year Pedro Alvarez and managed to record road sweeps over Mississippi State and Tennessee for the first time in school history.

Corbin's overall record of 239-130 (.648) is third best in terms of wins at Vanderbilt, and first in terms of win percentage for coaches with 100 games or more.

The 2008 draft saw eight current Commodores selected, highlighted by Pedro Alvarez who was taken with the second overall pick by the Pittsburgh Pirates. Vanderbilt became the first school in draft history to have the first overall pick (David Price in 2007) and second overall pick in consecutive drafts, an indication of the talent Corbin has brought into the program over the last six years.

In 2007, Corbin guided the Commodores to their best season ever, finishing with a school record 54 wins. The team also achieved a No. 1 national ranking for the first time in school history and held that honor for 13 of 15 weeks during the regular season.

The Vanderbilt baseball team also swept through the Southeastern Conference, winning both the regular season and tournament crown for the first time ever, and it marked the first time an SEC team had done it since 1996. The team lost only one conference series the entire season against SEC West Division winner Arkansas in Fayetteville and avenged the series loss by defeating the Razorbacks in the SEC tournament title game.

The conference recognized Corbin for the work he had done, naming him SEC Coach of the Year. Corbin also picked up Co-National Coach of the Year by College Baseball Insider and regional coach of the year honors by the American Baseball Coaches Association.

The Commodores hosted their first ever NCAA regional as the No. 1 National Seed and arrived as a power in college baseball.

Corbin's success and methods of running the Vanderbilt program has earned him respect among the college and international baseball communities.

In the summer of 2006 he managed the USA Baseball National Team to a 28-2-1 record that culminated with a gold medal finish at the FISU (International University Sports Federation) World University Championship in Havana, Cuba. The .919 winning percentage set a new national team high and it garnered special recognition by the United States Olympic Committee.

In 2006 he guided a youthful Commodore squad to a 38-27 record and sixth-place finish in the rugged Southeastern Conference. The team was the youngest team in the league, with seven everyday starters being freshmen or sophomores. For the second time in three seasons, Corbin guided the team to the SEC Tournament Championship game and the young squad also gained valuable NCAA experience after advancing to the championship round of the Atlanta Regional.

The 2006 team posted impressive series wins over College World Series participant Georgia, Super Regional participants South Carolina and Ole Miss, and took series on the road against Florida and LSU. The team handed LSU its worst conference loss at home in school history in the process.

In addition to on the field successes, the baseball program itself has had significant upgrades to the facilities with a new fieldhouse, complete with new locker rooms for players, coaches and Commodore alums playing professional baseball. Also included are coach's offices, a classroom that overlooks Hawkins Field and a new weight room. New for 2009 are permanent seats in the outfield pushing Hawkins Field seating capacity to double the amount when Corbin arrived in 2003. These recent upgrades reinforce the excitement and commitment made to the baseball program due to the successes Tim Corbin has achieved as well as those he will strive to accomplish in the future.

He has already pushed the program to its most successful season, rewritten a significant portion of its record book, and ascended to the ranks of Southeastern Conference and national powers. For him, such excellence has been a constant in a career that covers two decades in both the collegiate and international baseball ranks.

Corbin, along with his coaching staff, are a tireless group that saw their recruiting efforts pay off last fall as the 2005 recruiting class was labeled the nation's best by Baseball America.

Professional baseball has also taken notice of the program as 28 VU players have been drafted over the last four years, including eight in 2008.

In 2005, Corbin directed the squad to its second consecutive 30-win season, an achievement that had not been done in over 15 years. The campaign was highlighted with series wins over Alabama, Mississippi, South Carolina and College World Series participant Tennessee.

In 2004, Corbin not only directed the Commodores to their first NCAA Tournament appearance in 24 years, he guided them to their first-ever Super Regional as they swept through the Charlottesville Regional with victories over George Mason, Princeton and host Virginia. In the Super Regional they fell to the eventual national runner-up, Texas, but still carved out a piece of history as the first team in NCAA baseball history to make it that far one year after having finished with a sub-.500 record.

Along the way Vanderbilt racked up 45 wins, was the only team to rank among the SEC's top five in earned run average (first), batting average (fourth) and fielding percentage (first), and finished with a .703 winning percentage, which was third-best in the highly competitive conference, which sent nine schools to the NCAA Tournament. The Commodores' school-record .978 fielding percentage was second in the nation, and their 30 error-free games were 11 more than the previous season.

Before Corbin was hired as the 21st coach in program history, Vanderbilt had not earned a spot in the conference tournament in a decade. Not only has he led his team there twice, the Commodores made it to the 2004 championship game.

During the 2004 regular season, Vanderbilt swept a series against Mississippi State for the first time. It was one of three conference whitewashes and one of five series' wins in all.

His efforts earned him the 2004 Vanderbilt Coach of the Year award and a nomination for the Nashville Sports Council's Sports Person of the Year. Plus, a school-record five players were named to the SEC All-Tournament team, five players were drafted on the first day and seven VU players in all were chosen in the Major League Baseball Draft, topped by No. 6 overall pick pitcher Jeremy Sowers.

His first Vanderbilt team finished 27-28 overall and 14-16 in the SEC, good enough for second in the Eastern Division. It earned a conference tournament berth with a season-ending sweep of Tennessee capped by a dramatic ninth-inning rally in the finale. The overall and conference victory totals were the most by a first-year Vanderbilt coach and were made more impressive by the fact that the Commodores were 12-5 in one-run games.
