FASTBREAK

OPENING TIP... NEW MANAGEMENT

- For the first time in 27 seasons, Austin Peay will open up the year with a new face on the sidelines as head coach Matt Figger begins a new chapter in the program's storied history.
- Austin Peay soundly handled Sewanee, 95-78, to open exhibition play before a two-game road trip kicks off the regular season—the Gobs will visit Vanderbilt and Virginia as part of the NIT Tip-Off Classic.
- In his first time appearing in front of the home faithful, freshman Terry Taylor showed Governor fans the promise that made him a highly sought-after recruit. The Bowling Green native was a perfect 9-for-9 from the floor, pouring in 24 points and adding 12 boards.
- As a group, the Governors doubled up Sewanee in rebounding (40-20), with Taylor (12), senior Averyl Ugba (8) and junior Chris Porter-Bunton (7) outpacing the Tigers by themselves.
- Bryce Drew made his third appearance as an NCAA Tournament head coach last season, leading the Commodores into the tournament after two qualifications at Valparaiso (2013, 2015).
- Only Glotta, Ivory, Porter-Bunton and Steve Harris were on Austin Peay's roster in the last appearance between these two squads to kick off the 2015-16 season; Glotta started and played 12 minutes in his first collegiate game, while Porter-Bunton (nine minutes), Ivory (five) and Harris (two) each made an appearance.

NOTING THE GAME

• What You Should Know...

What better way to kick off a new era in Austin Peay hoops than playing early-season spoiler to one of the big boys right down the road? In its first season opener without Dave Loos since 1990, the Governors will get a stern test early on against one of 2016-17's deadliest long-range offenses (10th nationally in total 3-point field goals, 14th in 3-pointers per game).

• Deeper Meanings...

WHAT A WIN WOULD MEAN: Would make Figger the first Austin Peay head coach to win in his debut outing since 1983 (Howard Jackson, vs. Belmont)... would be the Gobs first win against an SEC foe since Dec. 10, 2011 (at Tennessee)... would be Austin Peay's first win against Vanderbilt since 1940... would give the Gobs a win in the road opener for the first time since 2010-11 (Saint Louis) and in the regular season opener for the first time since 2013-14 (Oakland City).

WHAT A LOSS WOULD MEAN: Would be the Gobs fourth consecutive season-opening loss.

• Last Time Against Vanderbilt

Despite it being the beginning of an Ohio Valley Conference Tournament Championship-winning campaign, the 2015-16 season began auspiciously for Austin Peay, which dropped an 80-41 decision to the Commodores at Memorial Gym to kick off the slate. Khalil Davis led the way with 10 points that night for the Gobs, while Zach Glotta made the start and played 12 minutes as the true freshman point guard.

OVC ODDS AND ENDS

OVC scraps Divisional play after five seasons

After using it for five years, divisional play in the OVC has been eliminated with teams going back to being ranked 1-12 in the standings. Also after six years of teams playing 16 Conference games, OVC teams will play an 18-game Conference schedule beginning this season. OVC basketball teams last played an 18-game schedule from 2008-09 through 2010-11. With 11 conference opponents, Austin Peay will now face each conference opponent twice, with the exceptions being Belmont, Eastern Kentucky, Morehead State and Tennessee State.

OVC tourney begins eighth season of current format; will make first appearance in Evansville

The top eight men's and women's teams will qualify for the tournament and advance to play at the host site (as opposed to playing first round games in campus sites) under a merit-based format. On the men's side the No. 1 and 2 seeds will receive two byes to the semifinals while the No. 3 and 4 seeds will receive one bye into the quarterfinals. The first round will include the No. 5 seed against the No. 8 seed and the No. 6 seed against the No. 7 seed. With divisional play eliminated, seeds 1-8 will be merit-based in their entirety. New for 2017-18, the league championship has forgone its longtime home of Nashville and will instead play in Evansville's Ford Center.

Replay systems for OVC basketball venues enter 10th season; expand to include DVSPORT

On December 21, 2007, the Ohio Valley Conference mandated the use of courtside replay systems at all OVC basketball venues. The initial systems were put into place in January 2008 and were used through the 2016-17 season. However, at the league meetings centered around this season's basketball media days, it was decreed by the league office that all schools will use DVSPORT modules for instant replay, standardizing camera angles at every institution across the conference.

WHO'S NEW IN 2017-18

PLAYERS

- Acoydan McCarthy – Rangy guard from Spain played as an amateur for Real Madrid and with Spain's national program since 2015.
 - Deyshawn Martin – Chipola transfer shot 60.5 percent from the floor last season, 44th in NJCAA, in 20 starts.
 - Dayton Gumm – Bowling Green native departed South Warren HS as program's all-time leading scorer.
 - Ferran Bernacer – Averaged 10.7 ppg and 4.5 rpg for Olivier Zaragoza last season; also a longtime Spanish national teamer.
 - Ed Stephens – 1,000-point scorer at South Carolina State will spend his final season of eligibility with the Govs.
 - Ivan Cucak – Seven-footer will provide significant low-post presence once recovered from lower-body injury.
 - Terry Taylor – Big, fluid wing was MVP of the 2017 Kentucky Sweet 16 after leading Bowling Green HS to first state title.
 - Richard Henderson – Honorable Mention McDonald's All-American helped Pattonville (Mo.) HS advance to Class 5 State sectionals.
 - Averyl Ugba – 2016-17 All-SWAC averaged 13.0 ppg and 9.7 rpg at Grambling; granted immediate eligibility due to GSU's postseason ban.
- ### COACHES / STAFF
- Matt Figger – 12th head coach in APSU history; assistant on Frank Martin's staff last season at South Carolina, where the Gamecocks made a run to the Final Four.
 - Rick Cabrera – Formerly at Tennessee Tech; head coach at Lackawanna Junior College, going 100-28 and winning two region crowns.
 - Dalonte Hill – Reputation as ace recruiter precedes him; helped Kansas State land Nat'l Freshman of the Year Michael Beasley in 2006.
 - Sergio Rouco – Three-year assistant at USF; had DI stops at FIU, UTEP and Ole Miss, where he turned Marshall Henderson into SEC PotY.
 - Ryan McIntyre – Was a graduate assistant with Figger at South Carolina last season; will take ownership of Director of Operations position.
 - Anthony Winchester – All-American at Western Kentucky before seven-year pro career; will serve as Director of Player Development.
 - Joe Cronn – Longtime strength coach at Kansas State will serve in same capacity for the Govs.
 - Treis Huggins – 2017 South Carolina graduate was head manager for the Gamecocks last season.

GOVERNORS DECREE

- NEW REGIME: The 2017-18 season will be a different one for Austin Peay State University men's basketball. For one thing, it will be the first time in 27 seasons that Dave Loos won't patrol the sidelines. Following the retirement of the Ohio Valley Conference's all-time wins leader, Austin Peay athletics director Ryan Ivey tabbed Matt Figger to lead Austin Peay into a new era of basketball.
- CHANGES: Figger led a complete program overhaul during the spring, starting with a coaching staff that comprises almost entirely new faces. Rick Cabrera, Dalonte Hill and Sergio Rouco joined the staff as assistants, with Ryan McIntyre slotting into a newly-created Director of Operations position and Anthony Winchester coming aboard as Director of Player Development. The lone holdover from last season is Hayden McClain, who transitioned from a graduate assistant to special assistant to the Head Coach.
- DIFFERENT CHANGES: Austin Peay men's basketball regular-season home-opening contest against Oakland City, originally scheduled for a 7 p.m. tip-off, Nov. 16, has been moved to Nov. 15 at the same time. This is in conjunction with Austin Peay State University volleyball's regular-season championship secured thanks to Saturday's win; the Govs will host the 2017 Ohio Valley Conference Championships in the Dunn Center, Nov. 16-18.
- GUESS WHO'S BACK: The transition didn't stop on the sidelines. The Govs return just four players from last season's roster, with only Chris Porter-Bunton making more than five starts. The redshirt junior from Bowling Green, along with Zach Glotta, attended the Athletes in Action Captains Academy in Zenia, Ohio over the summer to improve leadership capabilities to lead this young squad.
- FALLING FAST: Both players signed by the Governors during last fall's early period had exceptional senior campaigns. For Richard Henderson, that included an honorable mention McDonald's All-American honors after averaging 17.2 points and 9.4 rebounds for Pattonville High School, while Bowling Green High School product Terry Taylor led his alma mater to its first state title and was named first-team All-State and Kentucky Sweet 16 MVP.
- INTERNATIONAL MEN OF MYSTERY: This Austin Peay squad will feature a distinctly international flavor. One of Figger's first additions was Ivan Cucak, a seven-footer from Toronto who spent last season

- DI DESTINATIONS: A pair of Division I transfers will come in and compete right away for the new-look Governors. Ed Stephens, a 1,000-point scorer from South Carolina State, comes over as a graduate transfer who can score the ball and provide leadership in the backcourt. With Grambling State on probation, the NCAA granted Averyl Ugba a waiver to play immediately for the Governors this season; Ugba, an All-SWAC player last season, will provide huge boost for the Govs inside after averaging 13.0 points and a league-best 9.7 rebounds.

- NATION-WIDE NON-CONFERENCE: Austin Peay will play a challenging slate this season, participating in the NIT Season Tip-Off with road trips to Vanderbilt and Virginia. Trips to Oklahoma State and Illinois also give a young squad a chance against fantastic competition, and the Govs round out the non-conference slate with visits from Troy and Western Kentucky.

■ MARCHING TO FORT CAMPBELL: In conjunction with the U.S. Army's 101st Airborne Division, Fort Campbell Garrison and Fort Campbell's MWR (Family and Morale, Welfare and Recreation) division, the Govs' 3 p.m., Nov. 22 contest against Bethel will take place at Shaw Fitness Center on the Fort Campbell military installation. This will be the first-ever contest involving collegiate basketball programs at Fort Campbell, and the Governors first home contest away from the Dunn Center since it opened in 1975.

■ TV TIME: For the second year in a row, the Govs will host UT Martin before a national audience, with the Jan. 4 contest against the Skyhawks slated for air exclusively on CBS Sports Network. CBS Sports Network, the 24-hour home of CBS Sports is available across the country through local cable, video and telco providers and via satellite on DirecTV Channel 221 and Dish Network Channel 158; locally, CBS Sports Network can be found on Channel 207 (CED), 303 (Charter) and 643 (UVerse). The Governors contest at Murray State, Feb. 8, also will be aired on CBS Sports Network.

■ BRAND-NEW ROLES: With Figger on board, new faces have been added to the coaching staff. For the first time, the Govs will have a dedicated Director of Operations person, filled by Ryan McIntyre; Hayden McClain, who served as a defacto ops person a year ago, is staying aboard as special assistant to the Head Coach. Anthony Winchester will occupy the newly-created position of Director of Player Development, while Joe Cronn becomes the first-ever Strength and Conditioning coach focused solely on men's basketball.

■ FIGG, LOOS and CvC: Figger and former head coach Dave Loos were featured parts of the American Cancer Society's Coaches vs. Cancer Tennessee Tip-Off. Figger spoke on the panel at the Sept. 28 event, in addition to donating $1,000 of his own money and challenging other coaches across the state to do the same, while Loos was a guest speaker and was awarded the first-ever Coach Dave Loos MVP Award, given to an individual displaying their dedication to the fight against cancer.

■ GOVS GOING PRO: A trio of former Governors inked their first professional deals during the offseason. Assane

GOVERNORS GAME NOTES

Diop returned to Japan, where his prep stardom catapulted him to America and eventually Austin Peay—he played for Gifu Seiryu Heroes in the Challenge Summer League. Kenny Jones also signed to play in France, where he joined Gravenchon of the NM2 Group C. A third member of last season’s squad, John Murry recently inked a deal with the Saint John Riptide of the National Basketball League of Canada. Below is a full list of Govs known to occupy the pro ranks at some point during the 2017 season, and the country/league(s) they played in:

- Wesley Channels (Belgium)
- Khalil Davis (Sweden)
- Assane Diop (Japan)
- Adrian Henning (Mexico)
- Chris Horton (NBA G-League/Hungary)
- Kenny Jones (France)

HELPING OUT H-TOWN

Spearheaded by Hayden McClain, special assistant to head coach Matt Figger, the Governors heeded Houston head coach Kelvin Sampson’s call for aid in the aftermath of Hurricane Harvey, organizing the move of supplies from the Dunn Center lobby to APSU’s Technology building; eventually, McClain and APSU academic services guru Ryan Combs drove a UHaul loaded down with supplies all the way to Houston.

MEDIA INFORMATION

INTERVIEWS: All interview requests should be submitted to the APSU Athletic Communications office. Interviewing a player or coach without the knowledge or presence of an APSU Athletic Communications employee could result in the loss of credential.

HEAD COACH: Head coach Matt Figger typically will be available during the week for interview.

- PLAYERS: All interviews with players will take place before or after practice. No interviews will be granted following the shoot-around on the day of a game. Media should request players at least 24 hours in advance. Under no circumstances are basketball players to be contacted directly by the media.
- PRE-GAME: Head coach Matt Figger often will be unavailable for interview during game day.
- POST-GAME: After a brief cooling period and going on-air for his post-game radio show, APSU head coach Matt Figger will visit with media. Players will meet with media while Figger is at radio; provide a list of names to Colby Wilson or another member of the sports information for post-game interviews.

ON THE WEB: Notes, statistics and schedules on Governors Basketball may be found on the internet at www.LetsGoPeay.com, Austin Peay State University's official athletics Web site. MATT FIGGER

Position: Head Coach • Alma Mater: Eastern Kentucky, 1995

Experience: First Season • Career Record: 0-0

at Austin Peay: First Season • Career Record: 0-0

Thursday, April 6, 2017, Matt Figger was introduced as the 12th head men's basketball coach in Austin Peay State University history.

Figger came to Austin Peay on the heels of a whirlwind Final Four run as the associate head coach and recruiting coordinator under Frank Martin at South Carolina. The Gamecocks were the East Region champion, taking down Marquette, Duke, Baylor and Florida on the way to Phoenix.

After arriving at South Carolina in 2012, Figger assisted Martin in the revival of a program that hadn't enjoyed a 20-win season since 2008-09, had not advanced to an NCAA Tournament since 2003-04 and had not won an NCAA Tournament game since 1973. After winning 14 games the first two seasons in Columbia, Figger and Co. broke .500 for the first time in 2014-15, finishing 17-16, then won 25 games and reached as high as No. 19 in the Associated Press Top-25 poll last season.

In case you somehow missed it, the Gamecocks became NCAA Tournament darlings in March 2017. After bowing out to Alabama in the SEC Tournament quarterfinals, the seventh-seeded Gamecocks thrashed Marquette, 93-73, in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament, erased a double-digit lead to score a mighty upset of second-seeded Duke to advance to the Sweet 16 and toppled Baylor 70-50 to advance to the East Region championship game against fellow SEC foe Florida.

Trailing at halftime for the third time during the NCAA Tournament, the Gamecocks shut down the Gators three-point assault in the second half and fed SEC Player of the Year Sindarius Thornwell—a find of Figger's in his capacity as Martin's recruiting coordinator—for a game-high 26 points and East Regional Most Outstanding Player honors. The Gamecocks were finally knocked out of the tournament by West top seed and top-ranked Gonzaga in the Final Four.

Two players on the Gamecocks Final Four squad got their NBA chance in June 2017—Thornwell, the 48th overall selection in the NBA Draft, with the Los Angeles Clippers via draft night trade with Milwaukee, and PJ Dozier, who inked a free-agent deal with the Los Angeles Lakers.

Figger served on Martin's staff dating back to 2007, Martin's first season at Kansas State. In his decade on Martin's staff, Figger served in a variety of roles, assuming the associate head coach role in 2013-14 upon Brad Underwood's departure for Stephen F. Austin.

At Kansas State, Figger was on a staff that secured at least 21 wins and finished fifth or better in the Big 12 each season. In his first season on staff, Kansas State won its first NCAA Tournament game since 1988 after posting a 20-win season—just its fourth since 1990. The 2009-10 team won a school-record 29 games and appeared in the programs first Elite Eight in over two decades, defeating six ranked opponents along the way and finishing the year ranked seventh in both the Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today Coaches Top-25 polls.

At both Kansas State and South Carolina, Figger served as recruiting coordinator. He inked two McDonald's All-Americans at Kansas State, including Michael Beasley, who would earn National Freshman and Player of the Year in 2008 before becoming a first-round pick in the NBA Draft. Beasley was one of four All-Americans—along with Denis Clemente, Jacob Pullen and Bill Walker—tutored by Figger at Kansas State.

Figger's first Division I coaching experience came with John Pelphrey at South Alabama, helping lead the Jaguars to a Sun Belt Tournament title in 2006 and a regular-season championship in 2007. After building through recruiting the first three years under Pelphrey, the Jaguars broke through in 2006 with 24 wins, a 14-game improvement that was the biggest turnaround in the NCAA that season. Figger helped the Jaguars advance to their first NCAA Tournament since 1998, where they bowed out to eventual national champion Florida in the first round.

Figger joined Pelphrey for three months at Arkansas in 2007 as director of operations before signing on at Kansas State as an assistant coach.

In his Division I stops at South Carolina, Kansas State and South Alabama, Figger made three NIT and six NCAA Tournament appearances, including two Sweet 16 and two Elite Eight appearances, in addition to the 2017 Final Four.

Figger earned his coaching stripes in the junior college ranks, breaking into coaching at Wabash Valley Community College in 1993-94, helping lead the Warriors to a 29-3 record, before heading to Vincennes (Ind.) College for five seasons, where he coached Clarksville native and future NBA All-Star Shawn Marion for two seasons, as well as future NBA player Tyrone Nesby. The Trailblazers went 132-39 during Figger's time on NJCAA Hall of Famer Dan Sparks' staff, advancing to three NJCAA National Tournaments and capturing four straight Region XII titles (1995-98); the 1998 Vincennes squad went 31-5 and finished fifth at the national tournament.

He capped his junior college coaching career with a three-year stop at Odessa College, helping the Wranglers to a 27-7 mark and NJCAA National appearance in 2001.

In all, Figger advanced to the NJCAA National Tournament four times. He coached five NJCAA All-Americans—Marion, Mitchell Dunn, DeShay Jones, Tarone Barker and Janavor Weatherspoon—and had 35 players sign Division I scholarships.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT COACH FIGGER

South Carolina Head Coach Frank Martin

"Austin Peay just hired a tireless worker who is an unbelievable coach and a more dynamic person. He is a winner, and he will make every young man and the program into ultimate winners."

Illinois Head Coach Brad Underwood

"Matt is one of the top up-and-coming coaches in the game. He has paid his dues and was a big part of the rebuilding efforts at Kansas State and South Carolina. He is a great basketball mind and terrific recruiter and will help bring Austin Peay to the top of the OVC."

New York Knicks Forward Michael Beasley

"Coach Fig is a first-class man and terrific teacher. He helped me develop my mid-range game and made sure we knew the importance of being in excellent condition. I couldn't be happier for him and know he'll do great things for Austin Peay."

Texas Tech Head Coach Chris Beard

"Simply stated, Matt is a winner. He's won at every level and has earned this opportunity. He will bring energy, excitement and work ethic and recruiting knowledge that will be very beneficial to the APSU program. Players gravitate to Matt because he is genuine and invested in their lives on and off the court."

Doug Gottlieb, Fox Sports

"Matt Figger comes from a tremendous basketball coaching tree. In addition, he has the type of positive energy that is contagious to fans and players alike. I cannot wait to see his Govs get after it."

EXHIBITION RECAP

CLARKSVILLE—Behind a standout first appearance in an Austin Peay uniform from freshman Terry Taylor, Austin Peay State University men's basketball delivered a solid 95-78 win against Sewanee in exhibition action, Saturday night, in the Dunn Center.

Taylor was electric in his first contest as a Gov, hitting all nine shot attempts from the floor. The wing from Bowling Green scored 24 points and snatched 12 rebounds, pacing an aggressive Austin Peay offensive attack.

Defensively, the Governors swarmed the ball, forcing 23 Sewanee turnovers. With an up-tempo attack predicated on ball-pressure, the Governors repeatedly hounded Sewanee's guards into mistakes. Taylor, junior Zach Glotta and junior Chris Porter-Bunton each collected multiple steals for the Govs.

Glotta contributed to blowing the game wide open in the first half. At the 9:25 mark, he answered a Luke Smith three with a three of his own to push the Austin Peay lead back to eight. On the next possession, following a Taylor steal, he found Averyl Ugba for a layup, then followed that with a pair of free-throws of his own. With 7:36 left, he found Deyshawn Martin wide-open for a three, pushing the Austin Peay lead to 13 points—it would not dip below double figures for the rest of the night.
