In Second Year, Franklin Seeks Continued Improvement from Commodores

The Commodores will look for continued improvement in James Franklin's second year on the Vanderbilt campus.

In 2011, the Commodores were a vastly improved squad under Franklin. In terms of statistics, Vanderbilt's offense and defense ranked as the most improved in the SEC. Only one team in the league (Georgia) had a greater win-loss turnaround than Vanderbilt's 6-7 mark in 2011 after a 2-10 record in 2010.

Under Franklin, the Commodores performed at a higher level than the 2010 Vanderbilt squad in virtually every stat area. In several categories, the one-year improvement was remarkable.

The 2011 offense averaged 26.7 points, nearly 10 points more per game than in 2010. The offense also produced more 339.1 yards per game, 41 more yards than the previous year. The team rushed and passed for more yardage last year: 25.8 additional rushing yards and 15.2 more passing yards. The unit scored 17 more total touchdowns, including 13 more via the rush and six more through the air.

The per-play production on offense also increased. The Commodores averaged more yards per rush attempt (4.3-4.0) and more yards per pass attempt (6.6-5.3).

The improved offensive balance allowed the Commodores to produce 2.2 more first downs and allow nine fewer quarterback sacks).

On defense, the 2011 Commodores were even more impressive. The defense held opponents to an average of 322.8 yards of total offense, 96.4 fewer yards than the previous year. Again, the decrease in yardage was across-the-board: 62.5 less rushing yards allowed and 34 fewer passing yards.

The Vanderbilt defense held opponents to 12 total rushing TDs, 13 fewer than in 2010. Foes averaged 3.6 yards per rush, nearly a full yard lower than the previous year.

The defense also produced more 10 interceptions and 29 total turnovers, 12 more than in 2010. Those stats resulted in the Commodores' +5 turnover margin.

The Commodores enjoyed more success inside the 20-yard line. On offense, the Commodores scored 25 TDs, 11 more than in 2010. On defense, Vanderbilt also held opponents to 11 fewer TDs (18-29). Third-down efficiencies were higher for the offense (34%-27%) and lower for the defense (37%-38%).

2011 Production: Most Point Since 1915

The 2011 Commodores produced more points than any Vanderbilt squad since the post-World War I era.

The 2011 Commodores scored 347 points. It was the most points produced in a single season since Dan McGugin's 1915 Vanderbilt squad racked up 514 points during a 9-1 campaign.

The 2011 Vanderbilt squad became just the third Vanderbilt team since the 1920s to score more than 300 points.

The Commodores averaged 26.7 points, the program's third highest average since World War II: 1948 (29.8) and 2005 (27.2).

Since midseason, Vanderbilt's offense has scored consistently, averaging 31.5 points during its last seven games. The unit also has scored at least 21 points in its last seven games, marking the first time a Commodore offense has done so since the 1948 season.

In the defensive-oriented Southeastern Conference, the offense is averaging 21.1 points, a 10.8-point improvement from one year ago.

YEARLY SCORING AVG.

8. 1969	242	24.2

Nine Offensive Starters Return; List Includes Top Producers

Nearly all of the principal contributors from the 2011 Vanderbilt offense will be back in the Black and Gold uniform during the upcoming season.

Nine offensive starters are expected back, including the Commodores' leading passer, rusher and receiver from a year ago as well as four offensive linemen.

This spring, coordinator John Donovan and the offensive staff will look to replace 2011 co-captain Kyle Fischer at tackle and Brandon Barden at tight end.

The list of offensive standouts back in 2012 includes:

- The quarterback (senior Jordan Rodgers) who accounted for 67% of Vandy's passing yards and accumulated nearly 2,000 total yards.
  - The top three rushers (senior Zac Stacy, Rodgers and sophomore Jerron Seymour) who accounted 88% of the Commodore rushing total.
  - The top five receivers (junior Jordan Matthews, sophomore Chris Boyd, junior Wesley Tate, junior Jonathan Krause and Stacy) who accounted for 77% of Vanderbilt's completions.
  - Both offensive linemen (senior Ryan Seymour and junior Wesley Johnson) that earned SEC Lineman of the Week honors last year.
- The Vanderbilt offense produced 312 points (24.0 ppg.) in 2011.

Two New Coaches Join Vanderbilt Staff; Franklin Adds Barlow and Gattis

George Barlow

Two new assistant coaches, George Barlow and Josh Gattis, will participate in their first Vanderbilt spring practice after joining the staff in January.

Both Barlow, a Marshall University graduate who comes from the University of New Mexico staff, and Gattis, a Wake Forest grad who served last year at Western Michigan, will have key recruiting roles in addition to position responsibilities. Barlow will coach defensive backs and serve as defensive recruiting coordinator. Gattis will mentor wide receivers and serve as offensive recruiting coordinator.

Barlow and Gattis are coming off remarkable 2011 football seasons.

Barlow spent more than half of last season as New Mexico's interim head coach. He also served as New Mexico's defensive coordinator during the year.

Gattis enjoyed tremendous success last year as the wide receivers coach at Western Michigan. His top pupil, senior Jordan White, amassed staggering statistics in leading the nation with 140 catches and 1,911 receiving yards.

Josh Gattis

Defensive Spring Goal: Replace Departed Leaders, Playmakers

Vanderbilt defensive coaches enter spring drills facing the prospect of replacing four of their top performers from a year ago.

TOP DEFENDERS BACK

Total Tackles	2011 Total
Archibald Barnes, LB	59
Kenny Ladler, safety	53
Chase Garnham, LB	51
Javon Marshall, safety	42
Rob Lohr, DT	41
QB Sacks	2011 Total
Rob Lohr, DT	5
Walker May, DE	3
Three others	2
Interceptions	2011 Total
Trey Wilson	3
Archibald Barnes	2
Javon Marshall	2
Forced Fumbles	2011 Total
Archibald Barnes, LB	3
Rob Lohr, DT	3

Linebacker Chris Marve, cornerback Casey Hayward, defensive end Tim Fugger and safety Sean Richardson, were key contributors on a Commodore defense that ranked among the nation's most improved units in 2011. All four, along with defensive tackle T.J. Greenstone, graduated at the end of the fall semester.

In 2011, Marve, Richardson and Hayward were the team's top three tacklers. Hayward paced the 'Dores with seven interceptions en route to tying the team career record with 15 picks. Fugger lead the defense with eight quarterback sacks and 13.5 tackles for loss.

Coordinator Bob Shoop and the defensive staff have 20 letterwinners, including seven starters, back to combat the graduation losses. Starters back from a year ago include linemen Rob Lohr, Walker May and Colt Nichter, linebackers Archibald Barnes and Chase Garnham, cornerback Trey Wilson and safety Javon Marshall.

Last spring, Garnham, Wilson and Marshall used excellent performances to help secure starting roles for the 2011 season.

Despite the personnel losses, 11 of Vanderbilt's top 15 tacklers from the 2011 are back this spring competing for more substantial roles.

Richard Kent

Top Specialists Are Back

Vanderbilt is expected to feature a veteran group of kicking specialists in 2012 with the return of the team's top three kickers-punters.

Richard Kent (R-Sr.) is back to handle the punting chores after putting together his finest season last year. Kent's 39.2-net average ranked third in the SEC and his 42.1-yard career average is fourth all-time on the team charts.

Ryan Fowler (R-Sr.) and Carey Spear (Jr.) are expected to compete for the primary placekicking responsibilities. Both were 4-of-7 last year in field goal attempts.

Spear, special team's captain in 2011, will likely handle the kickoff duties. He contributed eight touchbacks and 11 tackles as a sophomore.

Carey Spear

VANDERBILT BOWL NOTES

Rodgers Returns at Quarterback, but Competition Awaits

Jordan Rodgers (R-Sr.) returns this spring with seven career starts under his belt as a Commodore, but he will face more competition this spring to keep his starting quarterback job.

Former Mountain West Conference Freshman of the Year recipient Austyn Carta-Samuels (R-Jr.) and one of the newest Commodores, 2012 signee Patton Robinette of Maryville, Tenn., are expected to get snaps this spring along with Rodgers.

When inserted at midseason of the 2011 season, Rodgers gave the Commodore offense a lift as a dual-threat quarterback. In six regular season starts, Rodgers has accounted for 12 TDs – eight passing and four rushing. As a starter, Rodgers also ranked among the Southeastern Conference leaders in passing yards (208.7 ypg.) and total offense (259.2 ypg.). Rodgers set a team record for first-year quarterback with 1,523 passing yards.

Rodgers also developed excellent chemistry with Jordan Matthews (Jr., WR), who caught 34 passes and averaged 95.6 receiving yards in Rodgers' seven starts.

Unable to play in 2011 after transferring from the University of Wyoming, Carta-Samuels still impressed teammates as a scout team player last year. A native Californian like Rodgers, Carta-Samuels enters spring drills with excellent credentials. He started 21 games at Wyoming, passing for 3,655 yards and 19 TDs, and accumulated 4,400 yards of total offense. In 2009, Carta-Samuels became the first true freshman to start at quarterback for the Cowboys in 35 years and capped the MWC Freshman of the Year campaign by leading Wyoming to a victory over Fresno State in the New Mexico Bowl.

'Dores Lacking Depth This Spring on Offensive Line

For the second straight spring, Commodore offensive coaches are looking at limited personnel on the offensive front.

Offensive line coach Herb Hand is expected to have less than two full line units available when spring drills open March 16. The lack of depth stems from players rehabilitating old injuries (Ryan Seymour, Chase White) to suspension (Mylon Brown, violation of team rules).

The staff targetted offensive line prospects during the 2012 recruiting effort to improve depth, signing six highly regarded OL candidates.

Garnham, Grady, Kentera Moving Positions This Spring

Junior Chase Garnham and a pair of athletic redshirt freshmen, Josh Grady and Kris Kentera, will appear at new positions when spring drills start March 16.

Garnham, one of the team's most productive defensive players in 2011 as an outside linebacker, is expected to move inside and compete for the middle linebacker opening vacated by three-time All-SEC pick Chris Marve at the position. In eight starts as a sophomore, Garnham impressed observers with his physicality and ability to run sideline-to-sideline.

Grady, one of the top athletes on the Commodore roster who practiced at quarterback as a true freshman, will switch to wide receiver. Kentera, another former quarterback who impressed the staff with his athleticism during fall practices, will move to tight end/H-back.

Matthews-Boyd: Productive Receiving Tandem

With a combined 71 receptions in 2011, Jordan Matthews (Jr.) and Chris Boyd (R-So.) return as a potent wide receiver duo for the Commodores.

The pair also hauled in 13 receiving touchdowns last year (Boyd 8/Matthews 5). It is the most of any returning pair of receivers in the SEC.

Franklin: First Vanderbilt Coach to Guide Initial Commodore Squad Into Postseason

James Franklin, the 27th head coach in team history, became the first coach to guide his initial Commodore squad to a postseason bowl game.

Franklin also became the first new Vandy coach to register six wins since Fred Pancoast's 'Dores earned seven victories in 1975.

Franklin also became the first new coach at Vanderbilt to claim victories in his first three games since E.H. Alley accomplished the feat in 1943. Before Alley's achievement, the last new coach to duplicate Franklin's 3-0 mark was Dan McGugin in 1904.

Franklin guided Vanderbilt to a 45-14 victory over Elon on Sept. 3, a 24-21 come-from-behind win over Connecticut on Sept. 10, and an impressive 30-7 victory over Ole Miss on Sept. 17 to open the season.

Seven 'Dores Likely Limited in Spring

Several Commodore returnees, including 2011 starters Ryan Seymour (OG, R-Sr.) and Javon Marshall (safety, R-Jr.), are likely to miss contact drills this spring as they recover from injury.

Others joining Seymour and Marshall on the sidelines during full contact will be Marc Panu (FB, Jr.), Warren Norman (RB, R-Jr.), Jerron Seymour (RB, So.), Tristan Strong (LB, R-Sr.), Chase White (OL, R-So.). Vanderbilt does not give particular injury updates during Spring Practice. All seven are expected back this summer.

All-SEC RB Zac Stacy Enters Final Year With Team Rushing Mark Within Reach

Zac Stacy (Sr., RB) enters the 2012 season within reach of the team career rushing record.

Stacy put together a superb junior campaign in 2011, setting Vanderbilt marks with 1,193 rushing yards and 14 rushing touchdowns.

Stacy, a product of Bibb County H.S. in Centreville, Ala., ranks eighth all-time among Commodore rushers with 2,002 rushing yards. He trails career leader Frank Mordica (1976-79) by 630 yards.

Stacy earned consensus All-SEC running back honors as a junior, finishing as the league's third leading rusher behind Trent Richardson of Alabama and Michael Dyer of Auburn. Stacy is the SEC's top returning rusher in 2012.

Stacy broke the team single-season record during a 184-yard, 3-TD performance in the team's regular season finale at Wake Forest on Nov. 26. It was part of a seven-game stretch when Stacy averaged 121.7 rushing yards and scored 12 rushing TDs.

Stacy also became the first 'Dore running back in two decades to earn SEC Offensive Player of the Week honors following a 135-yard, 3-TD performance vs. Kentucky on Nov. 12.

OTHERS COMMODORES TO CONSIDER

CHASE GARNHAM

LB ★ 6-3, 230, Jr. ★ Fairhope, Ala.

Garnham put together an excellent season as a first-year linebacker starter in 2011. Despite missing most of four games in the second part of the season, Garnham finished with 51 total tackles, 5.5 tackles for loss and two quarterback sacks. This spring, Garnham will move to middle linebacker.

WESLEY JOHNSON

Offensive Line ★ 6-5, 290, R-Jr. ★ Nashville, Tenn.

Johnson is one of the SEC's most versatile and productive offensive linemen. The Nashville product started at all three offensive line positions as a sophomore: seven at center, five at left tackle and one at left guard. Johnson displayed tremendous agility, tenacity and physicality in 2011.

RICHARD KENT

Punter ★ 6-2, 198, R-Sr. ★ Marietta, Ga.

Kent averaged career-high 42.5 yards in 2011. His 39.2-yard net average ranked 3rd in the SEC. The two-year starter also ranked fifth in the SEC with a 36% success rate in pinning opponents inside their 20-yard line. Kent owns a 42.1-yard career average, fourth all-time among Vandy punters.

ROB LOHR

Defensive Tackle ★ 6-4, 290, R-Sr. ★ Phoenixville, Pa.

Lohr enjoyed his best season as a Commodore in 2011, ranking among the SEC defensive tackle leaders with five quarterback sacks and 11.5 tackles for loss. He started every game, finishing the year with 41 total tackles and a pair of forced fumbles.

JORDAN MATTHEWS

Wide Receiver ★ 6-4, 205, Jr. ★ Madison, Ala.

Matthews performed at an All-SEC level during the second half of the 2011 season, averaging 111 receiving yards over his final six games. His 19.0-yard per catch average topped all SEC receivers. Matthews also topped the team with 41 catches and 778 yards. He surpassed 150 receiving yards twice in SEC play.

RYAN SEYMOUR

Offensive Line ★ 6-5, 305, R-Sr. ★ Kingsland, Ga.

Seymour and Wesley Johnson were the Commodores' most versatile and consistent offensive linemen in 2011. A two-year starter, Seymour opened the 2012 season with four starts at left tackle, then shifted inside as a physical presence at left guard. Seymour has 22 career starts entering his final year.

TREY WILSON

Cornerback ★ 5-11, 192, Sr. ★ Shreveport, La.

Wilson's three interceptions ranked second on the team and tied for 11th in the Southeastern Conference last year. He was the only player in the SEC to return two interceptions for touchdowns. Wilson also contributed 24 solo tackles and 11 passes defended.

FRANKLIN TENURE ON WEST END

FRANKLIN'S FIRST YEAR AT VANDERBILT: BUILDING A WINNER AND CREATING FAN INTEREST

FRANKLIN INTRODUCED IN NASHVILLE ★ Dec. 17, 2010
James Franklin is introduced as Vanderbilt's 27th head football coach in a press conference held in the Board of Trust Room at Sarratt Student Center. At 39, the former assistant head coach/offensive coordinator at Maryland becomes the youngest Vandy head coach in nearly two decades.

FRANKLIN: "It's time that this football program starts reflecting everything else on this campus, and that's a commitment to excellence. There's going to be high expectations from day one. There is no part of this program that will settle. Everything we do will be about championships."

FRANKLIN ANNOUNCES OFFENSIVE STAFF ★ Jan. 13, 2011
The head coach announces the hirings of his offensive coaches, including new coordinator John Donovan, and Dwight Galt, the man who will guide the Commodores' conditioning program. He also names key administrators in the football office.

FRANKLIN: "We're really laying the foundation right now with the offensive staff, the administrative staff, the strength coach, to put together what my focus is on, which is to build the best staff in the country. When I say that, I'm talking about people that are passionate about being at Vanderbilt."

FRANKLIN INTRODUCED AT BASKETBALL GAME ★ Jan. 20, 2011
Franklin takes the floor during halftime of the men's basketball game against Ole Miss in Memorial Gymnasium, asking students and fans for their support for the football team in the coming months.

FRANKLIN: "We have a plan; we have a vision for what this program could be, but we can't do it alone. We need everybody's support. We need this community, we need this campus to come together and unite more than it ever has before."

FRANKLIN NAMES DEFENSIVE STAFF ★ Jan. 31, 2011
Four defensive coaches are named to fill out Franklin's staff: defensive coordinator and safeties coach Bob Shoop, linebackers coach and co-defensive coordinator Brent Pry, secondary coach Wes McGriff and defensive line coach Sean Spencer.

NATIONAL SIGNING DAY ★ Feb. 2, 2011
Fueled by a strong finish to recruiting, Franklin lands 21 signees coming from 13 states. The class, which includes a pair of 4-star prospects, is regarded as Vanderbilt's most talented class in years.

FRANKLIN TO AUDIENCE OF FANS: "Basically, this staff was not going to take 'no' for an answer. We told every recruit that. We would go into their homes and tell them reasons they should come and tell their family. In the end, we would look them in the eye and tell them we weren't taking 'no' for an answer and they were coming to Vanderbilt."

FRANKLIN STAGES STUDENT TRYOUTS ★ Feb. 15, 2011
After visiting dorms and fraternity row, Franklin personally conducted tryouts for the Vanderbilt student body to make the team's spring roster. Seventeen students participated in the tryouts. Eventually, six students would join the team for spring drills.

FRANKLIN GUIDES SPRING DRILLS ★ March 18, 2011
Franklin oversees his first spring practice as head coach at the John Rich Practice Facility on campus. During the ensuing 14 practices, Franklin puts his stamp on the Commodore program: upbeat, energetic, disciplined, physical, and positive.

THOUSANDS ATTEND SPRING GAME ★ April 17, 2011
The 'Dores conclude a month of drills with the Black and Gold Spring Game in Vanderbilt Stadium. The Black Team comes away with a 19-7 victory in front of a large and enthusiastic crowd. It marks the first spring intrasquad game on campus in more than 10 years. A fireworks display caps the spring finale.

GETS 'DORES OFF RIGHT WITH 3-0 START ★ September 2011
After a strong preseason camp, Franklin's squad opens the season with a 45-14 win over Elon, then follows that with a 24-21 comeback over UConn and 30-7 defeat of Ole Miss. Franklin's becomes the first new Vandy coach to start 3-0 since World War II.

GUIDES 'DORES TO AUTOZONE LIBERTY BOWL ★ Nov.-Dec. 2011
Needing two wins in the last three games to reach bowl eligibility, Franklin guides Commodores to resounding victories over Kentucky and Wake Forest and became the first new coach at Vanderbilt to guide the 'Dores to a postseason bowl. On New Year's Eve, Vanderbilt played Cincinnati before a near-sellout crowd in the 53rd AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

2011 'Dores: SEC's Most Improved Team

Statistically speaking, James Franklin's Commodores were the Southeastern Conference's most improved team in 2011.

Vanderbilt showed more progress during Franklin's first year on both offense and defense than any other SEC team. A comparison of final stats for 2011 and 2010 reveals the Commodores ranked No. 1 in the league in scoring offense differential (+9.8 pts.), scoring defense (-9.6 pts.) and rushing defense (-62.5 yards). Franklin's squad also showed solid improvement in several other key stats.

Perfect Cap to Year: Excellent Signing Class

James Franklin and his Commodore staff have capped off a smashing sales effort in February by signing one of the top classes of prospects in team history.

Franklin praised the 2012 class, which ranked among the nation's top 30 recruiting efforts by experts across the nation.

"This is the best recruiting class I have ever been associated with," Franklin said during a National Signing Day gathering. "We have tremendously improved our football team today. I keep saying you win football games Sunday through Friday and by winning on National Signing Day, Vanderbilt won today!"

The 22-member class attracted 11 defensive players, 10 offensive performers and one kicking specialist. Rivals.com rated every signee three-stars or higher, the first time Vanderbilt has ever achieved such status. Six different players earned rare four-star evaluations from national recruiting pundits. One signee earned Parade Magazine All-American status.

The class is highlighted by six offensive line prospects all ranked among the Top 75 players at their positions nationally. The new Commodores include six prep standouts from Tennessee, all considered among the state's Top 25 seniors.

"We didn't fill all of our needs, and we'll do even better next year, but we are truly building something special at Vanderbilt. All Commodore fans should be happy with the class and the direction of our program," Franklin said.
