Deacons Beat Virginia for 1962 ACC Title

_Wake Forest blanks Cavaliers, 7-0_

It came down to one game for Wake Forest and Virginia.

All the marbles.

The whole ball of wax.

When all the chips were on the table, the Deacons left no doubt about where the 1962 ACC Championship belonged. Wake Forest shut out Virginia 7-0 in a playoff between the teams that tied for the regular season championship.

The Deacons stormed out to a 9-2 record in the conference but spiraled down the stretch losing its final three regular season conference games, requiring a playoff to determine the ACC Champion.

Wake Forest would not let its late-season slide end an otherwise stellar season.

Winning the conference, the Deacons moved into NCAA Tournament play and won its first two games against West Virginia and Florida but dropped two games to Florida State.

The team finished with a 20-11 record and the second championship in the league’s nine-year history.

_Deacons Run Away with 1963 Title_

After needing a playoff in 1962 to determine the Atlantic Coast Conference champion, the 1963 Demon Deacon squad took an early lead in the standings and never looked back. Wake Forest finished the year with an 11-3 record, two full games ahead of second place Clemson.

The 1963 team set a new school record for wins, wrapping up the campaign with a 28-11 record. The record would stand for another 15 years until the 1977 season when the Deacons would capture another ACC title.

Five players were selected to All-ACC teams including first teamers Bill Scripture (OF), Wayne Martin (C) and Louis Howard (P). All three were also named to the ABCA All-America teams. Scripture was a first team selection. Wake Forest’s middle infielder combination of David Miller (2B) and Walt Noell (SS) were chosen to the All-ACC second team.

Clemson, S.C. – Wake Forest captured its fourth Atlantic Coast Conference title in fine fashion with a 22-9 win over tournament host and number one ranked Clemson. Head coach Marvin Crater’s Deacons went 4-0 in the tournament, posting come-from-behind victories in all four contests.

In the championship game, Wake Forest fell behind 2-0 in the second inning but plated four runs in the bottom half of the frame and hung a nine-spot in the third inning. In the fourth inning, Clemson cut the lead to 13-5 but would get no closer as the Deacons scored three in the fourth, two in the fifth and four in the seventh to pull away for a 22-9 victory.

Ken Gerrity paced the Wake Forest offense with five hits in six at-bats, scoring three times while driving in two. John Pacer and Al Zyskowski each had four base hits. Everyone in the Deacon lineup had hits, relieving starter Merle Henkel.

It was Darracott’s second win of the ACC Tournament. Two days earlier, he defeated Maryland.

Wake Forest earned the title by defeating Duke 2-1, Maryland 10-7, Clemson 5-4 before Sunday’s 22-9 championship game win over Clemson.

In the title game, the Deacons set four new ACC Tournament records including most runs (22), combined runs (31), most hits (21), most home runs (3), walks (10).

Borrell Shuts Down Seminoles, Deacs Win ACC Title
John Hendricks Named Tournament MVP

Durham, N.C. (AP) -- Left-hander Danny Borrell held the Seminoles to three runs on six hits in a complete game as he led Wake Forest (41-21) to a 6-2 victory over Florida State (49-18) for the Demon Deacons' first ACC Championship since 1977.

Borrell (3-2) struck out four and walked four in his first start against an ACC opponent. He retired the first seven batters of the game.

First baseman Jon Palmieri belted an RBI-double in the first inning as Wake Forest quickly got a 1-0 lead. Palmieri then led off the third with a triple and scored on a base hit by third baseman Corey Slavik. Slavik came home on a single by catcher Andrew Riepe to increase the Deacons lead to 3-0.

FSU third baseman Jose Zabala walked and scored on a base hit by centerfielder Brian Cox as the Seminoles cut Wake Forest's lead to 3-1. Cox extended his hitting streak to 19 games.

Wake Forest made the score 5-1 on a two-run single by Riepe in the fifth inning. Right fielder Ben Danosky doubled and scored on a base hit by Slavik in the sixth to add one more run to the Deacons' total.

Second baseman Brooks Badeaux walked and came home on a sacrifice fly by catcher Jeremy Salazar as the Seminoles made the score 6-2.

Right-hander Chris Chavez (7-4) gave up five runs and ten hits in 4 1/3 innings pitched in the loss. Chavez struck out three and walked two in the appearance.

Right-fielder Matt Diaz set a new ACC Tournament record with 14 hits with a single in the ninth inning. The previous record of 13 was held by Bert Hefferman of Clemson set in 1995.

DEACONS CAPTURE BACK-TO-BACK ACC CHAMPIONSHIPS
ANDREW RIEPE NAMED TOURNAMENT MVP

Durham, N.C. (AP) -- Wake Forest repeated as ACC baseball champions on May 22, 1999, rallying with nine unanswered runs while getting some clutch relief pitching from David Bush in a 9-5 victory over Clemson in the tournament title game.

Wake Forest (44-13) set a single-season mark for wins while capturing its ninth straight Atlantic Coast Conference tourney victory - one shy of the league record set by Georgia Tech in the mid-1980s.

"Nobody would have believed this. Four years ago we were playing in the play-in game and to win back-to-back titles and to beat teams like Florida State, this is just a great bunch of guys," said senior star Jon Palmieri.

The Demon Deacon starting pitchers have been masterful in their last eight ACC postseason games, each going at least eight innings. But Danny Borrell was wild and didn’t make it out of the fourth inning against the Tigers (37-24), who were playing in the title game about an hour after knocking top-seeded Florida State from the double-elimination event.

But Bush, a freshman from Devon, Pa., retired nine straight Clemson batters to allow the Demon Deacons time to battle back from a 5-0 deficit. Bush, recruited as a catcher, ended up retiring 16 of the 17 batters he faced, striking out six as Wake Forest won its sixth ACC title.

"You can’t do any better than that," Wake Forest coach George Greer said of Bush’s performance.

Bush, who pitched a scoreless inning earlier in the day, caught the last out - a pop-up.

"It couldn’t come down quick enough," Bush said. "I wanted to grab it and just start celebrating."

Wake Forest (44-13) set a single-season mark for wins while capturing its ninth straight Atlantic Coast Conference tourney victory - one shy of the league record set by Georgia Tech in the mid-1980s.

"Nobody would have believed this. Four years ago we were playing in the play-in game and to win back-to-back titles and to beat teams like Florida State, this is just a great bunch of guys," said senior star Jon Palmieri.

The Demon Deacon starting pitchers have been masterful in their last eight ACC postseason games, each going at least eight innings. But Danny Borrell was wild and didn’t make it out of the fourth inning against the Tigers (37-24), who were playing in the title game about an hour after knocking top-seeded Florida State from the double-elimination event.

But Bush, a freshman from Devon, Pa., retired nine straight Clemson batters to allow the Demon Deacons time to battle back from a 5-0 deficit. Bush, recruited as a catcher, ended up retiring 16 of the 17 batters he faced, striking out six as Wake Forest won its sixth ACC title.

"You can’t do any better than that," Wake Forest coach George Greer said of Bush’s performance.

Bush, who pitched a scoreless inning earlier in the day, caught the last out - a pop-up.

"It couldn’t come down quick enough," Bush said. "I wanted to grab it and just start celebrating."

WAKE FOREST WINS THIRD ACC TITLE IN FOUR YEARS

Cory Sullivan Pitches Eight Innings, Hits Two HR in Championship Game

Fort Mill, N.C. (AP) -- Cory Sullivan led off the ACC Tournament Championship game with a home run and Wake Forest never looked back on its way to a 17-4 win over NC State.

The title is the program’s third in the last four years.

Sullivan did it all for the Deacons in the game. At the plate, he was 3-for-3, with three runs, five RBIs and two home runs. On the mound, Sullivan (6-0) went eight innings, allowing four runs and seven hits to earn the win.

"Cory Sullivan, what can I say? He leads the game off with a home run and comes out in the bottom of the inning and strikes people out. He hits another home run and gets a big RBI single. He is just immense. He is what college baseball is all about-someone who can do it all," head coach George Greer said.

Reliever Dave Bush pitched the final inning for Greer’s Deacons. Bush was making his fourth appearance in the tournament. The junior right hander earned tournament MVP honors and finished the week with a 1-0 record and two saves.

Wake Forest was able to post a pair of six-run innings in the second and sixth.

In addition to the run support he gave himself, Sullivan received help from Jamie D’Antona and Nick Blue. D’Antona’s three-run homer in the second inning was his second of the tournament. D’Antona was 3-for-4 with two home runs.

Bush was on the mound for Wake’s championship clinching out in 1999 in Durham. Sullivan’s home run in the first inning was his fifth leadoff homer of the year.
