Bill George Award

The Bill George Award is given annually to Wake Forest's standout lineman on offense or defense in honor of the school's first All-American. George went on to an outstanding professional career with the Chicago Bears and the Los Angeles Rams. He was named to the Pro Bowl eight times and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1974. He was killed in a car accident in September of 1982.

Beattie Feathers Award

For 20 years, from 1981 to 2000, the Wake Forest coaching staff selected the most improved players from spring practice and presented them with an award named after the late Beattie Feathers, a Deacon assistant coach from 1961 until 1977. Feathers, an All-America football player at Tennessee, played professional football from 1934 to 1937 as a member of the Chicago Bears. He was an All-Pro player his rookie season and became the first player in NFL history to rush for 1,000 yards in a single season. He is a member of the National College Football Hall of Fame. Feathers died in March of 1979.

Nick Sacrinty scored the first touchdown in Gator Bowl history.

1946 Gator Bowl

January 1, 1946 • Jacksonville, FL

Wake Forest's first-ever postseason appearance came in the inaugural Gator Bowl in Jacksonville, Fla., and Coach Peahead Walker's squad made that initial bowl trip a successful one, defeating South Carolina, 26-14. A crowd of more than 10,000 fans was on hand to witness the re-match between the two future ACC members who had played to a 13-13 tie earlier in the season. This time Wake took control at the outset, capping its opening possession with a three-yard run by Nick Sacrinty. A missed extra-point, however, resulted in the Gamecocks taking a 7-6 lead with the only score of the second quarter.

The Deacs regained the lead and took control in the second half behind their bruising ground attack. Rock Brinkley finished off two time-consuming drives with short TD runs of five and four yards, then Bob Smathers clinched the verdict with a 20-yard run on a reverse. The 378 yards rushing in the game stood as a Wake Forest single game record for 22 years. The victory culminated a dramatic turnaround season that had started with three straight losses but ended at 5-3-1.

Peahead Walker directed the Deacs to the Gator and the Dixie Bowls.

1949 Dixie Bowl

January 1, 1949 • Birmingham, AL

Three years after competing in the first Gator Bowl, the Demon Deacons were invited to Birmingham, Ala., to compete in the second -- and last -- Dixie Bowl. Unlike that first postseason experience, though, this venture proved unfulfilling from a won-lost standpoint as Wake Forest dropped a hard-fought 20-7 contest to Baylor in what was frequently referred to at the time as the "Battle of the Baptists."

A crowd of over 20,000 was in attendance as Baylor jumped out to a 20-0 lead with three touchdowns in the first half, two coming on lengthy drives, the third following a long pass interception. The Deacs of Coach Peahead Walker refused to quit, however, and rallied to pull within striking distance on a TD by Mike Sprock in the third period after recovering a Baylor fumble. Wake went on to control most of the game and held the advantage statistically overall (six more first downs, 63 more yards in total offense), but never could reach paydirt again. The contest marked the last time that a Wake Forest football team has played a bowl game on New Year's Day. The Demon Deacons finished the season with a 6-4 record.

1979 Tangerine Bowl

December 22, 1979 • Orlando, FL

After a 30-year absence from the bowl scene, Wake Forest completed one of the most surprising stories in college football in 1979 with a visit to the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Fla. The Demon Deacons earned that trip and a pairing against an emotional LSU squad playing its final game under veteran coach Charlie McClendon by compiling an 8-3 regular season mark and attaining a national ranking in the top 20.

The Tigers seized the momentum early with touchdown drives on their first two possessions. Wake Forest, meanwhile, was struggling offensively and committed three turnovers before Phil Denfeld made the score 24-3 with a field goal as the first half ended.

Coach John Mackovic's Deacs came back to play much better after intermission, taking the second half kickoff and scoring their lone TD of the night on an eight-play drive that ended with a 34-yard pass from Jay Venuto to Wayne Baumgardner. Two other drives into LSU territory were halted, though, and the SEC power eventually built its advantage with 10 more points in the final period.
