A CAMPAIGN FOR THE RECORD BOOKS
• With 19 wins this season, Wake Forest’s 2016 campaign stands alone in third place for the most wins in a season in program history. Only the 2008 season (21 wins) and the 2007 national championship season (22 wins) top the 2016 season in terms of victories.

GOING STREAKING
• Dating back to the Sept. 30 loss at Clemson, Wake Forest has gone on a 13-game unbeaten run. The streak is the fifth-best in team history. Last season, the Deacs went on a 12-game unbeaten run during the season.
• The program record stands at 24, set from 2007 into the 2008 season. The fourth-longest streak stands at 16, set in 1999.

CAPTAIN HAYES
• Senior captain Jacori Hayes has scored the game-winning goal in three of Wake Forest’s seven postseason games this season. • Wake Forest had its program-best shutout streak end at 85:46 on Sept. 27 at Davidson after the Wildcats scored in the 88th minute. The streak was the third of 300-plus minutes and second of 500-plus minutes since head coach Bobby Muuss took over prior to 2015.
• Last year, Wake Forest went 562:29 without allowing a goal from Sept. 26 to Oct. 23. By going the first 92 seconds of game action against NC State on Sept. 24, the Deacs snapped the previous program record of 639:59, which was set in 1992.

TRY TO GET ONE BY US
• Wake Forest has allowed just 25 goals since the start of the 2015 season.
• That number stands tied for the third-fewest in the nation since the start of last season. Only Loyola Chicago (19), Denver (21) and St. Francis Brooklyn (21) check in below the Deacs.
• Wake Forest’s 0.48 GAA stands second in the nation behind North Carolina’s 0.45.
• For measure, 117 programs this season alone have allowed 24 or more goals, 57 of the 203 Division I programs allowed at least 30 goals during the 2015 campaign and 47 allowed 30 or more this season.
• On Oct. 8, Notre Dame became the first team and only team thus far this season to score more than once on Wake Forest in a game. It joined FIU (8/30/15), Louisville (10/30/15) and Stanford (12/3/15) as the only teams to have scored twice on the Deacs since the start of the 2015 season.
