ALL-ACC GALORE

- Wake Forest racked up All-ACC honors when the league announced postseason awards - voted on by the league head coaches - on Tuesday.
- The Demon Deacons earned three of the yearly awards. Jon Bakero was named the Offensive Player of the Year, Kevin Politz was named the Defensive Player of the Year and Bobby Muuss was picked as Coach of the Year. Muuss is the first coach in the league’s history to win the honor three-straight seasons.
- Bakero was joined as a first team All-ACC selection by midfielders Ema Twumasi, while Politz was picked to be the second ACC team honoree.
- Luis Argudo and Brad Dunwell were third team honorees.
- Omar Fernandez and Brandon Servania were named to the All-Freshman Team.

ACC SUCCESS

- Wake Forest was the only unbeaten team in ACC play. The Deacs handed Louisville and North Carolina their lone conference defeats.
- The Deacs scored 20 goals in eight ACC games, five more than any other program. Wake Forest’s +16 goal differential in conference play is also best in the league, six more than second-place North Carolina (+10).
- Thirty-three of the 48 ACC games played have been decided by a goal or less. Wake Forest has five of the 15 wins decided by multiple goals.

- Spry Stadium has proved to be a very unkind venue for opponents since it opened in 1996.
- In the 22nd season hosting Wake Forest soccer, the Deacs have gone 48-22 inside the friendly confines. Since Bobby Muuss took over before 2015, the Deacs have gone 36-5-3.

- Wake Forest had a program-best shutout streak end at 855:46 on Sept. 27, 2016 at Davidson. The Deacs surpassed the previous program record of 639:59, which was set in 1992. The current streak is the third of 500+ minutes since head coach Bobby Muuss took over prior to 2015.

SENIOR LEADERSHIP

- Wake Forest is led by a trio of senior captains this year: Jon Bakero, Steven Echevarria and Kevin Politz. Each received the honor for the first time in 2017.
