WINSTON-SALEM, N.C.- The top four seeds in men’s singles advanced to the quarterfinals on Friday while a pair of top six seeds were eliminated on the women’s side at the 2018 NCAA Tennis Championships being played at the Wake Forest Tennis Complex.

Martin Redlicki of UCLA, the No. 1 seed in men’s singles, advanced with a 6-2, 6-12 victory over Giovanni Oradini of Mississippi State while the No. 2 seed, William Blumberg of North Carolina moved into the quarterfinals with a 6-4, 6-1 win over Cameron Klinger of Vanderbilt. Third-seeded Nuno Borges of Mississippi State advanced over 9-16 seed Alfredo Perez of Florida 7-6 (7), 7-5 as fourth seed Petros Chrysochos of Wake Forest moved past Memphis’ Ryan Peniston 6-2, 6-4.

No. 6 seed Mikael Torpegaard of Ohio State advanced past Brandon Holt of Southern California 7-5, 6-3. Seventh seed Borna Gojo of Wake Forest moved into the quarters with a 7-6 (5), 3-6, 6-2 victory over Valentin Vacherot of Texas A&M. Rounding out the quarterfinal field will be Timo Stodder of Tennessee, a 9-16 seed, who moved past Jose Salazar of Arkansas 6-1, 6-3, and 9-16 seed Mazen Osama of Alabama who topped Michigan’s Runhao Hua, 6-1, 6-4.

In women’s singles, No. 3 seed Estela Perez-Somarriba of Miami (Fla.), the highest remaining seed entering the day, was upset by Florida International’s Andrea Lazaro, 6-1, 5-7, 6-0. No. 5 seed Gabriela Knutson of Syracuse was taken out by unseeded Mayar Sherif of Pepperdine by scores of 6-4, 7-5.

That leaves No. 6 seed Arianne Hartono of Ole Miss as the highest remaining seed advancing to the quarterfinals. Hartono advanced with a 6-1, 6-2 win over 9-16 seed Paige Hourigan of Georgia Tech on Friday. 9-16 seed Ashley Lahey eliminated No. 7 seed Ena Shibahara of UCLA 7-6 (5), 6-3. Eighth seed Fernanda Contreras advanced to the quarterfinals with a 2-6, 6-2, 6-2 win over Loyola Marymount’s Veronica Miroshnichenko.

9-16 seed Astra Sharma of Vanderbilt moved into the round of eight with a 6-2, 6-4 win over Emily Arbuthnott of Stanford and 9-16 seed Anna Danilina of Florida rallied past Kelly Chen of Duke 2-6, 7-5, 6-2. Unseeded Luisa Stefani of Pepperdine moved into the quarterfinals with a 6-4, 7-6 (5) win over Gabriela Talaba of Texas Tech.

In doubles play, the top two seeded doubles teams advanced to the quarterfinals on both the men’s and women’s side. Among the women, top seed Georgia Tech’s team of Paige Hourigam and Kenya Jones moved on with a 6-1, 6-2 victory over Veronica Miroshnichenko/Eva Marie Voracek of Loyola Marymount. No. 2 seed Astra Sharma/Fernanda Contreras of Vanderbilt moved past the Kansas team of Nina Khmelnitckaia/Anastasia Rychagove, 6-1, 6-2.

North Carolina’s William Blumberg will have multiple matches to play in the quarterfinals on Saturday. The No. 2 seed in men’s singles, Blumberg and teammate Robert Kelly are the No. 2 seed in men’s doubles and the duo advanced with a 7-5, 6-2 win over South Carolina’s Yancy Dennis/Gabriel Friedrich.

No. 1 seed Nuno Borges/Strahinja Rakic moved past the Wisconsin team of Chema Carranza/Josef Dodridge in a three-setter 0-6, 7-5, 11-9. Borges/Rakic rallied back from a 9-6 deficit in the third set with five straight points.

Fourth seed Johannes Ingildsen/Alfredo Perez of Florida moved into the round of 16 with a 6-3, 6-1 win over Fabian Fallert/Tim Sandkaulen of Ole Miss.
