WINSTON-SALEM, N.C.- Six of the top eight seeds in singles on the men’s side advanced on Thursday at NCAA Division I Tennis Championships being contested at the Wake Forest Tennis Complex. In women’s singles, the highest remaining seed, No. 2 Makenna Jones of North Carolina was upset while five of the top eight seeds advanced to the Round of 16.

Jones was upset by unseeded Kelly Chen of Duke 6-3, 6-4 but No. 3 seed Estela Perez-Somarriba of Miami (Fla.) advanced with a 7-6 (3), 6-3 win over Megan McCray of Oklahoma State. Fifth seed Gabriela Knutson of Syracuse topped Northwestern’s Erin Larner in three sets, 6-4, 2-6, 6-3 to move into the Round of 16 while No. 6 seed Arianne Hartono of Ole Miss advanced with a with a 6-0, 6-2 win over Washington’s Vanessa Wong.

Also advancing on the women’s side was No. 7 seed Ena Shibahara of UCLA who downed Marianna Petrie of Idaho, 6-4, 0-6, 6-2, and No. 8 seed Fernanda Contreras of Vanderbilt who defeated Felicity Maltby of Texas Tech, 6-1, 6-1.

No. 1 men’s singles seed Martin Redlicki of UCLA defeated UC Santa Barbara’s Nicolas Moreno de Alboran 2-6, 6-4, 7-5 to move into Friday’s Round of 16. Second seed William Blumberg of North Carolina needed three sets to advance past Edu Mena of Tennessee Tech, 7-6 (3), 4-6, 6-3.

Third seed Nuno Borges of Mississippi State defeated Wake Forest’s Skander Mansouri 6-2, 4-6, 6-4. No. 7 seed Borna Gojo of Wake Forest posted a 6-4, 6-1 win over Gabriel Friedrich of South Carolina. Fourth seed Petros Chrysochos of Wake Forest advanced when William Bushamuka of Kentucky was forced to retire in the first set, trailing 5-0. Unseeded Runhao Hua of Michigan upset No. 5 Patrick Kypson of Stanford 4-6, 6-0, 6-4. Sixth seed Mikael Torpegaard of Ohio State claimed a 6-4, 6-3 win over South Carolina’s Paul Jubb to advance to the Round of 16.

Also getting underway on Thursday was men’s and women’s doubles play.

In women’s doubles, only the top seed made it through to the round of 16. No. 1 seed Paige Hourigan and Kenya Jones of Georgia Tech defeated Denver’s duo of Bianca Mok and Julia O’Loughlin, 6-3, 3-6, 10-7. No. 2 seed Jessie Aney/Alexa Graham of North Carolina was upset by Vanderbilt’s Fernanda Contreras/Astra Sharma, 6-2, 6-4. Third seed Emily Arbuthnott/Michaela Gordon of Stanford lost to Wake Forest’s Emma Davis/Chandler Carter 6-3, 6-3 and No. 4 seed Erin Larner/Maddie Lipp of Northwestern fell to NC State’s Anna Rogers/Claudia Wiktorin 2-6, 6-3, 12-10.

Three of the top four seeded men’s doubles teams advance to the second round.

Top seeded Nuno Borges/Strahinja Rakic of Mississippi State moved onto the round of 16 with a 3-6, 7-5, 10-8 win over Louisville’s Christopher Morin-Kougoucheff/Parker Wynn. No. 2 seed William Blumberg/Robert Kelly of North Carolina defeated Billy Griffith/J.T. Nishimura of Cal, 6-4, 6-4. The fourth seeded team of Johannes Ingildsen/Alfredo Perez of Florida defeated Tom Fawcett/Axel Geller of Stanford, 3-6, 7-6 (6), 10-4. Third-seeded Jordi Arconada/Juan Carlos Aguilar of Texas A&M were upset by Columbia’s Jack Lin/William Matheson 6-0, 1-6, 11-9.

Friday’s action includes play in the round of 16 for men’s and women’s singles as well as men’s and women’s doubles.