#4 [4] GEORGIA TECH (24-5) def. #12 [13] PEPPERDINE (24-3), 4-3 - Wake Forest Tennis Complex
Head Coaches: Rodney Harmon (Georgia Tech) and Per Nilsson (Pepperdine)

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. — #4 Georgia Tech edged #13 Pepperdine 4-3 on Thursday night to advance to the quarterfinals of the 2018 NCAA Women’s Tennis Championship. It was the final match of the day at the Wake Forest Tennis Complex.

The match came down to No. 6 singles where Georgia Tech’s Victoria Flores defeated Pepperdine’s Dzina Milovanovic in three sets 7-6, 3-6, 6-3.

Four of the singles matches went three sets with Georgia Tech (24-5) winning three.

Pepperdine (24-3) won the doubles point with wins at No. 1 and No. 2 doubles.

Georgia Tech will face UCLA on Saturday at 4 p.m. EDT in the quarterfinals at the Wake Forest Tennis Complex.