

2002-2003 UW STUDENT FOOTBALL AND BASKETBALL APPLICATION

Eligible Students—

1. Matriculating students only—in a bachelors, masters, or doctoral program—from the Seattle, Bothell or Tacoma campuses registered for Autumn quarter—paying the Student Services and Activity Fee (colored registration sticker).
2. Spouse/domestic partner of student (#1 above) with a purchasing student season ticket.
 - a. Must present copy of marriage/domestic partner certificate at time of purchase.
 - b. No copies of certificates kept on file. Must be resubmitted every year of purchase.

Ineligible Students—

1. Students classified as non-matriculating--UW Extension, ESL or any other special programs (Tuition Exemption or Evening Degree).
2. Students who do not pay the Student Services and Activity Fee. Students with white registration stickers do not pay the Student Services and Activities Fee and are ineligible.
3. Spouses or Domestic Partners without certification.

Disability Accommodations—

In compliance with the federal "Americans with Disabilities Act" seating accommodations are made for qualified disabilities. When ordering tickets, indicate your specific needs (wheelchair, aisle, etc.). Wheelchair orders may also purchase an attendant season ticket.

Football Season Ticket Options—

- 1) Seven-game Season, $84.
 - a) Tickets for the entire 2002 home season. Games include San Jose State, Wyoming, Idaho, California, Arizona, UCLA and Oregon State.
 - b) Priority Deadline August 9.
- 2) Five-game Season. $60.
 - a) Games include Idaho, California, Arizona, UCLA and Oregon State (during school).
 - b) Orders accepted and processed before August 9, but seating not guaranteed in the student seating area until Seven-game Priority Deadline expires. If the student section sells out on a seven-game season basis, five-game season tickets will automatically be in the east-end zone (general admission seating).

Football Refund Policy—

- 1) Seven-game package: No refunds after August 23.
- 2) Five-game package: No refunds after September 20.
- 3) Spouse/DP ticket will not be released without certification. Students purchasing spouse/domestic partner tickets and do not provide certification will not be refunded.

Basketball Pass—$30. Admits to all regular season men and women's home games.
