SCOUTING THE COUGARS...

WSU won its first season-opening game in four years, knocking off UC Davis 64-54 Nov. 15 at Friel Court.

The Cougars were led by freshman guard KiKi Moore, who scored a team-high 17 points in her first-career collegiate game. Moore also recorded a game-high four steals, including one that sealed the game for WSU.

Moore stole the ball at midcourt and extended WSU's lead to eight on a lay-up with 36 seconds left on the clock. WSU had led by as many as 12 in the second half, but UC Davis cut the lead to six with just over a minute remaining.

April Cook also scored in double figures for the Cougars, adding 14 points. The sophomore guard also pulled down a game-high eight rebounds, tying her career high.

From the final seven minutes of the first half through nearly the first seven minutes of the second half, the Cougars allowed the Aggies only one field goal.

The WSU defense also forced 21 turnovers and also forced the Aggies to shoot just 35.2 percent from the floor (19-of-54), including 25.8 percent in the second half (8-of-31).

SCOUTING THE WILDCATS...

Kansas State has lost each of its first two games of the season: 77-73 to Indiana State and 80-79 to Arkansas State in overtime. Each of the Wildcats' first two games were played in Manhattan.

Although the team has started 0-2, Kansas State has only been outscored by a combined five points.

Senior forward Ashley Sweat, one of two returning starters from last year's squad that went to the second round of the NCAA tournament, is averaging a team-high 16 points in the Wildcats' first two games. Sweat also leads the team in rebounding, pulling down 8.5 boards a game.

Junior guard Kari Kincaid, another starter in 2008-09, is right behind Sweat at 15.5 ppg. Sweat and Kincaid are two of five Wildcats averaging in double figures through the team's first two games. Also scoring 10-plus are sophomore forward Jalana Childs (12), junior guard Shalin Spani (10.5) and freshman guard Brittany Chambers.

The Wildcats were predicted to finish eighth in the Big 12 Conference Preseason Poll after finishing fifth in 2008-09.

DAUGHERTY ERA - YEAR THREE

The Cougars, in year three under Head Coach June Daugherty, are coming off a 2008-09 season that saw significant improvement. WSU also posted double-digit wins for the first time since the 2000-01 season.

HEAD COACH
JUNE DAUGHERTY

With two full seasons under her belt, Washington State University Head Coach June Daugherty has come exactly as advertised, leading the charge to begin a New Era in Cougar women's basketball.

Just as she had done at each of her two previous stops, Daugherty has begun turning around the WSU women's program, bringing in top-ranked recruiting classes, improving attendance numbers and overseeing student-athletes who place premiums on academics and community service.

Last season Daugherty guided the Cougars to an eighth-place finish in the Pac-10, WSU's highest ranking in the conference since also finishing eighth in 1998-99. WSU also posted double-digit wins for the first time since the 2000-01 season.

Following 2008-09, the Cougars ranked among the nation's top 30 teams in both increasing their win total and increasing their RPI ranking. During the regular season the Cougars won six more games than the previous season, ranking 26th nationally and second in the Pac-10 amongst teams making the greatest turnarounds. WSU also moved up 83 spots in the RPI from the previous season, the second-highest increase amongst Pac-10 teams, and tied for the 28th-highest jump nationally.
