

COVERING THE CATAMOUNTS

Media credentials may be obtained by calling Mike Cawood at (828) 227-2339 or faxing a request to (828) 227-7688. The media pass list, including members of print and electronic media as well as photographers, list is held at the Childress Field/Hennon Stadium main ticket window on game day. Please note that only working press and game operations personnel will be allowed in the press box. Accredited photographers will be allowed to shoot from the field or atop either dugout at their own risk. All photographers must stay outside the playing area and past each dugout. The area in front of or inside the dugout as well as around home plate is off limits. All photographers are expected to abide by these regulations.

INTERVIEWS

WCU coaches and players are available for interviews on non-game days. To arrange an interview with Coach Todd Raleigh or any WCU student-athlete, please contact the media relations office at (828) 227-2339 at least 24 hours prior to the desired interview time. Interviews on game days are prohibited until after the game. Western Carolina players and coaches will be available after games in the dugout area following a 10-minute cooling off period at the conclusion of the game.

Media members are asked to refrain from contacting players late at night, and players' home or dorm telephone numbers will not be released by the media relations office.

WESTERN ON THE WEB

Media members can obtain all current information on WCU baseball by visiting its home page on the internet. The web site address is catamountsports.com. The site offers the Catamounts' current roster, schedule, statistics, box scores, news and more. Complete game box scores and play-by-plays will be posted to the site immediately following home games and within 24 hours of away games. Links are also provided to other WCU sports as well as links to the home pages of the University, the Southern Conference and the NCAA.
