WESTERN HOSTS METHODIST IN HOME OPENER:

Western Carolina welcomes the green & gold, NCAA Division III Methodist Monarchs out of Fayetteville, N.C., to the Ramsey Center to renew a series that dates back to 1981 ... WCU has won all five previous meetings in the series, last playing in 1986 ... Of the five victories, Western has downed the Monarchs by an average of 35.8 points with the largest point spread coming in the last meeting in '86 (106-45, 61 points) and the closest being an 18-point Catamount win in 1982 (78-60) ... Methodist is coming off an 11-14 season, but is just two years removed from a 20-win, NCAA D-III tournament team.

WESTERN vs. USA SOUTH CONFERENCE:

Methodist is a member of the NCAA D-III USA South Conference ... the Catamounts are 15-4 all-time against current members of the USA South Conference: 5-0 vs. Methodist College; 3-0 vs. Averett University; 2-0 vs. Ferrum College; 2-0 vs. Greensboro College; and a 3-4 all-time record against Maryville College Fighting Scots from Maryville, Tenn., in a series that ran from 1948 until 1980 ... Other conference members include Christopher Newport University, Mary Baldwin College, Meredith College, North Carolina Wesleyan, Peace College and Shenandoah University.

WESTERN CAROLINA IN HOME OPENERS:

Since opening the Ramsey Center in the 1986-87 season, Western Carolina is 14-6 in their home opener ... The Catamounts will be looking to get back on the winning track after falling to South Carolina from the SEC in the first home game of last season.

WESTERN CAROLINA GOES 1-2 AT PEGGY CRONIN CLASSIC:

Western Carolina opened its 2007-08 season in tournament action in Cincinnati, Ohio ... WCU earned its third-straight season opening victory under head coach Larry Hunter, downing Bowling Green for the second time in three seasons to start the campaign ... Hunter's first win at WCU was also over BGSU two years ago in Blacksburg, Va. ... Western took tournament host, the Cincinnati Bearcats, down to the wire before falling by two on a last second shot ... In a battle of two, 500-win coaches - Western's Larry Hunter (533) and Belmont's Rick Byrd (516) - the Catamounts were edged by the Belmont Bruins, 79-70 ... WCU trailed by as many as 17 in the first half, but rallied in the second, using back-to-back Brandon Giles 3-pointers to take a four-point lead ... WCU led by as many as five in the second before the Bruins used the three-ball to rally for the win.

SOPHOMORE NICK ALDRIDGE EARNS ALL-TOURNAMENT TEAM ACCOLADES IN CINCINNATI:

Sophomore forward Nick Aldridge paced the Catamounts in each game at the Peggy Cronin Classic, earning all-tournament team accolades after averaging just under 20 points per game. With three-straight, double-digit outings, the South Webster, Ohio native extended his consecutive double-figure scoring string to 23 games dating back to last season ... Aldridge was a preseason All-Southern Conference selection by both the league's head coaches and the voting members of the SoCon Sports Media Association.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS AT THE PEGGY CRONIN CLASSIC:

Through the three-game weekend tournament, Western Carolina held a three rebound per game advantage over its opposition, 116-107 ... WCU averaged right at 39 rebounds per outing, including 15.7 offensive boards and 23 defensive rebounds per game ... Against the teams it played in the tournament, Western averaged 8.3 3-pointers per game on 37-percent shooting from beyond the arc - conversely, WCU's opponents only

MEDIA INFORMATION

INTERVIEW POLICY

Head Coach Larry Hunter is available to meet with members of the media prior to or following each practice session. WCU practices are open to the media, but advance notice regarding your attendance is required. WCU assistant coaches and players may also be requested before or following most practices, however, please inform the media relations office at least 24 hours in advance. Those covering practice are asked to use discretion in reporting practice in areas such as plays, formations and injuries. Also, all dialog between coaches and players is considered confidential.

For photographers, like a game, no tripods may be used and photographers are asked to stay off the court.

WCU BASKETBALL PLAYERS AND ASSISTANT COACHES ARE NOT AVAILABLE FOR INTERVIEWS ON GAME DAYS UNLESS PERMISSION IS GRANTED WELL IN ADVANCE. THE DEADLINE TO ARRANGE INTERVIEWS WITH PLAYERS AND ASSISTANT COACHES IS 24 HOURS PRIOR TO TIP-OFF OF THE NEXT GAME. HEAD COACH LARRY HUNTER WILL ONLY DO INTERVIEWS WITH OPPOSING RADIO THE DAY OF A GAME IF PERMISSION IS GRANTED WELL IN ADVANCE.

averaged 6.7 treys per game, shooting under 30-percent from long range.

WESTERN CAROLINA IN SEASON OPENERS:

With complete records dating back to the 1945-46 season, Western improved to 36-26 in season openers which includes a 17-14 mark since joining the Southern Conference in the 1977-78 season ... It was just the third win in 17 for WCU away from Cullowhee in a season-opener and evened its neutral court record at 2-2 during that same span ... Under head coach Larry Hunter, Western improved to 3-0 in season openers with wins two over Bowling Green (2005-06, 2007-08) and over mountain-rival, UNC Asheville, last year in the Justice Center giving WCU back-to-back wins over NCAA Division I foes in season openers.

ABOUT WESTERN CAROLINA:

Western Carolina and head coach Larry Hunter returns seven players from a year ago off a team which finished 11-20 overall ... Each returning player saw at least an average of 17 minutes of playing time a year ago ... Headlining the returners is All-Southern Conference selection, sophomore Nick Aldridge who averaged a team-best 18.3 points per game a year ago ... the youthful Catamounts have three seniors and one junior with remaining eight players being freshmen and sophomores ... Senior Arnold Gore is expected to have a break-out season this year after spending extra time in the off-season in the weight room ... Classmates Negus McKenna and Eric Wilson have settled into their roles as team players and leaders both on and off the court - Wilson is a "defensive bulldog" while McKenna will look to shoot the 3-pointer ... Another 3-point threat is sophomore Jake Robinson, who helped guide Pisgah High in nearby Canton, N.C., to a state championship ... Rounding out WCU's returning class are backup point guard Brigham Waginger, who is a floor general and takes great care of the basketball, and Brandon Giles who was one of the most improved players at the end of last season ... Giles is an athletic swing player who can handle the ball and has size for posting.

Western has a highly touted incoming class with four freshmen and a junior transfer ... guard Michael Porrini is the favorite to start at the point, with athletic forward Camden Miller expected to see time as a swing man ... Rookie posts Richie Gordon and Blake Gallagher will be leaned upon for rebounding and to help alleviate some pressure off last season's big guy, Aldridge, away from the basket ... Junior Tim Magowan is a solid guard with a solid touch shooting from the perimeter.

WCU employs a "Princeton style" offense that focuses on movement, precision passing and cuts ... but don't let the moniker "Princeton style" offense fool you - the Catamounts will look to push the basketball up the floor to get buckets in transition, as well as to establish its offensive set before the defense is fully in place in the half court flow.

CATAMOUNTS SPEND LABOR DAY IN COSTA RICA:

Hunter's Catamounts spent their Labor Day weekend with 10 days of practice in late August and were rewarded with a four-day holiday jaunt to Costa Rica, defeating two of that country's national teams - defeating two-time Costa Rican champion, Liceo, 85-36, and Goicoechea, 94-59 ... Nick Aldridge averaged 16 points per contest in the two games, scoring 19 and 13 points ... Arnold Gore posted a team-high 20 points in the first game, with freshman Michael Porrini leading the team in the second outing with 18 points ... the trip was not all work as the team took a rainforest canopy tour, gliding along zip lines from platform-to-platform to gain a unique view of the vegetation and wildlife in the region ... Hunter used the trip to not only garner early preseason practices, but to also foster team bonding and creating a sense of family with the new players.

WCU TABBED THIRD IN SoCon's NORTH DIVISION:

Western Carolina was tabbed third in the Southern Conference's North Division by both the league's 11 head coaches and the voting members of the SoCon Sports Media Association (SCSMA) ... it is the highest preseason prediction for the Catamounts under Larry Hunter after being tabbed fifth in the division each of the past two seasons only to finish third each time ... UNC Greensboro was the favorite picked in the North while Davidson, which is among those receiving votes and ranked 33rd in the preseason AP media poll, was favored to win the South Division title.

NICK ALDRIDGE NAMED PRESEASON ALL-SOCON:

Western Carolina sophomore Nick Aldridge was named to the preseason All-Southern Conference teams by both the leagues head coaches and the voting media of the SoCon Sports Media Association (SCSMA) ... One of the top freshmen in the conference a year ago, Aldridge ranked third in the SoCon in scoring with a team-leading 18.3 points per game average. He posted double-digit scoring in 27 of the 30 games with six double-doubles, closing the year with 20-consecutive, double-figure performances and twice tallying 30 points in a game. He additionally ranked sixth in rebounding (7.0 rpg), fifth in offensive rebounds (2.57 rpg), seventh in defensive rebounds (4.43 rpg), seventh in steals (1.67 spg), 12th in minutes played (32.50 mpg) and 15th in field goal percentage (46.1%) ... Aldridge was selected to both the All-Southern Conference and All-Freshman team by the league's head coaches - a sentiment that was echoed by the SCSMA, which tabbed the South Webster, Ohio native first team all-league. In addition, Aldridge was also named to the CollegeInsider.com Mid-Major All-Freshman team after averaging 22 points a game in helping to guide WCU to its first opening-round victory in the SoCon tournament in five seasons, garnering all-tournament accolades.

Catamount Basketball Signs Explosive Wing, Harouna Mutombo

On October 26, Western Carolina head men's basketball coach Larry Hunter announced the signing of 6-4, 190-lbs., wing Harouna Mutombo (pronounced HUH-roon-uh Ma-TUM-bow) to a National Letter of Intent.

"Harouna is an outstanding athlete and an exceptionally skilled basketball player," said Hunter, who begins his third season at WCU. "He is powerfully built, quick and explosive and is a terrific shooter with range. He has the ability to make others better, as well as create his own shots. Harouna is very passionate about working and competing at the game."

Mutombo, who will skip his final year of high school eligibility in Ontario, will enroll at Western this December, but will take a red-shirt and will practice with the team but not compete this season.

"While he is eligible to compete immediately, we have decided to red-shirt him the second semester so he will have four full years to play in our program," Hunter said.

A native of Pickering, Ontario, Canada, Mutombo helped lead Pickering HS to the gold medal at the Ontario Federation of School Athletic Associations (OFSAA) AAAA provincial championships. He will be the fourth Canadian-born player to play for the Catamounts since 2001 joining Rans Brempong (2001-05), Corey Muirhead (2003-06) and current Catamount, Negus McKenna.

This past summer, he played with the Toronto Mission AAU team in both Las Vegas, Nev., and Indianapolis, Ind. Additionally, he played in the Nike Global Challenge in Portland, Ore., with Team Canada. In August at the Nike Top 20 Camp held in Toronto, Mutombo was labeled as one of the top 20 players in the country.

In an article published on HoopstarsCanada.com, Mutombo cited the chance to play in the Southern Conference for Coach Hunter and that Western Carolina's Business Entrepreneurship program - his chosen field of study - was top-ranked by Fortune Magazine as reasons he chose WCU.

Catamounts have rewritten the school's record books for 3-pointers made ... In his first season, Western Carolina had a record-setting season last year in terms of shooting the 3-pointer. Early last season, in a 105-40 victory over Allanta Christian, Western tied both a school and Ramsey Center record by draining 15 treys on 39 attempts, a standard that had just been set the season prior in a win over Chattanooga.

In 2005-06, Western set school record for 3-pointers made (221), 3-pointers attempted (625) and 3-pointers made per game (7.36) last season.

Last year, the Catamounts rewrote the record book with 226 made treys, 699 total attempts, but just fell short of the 3-pointers made per game record draining an average of 7.29 per contest last season.

Of course, Western Carolina is the birthplace of the 3-point shot as on Nov. 29, 1980, Catamount-great Ronnie Carr drained the first official 3-pointer in NCAA history. The historic shot came in Reid Gymnasium at the 16:09 mark of the first half of a 77-70 Western victory over Middle Tennessee State.

SoCon MOVES TO 20-GAME CONFERENCE SCHEDULE:

The Southern Conference coaches and athletic directors voted to keep the two divisions, North and South, in men's basketball – however, still with an odd number of teams until Samford joins the league next year, they voted to even the playing field by having every team play a home-and-home with the conference schools ... the result is a 20-game conference schedule this season as every team, regardless of division, will play the other.

LARRY HUNTER GRANTED TWO-YEAR EXTENSION:

In early June 2007, the Western Carolina University Board of Trustees approved multi-year contract extensions for both of the University's head basketball coaches, Larry Hunter and Kellie Harper.

The board approved a two-year contract extension for Larry Hunter, head coach of the men's Catamount basketball team since April 2005. Hunter's employment agreement is extended through April, 2012. His Catamounts won their first Southern Conference tournament game in five years this past season, and he is bringing in a recruiting class of five players to join a squad that includes All-Southern Conference selection Nick Aldridge.

Harper was granted a three-year extension that also agrees to employ through April, 2012.

SoCon TOURNAMENT DATES ANNOUNCED:

Following a vote of the league's 11 athletic directors, the dates of the 2008 Southern Conference men's and women's basketball tournament, which will be played at the North Charleston (S.C.) Coliseum, were announced ... The men's tournament will be played March 7 (Friday) through March 10 (Monday) with the women's tournament to be played from March 6 (Thursday) through March 10 (Monday), 2008. The championship game of the men's tournament will be televised nationally on ESPN2. The women's championship game will be televised on SportSouth.

A total of 27,722 fans (5,542 per game) attended the 2007 men's tournament at the North Charleston Coliseum, the third largest attendance in the last decade. The total represents an increase of nearly 2,000 fans per session from the previous year.

The Southern Conference Men's Basketball Tournament is the oldest of its kind in college basketball, crowning the North Carolina Tar Heels as its first league champion in Atlanta back in 1922.

Western Carolina Signs Guard Keaton Cole on Early Signing Day

Western Carolina head men's basketball coach Larry Hunter announced the signing of Keaton Cole to a National Letter of Intent during today's early signing period. Cole is a 5-10, 170-pound guard from Toronto, Ontario, Canada and will join the Catamount roster next fall.

Cole is the second Canadian to sign to play for Hunter's Catamounts next season joining 6-4 wing, Haruona Mutombo, out of Pickering, Ontario who signed with Western in late October and will join the squad after exams in December but red-shirt the remainder of this season. In addition to Mutombo, Cole will be the fifth Canadian-born player to play for the Catamounts since 2001 joining Rans Brempong (2001-05), Corey Muirhead (2003-06) and current Catamount, Negus McKenna.

Last season, Cole averaged 12 points and six assists per game for Eastern Commerce Collegiate Institute helping lead head coach Roy Rena's squad to a 36-3 overall record. He was also the tournament MVP at the Humber College Classic, scoring 29 points in the finals.

Listed as one of the top point guards in Ontario by HoopTownGTA.com, Cole was also a member of the 19-and-under Canadian National Team that competed in the World Championships this past summer in Serbia. Team Canada finished 10th overall with wins over China, Nicaragua and South Korea. He was additional the MVP at the 17-and-under 2007 National Championships last summer, leading Ontario to the gold medal making his third-straight gold medal appearance, doing so with the 2004 and '05 under 17 provincial teams as well.

WESTERN CAROLINA HEAD COACH LARRY HUNTER

LARRY HUNTER

Larry Hunter, one of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) leaders in coaching victories, was named Western Carolina University's 17th head men's basketball coach all time on April 29, 2005. His impact was felt immediately. Known for his offensive prowess, Hunter brought an up-tempo offense to Cullowhee and the Catamounts responded by making a school-record 221 3-pointers – and then surpassing that benchmark one season later with 226 made treys during last season.

Hunter, whose teams posted winning records in 23 of his 27 seasons as a head coach, enters the 2007-08 season boasting an overall record of 533-261 and currently ranks as the 12th winningest active coach in the country. He additionally ranks 58th on the NCAA Division I all-time head coaching victories list and is 97th on the NCAA all-division list for head coaching victories. During his time as a head coach, Hunter has made 11 overall NCAA tournament appearances, while making seven as an assistant coach.

While his first year at Western was just his third losing season as a head coach, posting a 13-17 mark, Hunter's inaugural season with the Catamounts saw many positives. Western nearly doubled its win total from the previous season. Also, its 7-7 record and third place finish in the SoCon North was its best in the league since posting the same record for the 1996-97 season, while placing second that season. Key wins in his first season included: a win over Bowling Green in the season opener – WCU's first season opening win over an NCAA Division I team since defeating Georgia Tech to start the 1980-81 season; a win over Chattanooga – snapping an eight-game losing streak to the Mocs; a win at Davidson – snapping Davidson's 19-game home winning streak which was the third longest in the NCAA at the time; and defeating SoCon North Champion Elon late in the season – setting up a battle for a first-round bye at the league tournament.

Early indications are that Hunter will keep the Catamounts going in the right direction as nationally respected Dave Telep of Scout.com tabbed Hunter's first full set of newcomers as "the best recruiting class in the Southern Conference." One year later, the web site boasted, "Hunter's at it again" with reference to the 2007-08 incoming class.

Hunter came to Western Carolina after four years as an assistant coach at North Carolina State, the final three serving as associate head coach. In his first season at N.C. State (2002), the Wolfpack reached the Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) championship game and received their first NCAA Championship bid since 1991. N.C. State would go on to reach at least the ACC Tournament semifinals in each the last three years as well as receiving bids to the NCAA Championship. In 2004, Western coached Julius Hodge, who was tabbed ACC Player of the Year and consensus All-America. This past season, the Wolfpack made an impressive run at season's end and defeated defending NCAA Champion Connecticut to reach the Sweet 16. N.C. State was just one of 21 teams in the nation to play in the NCAA Championship in each of the last four years.

Hunter spent 12 years (1989-2001) as head coach at Ohio University prior to his stint in Raleigh. Five years after taking over the Bobcat basketball program (1993-94), he led Ohio to a 25-8 record and was tabbed the Mid-American Conference (MAC) Coach of the Year, winning both the league's regular season and tournament titles. The following year, the Bobcats won the preseason National Invitation Tournament (NIT), went 24-10 and reached the second round of the postseason NIT. At Ohio, he coached 16 All-MAC performers and four first-team Academic All-MAC selections. Among those standout players were Player of the Year honorees Dave Jamerson (1990), Gary Trent (1993, '94 and '95) and Brandon Hunter (2003). Trent additionally earned MAC Freshman of the Year honors in 1993, duplicating the feat of Rush Floyd in 1991 during his freshman campaign with the Bobcats.

Jamerson set a MAC record with 874 points in 1990 while taking home first team Academic All-America honors that season. Later in 1990, Jamerson was an National Basketball Association (NBA) first round selection (15th pick overall) by Miami. Trent, a third team Associated Press All-America in 1995, would leave Ohio after his junior season to become a NBA first round selection (11th overall pick) of the Milwaukee Bucks. Brandon Hunter also moved on to play professionally, being an NBA second-round pick in 2003 and currently playing for the Orlando Magic. Jamerson (third with 2,336), Trent (seventh with 2,108) and Brandon Hunter (11th with 2,012) all rank among the MAC's top 11 in scoring, while Brandon Hunter and Trent rank fifth (1,103) and ninth (1,050), respectively, on the MAC's career rebounding list.

Thirty of the 38 players he coached at Ohio who completed their eligibility there graduated, including 12 who went on to earn their Master's degrees, posting an overall graduation rate as a head coach of 85 percent. In his last season at Ohio, the Bobcats were 19-11, with a 12-6 mark in MAC competition, and his overall record with the Bobcats was 204-148.

After winning his 500th career game as a collegiate head coach (Jan. 23, 2001), Hunter said, "My approach has been simple: Arrive early, work late and chop wood all day long. I've been fortunate to be surrounded by some great people and I've worked at two great institutions, Wittenberg and Ohio. Add all those things together over 20 years and you start to have a small pile of wood."

From 1976-89, Hunter was the head coach at Wittenberg University, playing a key role in the school being the winningest NCAA Division III basketball program in terms of victories and percentage. Hunter made an immediate impact after taking over the helm, winning National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) National Coach of the Year honors in 1977 after becoming the first coach in NCAA history to win a national championship in his first season at a school. During his 13 years in that position, his team turned in a 305-76 record and made four NCAA Division III Final Four appearances (national title in 1977, national runner-up in 1983 and third place in 1980 and 1987).

He coached three national players of the year at Wittenberg, including Tyrone Curtis (1981), Tim Casey (1985) and Brad Baldrige (1991), as well as having 21 all-conference honors bestowed upon his players. In addition to coaching those national players of the year, four of Wittenberg's top five career scorers were coached by Hunter, including the school's all-time leader Steve Iannarino (1,973). Hunter won a total of 12 Ohio Athletic Conference (OAC) titles, six regular-season championships and six tournament championships. For his success, Hunter was inducted into the Wittenberg University Hall of Honor in 1996 and received the school's Honorary Alumnus Award in 1997.

Hunter, who got his start in coaching as an assistant coach at Marietta College from 1971-73, graduated from Ohio in 1971 with a B.S. in Education, majoring Social Studies Comprehensive. He earned his Master of Science in Physical Education from Ohio in 1973, then spent three seasons (1973-76) as an assistant coach at Wittenberg. He got his first taste of postseason play while serving on the Wittenberg staff, reaching the NCAA Division III championship game in 1976.

In addition to his coaching resume, Hunter produced a basketball instructional video, "Drills, Skills and Moves: Post Play Moves & Drills."

Hunter is married to the former Mary Kay Friedrich of London, Ohio.

LARRY HUNTER (Ohio, 1971)

HEAD COACH - 3rd Season at WCU; 28th overall

ASSISTANT COACHES: Bobby Woollum (Bucknell, 1989)
..... Anquell McCollum (Western Carolina, 2000)
..... Dustin Ford (Ohio, 2001)

- In head coach Larry Hunter's second year at the helm, Western Carolina finished with a record of 11-20 and 7-11 in the Southern Conference, good for a third place finish in the conference's North Division ... WCU also erased a five-year drought in SoCon tournament play, winning an opening-round game for the first-time since 2001;
- As a team in 2006-07, Western set school records for 3-pointers made in a single-season (226), 3-pointers attempted (699), and steals in a season (260);
- Western Carolina was picked to finish third in the Southern Conference's North Division, the best preseason prediction for the Catamounts under head coach Larry Hunter.

GAME 1

Western Carolina 63
Bowling Green 60

Friday • Nov. 9, 2007 • Fifth Third Arena - Cincinnati, Ohio

Cincinnati, Ohio (AP) - Sophomore Nick Aldridge scored a game-high 17 points Friday night, leading Western Carolina to a 63-60 victory over Bowling Green and spoiling Louis Orr's debut as the Falcons coach.

Sophomore guard Brigham Waginger added 15 points, including a 3-pointer that put Western Carolina (1-0) ahead to stay in the closing minutes. Ryan Hamblet missed a 3-point attempt at the buzzer for Bowling Green (0-1), which was led by Chris Knight's 16 points and 10 rebounds.

It was the opening game of the Peggy Cronin Classic, a three-day, round-robin tournament honoring the deceased mother of Cincinnati coach Mick Cronin. Cincinnati and Belmont also are playing in the exempted tournament on the Bearcats' home court.

The 6-foot-7 Aldridge led Western Carolina in scoring as a freshman last season, averaging 18.3 points as the Catamounts finished 11-20. He had seven in the first half, which ended with Western Carolina up 29-28.

Camden Miller scored off a fastbreak alley-oop, and Aldridge had a driving layup off a spin move for a 51-45 lead midway through the second half. Bowling Green's Nate Miller made a layup and a pair of free throws that tied it at 55 with 3:27 to go.

Consecutive 3-pointers by Waginger and Jake Robinson put the Catamounts ahead to stay. Arnold Gore's two free throws with 19.1 seconds left made it 63-60, and Hamblet missed a pair of 3-point shots - the last one off an offensive rebound - in the closing seconds.

GAME 2

Western Carolina 64
Cincinnati 66

Saturday • Nov. 10, 2007 • 8,119 • Fifth Third Arena - Cincinnati, Ohio

Cincinnati, Ohio (AP) - The Bearcats' Marcus Sikes took a pass off penetration and made a driving layup for his only basket of the game with less than a second to play Saturday, giving Cincinnati a 66-64 victory over Western Carolina.

Deonta Vaughn drove the lane and drew defenders before passing to Sikes, who sneaked in along the left baseline for the pass and made the wide-open layup with 0.3 on the clock.

Marvin Gentry led Cincinnati (1-1) with 19 points, all but three of them in the second half. Gentry was 4-of-5 from behind the 3-point arc. Rashad Bishop and John Williamson each added 11.

The Bearcats lost to Belmont 86-75 on Friday night and had to rally to avoid their first 0-2 start since 1979. The game had 13 ties and eight lead changes.

Western Carolina (1-1) was led by sophomore Nick Aldridge, who had a game-high 22 points. He drove for a layup and was fouled by Adam Hrycaniuk with 23.5 seconds to play. The three-point play tied it at 64 and set up Cincinnati's final shot.

Sophomore Jake Robinson added 12 points, making all of his four 3-point shots. Freshman Mike Porrini had 11 for the Catamounts, who opened the season with a 63-60 win over Bowling Green on Friday.

Earlier Saturday, Bowling Green never trailed while beating Belmont 78-67. The games were part of the Peggy Cronin Classic, a three-day, round-robin tournament honoring the deceased mother of Cincinnati coach Mick Cronin.

GAME 3

Western Carolina 70
Belmont 79

Sunday • Nov. 11, 2007 • Fifth Third Arena - Cincinnati, Ohio

Cincinnati, Ohio (AP) - Andy Wickes' 3-pointer gave Belmont the lead for good in the fourth quarter as the Bruins came back after blowing a 17-point first half lead to beat Western Carolina 79-70 on Sunday in the Catamounts' final game of the Peggy Cronin Classic hosted by the University of Cincinnati.

Western Carolina (1-2), which trailed by as many as 17 points in the first half, went up by five with 8:13 left on back-to-back 3-pointers by sophomore Brandon Giles. But Belmont's Matthew Dotson answered by sinking a 3-pointer with 5:58 left and Wickes followed with his go-ahead shot a half-minute later.

Justin Hare made 7-of-8 free throws in the final minute as Belmont (2-1) pulled away. Dotson led the Bruins with 17 points, while Wickes added 15 - seven in the last six minutes - and Hare finished with 13.

Western Carolina's Nick Aldridge led both teams with 20 points, 16 in the first half. Mike Porrini had 18 points and Jake Robinson 11 for the Catamounts.
