WCC in the College World Series

The WCC has been represented four times at the College World Series since the event began in 1947. Santa Clara was the first league squad to play for the NCAA title in Omaha, as the Broncos rebounded from a loss in their first game to reel off four straight wins and reach the 1962 championship game. Santa Clara, who was led by the CWS Most Outstanding Player in pitcher Bob Garibaldi, played three extra inning contests in the College World Series including a 15-inning loss to Michigan in the title game. Pepperdine made its first College World Series appearance in 1979, finishing in third place by winning three straight games before falling in the semifinals. The WCC enjoyed some of its greatest baseball success in the late 1980's and early 1990's, and LMU began the period with its first College World Series appearance in 1986. Led by several future Major Leaguers, the Lions achieved a No. 1 national ranking on April 22 of that season and went on to represent the WCC at Rosenblatt Stadium. Pepperdine capped off the era with the conference's first-ever national championship in baseball, claiming the College World Series title in 1992. The Waves reeled off four straight victories in Omaha, including a 3-2 triumph over Cal State Fullerton in the championship game.

WCC Championship Series

In its first decade, the WCC Championship Series has provided fans with exciting moments that have highlighted the best of West Coast Conference baseball. Since its inception, six players that participated in Championship Series events have gone on to reach the Major Leagues, while eight players have earned the distinction of being selected in the first round of the annual Major League Baseball Draft. In all, 16 WCC baseball teams have advanced to the NCAA Tournament since the conference instituted a two-division alignment in 1999. The league returned to a single division format prior to the 2006 season, but retained the Championship Series, pitting the top two teams in the conference standings against one another. The Championship Series will return in 2013.

WCC in the Major Leagues/MLB Draft

18 WCC players were selected in the 2011 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft in June, led by Santa Clara reliever J.R. Graham, who was selected by Atlanta in the fourth round. Also drafted was 2011 WCC Men's Basketball Player of the Year Mickey McConnell of Saint Mary's. Although he did not play baseball for the Gaels, McConnell was a standout shortstop in high school. All eight West Coast Conference teams had at least one player drafted in 2011. 27 WCC players were selected in 2007 -- the most of any one year.
