2018 #WCCHOOPS POSTSEASON NOTES

★ San Francisco opens a best of three CBI Championship series Monday vs. North Texas. The Dons are the second WCC program to advance to the finals in the 12th annual event. Santa Clara beat George Mason for the 2013 title. This is USF's first postseason finals appearance since winning back-to-back NCAA titles (1955 & 1956).

★ The Dons posted their second straight 20-win season in a 78-73 win vs. Utah Valley in the second round of the CBI. It's the first time the Dons have won 20 games in consecutive years since 1981-82.

★ With wins against No. 13 UNC Greensboro (68-64) and No. 5 Ohio State (90-84) No. 4 Gonzaga advanced to its fourth consecutive NCAA Sweet-16. The Zags could not make their third Elite Eight berth since 2015, falling to Florida State in the West Regional Semifinals.

★ Saint Mary's concluded its season in an overtime loss to Utah in the NIT Quarterfinals. The Gaels own a 7-5 slate in six NIT appearances - all coming since 2008-09 under Randy Bennett. The second round win vs. Washington gave SMC its first-ever 30-win season.

★ San Diego posted its first 20-win season since 2007-08 (22-14) and fourth as a Division I member (1979-80) with a thrilling 67-64 win against Portland State in the second round of the CIT. The Toreros fell to Northern Colorado in their second CIT Quarterfinals trip (2014).

★ The WCC owns a sparkling 9-4 record in the 2018 postseason, with at least two wins in all four tournaments - Gonzaga (2-1 NCAA), Saint Mary's (2-1 NIT), San Diego (2-1 CIT) & San Francisco (3-0 CBI).

★ Gonzaga qualified for its 20th consecutive NCAA Tournament (21st overall) and only three programs own a longer active March Madness streak - Kansas (29), Duke (23) & Michigan State (21)

★ This marks the fifth time in WCC history (third in the last five seasons) the conference has sent multiple teams to the NIT Postseason.

★ This marks the eighth straight year at least four WCC programs have competed in the postseason. The conference record is seven (2 NCAA, 2 NIT, 3 CIT) established in 2014.

Gloria Nevarez Named West Coast Conference Commissioner

The West Coast Conference Presidents' Council has selected Gloria Nevarez to serve as the fourth full-time Commissioner in the 66-year history of the West Coast Conference. She replaces Lynn Holzman, who departed in January to serve as the NCAA Vice President for Women's Basketball.

Nevarez is one of 10 female conference commissioners serving in Division I Athletics and is the first Latin American woman to ascend to the commissioner's chair in Division I.

Nevarez joins the WCC after spending the last eight years with the Pac-12 where she served as the senior associate commissioner and senior woman administrator overseeing all Pac-12 championships with the exception of football. The Pac-12's primary liaison for men's basketball, Nevarez played a comprehensive role overseeing officiating, scheduling, television issues management, event management and the student-athlete experience.

"I am honored and proud to serve as the new Commissioner of the West Coast Conference," said Nevarez. "The WCC has a storied tradition of educating the whole person and offers its student-athletes exceptional academics, winning athletic traditions and destination locations. I believe in the mission and core values of this conference, and it is a pleasure to return and have the opportunity to serve its members. I am grateful to Fr. Paul Fitzgerald, the Presidents Council, and the search committee, and I look forward to working with each member institution and leading the West Coast Conference to a new chapter of success. I want thank Larry Scott and all the wonderful people of the Pac-12 for allowing me to be part of such a dynamic era of that conference's history."

While at the Pac-12, Nevarez played a key role in the creation and execution of league expansion, taking the Pac-12 membership from 10 schools to 12, and the launch and development of the Pac-12 Networks. In addition, Nevarez moved basketball championships to Las Vegas (men's) and Seattle (women's) and was instrumental in creating a six-conference men's basketball officiating consortium, which includes the Pac-12 and West Coast Conference.
