San Diego Reclaims WCC Title

Going into the last week of conference play, three teams had the potential of sharing the conference crown---San Diego, Saint Mary's and Pepperdine. However, with the top three teams exchanging wins and losses, San Diego secured the title outright with a sweep over Loyola Marymount. Saint Mary's clinched second place with a win over Pepperdine, and the Waves landed third in the final WCC standings.

Loyola Marymount stayed put for fourth, while Portland and Santa Clara tied for fifth. San Francisco and Gonzaga rounded out the conference placeholders.

WCC in the NCAA Tournament

After clinching the West Coast Conference crown, the San Diego Toreros earned the automatic bid into the NCAA Tournament and traveled to University of Southern California to compete in the first two rounds. The Toreros swept non-conference rival Long Beach State, 3-0, but lost in the second round to host USC. The Toreros ended their season with a 24-6 overall record.
