Gonzaga Bulldogs (2-13 / 0-0 WCC)

★ Gonzaga had another rough week, falling in three tough matches at its self-hosted Zags Volleyball Classic. The Bulldogs lost its home opener to Wyoming (3-0) and then dropped two five-set heartbreakers to Seattle and Idaho.

★ Junior setter Denise Van de Mortel was named to the All-Tournament Team after posting 105 assists and 30 digs over three matches.

★ In the match against Idaho, the Bulldogs went deep into extra points, which included 15 extra plays, but the Vandals were the ones to break the back-and-forth volley with a two-point run to claim the victory (21-25, 25-15, 25-21, 18-25, 23-21).

★ The Bulldogs look to bounce back as they travel to Montana on Tuesday. First serve is scheduled for 6:00 PM.

Loyola Marymount (6-6 / 0-0 WCC)

★ Loyola Marymount won the Utah State Invitational after racking up a 2-1 record on the weekend. The Lions opened the tournament with a close 3-2 loss to host Utah State then rebounded with wins over UC Riverside (3-0) and Utah Valley (3-1).

★ The Lions placed two players on the All-Tournament Team in sophomore outside hitter Felicia Arriola and sophomore setter Olivia Bailey. Arriola also garnered Tournament MVP honors after notching 41 kills on 91 attacks for a .330 hitting percentage and posting a career-best .553 hitting percentage against Utah Valley.

★ Loyola Marymount currently ranks No. 26 in the country in aces/set (1.80), led by junior outside hitter Jasmine Rankins (0.51) and freshman outside hitter Betsi Metter (0.49).

★ Loyola Marymount will compete in two matches this week, first travelling to Cal State Northridge on Tuesday and then hosting No. 23-ranked Long Beach State on Friday.

Pepperdine Waves (8-5 / 0-0 WCC)

★ Pepperdine went 2-1 at the Arizona Invitational, defeating New Mexico State (3-1), losing to host Arizona (3-0), and bouncing back to beat Texas State (3-1).

★ With the tournament, junior middle blocker Kim Hill has now reached double-digit kill totals in the 23 of the last 25 matches. Sophomore middle blocker Victoria Adelhelm raised her career-high to 10 in single-match blocks against New Mexico State to tie for fifth in Pepperdine's single match record books, while junior libero Stevi Robinson now has 1,097 career digs to tie for sixth all-time in the record books.

★ The Waves currently rank No. 38 in the country in blocks/set (2.50) and No. 48 in hitting percentage (0.251).

★ Pepperdine has no matches scheduled this week. The Waves will take a break until conference play begins on Thursday, September 30.

Portland Pilots (6-8 / 0-0 WCC)

★ Portland compiled a 1-3 record this past week with its lone victory over Nevada (3-1). The Pilots fell to Oregon on the road (3-0) and to Cal Poly (3-1) and UC Davis (3-0) at the Aggie Invitational.

★ Junior outside hitter Kati Hronek earned a spot on the All-Tournament Team after setting a career-high 19 kills on a .517 attack percentage against Nevada. Hronek also hit .240 on the week.

★ In the win over Nevada, senior libero Danielle Dupar added 26 digs. Dupar now has 1,199 career digs, ranking her ninth in the country for digs per set (5.60) and leaving her just 11 shy of the sixth spot on the Pilots' career all-time list.

★ Portland will head to Seattle on Tuesday to take on the Redhawks at the Connolly Center where the Pilots will be playing for the first time. Portland leads the series 4-0, and first serve is scheduled for 7:00 PM.

Saint Mary's Gaels (7-5 / 0-0 WCC)

★ Saint Mary's faced tough competition at home, hosting two Bay Area powerhouses from the Pac-10, top-ranked Stanford and No. 8 Cal. The Gaels lost to the Cardinal (3-1) and were blanked by the Bears.

★ Against the Cardinal, sophomore middle blocker Gabby Jolly and freshman outside hitter Jordan Shaw led the Gaels with 11 and 10 kills, respectively.

★ For three sets, the Gaels slugged it out against Cal, with six players recording at least one kill. Leading the way for Saint Mary's was sophomore outside hitter Lauren Corp, who recorded a team-high nine kills on 23 attempts for a .261 hitting percentage. Corp also added eight digs and three total blocks with an ace.

★ Saint Mary's will travel south to Cal State Bakersfield to take on the Roadrunners on Friday at 5:00 PM.

#21 San Diego Toreros (8-3 / 0-0 WCC)

★ San Diego continued its hot streak with another perfect weekend, as they went 3-0 at the USD-SDSU Tournament, defeating cross-town rival San Diego State (3-1), sweeping UC Santa Barbara, and upsetting then No. 12 Minnesota to capture the championship title.

★ It was truly a team effort in the upset win over Minnesota. Four players posted double-digit kills in seniors Ashton Basch (20), Amy DeGroot (20), Ali Troost (18) and freshman Chloe Ferrari (10). DeGroot also added 19 digs to post a double-double, and Troost racked up 15 digs to record her first double-double of the season. Senior Kelsi Myers racked up a season-high 65 assists (currently ranks 25th in nation for assists/set - 11.05 avg.), while freshman C'era Oliveira and redshirt sophomore Kandiss Anderson recorded career-highs with 23 digs and 21 digs, respectively.

★ The Toreros look to add on its six-match win streak at Cal State Fullerton on Wednesday at 6:00 PM.

San Francisco Dons (1-10 / 0-0 WCC)

★ San Francisco faced the same fate as Saint Mary's this past week, hosting and falling to both ranked Bay Area rivals California (3-1) and Stanford (3-0). The Dons' first set win over California was the first the Bears have lost all season after having won 24 consecutive sets.

★ In the match against Cal, freshman setter/hitter Joan Caloiaro posted her first career triple-double, totaling 30 assists, 14 kills and 13 digs. She led the Dons in each of those three categories, in addition to notching two blocks, which tied a team-high, and hit .467 for the match.

★ Against Stanford, freshman outside hitter Malina Terrell led the Dons with eight kills, while freshman libero Whitney Swain turned in a team-high 11 digs. Caloiaro finished the weekend with 22 assists and seven digs.

★ San Francisco will host Seattle at War Memorial Gym on Saturday at 5:00 PM.

Santa Clara Broncos (8-5 / 0-0 WCC)

★ Santa Clara defeated DePaul in a close five-setter before going 1-2 at the Notre Dame Tournament in South Bend, IN. The Broncos swept host Notre Dame and dropped 3-2 heartbreakers to both Dayton and Delaware.

★ In the final match against Delaware, Santa Clara had four players in double-digit kills, including All Tournament Team selection sophomores Dana Knudsen (19), Kayla Lommori (19), Kaleigh Durket (17), and junior Tanya Schmidt (10).

★ Durket had a consistent week for the Broncos, averaging 16.5 kills and 9.5 digs. Durket also led the team against DePaul with a career-high 22 kills for a .366 hitting percentage. Senior Emily Burke collected 194 assists in four matches last week, bringing her assists total to 533 in 48 sets for an 11.10 average. She currently ranks No. 21 in the nation for assists/set.

★ Santa Clara hosts Seattle on Sunday at 1:00 PM for its final non-conference match.

Saint Mary's Makes History in 2009-10 Season

The Saint Mary's volleyball team clinched the 2009 WCC title by outdueling 2008 WCC Champion San Diego in a five set battle (25-18, 25-19, 20-25, 17-25, and 15-10) that featured 30 ties and 10 lead changes. The win was the Gaels' first ever WCC Championship in program history.

After taking home the championship title, Saint Mary's then finished off the regular season with a sweep over BYU to remain undefeated at home and record the team's third straight sweep. The Gaels' 13-1 record is the best conference finish in school history.

AROUND THE WCC

WCC Volleyball Completes 2010 Tournament Season

This weeks marks the last week of strict non-conference competition. The 2010 tournament season is officially over, and all eight teams with the exception of Pepperdine will compete in a few more non-conference matches this week before beginning conference play. As a conference, the WCC has compiled a 33-44 record against non-conference opponents and will look to improve that record with eight different matches featured this week.

San Diego Women's Volleyball Moves Up to No. 21 in Latest Polls

The University of San Diego women's volleyball team jumped up two spots to No. 21 in the latest AVCA Top 25 poll. The Toreros are currently on a six-match win streak after posting another perfect weekend at the USD-SDSU Tournament and securing the championship title. The Toreros are currently 8-3 overall and have recently defeated Virginia, No. 23 Long Beach State, UC Irvine, San Diego State, UC Santa Barbara and No. 14 Minnesota.

WCC Player of the Week

Ali Troost, San Diego, SR, RS

Senior RS Ali Troost helped lead USD to a 3-0 record this past week, including an upset over No. 12 Minnesota in the championship game of the USD-SDSU tournament. Troost was named Tournament MVP after posting 58 kills (4.83 kps) and 31 digs. Against Minnesota, Troost posted a double-double with 18 kills and 15 digs. Troost also posted 17 kills and no attack errors on 25 swings to post a .680 attack percentage against UC Santa Barbara. In the win over crosstown rival San Diego State, Troost recorded a season-high 23 kills for a .556 hitting percentage.

Also Nominated: Felicia Arriola (Loyola Marymount), Kim Hill (Pepperdine), Kati Hronek (Portland), Joan Caloiaro (San Francisco)

WCC Among The Elite Volleyball Conferences In The Country

Over the last eight seasons, the WCC has established itself as one of the premier women's volleyball conferences in the country. Over the past five seasons, the WCC has appeared in the top five RPI three times. In 2008, the WCC had one of its best seasons, tying for a conference high with the fourth best NCAA RPI ranking in the country. Since then, the WCC has remained in the top 10 in Division I RPI out of the 32 total conferences.
