► Wisconsin enters the 72-hole Big Ten Conference Championship April 27-29 at its new venue in French Lick, Ind. For the first time, all the conference teams will be in one place. The men will play the Pete Dye Course, the women's teams will play the Donald Ross Course.

► UW finished its regular season Sunday placing 13th of 18 teams at the Boilermaker Invitational. Chris Meyer led UW for the second-straight tournament tying for 26th with a 10-over 77-76-73--226.

► TEAM PLAY: UW's best tournament finish was in the fall at the Louisville Tournament where it finished third of 18 teams. The best scoring came at the Hawkeye Invitational with a 302-288-298--888 to finish ninth.

► INDIVIDUAL PLAY: Leading the Badgers is junior Anthony Aicher with a 74.46 scoring average. Aicher led the Badgers in seven of the 10 tournaments, and is the only player to play all 30 rounds. Aicher's best tournament performance was the Louisville Intercollegiate where he posted his career low 36-hole score of 69-73--142 and finished in fifth place.

At the Firestone Invitational, Aicher set his season low 54-hole score with a 220 and tied it at the Hawkeye Intercollegiate. Brady Keegan also set his 54-hole career low score at the Firestone with a 227.

Freshman Thomas O'Bryan led Wisconsin in the last tournament of the fall season tying for 21st at the Kiawah Island Intercollegiate. He had his best 54-hole score at the Hawkeye tournament April 15 with 78-72-74--224. Also at the Hawkeye-Great River Entertainment Invitational, Chris Meyer recorded his career-best 54-hole score and finish, tying for 18th with a 75-68-75--218.

► LAST YEAR AT BIG TENS: The Badgers finished in 11th place at the Big Ten Championships with a 312-293-313-312=1230 for the 72-hole tournament. Illinois won its third consecutive Big Ten Championship title with a score of 1160. Now-departed Stephan Du-bois led UW with 301. Christopher Meyer tied for 32nd place, carding a 78-72-77-77=304. Robert Jacobsen shot a 78-75-84-82=319 and tied for 51st.
