MADISON, Wis. - Head Coach Todd Oehrlein today announced the fall schedule for the UW women's golf team. The Badgers are coming off an NCAA qualifying season and will face a challenging fall schedule and one that will hopefully prepare them for a repeat run in the NAAs next spring.

UW returns to the Cougar Classic Sept. 11-13 hosted by the College of Charleston in Charleston, S.C. The team was ninth last fall with an 897 in a strong field of 21 teams.

Wisconsin hosts its own Badger Invitational Sept. 25-26. Last year UW won its own tournament for the first time since 1983 with a tournament record 879. Now-graduated Carlie Werwie won the tournament with a school 54-hole record 71-69-73--213.

The Lady Northern Oct. 10-11, which is the pre-cursor to the Big Ten Championships in April, will be held at the French Lick Resort in French Lick, Ind. Both the men's and women's conference championships will be held here in 2012, 2013, and 2014 and it marks the first time that both teams will compete at the same time and on a neutral site.

The men's championships will be contested on the award-winning Pete Dye course, and the women's event will be held on the historic Donald Ross Course. Golfweek Magazine recently ranked the Dye course No. 1 and the Ross course No. 2 among the "Best Courses You Can Play" rankings in the state of Indiana.

The Badgers head south Oct. 16-18 for the Susie Maxwell-Berning Classic hosted by Oklahoma and held at the OU Jimmie Austin Golf Course in Norman, Okla.

On Oct. 31-Nov. 1, Wisconsin concludes its fall season at the Betsy Rawls Invitational hosted by Texas at the UT Golf Club in Austin, Tex.
