Badger Invitational History

The Wisconsin men's golf team has played host to the Badger Invitational four years at University Ridge (2000-2003). The Wisconsin women's golf team hosted the Badger Women's Golf Invitational from 2002-08. The event was not held in 2009, but instead, UW hosted the Lady Northern Invitational. Prior 2002, the women hosted this event at Odana Golf Course (1982-84) and at Cherokee Golf Course (1985-88 and 1993).

University Ridge has been the site of several women's collegiate and Wisconsin state golf tournaments, most notably the 1998 NCAA Div. I Women's Golf Championship, and the 2000 and 2010 Big Ten Women's Golf Championship. It also played host to the 1995 and 2005 Big Ten Men's Golf Championship.
