WHAT'S AHEAD

The Wisconsin women's hockey team continues its homestand with its first non-conference action of the season. Wisconsin jumped right into conference action, with four straight WCHA series to start the season. UW will face its first non-conference opponent in two consecutive weeks against Robert Morris and Wayne State.

LAST TIME OUT

► The Badgers earned their first series sweep of the season against second-ranked Minnesota. The sweep halted the Gophers eight-game undefeated streak and marked the first time a team has swept Minnesota in a series since Minnesota Duluth swept the Gophers on Feb. 17-18, 2007. The Badgers had its highest scoring output of the season with a 4-2 win on Friday and a 5-2 victory on Sunday. Sophomore Brooke Ammerman had three goals and an assist over the weekend as freshman goaltender Becca Ruesegger put up 64 saves, including a season-high 38 saves in the finale for her first series sweep.

BADGER NOTES

- Wisconsin had its first series sweep over No. 2 Minnesota to mark a three-game unbeaten streak. With the win, the Badgers move within two points of the leaders, in sole possession of second place behind Minnesota.
- The series sweep over Minnesota is the first time since Jan. 5-6, 2007 that Wisconsin has swept the Gophers.
- Wisconsin has taken five penalty shots in the program's history, including Brooke Ammerman's this season against Ohio State. Ammerman is the first Badger to score on a penalty shot. The first time a team scored on UW with a penalty shot was Feb. 14, 2009 when Nina Tikkinen of Minnesota State scored on Jessie Vetter.
- The Badgers have struggled on the power play going 2-for-44 on the man advantage. Kelly Nash and Brooke Ammerman are the only Badgers to score a power-play goal this season.
- Wisconsin leads the nation on the penalty kill with a 97.3 percent success rate going 36-for-37 on the kill. The only power-play goal the Badgers allowed was against second-ranked Minnesota.
- The Badgers 5-3-0 overall and conference record matches the total number of losses from the 2006-07 and 2008-09 season combined. However, in the 2007-08 season the Badgers suffered nine losses overall but still managed the NCAA runner up.
- Freshman Becca Ruesegger had a shutout in her first collegiate start and has recorded a 4-2-0 record this season. Ruesegger has 146 saves and a .924 save percentage with a 2.01 goals-against average. Senior Alannah McCready (1-1-0) has allowed three goals holding a .946 save percentage with 53 saves.
- The Badgers have netted 23 goals by 13 different Badgers. Wisconsin has out-shot opponents in every game but one this season outshooting opponents 257-214.
- In the 2-0 season-opening loss, Wisconsin suffered its first shutout in an opener and fell to 8-3 in season openers since its inception in 1999. The loss marks the first-ever against the Fighting Sioux, bringing the all-time record to 25-1-0. The loss was the first shutout to start a season in program history and the first at the Kohl Center since Nov. 24, 2006 against Minnesota Duluth.

▶ Already all of the Badgers' 18 skaters that dress regularly have contributed a point this season. Brooke Ammerman is the team's leading scorer with eight points (4g, 4a) followed by Mallory Deluce, who leads the team in goals (5g, 2a).

▶ Deluce is working on a five-game goal streak which also includes two assists in that time. Ammerman has a five-game scoring streak, both streaks come after a scoreless streak in the Badgers' first three games.

▶ Saige Pacholok and Stefanie McKeough have been a positive asset to the Badger defense. The Badger freshmen lead the defense in plus/minus with a plus-six and a plus-five rating, respectively.

▶ After a two-goal game, Brianna Decker will be out of the lineup after suffering an arm injury in the second game of the season.

▶ Freshman Becca Ruegsegger had 18 saves to shut out the Fighting Sioux in her first collegiate start. The last Badger to earn a shutout in her first collegiate start was current senior Alannah McCready against Union College on Sept. 29, 2007. McCready, who had appeared in just one game prior to that start, had 14 saves in the 11-0 shutout win as a sophomore.

▶ Freshmen did all the work in UW's first win of the season. Freshman Brianna Decker had Wisconsin's first goal of the season, also marking her first multi-goal game as she lit the lamp twice in UW's 3-0 win. Freshman Lauren Unser scored for Wisconsin in just her second shift as a Badger to cap the scoring for UW, while Ruegsegger played in net.

▶ Wisconsin lost eight players from the 2009 championship squad, including its top four leading scorers from a year ago. Six Badgers graduated including Patty Kazmaier Memorial Award winner Jessie Vetter. Wisconsin also lost the nation's leading scorer, Hilary Knight and Meghan Duggan to train with the U.S. Women's National Team.

▶ The Badgers first NCAA title came during an Olympic year in 2006 when the Badgers went 36-4-1.

▶ Interim head coach Tracey DeKeyser is no stranger to the program, she has been with UW since its inception and has been at the helm of the program twice before as a co-coach with former assistant Dan Koch. DeKeyser is assisted by UW alums, Peter Johnson and Jackie Friesen for the 2009-10 season.

▶ Three seniors lead the UW squad, Jasmine Giles, the team captain and is assisted by Kyla Sanders and Emily Kranz. All three Badgers are first-time captains but have plenty of experience, suiting up for every game in their three-year career.

▶ In preparation for the Olympics, USA Hockey hosted a National Festival Camp, which included 11 former and current Badgers on the 41-player roster. Included on the roster were current student-athletes, Duggan, Knight, sophomore Brooke Ammerman and incoming freshman Brianna Decker.

▶ The Badgers return six forwards that scored over 20 points last season; Brooke Ammerman, Jasmine Giles, Mallory Deluce, Kyla Sanders, Carlyne Prevost and Kelly Nash.

▶ Ammerman, a WCHA All-Rookie and Third-Team selection, earned a spot on the WCHA Final Face-off All-Tournament Team and led UW in shot percentage. As the team's top returning scorer, Ammerman finished second on the team in goals and finished the season with 54 points (27g, 27a).

▶ Giles, a senior forward was also named to the WCHA Final Face-off All-Tournament Team and returns as the second leading scorer for the Badgers. Giles tallied 44 points for the season (16g, 29a) and is one of four seniors to lead the 2009-10 squad. Emily Kranz and Sanders return as senior forwards while goaltender Alannah McCready rounds out the senior class.

▶ The UW will replace the vacancy with nine newcomers for the 2009-10 season, including four defensemen, four forwards and a goaltender. The last three seasons the UW has had at least one Badger named to the WCHA All-Rookie Team. The Wisconsin attack welcomes four freshmen in Brianna Decker, Breann Frykas, Lauren Unser and Derya Kelter.

▶ The UW will have a young blue line with no seniors, but return with four defensemen in Brittany Haverstock, Olivia Jakiel, Malee Windmeier and Anne Dronen. Wisconsin will add depth to the blue line with three freshmen; Alev Kelter, Saige Pacholok and Stefanie McKeough. Geena Prough brings experience to the Badgers, a junior transfer from Mercyhurst, Prough is a versatile player who will play on both offense and defense for the Badgers this season.

▶ The Kelter twins, Alev and Derya, come to UW as multi-sport athletes. They signed with soccer, which means they will miss at least one month of hockey competition before being eligible to play. They will join the squad after the completion of the Wisconsin women's soccer season.

▶ The UW schedule is highlighted by the first-ever Wisconsin women's hockey outdoor game. Wisconsin will host Bemidji State out on Camp Randall Stadium on Saturday, Feb. 6 at 2 p.m. for the Culver's Camp Randall Hockey Classic. The game precedes the Wisconsin men's hockey team who will take on Michigan at 5 p.m. Wisconsin will also go up against two teams from the NCAA Frozen Four, Minnesota and Minnesota-Duluth. Wisconsin will also host an exhibition game against Johnson's Team USA on Jan. 5 at the Kohl Center.

SCOUTING THE OPPONENT

Robert Morris (3-5-0, 0-0-0 CHA)

▶ The Colonials enter the weekend after an extra week of rest. The last time Robert Morris competed was from Oct. 23-24 when they swept Maine on the road in a two game series.

INTERIM HEAD COACH TRACEY DEKEYSER

Ashton, Ontario native Tracey DeKeyser begins her 11th season at Wisconsin, and for the first time at UW she will lead the squad as the interim head coach while Head Coach Mark Johnson takes a one-year leave to coach at the 2010 Olympics. She has been with the program since the drop of the first puck and has done everything from recruiting to co-coaching the team during her tenure.

The energetic DeKeyser, formally known as Cornell, came to Madison after spending the previous year as girls hockey head coach at Cushing Academy in Ashburnham, Mass. DeKeyser led Cushing Academy to a 24-4-2 mark, the most successful season in the history of the program. Her team captured second during the regular season and advanced to the NEPSAC Championship. Most recently, DeKeyser volunteered as a Team Leader at Canada's Under-22 Selection Camp in August 2005.

DeKeyser's playing experiences include four years at Cornell University, as well as one year as a professional in Switzerland for the SC Reinach Lions. While at Cornell, she co-captained the hockey program her senior season and earned Academic All-Ivy honors both her junior and senior years. Cornell helped the Big Red to the Ivy League hockey title during the 1995-96 season and served as assistant captain during the title run. The one-time Cornell rookie of the year also earned team honors as most inspirational player as a sophomore and senior.

Her stay with the SC Reinach Lions was also successful. The Lions placed second overall in the top Swiss hockey league and were crowned Zurich Cup Tournament Champions during her 1997-98 season.

DeKeyser earned her bachelor of science degree in marine ecology from Cornell University in 1997. In the summer of 2007 DeKeyser earned her M.B.A. in the graduate program at Wisconsin. In addition to her time with the hockey program, DeKeyser played forward for a year with the Big Red women's soccer team and is an avid cyclist who has tried her hand competing in triathlons over the past few years, including the 2006 and 2008 Madison Ironman competitions.

DeKeyser and husband Darren DeKeyser were married in May of 2008 and currently reside in Middleton, Wis

12 BADGERS PLAY IN ALL-STAR VS. USA GAME

▶ Three former Badgers scored to help the U.S. Women's National Team to a 6-1 victory over the Western Collegiate Hockey Association All-Stars Friday, Sept. 25, at Xcel Energy Center in the opening game of the Qwest Tour. Team USA outshot the WCHA, 46-15, in the win.

▶ Defensemen Molly Enstrom and Kerry Weiland each tallied a goal along with Jinelle Zaugg-Siergiej while Erika Lawler and Hilary Knight had an assist apiece.

▶ The four Badgers representing the WCHA, Brooke Ammerman, Jasmine Giles, Mallory Deluce and Brittany Haverstock joined the All-Star squad Thursday evening to prepare for the matchup.

▶ Altogether there were 12 Badgers between the two benches and Wisconsin head coach Mark Johnson, who is taking a year off to lead Team USA to the Vancouver Olympics.

STAR SPANGLED BADGERS

▶ Two current and six former Badgers were selected to the 23-player roster for the U.S. Women's National Team. Five of the Badgers were part of the 2009 NCAA championship team, which includes Patty Kazmaier Award winner Jessie Vetter, Erika Lawler, Meghan Duggan, Hilary Knight and Angie Keseley. Former Olympian Molly Engstrom is the only Badger with Olympic experience representing Team USA. Kerry Weiland and Jinelle Zaugg-Siergiej have also had plenty of experience on a U.S. Women's National Team.

▶ Knight and Duggan will sit out the 2009-10 season at Wisconsin to train with the U.S. National Team. Keseley is one of two players selected who has not played on a U.S. National Team prior to the selection.

▶ Weiland, Engstrom, Knight, Duggan, Vetter and Lawler were members of the U.S. Women's National Team that captured back-to-back gold medals at the 2008 and 2009 International Ice Hockey Federation World Women's Championship.

▶ The squad, which will be centralized in the Twin Cities, will take part in the Qwest Tour, a 10-game, nine-city domestic tour that begins on Sept. 25 in St. Paul, Minn., and concludes just prior to the 2010 Olympic Winter Games in Vancouver, B.C.

▶ The team was selected following the 2009 USA Hockey Women's National Festival, which ran from Aug. 19-23 at the National Sports Center in Blaine, Minn. The festival featured 41 of the top female hockey players in the United States, 11 of them had Wisconsin ties.

In seven seasons, Johnson and the UW women's hockey team have continued to shatter both school and national records. Johnson has led UW to the NCAA title game in each of the past four seasons, winning three times.

The Badgers became the only school in the nation to have reached 29 victories in each of the past four campaigns. Since the 2005-06 season, Wisconsin has recorded 135 wins, more than any other team in the nation.

Johnson is taking a one-year sabbatical to be the head coach for the 2010 Olympic U.S. Women's Hockey team to add to his list of incredible accomplishments.
