NCAA TOURNAMENT

Sweet Sixteen - Boston, Mass. - Newton Field - 7 p.m. ET

WISCONSIN

10-5-6

NO. 7 BOSTON COLLEGE

17-3-2

SWEET SIXTEEN BOUND

► The Wisconsin women's soccer team (10-5-6, 5-1-4 Big Ten) is advancing to the Sweet Sixteen after defeating Central Florida in the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Wisconsin will take on second-seeded Boston College for the first time since 2004 when the Badgers earned the 5-3 win.

► The winner will advance to the quarterfinals to take on the winner of the Stanford Santa Clara game.

HOW THEY GOT HERE

► Wisconsin played to a 1-1 draw against Arizona State in the first round of the NCAA Tournament last Friday, but advanced after winning 4-3 in penalty kicks. Leigh Williams scored early from a flip throw-in by Lindsey Johnson at the 1:39 mark. Sophomore keeper, Michele Dalton made two diving saves in the five round shootout to advance to the second round.

► The Badgers took on Central Florida in the second round of the tourney after they defeated UW-Milwaukee 3-0. Wisconsin earned the 1-0 win with Roxanne Carlson's first-half goal. This was Carlson's first career goal with Laurie Nosbusch earning her sixth assist of the season. The Badgers outshot the third-seeded Knights 19-6 in the contest.

BADGERS IN THE NCAA

► The Badgers are making its 15th appearance in the NCAA Tournament since 1985, the most in the Big Ten. The Badgers hold a 12-14-1 NCAA Tournament record.

► Their previous appearance was due to an automatic bid after winning the Big Ten Tournament title in 2005. The Badgers lost in the first round to Marquette, 1-0.

► UW has dropped its previous six second-round games in the NCAA Tournament, advancing to the Sweet 16 for the first time since 1993 when the Badgers advanced to the quarterfinals; however, the tournament was only four rounds and a 16-team field in 1993.

► In 1991, UW made it to the finals beating Hartford and Colorado College on the way. In the finals the Badgers fell to North Carolina, 3-1, marking its best finish in the tournament.

► Head coach Paula Wilkins is no stranger to the NCAA Tournament. In her six years as head coach at Penn State, her team made it to the tournament every year. The Nittany Lions' tournament record under Wilkins is an outstanding 18-5-1.

BADGER NOTES

► UW is riding a nine-game unbeaten streak (5-0-4), the longest since 1996 when the Badgers went 13-straight games without a loss (10-0-3).

► The Badgers' win over Central Florida is their ninth shutout of the season and seventh game won by a score of 1-0. All 10 of UW's wins this season were determined by one goal.

► Wisconsin is now the only team in the Big Ten Conference in the NCAA Tournament after Penn State was upset by Virginia losing 6-2 in the second round. Ohio State, Purdue and Michigan State all dropped their first round contests.

► Wisconsin's shootout win was the first for UW since 2003, when the Badgers knocked off Wilkins' Nittany Lions 4-3 to advance Big Ten Tournament. The pk win over ASU was the first-ever for Wilkins as a coach or player.

► The win over No. 13 Central Florida marks the second ranked opponent UW has knocked off this season. After dropping its first three games, the Badgers are 2-3-2 against ranked opponents this season as they head to No. 7 Boston College. The 3-2 win over the No. 19 Hoosiers on Oct. 4, marked UW's first win against a ranked opponent this season and first under third-year head coach Paula Wilkins. The last time the Badgers defeated a ranked team was Nov. 3, 2005 against No. 20 Purdue.

► The Badgers clinched third place in the Big Ten with the win over Northwestern. The Badgers' third-place finish in the Big Ten marks the program's best finish since the 2000 season, when UW took second place in conference.

► Wisconsin went 5-1-4 in the Big Ten putting them in sole possession of third place, a vast improvement from its 10th place finish last season. UW's 19 points (three points for a win and one for a tie) are the most since the 2000 season when UW finished with a 7-3-0 record (21 points) taking second in the Big Ten.

► The last time UW went through a Big Ten season with fewer than two losses was in 1996, when the team posted a 5-0-2 record.

► Fittingly, Wisconsin finished the season ranked third during Big Ten play for goals, goals per game, assists and assists per game.

► Wisconsin's nine regular season wins matches its win total from a year ago with. The win over Northwestern gives UW the total number of conference wins from the last two seasons combined, five.

► Wisconsin's tough non-conference schedule paid off in the end, going 5-1-4 in conference play and posting their best conference record under head coach Paula Wilkins.

► After the Badgers dropped a tough 6-0 loss to current top-ranked Stanford, the Badgers have only dropped one match since, falling to Minnesota due to a penalty kick in overtime.

► The tie against Penn State snapped the Badgers 12-game losing streak against Wilkins' former Nittany Lions during the regular season. The last time the Badgers tied Penn State during the regular season was Sept. 27, 1996. The Badgers' win over Illinois snapped a seven-game losing streak against the Fighting Illini, dating back to November, 2002.

► Wisconsin went 5-1-4 on its home field this season, dropping just one game to Minnesota in overtime. The Badgers improved to 4-2-1 on the road this season after dropping its first two road and neutral matches.

► Sophomore Laurie Nosbusch leads the Badgers in every category this season after returning as the top leading scorer from a year ago. Nosbusch has six goals and six assists on the season including three game-winning goals. Nosbusch had a five-game scoring streak before the Badgers played to a scoreless draw against Michigan.

► With all of her goals coming during Big Ten play, Nosbusch stands in third in the Big Ten for shots, goals and points during conference play while tying for second in game-winning goals.

► Nine of UW's 21 games have gone into overtime this season, marking the program's most overtimes in a season. The Badgers hold a 2-1-6 overtime record this season after going 1-0-1 last season. Both of the overtime wins came in the second overtime period in 1-0 victories.

► Nosbusch recorded her first career hat trick against Indiana on Oct. 4. It was the teams' first since Taylor Walsh recorded one last year against Vermont and she is only the third Badger to record a hat trick at McClimon. Erica Handelman (1994) and Amy Vermeulen (2004) were the only priors. Handelman's hat trick also came against Indiana on Oct. 2, 1994.

► Michele Dalton has made 19 starts for the Badgers including seven shutouts, with a .786 save percentage and a 1.17 goals-against average.

► The Badgers have had a staggering 133 corner kicks through 21 games this season, including an NCAA-record 23 against Green Bay.

► UW has scored 22 goals this season and allowed 24, with 15 of those coming from ranked opponents. Eleven different Badgers have scored for UW, with five Badgers netting more than one goal. Nosbusch has six while sophomores Erin Jacobsen and Paige Adams each have three. Meghan Flannery and freshmen Alev Kelter have two apiece.

► Wisconsin went 303 scoreless minutes, the longest to start a season in program history, before netting its first goal of the season in its second overtime period against Green Bay. Since its scoreless streak, the Badgers have netted at least one goal in 14 of its last 17 games.

► The Badgers held teams scoreless through 327 minutes before allowing a goal since its first match of the year against No. 3 Notre Dame. The Badgers held opponents scoreless for 459 minutes at McClimon, earning four shutouts on their home field to start the season.

► The Badgers have a young squad with a total of nine freshmen and sophomores in the starting lineup. Four Badger freshmen have taken a starting role for Wisconsin, Alev Kelter, Monica Lam-Feist Lindsey Johnson, and Paige Adams.

SCOUTING THE OPPONENT

Boston College (17-3-2, 7-3-1 ACC)

► This is the Eagles seventh consecutive season making it to the NCAA Tournament. They have made it to the tournament 13 times, nine times under current head coach Alison Kulik.

► Boston College finished its regular season on a four game win streak, but tied Virginia and lost to North Carolina in the ACC Tournament.

► The Eagles defeated Harvard, 1-0, in the first round of the NCAA Tournament and beat Connecticut, 2-0, in the second round.

► Victoria DiMartino has been BC's dominate force this season. The freshman leads the team in goals, with 14, and points, 32. She's also third on the team with four assists.

► Kulik is in her 13th season as the head coach at BC. The Eagles have improved to 154-78-23 during her tenure. In 14 years as a head coach, Kulik is 158-86-26 overall.

► Wisconsin has only faced Boston College once before. In 2004, the Badgers earned the 5-3 victory over the Eagles in the regular season showdown at McClimon.

NOTEWORTHY

► To be the best, you have to play the best. The Badgers' 2009 schedule included eight 2008 NCAA Tournament participants featuring four conference champions. The varied non-conference schedule included NCAA runners-up Notre Dame and College Cup participants Stanford. Six of UW's opponents were ranked in the NSCAA preseason top 25.

► The Badgers were picked to finish seventh in the Big Ten preseason coaches' poll, which marked Wisconsin's highest appearance since Wilkins took over as head coach in 2007. Penn State was picked as the preseason favorite for the seventh-consecutive year with Michigan State and Illinois closing out the top three spots.

► The UW captains are senior Krista Liskevych and junior Taryn Francel in their first season as captains.

► Since 2000 four sister duos have stepped on the field at McClimon to play soccer, and this season brings a new pair with twins Derya and Alev Kelter. The Kelter twins hail from Eagle River, Alaska, and both look to play soccer and hockey for the Badgers. The last Badger to play both soccer and hockey was Amy Vermuelen from 2001-05.

HEAD COACH PAULA WILKINS

Paula Wilkins enters her third season with the Wisconsin women's soccer program. In only two seasons Wilkins has already made giant leaps in rebuilding the program. In her second season, UW finished with a 9-9-1 record finishing the season at .500, and narrowly missed a berth into the Big Ten Tournament. In her first season Wilkins led the Badgers to a 6-11-1 record, marking a three-game improvement overall and a one-game improvement in the Big Ten from 2007 to 2008.

Following the conclusion of her first season Wilkins scored one of the top recruiting classes for 2008, ranking 21st in the nation and marking the highest ranking in UW history. In her first recruiting class, two were named to the 2008 Big Ten All-Freshman Team, Laurie Nosbusch and Erin Jacobsen.

Wilkins has compiled a remarkable 134-39-13 (.755) record, the eighth-highest winning percentage in the nation among active NCAA coaches, in her eight seasons as a head coach. Prior to her start at Wisconsin, Wilkins was the head coach at Penn State for six years. The Nittany Lions earned six NCAA tournament berths, which included two College Cup appearances during her tenure. In addition, Penn State won six Big Ten regular season championships, along with a pair of Big Ten tournament titles.

Wilkins coached nine All-Americans at Penn State, including four-time All-American Christie Welsh, the 2001 player of the year and winner of the prestigious M.A.C. Hermann Trophy. Wilkins also recruited and guided Tiffany Weimer, a three-time All-American, two-time Big Ten offensive player of the year and the conference's record holder in career goals.

Wilkins earned a bachelor's degree in exercise science from UMass in 1994 and was a CoSIDA Academic All-American. Wilkins was inducted into the UMass Hall of Fame in 2009. She later received her master's degree in physiology from Penn State. A native of Middletown, Pa., Wilkins was an NSCAA youth All-American at Middletown Area High School. She also played on a national Olympic Development Program team.
