

MOST COMMONLY ASKED QUESTIONS

- Q: Is WSU responsible for the actions of its boosters and their support groups?
- A: Yes. Boosters are subject to NCAA regulations and WSU is subject to penalties for any violations of NCAA rules by boosters or their support organization. Boosters found in violation of NCAA rules are subject to losing benefits and privileges.
- Q: What actions should boosters take if they become aware of a rules violation?
- A: Boosters should contact the Compliance Office to report and discuss the information pertinent to the violation. Boosters may remain anonymous if they wish. The Compliance Office will review the information and process it as necessary.
- Q: When does a prospect become a student-athlete?
- A: A prospect remains a prospect even after signing a National Letter of Intent. A prospect does not become a WSU student-athlete until he or she reports for regular squad practice or attends class.
- Q: Is the restriction on contacts with prospects applicable to established family, friends and neighbors?
- A: No, however, it must be understood that such contacts may not be made for recruiting purposes and may not be initiated by a member of the institution's coaching staff.

If you have any questions or concerns please contact:

Wright State University Compliance Office
3640 Col. Glenn Highway
Dayton, OH 45431
(937) 775-2830
www.wsuraiders.com

Rules of the Game

NCAA RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR ALUMNI AND SUPPORTERS OF WRIGHT STATE UNIVERSITY

Dear Fans, Friends & Alumni,

As an Wright State University season ticket holder, alumnus, donor or member of the Raider Club, you are by NCAA definition a representative of Wright State University's athletics interests. Those who actively support WSU athletics are an integral part in the overall success of the program. Your support enables our student-athletes to train and prepare in quality facilities, compete against challenging opponents and receive superior coaching. Your level of support is vital to the outcome of contests and competitions.

We value your interest and support, but we must remind you that an inappropriate action on your part can jeopardize the eligibility of a student-athlete, prospect and/or the compliance of the University with the Horizon League and NCAA regulations.

The NCAA has strictly limited the role you, as a Raider fan, may assume with regard to prospects and student-athletes. This guide is intended to provide you with a basic understanding of NCAA rules and regulations that you should know as someone who cares about intercollegiate athletics.

While this guide does not include all applicable legislation, it does include the most common situations encountered by fans, friends & alumni and the most important rules governing these situations.

Compliance with NCAA rules is of the highest priority for our athletics program and institution. As a member of the NCAA, WSU is responsible for the action of its alumni, supporters and fans. Even the best-intentioned action on your part may be a violation of NCAA rules. Please contact the Compliance Office if you have any questions regarding what is permissible.

Remember to "Ask Before You Act!"

Wright State University appreciates its fans, friends & alumni who strive for the highest level of ethical conduct while supporting the student-athlete's goals for both academic and athletics success.

We thank you for your support.

RECRUITING DEFINITIONS

Representative of Athletics Interests

A "representative of the institution's athletics interests" is anyone who is known (or who should have been known) by a member of the institution's executive or athletics administration to:

- Have participated in or to be a member of an agency or organization promoting the institution's intercollegiate athletics program (Raider Club);
- Have made financial contributions to the Athletics Department or to a WSU booster organization;
- Assisted or has been requested by WSU staff to assist in the recruitment of prospects;
- Assisted in providing benefits to enrolled student-athletes or their families;
- Have been involved otherwise in promoting the institution's athletics program; or
- Participated as a varsity student-athlete at WSU.

Please be reminded that once an individual is identified as a "representative of the institution's athletics interest," the person retains that identity FOREVER.

Prospective Student-Athlete

A prospective student-athlete (prospect) is a student who has:

- Started classes for the ninth grade
- Ever received any financial assistance or other benefit prospective students do not generally receive.

An individual remains a prospect until one of the following occurs (whichever is earlier):

- The individual officially registers for and enrolls in a minimum full-time program of studies and attends classes in any term of a four-year collegiate institution's regular academic year.
- The individual participates in a regular squad practice or competition at a four-year collegiate institution that occurs before the beginning of any term.

Remember a prospect remains a prospect even after signing a National Letter of Intent with WSU.

RECRUITING DO'S AND DON'TS

Only authorized institutional staff members are permitted to recruit prospective student-athletes. The NCAA prohibits all boosters from the following:

- DO NOT telephone, write or make in-person contact (either on or off-campus) with a prospect for recruiting purposes.
- DO NOT become directly or indirectly involved in making arrangements for a prospect, the prospect's relatives or friends to receive money or financial assistance of any kind.
- DO NOT provide any transportation costs to prospects, their relatives or friends to campus to attend athletics events.
- DO NOT contact a prospect's coach, principal or counselor in an attempt to evaluate the prospect.
- DO NOT visit a prospect's school to acquire films or transcripts in an attempt to evaluate the prospect's academic or athletics eligibility.
- DO NOT entertain any coach from a junior or senior high school, preparatory school, or junior college or provide them with tickets, gifts, or other benefits.
- DO NOT provide free tickets or tickets at a reduced cost to any WSU home or away event to prospects, their relatives or friends.
- DO NOT mail anything, including newspapers, clippings, posters, programs, etc. to prospects.
- DO NOT use WSU game footage, a student-athlete or photograph of a student-athlete in any commercial advertisements without first contacting Wright State University Athletics.
- DO NOT attempt to sell a picture of a student-athlete. It may jeopardize their eligibility at WSU.
- DO NOT provide any information pertaining to WSU's student-athletes to gambling operations.

Continued on next page

Recruiting Do's and Don'ts (continued)

- DO NOT contact student-athletes enrolled in other four-year institutions regarding the possibility of transferring to WSU and participating in its athletics program.

Even though there are many rules prohibiting your involvement with prospects and the recruiting process, as a booster you are permitted to do the following:

- DO feel free to send newspaper clippings and other information about prospects to WSU's coaching staff.
- DO feel free to attend high school or two-year college athletics contests, provided no contact with the prospect, prospect's parents, or coach occurs.
- DO continue existing friendships, provided solicitation of a prospect's enrollment does not occur.
- DO notify the Compliance Office of employment possibilities for student-athletes.

EXTRA BENEFITS

The NCAA defines an extra benefit as any special arrangement by an institutional employee or a representative of the institution's athletics interests to provide a student-athlete or the student-athlete's relative or friend a benefit not expressly authorized by NCAA legislation.

Specifically prohibited financial aid, benefits and arrangements include, but are not limited to, the following:

- An employment arrangement for a prospect's relative
- Gift of clothing or equipment
- Cosigning of loans
- Providing loans to a prospect's relatives or friends
- Cash or like items
- Any tangible items, including merchandise

Continued on next page

Extra Benefits (continued)

Prohibited benefits (continued):

- Free or reduced-cost services, rentals or purchases
- Free or reduced-cost housing
- Free use of personal property
- Providing discounts for goods and services
- Providing use of an automobile
- Providing transportation
- Providing tickets to an athletics, institutional or community event
- Providing a promise of financial assistance for postgraduate education

EMPLOYMENT

Boosters may contact a prospect to discuss a summer job ONLY after the prospect has signed a National Letter of Intent to attend Wright State University. In addition, boosters MAY NOT employ or arrange employment of a high school prospective student-athlete until the prospect has completed all classes and graduated from high school.

In addition, boosters MAY NOT employ or arrange employment of a two-year college prospective student-athlete until the prospect has officially withdrawn from or completes requirements for graduation at the two-year college.

Enrolled student-athletes are permitted to be employed during the regular academic year as well as during official vacation periods. Prior to the student-athlete's employment they must receive written approval to work from the Compliance Office. Once employment is approved, the student-athlete must complete and sign the contract and information form. This form contains information and agreements ensuring compliance with NCAA student-athlete employment legislation.

Continued on next page

Employment (continued)

Please note the following restrictions regarding the employment of student-athletes:

- Student-athletes may be paid only for work actually performed.
- Student-athletes must be paid at a rate commensurate with the going rate in that locality for similar services.
- Transportation may not be provided to student-athletes unless it is a benefit provided to all employees.
- A student-athlete may not be paid on the basis of his/her athletics ability, reputation or fame.
- Employers may not advertise a student-athlete's employment to generate extra business, nor may they use a student-athlete's name or picture to advertise, promote, or recommend the sale or use of any commercial product or service.
- A student-athlete cannot endorse a company or employer through public advertising mediums.
- Student-athletes cannot be provided with any benefits not provided to other employees. This includes the use of vehicles, transportation to or from work, meals, loans, advances, or time off with pay.

Please note all employers and student-athletes are subject to NCAA regulations and penalties for any violations.

CONSEQUENCES to BOOSTERS FOR NCAA VIOLATIONS

Boosters are a vital contributor to the success of WSU Athletics. As such, it is important that you assist us by adhering to all NCAA rules. Even though your intent may be to always help promote WSU Athletics, please be sure your actions do not violate NCAA rules.

If a violation occurs, it may:

- Jeopardize a student-athlete's eligibility for intercollegiate competition.
- Jeopardize WSU's membership status with the NCAA.
- Cause you to lose your access to all booster benefits.