CAMP OBJECTIVES

The primary purpose of West Texas A&M University's All-Star Boys' Basketball Camps is to improve the fundamental techniques of basketball players and explore advanced practices of the sport. The camp's formula includes instruction, fun, fellowship and awards to improve each camper's game. It is an excellent supplement to AAU and/or summer leagues. IT IS ALSO HARD WORK!

CAMP DIRECTOR

RICK COOPER, WTAMU HEAD COACH

Head coach Rick Cooper, WTAMU's all-time winningest head coach, has taken the Buffs to seven NCAA Regional Tournaments in his 15 years at the helm of the program, including a trip to the NCAA Division II Elite Eight in 1997-98. Under his direction, WTAMU has captured a record six Lone Star Conference Championships.

Entering the 2007-08 campaign, Cooper held a 426-181 record in 20 seasons as a head coach, including a 284-133 mark in 14 years at WTAMU. Most recently, Cooper garnered his second consecutive LSC South Coach of the Year award after guiding the Buffs to a co-LSC South Championship and South Central Regional Tournament Appearance.

Cooper has been named LSC South Coach of the Year five times, including after the 2006-07 season

JUSTIN ASHLEY

Joining Coach Cooper in direction of the camps will be WTAMU assistant coach Justin Ashley, who has spend three seasons on the WTAMU bench.

Ashley, a native of Clovis, N.M., joined the Buffs after serving as a graduate assistant at LSC foe Northeastern State, where he served for two years. Ashley earned his bachelor's degree in Spanish education from New Mexico State in 2002, where he was administrative assistant coach on legendary head coach Lou Henson's staff.
