"They're terrific! They are. They're terrific guards. They are a handful, and we have tremendous respect for them."

"I've been watching them for two years, and they're good -- they're very good."

-- Steve Fisher, Head Coach San Diego State Aztecs

"The Wyoming guards are very tough to defend. It's amazing to me how small they are and yet how well they get to the rack. They draw fouls well, and they get to the line a bunch. They are definitely two of the toughest guards that we have played all year."
