Oklahoma State, Oklahoma invade AA

On the Slate

The Pokes begin their home dual season when two nationally ranked opponents come to town. The action starts Jan. 1 when UW will face No. 2 Oklahoma State at 2 p.m. the Arena Auditorium. On Jan. 3, No. 9 Oklahoma visits Laramie for a 7 p.m. showdown. Wyoming (0-1 overall) lost to both schools last season on the road.

Oklahoma State currently is 3-0 and will battle Boise State in Idaho on Friday prior to making the trip to Laramie. Oklahoma is 3-1 on the season and will take part in the Midlands Tournament in Chicago on Dec. 29-30.

Last time out: Reno Tournament of Champions

Senior Shane Onufer was the top performer for the Cowboys on Dec. 18 when he won the 165-pound weight-class title in the Reno Tournament of Champions.

Wyoming scored 115.5 team points to trail only Oklahoma State in the team standings, and seven Cowboys placed in the top five.

Onufer, who won the 2010 RTOC 165-pound title, went 4-0 and beat third-seeded and 20th-ranked Dallas Bailey of Oklahoma State in the title match to take the 165-pound crown. Onufer proved he was worthy of the top seed in the weight class by defeating Bailey in a 7-4 decision in the championship match, and had one fall and one major decision Sunday. The senior now is 15-1 on the season.

Senior Michael Martinez, ranked 17th and seeded second, finished fourth in the 125-pound bracket, earning a 4-2 overall mark. Martinez made it to the semifinals but fell to Ladd Rupp of Oklahoma State. He dropped down to the consolation brackets and beat teammate Kasey Garnhart to get to the third-place match, but lost to Mitchell Lofstedt of Southern Oregon in a 3-2 decision.

Garnhart, a junior, was fifth, beating Air Force's Greg Rinker in the fifth-place match in a 10-2 major decision. Garnhart tallied a 4-2 record with one fall and one major decision.

Redshirt freshman Zach Zehner was second in the 133-pound bracket, grinding out a 4-1 mark. Zehner, ranked 17th and seeded second, suffered his lone loss of the

Head Coach Mark Branch

Mark Branch completed his third season as head coach of the Wyoming Cowboys in 2010-11, as the program continued to show dramatic signs of improvement under his direction.

In 2010-11, Branch continued that success with another stellar campaign. After spending the entire dual season ranked in the top 20 in the nation, Wyoming won its second-consecutive West Regional team title with five Cowboys claiming individual titles. Branch was named Western Wrestling Conference Coach of the Year at the event for a second time in his career. UW has claimed 12 total individual titles at the event under Branch and has never finished outside the top two. Branch also upped his total of UW wrestlers to earn All-WWC honors to 23 total with seven more honorees in 2010-11.

Branch also helped the Cowboys continue that success at the NCAA Championships with six Cowboy qualifiers. Juniors Shane Onufer (165) and Joe LeBlanc (184) earned All-America honors by placing fifth and sixth, respectively, to lead Wyoming to a 28th-place team finish. UW wrestlers have earned four All-America honors under Branch, including three straight by LeBlanc.

During the season, the Cowboys rolled to an 11-7 overall dual mark and 5-1 in the WWC. UW's lone dual loss in WWC action came in the last matchup of the season at Northern Iowa and was Branch's first dual loss in the WWC. He has compiled a 16-1 mark against WWC teams with two regular-season dual titles.

In 2009-10, Branch directed the Cowboy wrestlers to the West Regional team title over the 24-time defending champion Northern Iowa Panthers with three Cowboy individual titles. The come-from-behind championship was Wyoming's first-ever West Regional team title and UW's first tournament conference championship team since 1992.

event in the title bout versus No. 1-ranked Jordan Oliver of Oklahoma State, a match in which Oliver pinned him at the 1:32 mark.

Wyoming's Patrick Martinez (174 pounds) finished fourth, losing in the consolation final to Lance Bryson of West Virginia in a 4-2 decision. Martinez went 4-2 for the tournament with one fall and one major decision.

In the 184-pound title tilt, senior Joe LeBlanc lost his first match of the season when Oklahoma State's Chris Perry, ranked seventh, defeated him in a 3-2 decision. LeBlanc, ranked third and seeded first, finished second overall and now is 15-1 on the year.

Redshirt junior Alfonso Hernandez nabbed third place in the 197-pound bracket, beating Ryan Smith of Cal Poly in a 1-0 decision in the consolation final. Hernandez had one of his best tournaments to date, cruising to a 5-1 mark with one pin, two major decisions and one technical fall.

Primetime performer

Onufer was chosen as one of 26 CollegeSports360.com "Primetime Performers of the Week," announced Dec. 20. The award made its debut the same day. Onufer's title in the RTOC earned him the award.

This listing provides a quick look at noteworthy feats from the previous week and is a way for new or casual fans to learn about various college sports – while also paying tribute to some athletes who may be more well-known on a national level.

Selection criteria include for the award is as follows:

- Performed at a high level in a game/event that involves a team receiving votes in the national polls or in a game/event that is key to the team's postseason achievements.
- In general, preference is given based on the quality of the opponent, contribution to team success and situational factors involved in the player's accomplishments.
- Exhibited strong leadership and/or involved in clutch performances, such as game-winning goals, noteworthy comebacks, late scores, momentum-shifting play, all-around performance, team spirit, etc.
- Overcame adversity or extreme circumstances (for the team and/or individual).
- Bonus consideration is given for key performances away from team's home field and/or against a traditional rival.

New faces

Wyoming features 12 redshirt freshman on its roster, some of whom could make their way into the starting lineup at some point during the season. With the departure of three seniors from last year's team, expect some younger wrestlers to be in contention for mat time. Three redshirts were in the starting lineup in the dual versus Nebraska, including Zehner, Richardson and Friesth.

Back in business

Hernandez has been stellar this year after missing all of last season with a back injury. Hernandez is the Cowboy leader in wins (23) and is second with seven major decisions, all while cementing his place in the starting lineup for duals at 197 pounds.

League recognition

Four Cowboys have been honored by the Western Wrestling Conference this year.

Onufer is just the latest UW grappler to be recognized for his performance, receiving the WWC Wrestler of the Week award Dec. 20 for his efforts in the Reno Tournament of Champions. Onufer also was the WWC Wrestler of the Week for the week of Nov. 15. Onufer has won the award twice this year and six times in his UW career.

Zehner was named WWC Co-Wrestler of the Week for the week of Dec. 13 for the first time in his career.

LeBlanc was the third Cowboy to be named Wrestler of the Week this season, as he received the honor for the week of Dec. 6. It was LeBlanc's fourth career honor.

Garnhart was named the Co-Wrestler of the Week by the league for the week of Nov. 22. It was the first of Garnhart's season and first of his career.

You've arrived

Even though it's his first year in the starting lineup, Zehner has proven he belongs. The 133-pound redshirt freshman has wrestled seven ranked wrestlers this season, winning four of those matches. He beat Nebraska's Ridge Kiley three straight times, when Kiley was ranked 17th and 18th, respectively, in the nation in consecutive weeks. He also beat Stanford's Ryan Mango, who received All-America honors last season and was ranked fifth in the nation at the time of the match.

Reaching a milestone

Michael Martinez became the third current Cowboy wrestler to win 100 career matches on Dec. 3. The senior became the 11th wrestler in Cowboy history to reach the mark. Martinez's win over David Prado in the Las Vegas Invitational gave him 100 for his storied career. He now has won 106 matches overall and is just three wins shy of the top-10 all-time career wins list.

During the 2010-11 season, LeBlanc and Onufer became the ninth and 10th wrestlers in UW history to crack the 100-career win mark. LeBlanc passed the mark Feb. 3 against Air Force and currently holds a 128-18 mark. He now is fourth on UW's all-time list, just 10 wins away from tying for second.

Onufer accomplished the feat at the 2011 West Regional. His 10-2 major decision over Northern Iowa's Trevor Kittleson in the semifinals made him the 10th UW wrestler to accomplish the feat, as he now stands at 121-22 in his career. He is in fifth place all-time.

Halfway there

Patrick Martinez reached the 50-win mark for his career in the Reno Tournament of Champions on Dec. 18. His 50th win was a 10-1 major decision over Southern Oregon's Brock Gutches. Helbig reached his 50th win on Dec. 2 with a 17-6 major decision over Tyler Cowman of Brown in the Las Vegas Invitational. He now has 52 career wins.

At Nebraska

The Cowboys dropped a close dual on the road Dec. 10 to the 21st-ranked Nebraska Cornhuskers, 19-15.

Garnhart, Zehner, LeBlanc and Hernandez each won their matches for the Pokes.

Garnhart started in the 125-pound bout versus Shawn Nagel, and earned a dominating win for the Pokes. Garnhart pinned Nagel at the 6:37 mark. Zehner, ranked 16th, beat No. 18 Ridge Kiley in the 133-pound bout, winning a 4-3 decision.

LeBlanc, ranked third in the country, picked up a nice win over No. 10 Josh Ihnen in the 184-pound match, winning a 4-3 decision. In the last match of the night, the

Cliff Keen Las Vegas Invitational

Seniors LeBlanc (184 pounds) and Onufer (165) won their weight-class title, and five other UW wrestlers placed in the top eight in the conclusion of the two-day event.

Wyoming finished third in the team standings, just behind champion Ohio State and runner-up Michigan.

Onufer went 5-0 on the weekend en route to the 165-pound crown.

LeBlanc beat Josh Ihnen (Nebraska) and Steve Bosak of Cornell. LeBlanc was solid in the title match, beating Bosak in a 7-3 decision.

Michael Martinez (125) recovered from a loss to win two matches in the consolation bracket, but lost to Western Wrestling Conference foe Trent Sprenkle of North Dakota State in the fifth/sixth place match. He dropped a 3-1 decision to Sprenkle to finish sixth.

Zehner finished fifth in the 133-pound bracket after qualifying for the semifinals with three wins.

Friesth, a redshirt freshman at 157 pounds, finished eighth overall.

Patrick Martinez was fourth at 174 pounds. He started Saturday with three straight wins to get to the third/fourth-place match, but couldn't get by fourth-ranked Nick Heflin of Ohio State, who won a close 3-2 decision.

Hernandez was fourth at 197 pounds. Hernandez won three bouts on Saturday in the consolation bracket to get to the third-place match, but lost a 5-3 decision to No. 7 Matthew Wilps of Pittsburgh.

NWCA All-Star Classic

LeBlanc showed why he's one of the top wrestlers in the nation Nov. 21 in the NWCA All-Star Classic.

LeBlanc scored a late takedown to get past No. 8 Ben Bennett of Central Michigan. LeBlanc overcame an early deficit to claim the 5-4 decision.

Onufer wrestled well, but fell to No. 3 Josh Asper of Maryland in a hard-fought 6-4 decision.

The matches were exhibition and did not count toward season records or national rankings.

Kearney Open

The Cowboy wrestlers took advantage of their opportunities Nov. 19 in the Kearney Open and won six weight-class titles.

Garnhart won the Elite tournament title at 125 pounds. Cox, competing unattached, was third and Michael Martinez was fourth at 125.

In the Elite 133 class, Zehner finished third, while sophomore Jake Eitzen was 2-2 and was fourth overall. Redshirt freshman Mike Hamel finished fifth at 141 pounds, while Smith was second at 149 pounds. Richardson was fifth at 149 and Friesth was fifth at 157 pounds.

Onufer went 2-0 on his way to the 165-pound title. Pat Martinez went 4-0 en route to the 174-pound championship and senior Dallas Hintz was fifth at 174 pounds.

LeBlanc put on a dominating display during his 184-pound title run, going 3-0 with one pin and two wins by technical fall. He was named the tournament's Most Outstanding Wrestler.

Hernandez won his second tournament title of the season, going 4-0 in the 197-pound bracket, beating teammate L.J. Helbig in a 7-2 decision in the title tilt.

Freshman Jace Jensen finished fourth in the Amateur 165 division, but the star of the Amateur bracket for the Cowboys was freshman V.J. Giulio. He was the 184-pound champ of the Amateur division, going 4-0 on the day.

Cowboy Open

The War Memorial Fieldhouse served as the friendly confines to the Wyoming wrestling program Nov. 12, as four Cowboys took home tournament titles at the Cowboy Open.

Michael Martinez (125 pounds), Smith (149), Onufer (165) and LeBlanc (184) each won their respective weight class, finishing a combined 14-0 in the Elite brackets. Onufer has won the Cowboy Open in his weight class every year since 2008.
